

AGRICULTURE. The grazing of land by a mixed stock of cattle, sheep and horses results in the land being more evenly grazed than where one kind only is kept.

DOMESTIC. FOR MAKING CREAM STARCH.—Take of field corn (the best) one bushel, water one gallon, and a little lard.

AGRICULTURE. In sowing down land to grass, the usual seeding of the English farm is thirty to forty pounds of mixed clovers.

DOMESTIC. FROSTED CURRANTS.—Pick fine, even bunches, and dip them one at a time into a mixture of frothed white egg and a very little cold water.

AGRICULTURE. Those who need poultry are often perplexed to know why the late hatched chicks do not thrive as well as those hatched early in the season.

DOMESTIC. BREAD AND BUTTER PUDDING.—Stir a stale loaf of bread rather than, and all, and mix with it lightly on both sides.

AGRICULTURE. A grasshopper is an excellent insect for making worm-out soil productive, and it is quite as apt to be effective on land that has an abundance of lime in its composition.

DOMESTIC. BAKED APPLES.—Take ten or twelve good-sized juicy apples, pare and core them, and put them in a pan.

AGRICULTURE. CHEESE when properly made and thoroughly cured, so that all of its substance is available for food, has twice the value of butchers' meat for sustaining life.

DOMESTIC. LEMON PASTE CAKE.—Sugar, 2 cups; butter, 1 cup; sweet milk, 1 cup; eggs, 3; flour, 3 cups; lemon juice, 1/2 cup; lemon rind, 1/2 cup.

AGRICULTURE. There is no better fodder in the world than the leaves stripped from Northern cane. Every kind of domesticated animal devours it greedily, and to excellent advantage.

DOMESTIC. PEACH CREAM.—The stones and skins are removed from very ripe peaches, which are then passed through a hair sieve.

AGRICULTURE. The Scotchshire breed of sheep is taking, or has taken, the place of the Southern. They are heavy for their size and their wool is fine and long.

DOMESTIC. ORANGE PIE.—Beat together 1 teacupful powdered sugar, and one teacupful butter, to this add the beaten ground rind of 2 oranges.

AGRICULTURE. All heat or warmth in the body comes from food oxidized, slowly burned in the body, just as much, and in about the same way that the heat in the stove or furnace comes from fuel oxidized or burned there.

DOMESTIC. COMPLAINTS are made that Paris green fails to kill potato bugs. It is because the poison is expensively adulterated with blue vitriol.

AGRICULTURE. In the early stages of typhoid fever Dr. Guillasse, of the French navy, has administered coffee with marked success.

DOMESTIC. There is less blood in cold-blooded than in warm-blooded animals. The larger the animal the greater is the proportion of blood to the body.

AGRICULTURE. The quantity of silver held in solution by the waters of the ocean is roughly estimated at two million tons.

HUMOROUS. A totum man accompanied by his girl entered a Boston restaurant. They seated themselves at a table.

HUMOROUS. "Order what you wish, Miss Smith," the young man said, "and I will have it."

HUMOROUS. "Oh," she suddenly lisped, and her face became suffused with blushes.

HUMOROUS. "I don't pay to see for divorce in some climates. An Algho woman asked the Amerer for a divorce because her husband was growing bald-headed."

HUMOROUS. "When you get to leave New York City, say 'Good-bye' to the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Station."

HUMOROUS. "The moon beat silently upon the waves, and the waves beat noisily upon the sand, and they stroiled quietly along the beach, and as he looked down to her eyes lovingly, he asked pleadingly: 'Mildred, will you return my love?'"

HUMOROUS. "I had all those peculiar and painful symptoms which I have found afflicting so many of my patients, and which had no more effect on me than a feather."

HUMOROUS. "I have a very severe ailment, caused by a runaway horse. I used almost every kind of salve to get the wound healed, but nothing did me any good."

HUMOROUS. "Attending the frightful deaths that so frequently follow the landing of nitro-glycerine in the oil regions," said Myron K. Paige, formerly an oil operator in Pennsylvania.

HUMOROUS. "I had a steamer once in my employ—poor Hank France. Like all men of his kind in the oil country, there was nothing either above, below, or on the earth that he feared."
