The Harpooner's Story.

New Bedferd, Jone 1, 1683.

Dr. J. C. Arka & Co.—Twenty years ago I was a harpooner in the North Parific, whan five others of the crow and myself were init up with scurry. Our bodies were bicated, gums a wolfen und bleeding, teeth loose, purple blotches all over us, and our breath revened rotten. Take it by and large we were pretty badly off. All arr lime jeloc was accidentally destroyed, but the appain had a couple dosen buttles of Arka's Exparakitta and gave us that. We recovered on it quicker than I have ever seen man brought about by any other treatment for Scurry, and five seen a good deal of it. Beeing no mention in your Almanao of your Haraparilla being good for corry, I thoughty you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts.

Respectfully yours, Ralpa Y. Wikkatt.

MANHOUD How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY OULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhoes or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Imporency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Imsediments to Marriage, etc.: also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Firs, in duced by self-indulgence, or sexual extravagues, & agance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarm ing consequences of self abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheapty, privately and radically.

IF This Lecture should be in the hands of every worth and every man in the land. of every youth and every man in the land.
