Is a naval fleet the French destroyed a Chinese fleet.

DEMOCRACY is awakening to the fact that it has tumbled to English free trade a little too long to please Irishmen.—Inter Ocean.

SINCE Butler refuses to support Cleveland, the democrats are again talking about the New Orleans spoons.

THE CORN crop in Mexico is reported as a failure, and the Mexican Minister at Washington, has been requested to advertise the fact in the American newspapers.

IS the bombardment of Foo Chow the Chinese lost 9 men of war and 12 ships. The French lost none of their ships but a number were badly damaged. The French however did not succeed in getting possession of the place.

THE FRENCH ships of war made short work of the Chinese fortifications at Foo-chow. The coast cities of this country would all find a prey to foreign ships of war, should a war take place between America and Great Britain. The fortifications at Boston, New York, and other ports along the coast are no better than those at Foo Chow, in China.

RUSSIA is about to send an expedition to find the open polar sea if there be such a body of water. The party is to consist of a series of expeditions on foot with regular supply stations at convenient distances. It is hoped that this expedition will solve the question as to what the region of north pole is like, whether it is ice or water.

THE NORTH AMERICANS says: With regard to Governor Cleveland's famous discovery that the Presidency is essentially an executive office, and that the opinion of its incumbent on questions of public policy is of no importance to the community, the New York Sun makes a good point when it quotes the clause in the Constitution which directs that the President shall from time to time recommend to the consideration of Congress such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. The Democratic candidate has taken care not to give the public any inkling as to the nature of the recommendations he would feel it his duty to make under this provision.

Indian Wheat Competition.

England, though preaching the let alone doctrine to the rest of the world has not practiced it in India. In direct violation of her favorite theory, she has continually exercised governmental interference for the encouragement of British interests in India, namely, the extension of railroads. A few years ago no one thought much of Indian wheat as an article of commerce. The trade commenced in 1873, when the export duty in a large part to government aid to railroads, has recently occurred. Railroads, have gradually to be sure, approached some of the wheat-growing districts. From the following table we may judge of the astonishing progress of this industry.

Table with 2 columns: Amount and Value of Wheat Exports. Rows include years 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884 (6 months).

A commission in lunacy has adjudged that during the time of the absence of the committee on resolutions the judges handed in the names of the new County Committee as follows:

Meeting of Republican Return Judges.

The Republican judges elected on Saturday, met on Monday afternoon in the Orphan Court room in the Court House and after electing E. G. Shaffer of Oriental, chairman, and S. B. Shurtz, of East Salem, and Solomon Books, of Mifflintown, Secretaries, adjourned to the room of the Blaine and Logan club, and there counted the vote of the respective townships as cast on Saturday.

On the call of the chairman the following judges reported: Solomon Books, Mifflintown; J. T. Zook, Fernagh; E. D. Himes, Fayette; A. G. Shellenbarger, Monroe; E. G. Shaffer, Susquehanna; C. H. Upgrove, Greenwood; S. E. Shurtz, Delaware; Levi Meyer, Thompson; Joseph S. Weaver, Walker; F. F. Rohm, Patterson; S. R. Walters, Milford; D. A. Patterson, Beale; William Thompson, Tuscarora; Emanuel Boozel, Black Log; J. S. Kenapp, Lack; John Gilliflow, Spruce Hill; Wm. Landis, Turbett; Port Royal, D. S. Coyle.

THE VOTE.

As returned by the judges is as follows:

Table showing election results for Congress, Senate, and Assembly across various townships like Mifflintown, Fernagh, Tuscarora, etc.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

On last Thursday, the young folks of Mifflin and Lewistown, held a picnic and dance at Macedonia. The day opened pleasantly and by 12 o'clock all the parties from both towns had arrived, they immediately prepared dinner, of which they all partook at the same table. After spending a very pleasant time demoralizing the tables on the table, they immediately began to dance, which they kept up all afternoon, without intermission, and did not cease until a shower of rain coming up in the evening drove them out of the woods, the Mifflin folks took to their carriages, the Lewistown people to their boat. Every body was sorry to leave so soon. It was the most sociable crowd that has been at Macedonia in many years, and Lewistown and Mifflin people treated each other as old friends and acquaintances, and all will be glad to meet under similar circumstances again. There were about fifty couples present.

In olden times preachers and other church going people carried weapons to church to defend themselves against Indians and outlaw white men that sometimes would appear during preaching times to disturb or break up the meeting. In this day of professed civilization it is getting to be a common practice for blackguards to frequent camp meeting places and use foul, abusive language against whomsoever they please, and if the party against whom it is hurled does not please to take it, and utters a remonstrance the blackguards propose to assault their person, and in many instances do so. It is not proposed that preachers and other decent well behaved church goers should camp meeting loving people, should shoot the offenders against them and their meeting, as the fathers did with the Indians and other outlaws of olden times, but the number that were committed at Newton Hamilton demands that the blackguards that assemble there be compelled to behave themselves.

A commission in lunacy has adjudged that during the time of the absence of the committee on resolutions the judges handed in the names of the new County Committee as follows:

AYER'S AGUE CURE contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any of the deleterious substances whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint, caused by malarial influences. In case of failure, after due trial, doctors are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
