Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXVIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY. PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1884.

NO. 32.

proceed longing, nary daily three, on of their member. or our busy brain. to said gardeer flowers ar with love and fame, paring hearts will wander and leve's bright flame.

deepest, tenderest spot.

not feel that for this warfare

med the light of heaven's shore. OLD AT NIGHTFALL

quehart and my respected self tile villa, at Frascati, near over the rounded tops of a leaden sky the gloomy Camstohed like a dead sea, and far rim out the disc, a porten-

Guy and I had been old friends and lows in England. He was two Besides, I had looked on Guy a felt rather wicked in his comnever to do anything wrong, have so much as a wrong thought the arrangement of his own is destiny made a civil engineer sible fancy or protest of the aturally, he did not take kindly

I came to Italy to study art, and I kept up a pretty brisk cornce for about a twelvemonth. my second Italian summer his but when I went to the copse behind suddenly ceased to arrive. I Ringwood house, where I had implored to him in vain hope of answer

drawled out one of these amiable about poor Urquehart, apital little pictures. tone. You have seen how Uronehart's acter went before him, as Sir Peter ommunity, and what mercy waves, I felt convinced that I onld do so in Urquehart's case, if ever

But I could not try to thrust myself ened to me. I could not help guessthat there was a shut and locked , behind which lurked the solution great and grievous change in my friend, ge was all the more remarkable it was not always obvious. No two ould be more unlike than Urquet to Urquehart in different moods, ctued to me as if much evil had wed into his heart by some rent where | tressed. good had run out, but that the als September evening, as we sat er, Guy had been muttering some me more if I had not attributed

What do you mean ?" returned he gel, half-devil, they say. But get and devil seem to share their s, as it were. Your angel never uself on the angelical prayer in contac without disturbing the my of the system; but they seem agree to differ, like certain polite and blew out a long smoke Then he leaned head and out of the window, and stared I away at the sun, now like a clot of ood on the hvid horizon, till even that speck was absorbed. Then he ion in a corner of the ricketty old when I stood there face to face with sofa, and from that dusky corner oung friend, with your moral critical Your sagacity really deserved atting for having snapped up such a good head of game. Still, you don' thow how the devil got into me; how on? He bad hardly set claw friend when we were boys to and I rather the better boy of

At that time (and what a little while go it is, after all !) you really capable of evil, or even of compre sending it. You trusted everybody "An ass!" roared Urquehart, "Au

So, as the night fell, and "the case ment slowly grew aglimmering square'n the blackness, Urquehart's tale was

"Fourteen months ago, I was lodg ng for the summer in a farmhouse i village, no matter where. The only ouse there belonging to gentlefolks x ept the wretched old parsonage, was quite Ringwood's. It was a big, stid looking mansion, on a hill, staring lown overbearingly at the poor little nements huddled together below; and he burly squire himself was for all the world like his house, as he sat on he all horse, and looked down pompousl over his vast waistcoat at a frightened crew of village children. The squire had an ugly, sickly wife and daugister and they had an humble companie that was an angel of beauty. I fell in love with her at church. Oh, the little burch in the west country, bid in the bowery orchard hollow ! Oh, the sudden lelicious gust that littered the graves with blossoms I-your mother's grave. Charley; has the dear woman the vio lets I planted there? or did they die like the falth and hope she set in me? I fell in love with Fanny Vale before the studio window of his deknew her name; I learned that from the farmhouse folks with whom I odged. They told me, moreover, that she was a young widow, and still in weeds when she came to lodge very humbly in the village six months before that the squire's wife and daughter had d-red ball, slowly, slowly sink- taken a fancy to her, and had adopted her into their family, as a kind of reader and companion of all work. I made her acquaintance by a note which e years older than myself, but I threw at her feet over a hedge the of made his friendship for me all first time I spied her walking alone. I need not swear to you that I never had an evil wish or thought about her. a kind of genial young saint. I had To me a woman was a holy thing, desecrated by no lowness of condition. course he really seemed, quite deserving of any gentleman's love and reverence, if endowed with certain qualities. These qualities I now took on have chosen art as his pro- trust, and, being enchanted by her I knew, had he been allowed a beauty, saw also the perfection of moral loveliness in her face. Such an angelic but the bilious old father who face, Charley! There she sat in th squire's pew, beside her ugly patroness es, with such intelligence in her melan-choly blue eye and fair half-moon of brow, such a breathing sensibility in nork though he buskled to it her silence; and when I came to know her, what sympathy in her smile, what silken manners, so soft, graceful, ca-ressing, yet modest and full of suave She did not answer my note her to meet me, she was there. She as months, and then let the corre came, she said, only to beg me to come, came, she said, only to beg me to come, at you and despised you. I only margo with a sigh.

ascertained that he was alive dependent, and the least suspicion fall dependent, and the least suspicion fallfriendless on the world. I will not dwell ssip retailed out by certain on this stale love story; it was perfectly commonplace of its kind, except that the flight across the sea one win-perched in Rome. "Got into about a woman, and didn't consented to be my wife; and at the il to her, or something of the summer's ead, without asking her a single question as to her past, without And this was all I could knowing more of it than the farm folk had volunteered to tell me the first day I saw her, I brought this girl to Lon Lo! he had inherited a don, and married her. That's what time from a distant relation; came of being too good for this world. thrown civil engineering over- incapable of evil, or the comprehension andy art in earnest at last; and of my intended marriage to (I frankly of it. I had written to tell my father should the ensuing summer in confessed) a perfectly obscure and pengratura together, eating figs at niless young woman, that had of course everything but position and wealth to recommend her. I wrote a respectful and had already painted one or letter which I received back in a blank cover. Yet my heart yearned to the cross-grained old man, and from the rate in scandal as grand old glory and joy of my fool's paradise I emerged voluntarily, before the honeymoon was over, to seek a reconciliation

"When I got to his door, he drove mei with. Now, when circumstances me away like a beggar, like a strange served up in this mixed way, there dog, with his lifted stick, with his mouth full of curses. That is the last race like pebbles through disturb | I ever saw of him. He died, six months after, implacable.

"I hurried back to town, to be com forted by the angel in my house, I returned sooner than I was looked for. I when she married me, notwithstanding to any chamber of his past not freely went softly up stairs to surprise my It was about two in the after noon. Our little drawing-room had folding doors, which were now ajar. f a mystery. This mystery was the No one was in the front room, but I heard- I heard my wife's voice in the other. I heard her voice and a man's. of two or three years. And this I had but to step forward, and I saw-

It was quite dark by this time, and here the noice that had come out of Urquehart's black corner suddenly broke into an awful sob, "Don't go on," said I, much dis-

"Let me alone," gasped Urquehart, savagely. In less than a minute he resumed

"I saw my wife with her arms round a man's neck. She was passionately entreating him not to leave her; he a part to some unripe peaches and was trying to release himself. The e state of his stomach.
"Guy," said I suddenly, "I've found apart. Then, instantly, my wife, that to much that makes people gasp | tender angel, flung herself at me like a wild cat. She did not scream, but through her shut teeth she said, 'I'll kill you, I'll kill you, if you touch him! Her blue eyes glared much like yonder blue lightning that keeps flashing out there, and something glittered close to my face. She had snatched up her forbearance. They seem to scissors, and I verily believe would have you turn and turn about, in dug them into my temple if the man, her lover, had not come and pulled down her hand. She was going to fall into his arms again, but he put her with equal politeness, never in her to sit down. She obeyed him instantly. I cannot in the least describe my state of mind all this time, which was only a minute or two, I suppose.

My impression is that I had ceased to feel; that if my brain and heart had been scooped out, I could not have been emptier of emotion and thought : that I was not conscious of any vindic tive rage, or any transport of despair. Some people may think I ought to have kicked that man down stairs. I neither did so, nor felt any desire to hurt him It was he who took the initiative, and made me a sign to go into the front room with him which I did. Then, > nim, I said suddenly, and, as it were, involuntarily-"'I am sorry for you,' said he, in gentle drawl, looking at me quite compassionately; 'this woman has treated you very badly. Still, you know, you have only yourself to thank. Your onduct has really been quite inconceiv-ably rash, you know-'Who are you?' I repeated, staring

" 'I am Captain Edward Ringwood, This woman is an actress, whom I be ame acquainted with about a year or wo before you first saw her. I assure ou I knew nothing of your love affair r proposed marriage. If I had known a time, I should certainly have condered it my duty to warn you of the wful blunder you were making. When went abroad with my regiment, it ems she chose to go down and wriggle erself into my family. What her move was, I can't imagine. She is a ost artful, dangerous person, that is lear. She saw my return to England the papers yesterday, and sent me a ote inviting me to come and see her ou my word of honor I had not been ere ten minutes when you made your open ance. She had just told me she as married, and this was your house pon which I got up and wished her

"By this time I had found myself nable to stand, and was sitting on e sofa with my head between my ands. When Captain Ringwood left off speaking, I looked up, meaning to ay something, but forgot what it was, ad only stared at kim silently.

"He was a fair, slight young man, about thirty, with handsome, thin fea-tures, and large, light-brown whiskers. He stood there looking at me with the ame good-natured concern in his face hat he had expressed in words, in his ashionable, affected way. "At last I recollected what I had een going to say, and told him I wished be left alone. He silently took out is card, laid it on the chimney-piece, nd went out. "I don't know how many hours I reained lying on the sofa, with my eyes

nut, in that strange torpor; but it was night when I opened them, and found my wife standing by me. She had nece, and was stooping down over me. she started upright as my eyes opened out she did not avoid them. She con-fronted me, arching back her nymphike figure, and leaning one hand on a table behind her. I felt no emotion at ight of her, but looked at her as it she | gold had been a picture. Her beauty was plendid. All her fair golden hair was arned off her white face in a sort of glittering aureola. Her great turquoisene eyes flared under slightly conracted brows; the nostrils of her deli cate, straight nose, and ner infantine bouth expressed rage and pain.

"'I am glad you are awake,' she; 'I want you to hear me say I hate "'I don't care,' said I, wearily. 'Go

"Her face flamed out with the fury that was burning her heart. " 'But you do care!' she cried; 'you shall care! I tell you I always laughed between us, I hate you-I abhor you! How dare you smile at me? I'll kill "I was quite unconscious of smiling; broat. I caught her hand; this time she had a penknife in it, and I felt that she had pricked me. That instinctive act of self-defence roused me, and of the step. Then follow prayers on probably saved my wits as well as my life, behalf of the bridegroom and bride, When I had mastered her, and thrown he knife away, I held her hands in ine till she put down her face and bit after which the priest places on the them savagely. I tied her wrists with head of each a crown "as a reward for my pockethandkerchief, and she sank the preservation of chastity and as a he unhappy creature burst out crying of a numerous and honorable posterity, as if her heart, was broken—as it well and also to remind them that they are might be. Probably Ringwood's cool first to rule their own passions and then reatment of her throughout the interiew recently passed, was at the bottom of that frenzy of vituperation, that desperate behavior toward me. She did not hate me, but was simply mad with ain, and raved and struck out in her delirium. I think she really liked me opened the door by a latch key, and her assertion to the contrary, and meant and wis ed to lead a new life; but the sight of R1 gwood's name in the papers, and the knowledge of his near ness, in my absence, revived her passion for him, in which her good resolutions burnt like straw. I released her hands, and brought water and put it to her lips; and when she was quiet through exhaustion, I advised her to lie down, and hoped she would go to sleep. As I was leaving the room, she called me back, in a low, broken voice, and when I stood beside the sofa on which she lay, she joined her hands, and asked me, with streaming eves to forgive her. I did so, freely. Of course, Ringwood was right. I had no one but myself to thank. My infatuation had been so nonstrous, that I could no more complain of the consequences than a man, ober, can complain of the consequences of some drunken folty. "In the morning I took Fanny away to a farmhouse in Kent, a place she knew of, and chose herself for a retreat. She was quiet and humble, and apparently broken-spirited. But she did not remain there a month; nor do been ever since. Before she left he wrote me a long letter expressing ner remorse at her behavior toward me: bad as I am,' ended she, 'I will never trouble you more. I do implore you to be sure of that, and to forget me, or to hink of me as dead." "I am afraid to think of her at all. made every possible effort to trace er, quite in vain; and I hardly know where would be the good if I succeeded. "That's all," added Urquehart, after moment's pause; "and there's the istory of your friend and the wife of his bosom; and if you still wonder how or when my devil got into me, I don't. I believe you love me enough to think ie is not so black a devil as he is painted. I am not the kind of man in whose heart such a gash could be made, and heal, and leave no mark. For a long while this world seemed, and often does seem, really an Inferno; nothing but plunging and breaking one's heart in a swamp of suffering, with intervals of quiet from mere exhaustion and despair. O Charley! how I wished your mother had been alive! I wanted some kind woman, that was honest and pure, about me : we men all do in our dark hour. Basta !- let us go down to the drawing-room, and our friends, and the mighty storm brewing, young fellamp. By Jove, what a flash ! 'There's Russo-creek Marriage.

As the marriage service of the Russo-Greek church differs considerably from entures may prove interesting. Noth- business friend in Detroit yesterday. ng can be done in Russia without a not to be wondered at, then, that mar-riage should be preceded by the produc-your present calling?" ion of the young people's passports and an exhaustive inquiry into their priest is put down in the parish regis- take in my early life, and I'll tell you try, and the first thing the bride and how it was : bridegroom and their witnesses have to promises. The betrothal takes place life and so, under a sort of compulsion. near the porch, the bridegroom standing | we went the old gentleman's way. while the rings signify the indissoluble doubt, takes more pleasure in his office band between them. The bridegroom's day by day than he could possibly ex ring is of gold, the bride's of silver, to show the dependence of the one on the "Better let your own honorable sucright. When the bridegroom accepts the silver ring he shows his willingness feel because you wern't introduced to tare and tret."

to love and cherish his wife and condescend to her natural weakness. She. on the other hand, acquires a share in the rights, privileges, and honors of her husband. The priest prays "that the Lord may confirm their bethrothal in d made myself their servant. their life," Prayer for the czar and only to hear of him, and to feel nearer | the holy synod bring the betrothal to an | known that the governor had arrived, iim, and be where he had been-I love end. It will be observed that the light- the people were much excited in their him so! I love no one else in the world ed tapers recall a similar custom anxiety to behold the august ruler.

—I never did. I would kili you, and a amongst the ancient Greeks, and the Old Sam Fellers, who had walked fifozen like you, to save him from a fin- learned say that the gold and silver teen miles to be present on the occagerache. I would rather a thousand rings represent the sun and the moon, sion, turned to a friend, after an unsatmes have a blow from him than a kiss whose union the ancient Slavonians rom you-a hundred million times! held to be symbolized in marriage as their decendents that of Christ and the Bill ?" When I think of him, and that you are church. For the marriage itself the kneel down before it on one kerchief out she darted at me, and struck at my (to signify that henceforth they have hroat. I caught her hand; this time one lot); the officiating priest ask them if they marry of free will and with a thorough appreciation of the importance that they may be endowed with all vir-

Lord to Adam and Eve.

Things that are Cheap

Only three things are cheap in Mexcent, and the visitor feels that he is driving a staving business when he ex-ers, sometimes as many as 3,000 in num-scape for leagues.

tues and vouchsafed every blessing, first to rule their own passions and then by God's blessing have dominion upon earth, according to the word of the barbecued shoat." "No that feller has tuck my appertite. I've come to the conclusion that the country is a fraud. Governor!" he said, contemptuously; and rolling up his trowsers preparatory to a long Only three things are cheap in Mex-ico-pulque, flowers and money. The looking back, disappeared in the latter is at a discount of seventeen per woods.—Arkansane Traveller.

changes one hundred dollars of American money for one hundred and seventeen dollars of the same looking sort of comets have paid visits to the ruler of currency. Flowers of all kinds are the solar system and displayed their about as cheap as anything in the world | dazzling trains to the admiration of his -everybody can have a bouquet, and attendant worlds: Every one of these about everybody does. Pulque is con- comets has been remarkable for some sidered cheaply by the natives, because unusual or unaccountable conduct. it is sold at a cent a tumblerful, but it The big comet of 1881 suddenly flirted seems to me it would be dear at a cent its streaming tail into the northern hema hogshead. However, the people like isphere unannounced and unexpected, it-the Indians, Meztizoes, and Creoles, and surprised the astronomers at their nearly all. No less than twenty thou- telescopes as much as it did the milksand gallons are said to be drunk in men on their early morning visits to the pumps. The comet of 1882 amazed the miles from the spot where Burbank Byron calls attention to the great world by suddenly appearing at broad fact that "man, being reasonable, must noon close to the sun, where it soared get drunk." What would man in Mex- like a flery bird with broad wings exico do without pulque? It is strange tended, and as it retreated from the how kind Nature provides for all the solar system it appeared to be chased by indispensable needs of the human fam- a bevy of little comets to which it had ily! The maguey plant makes its apparently given birth during the ter-dwelling-place on the Mexican uplands or or of its plunge through the flaming that stretch from mountain to moun- banners of the sun. In 1883 the comet tain, 7,000 feet above the sea, Each of 1812 reappeared. But the most explant occupies some thirty feet square; traordinary comet of all is the one it has a short stem a foot or two in di- which was discovered at the Vienna ameter and from this it sends upwards observatory about a month ago. It fitteen feet high huge spears of green. seems to have been clearly seen, for the The plant matures at eight or ten years observers carefully measured its posiand will then yield that sweet milk tion among the stars, and it was bewhich ferments and becomes pulque. lieved from its place and motions that The top of the stem is cut off and it was one of the comets of 1858 returnenough of the heart removed to leave a ing. But after thus showing itself the natural receptacle holding three or four comet disappeared, and, although a batgailons. This is removed twice a day tery of telescope has been brought to and the flow of sap continues for three bear upon the spot where it appeared, to six months. When the sap ceases from nearly every observatory in Euto flow the plant shoots upward a gi-gantic stalk from its centre, twenty er visitor from the realms of outer space thirty feet high, bearing in a clustered has been caught. whori a mass of greenish yellow flow-

What Shall I Be?

This is the famed "century The maguey is almost as useful to tended by the founders of our governknew but it has a hundred uses, as that ion as at first contrived the Vice Presiis alleged to have. Admirable paper is dent was to be in fact the second choice made from the pulp; twine and thread of the electors for President. The from the fibres; excellent needles from the fibres; excellent needles from the electors were to assemble at the time apropes from the bark; and pulque, mescal, and tequilla from the sap. There are thirty varieties of this American There aloe, which Prescott calls "a miracle of nature," and the favorite sorts are planted in fields of thousands of acres and lend picturesqueness to the land-It is better to wear out and to rust

"I am sorry I was not trained to some commercial pursuit," said a prothat of the English, a glance at its chief fessional gentleman to a successful "See here, young man," was the repassport. The orthodox Russian may ply, "do you really think you are sorry? either live nor die without one. It is Aren't you doing well enough? Come,

"Too old to think of change now."
"Nonsense! Never too old to corbirth, breeding, station, calling, circumstances and orthodoxy. The information thus diligently gathered by the stead of to correct one. I made a mis-

"My father was a lawyer. There do is to attest its accuracy with their signatures. Then follows the betrothence was thrown around us when very al, once a separate ceremony, and not young to stir in us the ambition to ennecessarily gone through in church, ter professional careers. We had a fine but now the immediate prelude to the library, the tone of our home was resacrament of marriage—the reason as-signed for the change being that in the interval between the two ceremonies the betrothed used sometimes to quarrel enough to see that father would not and refuse to carry out their mutual listen to any objections to a professional on the right, the bride on the left. The was too good to be a preacher, and had priest takes from him a golden ring, too weak a stomach to be a doctor, from her a silver one, carries them to The law was the last resort, so I took the altar, and there deposits them as a | it up. After I was admitted I whacked sign that the Almighty sanctifies the away at the dry and unproductive union. Returning to the young couple, stuff for fifteen years. It was the marhe gives each a lighted taper and pro- tyrdom of drudgery. Finally I made nounces the blessing. The deacon in-vites all present to pray for them, that always been prosperous and happy from their love may be perfect, their faith that day to this. You see I had found firm, their living pure, their union fruit- my niche and I can say with truth that Then, with another prayer, the I find more pleasure in making a good priest places the gold ring on the bride- sale than in pocketing the profits of it, groom's finger, the silver on the bride's. My business suits me; I take pleasure repeating over each three times, "N., in it and I long ago made up my mind the servant of God, is betrothed to M., the servant of God, in the name of the nations in the matter of a life occupa-Father; the Son and the Holy Ghost, now, ever and in all eternity, amen."

Then he who stands godfather, "who and writers are those who love with allanswers for the agreement of the young conquering enthusiasm the thorny and couple, being himself experienced in difficult road of journalism. It is so married life," removes the rings from with our merchants and all manner of their fingers and replaces them, the men. Ashley Pond, for example, loves gold on the bride, the silver the areas of the law. See the height on the bridegroom. The church holds he has attained to. C. H. Buhl is in that the lighted tapers symbolize spiri- love with business. He has worked up tual joy and the purity of the motives from nothing to a commanding piace in by which the betrothed are inspired, the commercial world, and, I have no show the dependence of the one on the other and her interiority in matters of cess heal that 'sorrow' you think you

The "rural roosters" of Arkansaw the faith, unity of thought, truth and becue was held at Grand Point, and, love, and that the Angel of God may go among other distinguished citizens, the isfactory search, and said: "Has the governor got here yit,

"Yes, than he stan's, talkin' to the young people advance to the reading county jedge," desk in the center of the church and "What? that feller with a red neck like a turkey gobbler ?"

"That's the man." W'y, dog gone his ugly pictur', he he ain't as big as I am, Been wantin' to see a guv'nor all my life, and now this is the way I'm sarved, T'other day I was tuck down with a congestive chill, an' I was powerful afeered that I would die afore I had a chance to see the ruler o' the State, but now I'll be blame of I don't wish I had died. Look the preservation of chastity and as a at him, will yer, chawin' terbacker like santing on a chair. All of a sudden sign that they may be the originators a goat an' slobberin' like a grasshopper, I'm er great mind to jolt him all over this town fur givin' me sich er diserpp'intment. Wall, b'leve I'll go home. "Sam, better stay an' git some of the the Mexican as the cocoa-palm to the ment to be an office of great dignity and South Sea Islander. In fact, I don't importance. Under the mode of clean importance. Under the mode of electvote for two persons. The votes were to be transmitted to the Senate and there opened The person having a majority of the electoral vote was to be the President, and the person having the next highest number of votes, without respect to a majority, was to be Vice President. At the first election Washingto revived the unanimous received only thirity-four out of sixty-nine, not a majority, but the next One of the first questions that Adams eldressed his mind to was as to the lam Vice President. In this I am nothing, but I may be everything. But I am President also of the Senate. When the President comes into the Senate what shall I be? I wish gentlemen to think what I shall be."

A solemn silence ensued, though the sense of the ridiculous was so strong and the west parlor was used as the the statue of Queen Victoria for the with some of the Senators that they came near bursting into laughter. Then Ellsworth arose, with most profound gravity, and said: "I have looked over the Constitution and I find, sir—it is evident and clear, sir—that wherever the Senate is to be there, sir, you must be at the head of them; but further, sir, but the head of the house a planted at Newmansville, Fia, returned the house and the house a planted at Newmansville, Fia, returned the house and t with some of the Senators that they be at the head of them; but further, sir, I shall not pretend to say." The Senate held out some time for titles, but the House of Representatives would not that the President should be addressed by his official title only—Mr. President.

As to the Vice President be got re-As to the Vice President, he got no designation whatever.

A Mazeppa of the Piains,

Mr. Boussand, a wealthy cattle owner, whose herds range in the unorganized windows had been changed about, but a rich vein of coal there. territory of northwestern Nebraska, has just returned from the annual was found in the east parlor, Mrs. fashion, New York barbers produce a has Just returned from the annual "round up" in that region and relates a tale of the plains that is, in some respects, a counterpart of the orthodox Mazeppa. When Boussand reached his ranch about the middle of June, he found his cowboys nursing a young man found his cowboys nursing a young man and the east parler. Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son."

Mrs. Nichols recently pointed to the glass, which had been accidently broken directly across the name. "I am very sorry it is broken," she said, "for I had promised it to Professor Fowler's son." whom they had rescued from the back inspection of the house. The main hall adult male population of New Mexico of a bronco. When discovered the is divided into front and rear balls, each can neither read nor write.

while Wilsen was absent riding about builder, the range, to make love to the latter's wife. This continued for some months until in the latter part of May one of the cowboys, who had a grievance against Burbank, reported the fact to had already been aroused. That night Burbank was captured while asleep in bed by Wilson and three of his men and bound before he had a chance to make any resistance. Wil-son had him strippped of every bit of clothing and bound on the back of a wild bronco which was started off by vigorous unable to tell about his terrible trip. He thinks that the outrage was committhis he will be backed by Boussand's men and those of the Ogaliala Land and Cattle Company, whose range is near Boussand's. A Water Safe. of Finance.

The government spends about $50,-000 a year for the repair of mail pouches; there are about 100,000 mail bags in use; and about 10,000 new ones are bought yearly. The weakest point in Benedict Arnold's House

Mrs. Nichols, the present lessee of Benedict Arnold's house in New Haven to be rather shabby. titles which should go with the offices is an intelligent lady, and shows much | -The fruit crop in Germany is very of President and Vice President, interest in the history connected with abundant, it is reported, Sturdy patriot and great man that be the house. "Heased the house," she - Mr. Froude has abandoned his was, he liked the trappings and the said, "five years ago, just before the tour to America this year. was, he liked the trappings and the suits of effice. He appeared on the streets accompanied by four sword-bearers, and he thought and said that the chief officers of the nation should be surrounded with splendor and pageantry. "High Mightiness and Protector of our Liberties" was the very tector of our Liberties" was the very leavest designation he could think of the surrounder of the invasion of the Britscher is the invasion of the Britscher is the lower since I have had a great many people come and look over the house. I think I have had people from every State in the union, A great many Ohio people have to pay a license of $5.

—Nearly 5,000 women are employed in the government offices of singland.

—Nearly 5,000 women are employed in the government offices of singland.

—London has a pauper population of lowest designation he could think of with which to approach the President. Indeed with the house than any other $9,223 outside of asylums and alms-As to his own title he was uncertain. class. Soon after we came here, five houses. At the inauguration of Washington the arranged ceremony was that the President-elect should be received by the Senate and be escorted by it to the House of Processorted by the House of Processorted by it to the House of Processorted by the House of Processorted b

House of Representatives, where the oath was to be administered. This threw Adams into great perplexity, and he afamily by the name of Thomas lived trunk three times loses the right of addressed the Senate as follows:

"Gentlemen I do not know whether the framers of the Constitution had in view the two Kings of Sparta, the two Consuls of Rome, or the two Suffets of Carthage when they formed it—the one to have all the power while he held it and the other to be nothing. Gentlemen, I feel great difficulty how to act. I am possessed of two separate powers, the one in esse, the other in posse.

Here later, and it may be that the spoon affirsge.

—James Russell Loweli received the fiegree of L. L. D. from Harvard resently.

—Fran Materna says she is delighted with America and hopes to return and sing in opera.

—Senator Ingalis, of Kansas, has raceived the degree of L. L. D. from Williams College.

—A gas well has been struck on the here later, and it may be that the spoon suffrage.

pied by some distinguished people. Insane Asylum grounds, at Stockton, Benedict Arnold built it in 1771. After California. and Nouh Webster bought it of him. in thirty years. great lexicographer's study, Mr. Sloan Litchfield Cathedral.

Sloan was quite intimate with her.

Mr. Sloan's daughter and her husband, at the time of their recent visit, York Fish Commission.

-Fires involve a yearly loss in the United States of $100,000,000, or 1 per wanted to see the parlor where they did cent of the products. seen in the hall chamber a pane of glass are infesting that region.

thongs and released the strange captive. broad fireplace which might take in which consist of selected poems. time the stranger had lain in a stupor. | certainly is suggestive of secrecy and sent alumni dinner of Yale, his return journey to Omaha, having a ascended. The artic is the same size little medical knowledge, he succeeded for restoring the patient to consciousness and his recovery was rapid.

When able to talk he said his name was Henry Barbank; that he was an Englishman, 34 years of age. About the collection of the patient places the flour timbers were visible where the boards have been removed. The flooring of the collection of the same size washington, placed at regular intervals along 125 miles of fine streets.

—Complaints about the wearers of colored stockings being troubled by the dye stuffs in the latter are being revivalent.

three years ago at Falmouth, England, attic, as well as that in all the other he formed a partnership with a friend, rooms of the house, are of oak. Near York dentist has drawn the fire of the Thomas Wilson, some years his senior, the east chimney, on the west side, two paragraphists from the overworked and with him came to America to em- vaults, formed by the projection of the plumber. northwestern Nebraska, where the are partially filled with straw and atory to a somewhat extensive tour range was unlimited and herders few broken glass, and upon close inspection the Holy Land. and far apart. They built a comforta- seem to have had some special purpose. —A live oak tree at Indian River keeper, attended by two or three female of secreting himself when a traitor to six feet from the ground. domestics. Burbank, who is a hand-some young fellow, found it agreeable,

Are our Climates Changing

It is scarcely accurate to speak of been conferred upon the physicians the woman's husband, whose jealousy there are so many of them that the land. plural is required. In many parts of __Some time ago a champagne house sudden and so great that it may almost five poems on champagne. No fewer be said that there are two or three climates in a single day. Even in our in.

"glorious climate of New England," —The greatest distance ever ridden people who are at all sensitive to the weather wore an overcoat or a shawl on stated to be 230 miles 469 yards. The lashing. Before morning Burbank became unconcious and was, therefore, dows open and under a single sheet at 1880. night. There have been two or three June frosts already this year, and some ted on the night of May 27 and he was of the hottest weather ever known outrescued on the morning of June 3, side the reign of the dog star. There ing full grown lobsters, taken at the which would make seven days he had been traveling about the plains without the next. Cyclones turn up in the most peake Bay.

A gold f unheard-of places, and "cloud-bursts" ravage a New England town at about years ago by a lady of Frederick, Md., miles from the spot where Burbank was found, but it is hardly probable that the bronco took a direct course, seemed so capricious and macrountaand therefore many more miles in his ble in her freaks as she has been since the seashore to die. The increase of cyclonic visitation in gems making seven found thus far. the Mississippi region is accompanied rather than to statistics—most unsafe has brought a complaint against the dependence in matters relating to the Royal Prefect of Police before the The Emperor of Annam uses a large weather—the average heat of the sum- Minister of the Interior. and deep pond of water as a safe for mers in some regions is not nearly as __A hundred-ton cannon that was muney and valuables. The money not great as it was 20 or 30 years ago. St. being fired for the first time recently at intended for use is placed in the hollow- Louis, for example was once consider- Gibraltar, split or burst at the muzzle, in ed out trunks of trees, which are thrown into the water. To keep away thieves to the first of September, is now combeen rammed home. Nobody was and prevent the king himself from paratively cool; so cool that those who hurt. and prevent the king himself from being tempted to draw upon the reserve fund without sufficient cause, a number of crocodiles are kept in the water, their presence and the certainty of was the summer of 1882 that weather was the summer of 1882 that weather are factories in every Southern are factories are factories in every Southern are factories are fa being eaten alive acting as a wholesome restrainer and insuring the security of the royal treasure in a most effectual even cooler than its predecessor, and there are nationes in every southern state, Texas having twenty. The oil is used for the table and also for illuminating and other purposes. manner. When it becomes indispensation from the present indications that of bie to draw upon this novel style of 1884 will be the coolest of the three. bank the crocodiles have to be killed, When, on the 10th of June, the therbut this can be done only with the Em- mometer in some latitudes marked ed in Toronto, milk and apothecary peror's permission and after the matter 52 55 degrees, making fires and over- stores being the only places allowed to has been duly approved by the Minister coats comfortable, while frost is reported in northern Missouri and Illinois, it looks much as if we were entering upon a new phase of climate.

removed from the scaffold, in Naples, the mail sack is where it closes and the people swarmed over the place, opens. In closing the bag the staples tearing into shreds the cord which are pushed through the slots, and pro-bound the criminal and breaking into ington are: lawyers, 195; professional ject an inch or more. When the bag is fragments the stool on which he sat, thrown about the staples bend and often Each took away a portion, in obedience thrown about the staples bend and often break. It looks strange that this little item should cast the government so much money but it does, for that is the suffered death will bring good fortune metallurgists, capitalists and men, I each; mechanics.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

-The palace of the Khedive is said

The house has been owned and occu- - A gas well has been struck on the

it was confiscated on account of his -Winter wheat has been selling treachery it was bought by a Mr. Sloan, recently at prices lower it stated, than the lady alternately laughed and cried. - Russian advices from the Tamar-She inquired whether Mrs. Nichols had pand district say that clouds of locusts upon which Miss Webster's name had been cut with a diamond ring. The cited over the supposed discovery of love, and that the Angel of God may go among other distinguished citizens, the with and before them all the days of the little? Prayer for the evar and crowd assembled, and when it became horse, entirely naked and unconscious. if from long running, and was easily frequent in well-appointed houses of a lassoed by the cowboys, who cut the century ago. In the kitchen was a penny monthly, the sole contents of

This happened about two weeks before Boussand's arrival and during all that

A few days before Boussand started on exclusiveness, the h r lwood stairs were his return journey to Omaba, having a ascended. The attic is the same size Washington, placed at regular intervals bark in the cattle business. They cast fireplace, were discovered a few days -A company of 450 French priests about for a while and finally settled in ago on removal of the flooring. They have just set out for Jerusalem, preparble ranch by a little stream, where Wilson's young wife reigned as house- were built by Arnold for the purpose feet and ten inches in circumference past week or two than since 1861-62. except in June, 1882. -Since the year 1860 sixteen baronetcies and thirty-four knighthoods have the country, in fact, the changes are so at Epernay offered prizes for the best

-The United States FlshCommission

has made the experiment of transplanteastern end of Long Island, to Chesa-A gold fish, purchased twenty-two died recently. It is said that the old fish had not grown a particle during the whole period of its captivity. -The excitement over the recent diswild journey. When fully restored to wild journey. When fully restored to health Burbank proposes to make a Garfield was borne from the Capital to Wankesha county, Wis., has been revived by the discovery of three more

-In consequence of the Socialist law with an equally noticeable diminution of the singular case has happened that summer heat. Trusting to memory the Royal State Procurator in Berlin

-The law requiring the clasing of hos mess places on Sunday is strictly enforcremain open, and those only for a few hours in the morning and evening.

-Statistics of Mexican trade show that the exports from Mexico to the United States increased from $4,346,-000 in 1874 to $8,177,000 in 1883, while the imports of American goods and products rose from$5,046,000 in 1874 to $16, 587,000 last year.

-The occupations of the members of the house of Representatives at Washpoliticians, 19; merchants, 12; farmers, 11; manufacturers 10 doctors, 5; railroad officials, 3; civil engineers and mine owners, 2 cach;