

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN.
Wednesday, August 13, 1884.
B. F. SCHWEIER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.
FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN, OF ILLINOIS.

REBECCA Nourse was hanged at Salem, Mass., July 19, 1693, as a witch. On the 19th of last July, one hundred and ninety one years after her execution upon a charge of the practice of witchcraft, two hundred of her descendants held a meeting with Benjamin F. Nourse, of Boston, as president, in honor of her memory. A monument to her memory is to be erected.

The North American says: There are some very interesting, as well as uninteresting, things about campaign journalism: but for pure and unadulterated nerve commend us to the Democratic organ at the ex-confederate capital. The Richmond Dispatch has the effrontery to twist General Logan with not having always been as good an anti-slavery man as he eventually became. A similar allusion to Mr. Hendricks' record of slavery advocacy would not of course be stigmatized by our Richmond contemporary as a bigoted waving of the bloody shirt. Of course not. But fancy a southern Democratic paper having the hardihood to introduce the subject of slavery. It might as fitly talk of hemp to the man whose father had been hanged.

DEAN RUSSET used to tell a story of his preaching in Highland churches where the rural congregation, largely shepherds, invariably came to the kirk attended by their dogs. The story runs that these sagacious animals learned to know the rising of the congregation at the concluding sentence of the sermon as a token of the speedy conclusion of the service, and at that moment were wont to indulge in indecorous barks of delight to the scandal of their worthy owners. On one occasion a stranger was to preach, and the congregation laid their plans accordingly. The preacher concluded his address with the usual words, and raised his hand to offer the benediction: but not a soul in the congregation rose to his feet. Noting the minister's look of surprise, an old shepherd remarked in a stage whisper, "Say aw, sir! Say aw, sir! We're only sitting still to cheat the dogs."

The Dry Ditch Party.

The North American says, a Philadelphia correspondent of a New York paper makes what he evidently intended to be startling revelation of the purposes of the Democratic leaders in Pennsylvania. According to this correspondent Pennsylvania is to prove the last ditch, and here the great battle is to be fought. It is now disclosed that all the loud talk about making New York the last ditch was merely a blind. What that cry was ringing up and down the land Democratic leaders in this State were perfecting their plans for the transfer of the title of the battleground of 1884 from New York to Pennsylvania. We are very glad to hear it. This can be no other so good a battle-field as this for the Republican party. If the Democrats will bring on their battalions, the Republicans will guarantee their defeat in detail. It will have a great deal of marching and countermarching, and no end of cost of transportation.

The project thus disclosed by one so crammed with frozen facts that he burst open like a full pea-pod is not so startling to Pennsylvanians as it may be to our provincial neighbors. The project itself is nothing like so startling as the reasons given for the transfer of campaign headquarters to Pennsylvania.

Among those reasons we find the cool statement that Pennsylvania has always been Democratic on full vote, and that when that party has failed to carry the State the defeat has been due to family quarrels. According to this correspondent, the State was made by the Democratic party, and owes its present greatness to Democratic policy. We are told that the canal and railroad systems were conceived and carried out by the Democratic party, and that all great Pennsylvanians—including Governor Pattison—have been and, if living, are Democrats. This is all news to most of us, and the revelation reaches us through the New York papers, where everybody will henceforth look for Pennsylvania news, of course.

ted under Democratic policy, it is true, and they were operated solely with a view to keep that party in power.

Twice during the reign of the canal party the credit of the State sunk so low as to suggest repudiation of the interest on the Democratic debt, and on one occasion the good name of the State was well-nigh lost. Its salvation was suggested by a prominent Whig, and the suggestion having been acted upon, the credit of the Commonwealth was rescued from the peril into which it had been brought under Democratic rule.

Had the correspondent been eager for facts, he could have obtained them before he gave the party away in his astounding letter.

The correspondent also neglected to say that the canals, as a factor of Democratic power in the State, were never so clearly understood as they were after they were sold and the Board of Canal Commissioners bowed itself off the stage. He should have stated that the Democrats never carried the State on a full vote after that happened. Had he stated this fact, the people could have seen that the Democratic party of Pennsylvania was truly a dry ditch party, and that if the State owed its canals to that party, the party owed its victories to the canals.

When a man undertakes to tell the truth, he should go to the roots of things. Yet we may agree that the dry-ditch party should marshal its forces along the lines of the ditch to which it owed so much and in which it finally perished.

The Irish American Press.

The Irish newspapers that are for Blaine are, The Irish World, Irish Nation, The Tablet, Freeman's Journal, Weekly, Weekly Union and United Irishman of New York.

The Catholic Herald, of Boston. The Catholic Telegraph, of Albany, Catholic University of Cleveland, Celt and Citizen of Cincinnati, Chicago Citizen, Rocky Mountain Celt of Denver, American Celt of St. Louis.

The following journals refuse to support Cleveland, and thus give an indirect support to Blaine: The Catholic Review of Brooklyn, the Catholic Union of Buffalo, Catholic Missionary of Baltimore, Northwestern Chronicle of St. Paul, and St. Mary's Institute Journal of Amsterdam, N. Y.

The only Irish American Catholic journals that heartily support the Democratic nominee are the Republic of Boston, Irish American of New York, the Connecticut Catholic and Boston Pilot—Chicago Tribune.

Earthquake.

About 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon an earthquake shook Philadelphia. No serious accidents took place. Many chimneys fell over, and loose walls came down and some solid brick and stone walls were cracked. The Times says, the violent earthquake was sickening in its effect on both the brain and digestive organs. The vibration lasted from twelve to eighteen seconds, longer in some parts of the city than others. It awakened mental sensations unknown to those who had never before felt the ground shake beneath them. It made cowards of strong men, and the only people who were not more or less frightened were those who had not detected the presence of the extraordinary phenomenon.

In some parts of the city, people trembled in many terrified women fell upon their knees on the pavement and prayed for forgiveness of their sins. They declared afterward that they imagined the day of Judgment had come.

The cab horses standing at the Broad Street Depot in many instances exhibited signs of terror and trembled with fright long after the shock. There was almost a panic in the stables of the Continental Hotel among the fifty animals stabled there. The manager of the stables said that a very intelligent mare, named Fanny, first was very fearful.

Almost a hundred guests jumped to their feet with fright at the shock from the tables of the Continental Hotel dining room. The prevailing idea was that some heavy explosion had taken place in the immediate neighborhood.

At Ridgway Park a stampede occurred. The beer drinkers appeared to fear that the island would slide from beneath their feet. They rushed to the boats and many begged piteously to be brought back to the city. One old man plead earnestly, saying: "I don't want my children to know I died at Ridgway park."

The shock was felt at Harrisburg, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Reading, Pottsville and in fact almost everywhere in the State, south of the Allegheny range of mountains. New York City was shaken up to a state of terror. A slight shock was felt at Washington D. C.

Don't Look Like a Wreck.

"When a man is going down hill everybody is ready to give him a kick." Yes, that is so. It is said, but natural. Why, many a man in a woman, seeking employment, would have got it if their hair hadn't been so thin and gray. One bottle of Parker's Hair Balsam is the best investment. It stops falling hair, promotes new growth and restores color. Clean, highly perfumed, not a dye. A great improvement over any similar preparation, and sold at the low price of 50c.

Patrick McGuff of Pittsburg knocked his wife down with a dishpan, and Mrs. McGuff sent him to jail for the offense.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Abraham Moss, Sr., died at his place of residence in Millford township last Saturday, aged 84 years. Interment in Licking Creek Lutheran grave yard on Monday.

THE STANDARD CAMPAIGN BADGE.—The Standard and authorized Campaign Badge, endorsed, first by Maine, then by the National Republican Committee, the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania, and by all Republican State organizations which have seen it, is a fine one with Logan's corps badge of "40 Bombs," so joined as to make it very dress and attractive, either for individual or club wear. The cone and cork mark are both dipped in pure gold. Samuel James, an employe of the U. S. Mint, residence at Fernwood, Pa., is the inventor, and has patented the article. Club organizations should address him at prices. All other purchasers should address the nearest regular News Company. The Central News Company of Philadelphia has the general agency for the United States. The sales of this badge extend to every State in the Union. It is a beautiful souvenir of the campaign of 1884, and altogether new in design and finish. Clubs purchase at the rate of $16 a hundred, C. O. D., and all clubs purchase of Mr. Samuel James, at Fernwood, Pa.

Facilities for Reaching the Seaside.

There never has been a time when the numerous resorts of the New Jersey coast were so easy of access to the people of the adjacent States as the present. From New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Maryland, the lines of the Pennsylvania system connect closely at Philadelphia or elsewhere with the seashore resorts, making it possible for residents of the sections named to reach the Atlantic with, in most cases, a single change of cars. From Philadelphia, nine express trains leave every week-day, two additional on Saturday and four on Sunday, for Atlantic City; and four on Cape May on week-days, one additional on Saturday and two on Sunday, for Long Branch, and the long list of resorts on the upper coast. These trains run at hours best suited to the needs of travelers, and reach, direct or by connection, every point of interest from Cape May point to Sandy Hook.

An equal number of trains run from the coast to the interior. Besides these, there are daily excursion trains from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, Cape May, and contiguous resorts while Long Branch and Ocean Grove are accessible by cheap excursions every day except Saturday and Sunday. To ease of transportation, cheapness is added, making the traveling expense of a summer tour an inconsiderable item. The comprehensive system of excursion tickets afforded by the Pennsylvania Railroad covers almost every point in the territory referred to herein. Such facilities place a trip to the seaside within the reach of every class of persons.

Horses and Carriage Stolen.

Sometime between last Sunday evening and Monday morning thieves entered the barn of John Stretter in Millford township, and stole two horse carriage and double harness with bridle and so forth, and drew the carriage and contents a considerable distance along the road in the direction of Johnston, but off from the main road into a lane a short distance where they hitched two horses that they had stolen from the barn of John Jenkins in Brad township. Jenkins and Stretter live about twelve and a half from each other. From the Jenkins barn, with the horses was stolen a bridle, two harness, an army saddle, and one which to feed several things. One of the horses is a dark brown, 16 hands high, seven years old, and weighs about 12 hundred pounds the other horse is a 10 year old light bay. It is conjectured that the thieves are the same party that stole Dr. Heavins' horse and sleigh last winter. Both Stretter and Jenkins are members of the horse company, and a large troop of horsemen are now out on the search for the thieves. Reward offered $100 for horses, $50 for carriage and harness.

Juniata County Wheat.

Mr. Samuel Davis brought to our office yesterday morning the largest head of wheat, we suppose, that can be found in this section. It measures nine inches in length and is perfectly filled. Mr. D. procured the seed in Juniata county, and it is called the South American Diamond. There has certainly never been a variety in these parts that grew to such enormous length.

The item just read was published in the New Holland, Lancaster county, Clarion, of August 2, 1884. The Mr. Samuel Davis will be only $8.25 a bushel, and a century ago was engaged in the tanning and tannery business in Milliford, and that he has not yet forgotten Juniata county, is evidenced by the fact that he has drawn upon some of the choice varieties of wheat grown here for seed.

Niagara Falls and Watkins.

PROGRAMME OF THE EXCURSION TO THE ABOVE POINTS—GRATELY REDUCED EXPENSES.

Make your arrangements to start for Niagara Falls on Tuesday, August 19th. All arrangements have been made for a delightful trip. The railroad fare from Harrisburg will be only $8.25, Lewistown $9.00 for the round trip, and in order that persons may know exactly what it will cost for the trip to Watkins and Niagara Falls and return, the railroad company have made arrangements for a three day's trip, and a coupon ticket will be issued in connection with the railroad ticket, giving the bearer the following privileges, viz: Leave Harrisburg 9 10 a. m., Lewistown 7 20 a. m., August 19th, arrive at Watkins at 3 45 p. m. Supper, lodging and breakfast at the Glen Mountain House and admission into the Glen. Leave Watkins August 20th at 11 5 a. m., and arrive at Niagara Falls at 5 05 p. m. Supper, lodging, breakfast and dinner at the Great International Hotel, admission into the Falls by day and by electric light in the evening. Inclined railway to foot of American Falls and return; toll across suspension bridge to Canada Falls and return; inclined railway to Grand Rapids on Canada side; admission to Goat and Luna Islands and Three Sister Isles, with carriage to all above places of interest at the small sum of $7.50 which will make the entire cost, including railroad fare, only $15.45 from Harrisburg, Lewistown 16.65. Returning, leave Niagara Falls 8 30 p. m., Thursday, August 21st, arriving home same night.

Parties desiring to remain for a longer time will have the privilege of the reduced rates of $2.00 per day at Watkins and $3 per day at Niagara Falls. This is certainly a rare opportunity. Don't fail to go.

Bark peelers and log cutters in the neighborhood of Hyugomau, Bedford Co., have killed over two hundred rattlesnakes this summer.

Announcements.

CONGRESS.
We are authorized to announce the name of George W. Sheltonberger, of Monroeville, as a candidate for Congress, subject to Republican usage.

ASSEMBLY.

Mr. Editor.—Please announce the name of Joseph M. Maffett, of Milliford, as a candidate for the nomination for Assembly, subject to Republican usage. Mr. Maffett is an ardent, steadfast, and vigorous Republican, who has always stood in the van in defense of Republican principles, and is well qualified by education, age and experience in business for the position. He is entitled when elected to the respect and confidence of his constituents, and if nominated has the hearty assurance of receiving a successful support in the coming election. Aug. 4, 1884. MILFORD.

Mr. Editor.—In the belief that Juniata should present the very best man for the respect and confidence of his constituents, I beg leave to recommend for assembly, William Hertzler, of Turbett township. Although a young man, Mr. Hertzler has long been one of the most devoted of our Republicans, and past campaigns have owed much of their success to his energetic, untiring and intelligent labors. He is a man of good business qualifications, and if elected, do well to the party as to the people of our county. FAYETTE. July 28, 1884.

PROTHONOTARY.

EDW. SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN. I, G. Marks, of Patterson, is a staunch Republican, and his friends would like to support him as the standard bearer for the office of Prothonotary. I therefore present him as a candidate, to the Republican voters of Juniata county, and feeling satisfied that if he receives the nomination his chance for election in November will be very good. MILFORD.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Mr. Editor.—Please make the announcement that I am a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, subject to the usages of the Republican party, and as such, I most respectfully request the support of all the Republicans in my favor at the primary election on the 26th proximo.

THEODORE H. SHINGLER,
Spruce Hill, Pa., Aug. 5, 1884.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

EDW. SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.—Please announce James McConley as a candidate for the office of Chairman of the Republican County Committee. MILFORD.

EDW. SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.—I would announce to the Republicans of Juniata County Michael Collier of Walker township, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. He is a practical man, of economical habits, and if elected commissioner will serve the best interest of the county.

WALKER.

STATE SENATOR.

EDW. SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.—Dr. Geo. M. Graham, of Port Royal, is a man we desire to announce as a suitable person to represent this district in the State Senate, subject to Republican usage. He is in every way fitted for the position, mature judgment, a sound financier and will if elected serve the best interest of the taxpayers of Juniata county.

SPRUCE HILL. [7-22-84.]

Without the urgent solicitation of numerous friends but solely of my own volition, I offer myself as a candidate for State Senator, subject to Republican usage.—That I possess the ability to discharge the duties of the office, will be readily admitted by all who know me, and I express the confidence of my constituents that if elected I shall recognize the truth of the adage that the laborer is worthy of his hire, and I shall expect them not to forget my claims at the primary election, as I purpose making no personal canvass, having neither the time nor the means to do so.

W. M. ALLISON.

Mr. Editor.—I would announce the name of W. C. Powers, of Port Royal, as a candidate for the office of State Senator, subject to Republican usage. He is a man of mature judgment, and with his legislative experience, his nomination would be a matter of course, and to the best interests of the Republican party.

June 2, 1884.] WALKER.

COUNTY TREASURER.

Mr. Editor.—Allow me to announce the name of David G. Sheltonberger, of Monroeville, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. Subject to Republican usage. Mr. Sheltonberger has been a life-long Republican, and his nomination would be a matter of course, and to the best interests of the Republican party.

FAYETTE. Coclestown, May 19th, 1884.

REPUBLICANS.

The name of George W. Wilson has often been spoken of in connection with county office, but he has never heretofore consented to permit his name to go before the people for nomination. His numerous friends are confident that he will make one of the best officers in the interest of the county, and therefore do now announce him as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, under the nominating rules of the Republican party. His successful career as a merchant in Patterson, has given him an extensive acquaintance in the county and demonstrated his fitness for one of the best offices in Juniata in the gift of the people. April 28th, 1884. MILFORD.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the rules and regulations of the Republican party. JAMES H. SIMONS. Milliford, Pa., April 14, 1884.

Mr. Editor.—Allow me to announce the name of G. W. Smith, of Milliford, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to Republican usage. Mr. Smith is a man of good business qualifications, and if elected will make an obliging and efficient officer. FAYETTE.

To the Republican voters of Juniata County. I announce myself as a candidate for nomination for County Treasurer, subject to the Primary Election rules of the Republican party. JACOB S. THOMAS. Milliford, Pa., April 21, 1884.

Mr. Editor.—As the office of County Auditor although the least sought after is nevertheless one of the most important in the county and ought to be filled at all times by competent and conscientious men permit me to suggest that the Republicans of Juniata cannot do better than by nominating the present Republican members of the Board, Messrs. Deagan and Wetmore, or the people of Juniata, than by triumphantly electing them. They have been weighed in the balances and not found wanting. Aug. 11, 1884. MILFORD.

Mr. Editor.—I would announce the name of David G. Sheltonberger, of Monroeville, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. Subject to Republican usage. Mr. Sheltonberger has been a life-long Republican, and his nomination would be a matter of course, and to the best interests of the Republican party.

FAYETTE. Coclestown, May 19th, 1884.

Mr. Editor.—We have no more capable man for the office of County Treasurer than Samuel Cook, of Port Royal, and we desire to bring his name before the Republicans of Juniata for nomination at the primary election, subject to the rules and regulations of the Republican party.

CULVERWELL'S REVISED ESSAY on the radical cure of Strabismus or Squint, Weakness, Involuntary Spasms,
Lasciviousness, Impotence, Mental and Physical Debility, Insanity, and all other diseases and Disorders, by self-treatment, or under the direction of a Physician.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates (from a thirty years' successful practice) that the alargely misapprehended cause of all these radical cures; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual; by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
