I mean just what I say. G. W. Heck.
The Huntington Journal sends the report circulating in the papers of the Juniata valley, that a Huntington youth of seventy years had married a spinster of seventy years old.
"Mrs. George Burt, of Chester, drank some laudanum, which she mistook for lavender brandy, and nearly killed herself. She had sent a child for it and the child got the name wrong."
"The supreme court of Illinois decides that bicycles are legitimate vehicles of travel, and if a horse is scared by one and runs away and smashes things, damages cannot be recovered."
"The number of corporations in the State has largely increased in the past two years, and about $100,000,000 have been added to Mr. Kiltner, who was severely hurt by a stroke on the stomach, from a stone, thrown at what was believed to be a cow, by Mr.

Lendis, of Tuscarora valley, has recovered from the injury of the stone.
Down in Long Island towns, committees have been organized, to take all married men that are found out from home on the streets after 11 o'clock and duck them under the town pump. The plea of having been to the lodge, is of no use.
John M. Patterson, formerly a citizen of this county, and eldest son of James Patterson, dec'd., of Pleasant View, died very suddenly, at his home, near Mercersburg, Franklin county, on Wednesday, the 6th inst., in the sixty-third year of his age.
By land or sea, out on the prairie or in the crowded city, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best for purgative purposes, everywhere available, convenient, efficacious, and safe.
For sluggish bowels, torpid liver, indigestion, bad breath, dizziness, and sick headache, they are a sure remedy.
Samuel Carter will sell at public sale at his residence, in Patterson, on the 23rd inst., the following described property, to-wit: One cook stove, coal stove, cupboard, sink, bedsteads, bureau, table, chairs, carpet, lounge, stoves and other articles not here enumerated.
Mrs. Jennie E. Fitzgerald and Mr. James J. Boring, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Boring, in this borough, by Rev. E. E. Berry, on the 13th day of May, 1885. We present our compliments to Mr. and Mrs. Boring and wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.
The Johnston Tribune says that Bruce Suffall, a young man about eighteen years of age, died yesterday at Ilogon of spinal complaint, superinduced, it is generally believed, by severe illness sustained while attending the skating rink. This is the second death in that place which is laid at the skating rink door. The young man was healthy, robust, and had many friends.
Notwithstanding much has been said about the impotence of a blood-purifying medicine, it may be possible that the matter has never seriously claimed your attention.
Think of it now! If, by the use of a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla you avoid the evils of secretion, and transmit a healthy constitution to your offspring, thank us for the suggestion.
The Philadelphia Times says: A terrible burning accident took place at Borrville on the afternoon of the 13th inst. Mrs.
William Bunkle, a widow aged ninety, resides in the same house with Constantine Feather. A fire was discovered in Mrs.
Bunkle's apartment, but when a member of the family family got to the door, her body was lying face down on the floor, her body burned to a crisp. Her clothing was charred and her clothing caught fire at the store in her room.

The Brethren Meeting.
The Brethren Meeting, which was held last week at the residence of Mr. M. R. Bessinger, on the farm of M. R. Bessinger, four miles east of this place, on Friday afternoon, May 22, 1885, at 2 o'clock P. M. The seating capacity of the building is for 8000 people, all necessary attendant buildings for a week's encampment of fifteen hundred delegates have been erected near by the meeting house. The buildings are of the plainest kind and in appearance remind one of the Granger's quarters near Philadelphia during the Centennial show of 1876. The Dunkers are not a show people and are not for their plainness and love of convenience both of which characteristics are plainly to be seen in and about the meeting buildings. Though the meeting will be opened on Friday a number of celebrations will not arrive till on Monday and Tuesday, when it is expected that the many hundred delegates, and thousands of visitors will be present. A great many are expected from west of the mountains, for Pennsylvania is a thriving commonwealth, and a Dunker religious center when the west was a "howling wilderness."
THE DUNKERS are a non-combatant people, and are akin to, but younger than the Mennonites and Quakers. They are not allowed to engage in law suits, or to engage in war, indeed it may be said that they go a long distance into the past for their non-combatant creed, to the night scene in the garden of Gethsemane, when Judas gave his Lord and Master the kiss of betrayal, and when Peter drew his sword and struck off the ear of one of the guards. Christ's teaching was in wonderful contrast to that of merchant Judas, and to that of fighting Peter, when he took up the sword on the night of the soldier, replaced and healed it. In the scene enacted under the glare of the torch lights in the garden that night are found the two guards of Christianity that have given to the world the non-combatant and
THE FIGHTING CHRISTIAN.
In the first ages of the church, Christians were non-combatant people, and their Master was in the garden, when Judas and Philip played their dramatic and thrilling parts, and as was Christ before the Court of Pontius Pilate, but after Constantine united the Church with the Roman state, the Peter type of Christian came to the front in such numbers that they began to fight among themselves, and for the period of a hundred years they fought to settle the one question of the Trinity. In the garden spots of Christianity in Asia and Africa rivers of human blood were shed in the contest, and from that time on the trinitarian christian carried the banner of the cross and the sword of Rome. In the lapse of time Christianity was driven out of Asia and Africa where it had flourished with a vigor that is a delight to the believer in the teaching of Christ—"The resurrection and the life to come"—if Romanism and Christianity were swallowed up and lost in Asia and Africa not so in Europe. The Roman sword propagated it every place that it held dominion it the people would not accept it because, but the christian church of Rome became too intolerant. Teachers, and preachers arose and denounced the practices of church people and church intolerance. The orthodox church seemed to be a hot bed of strife and so intolerant had it become that it ex-communicated or excuted all prominent dissenters. The sword of Peter stopped not at the cutting off of ears. The Christian Council of Constance condemned John Huss, a protestant, for teaching and preaching heresy, and he was burned at the stake in July 1415, his burning aroused the gallant German people, they protested in arms, a war of fifteen years followed, out of which the orthodox church came victorious and protestantism seemed dead enough. It was fourteen hundred years since Christ and the Christian Religion had given to the world as a sword as the sword of Paganism. Teachers realized that the way things had been going the "peace of the church" was a misnomer, indeed a myth, and one hundred years after Huss, was developed.
THE PEACE CHRISTIAN.
The stunning efforts of the John Huss war lasted one hundred years, when Menno Simons developed the peaceful christian creed that was exemplified in the garden when Christ took the savior's ear and replaced it on the head of the Roman soldier.
Simons was born in Friesland, adjoining Holland, in 1565, he was a Catholic priest, but united with the Baptists, and taught in addition to the doctrine of the Baptists, that Christians should not hold civil office, that they should not bear arms, should not take an oath, and should not go to court.
Martin Luther came about the same time, his Christianity was of the Peter sword kind and in one hundred years after the two reformers, the Lutheran and Catholic christians engaged in the greatest war that has ever taken place in Europe, it began in 1618, and continued till 1648. It was fought on German soil, and the Catholic power came out of the fight humiliated and broken. While the dreadful war was going on the peace christians were subjected to the most burdensome taxes to purchase exemption from service in the army but they came out of the contest stronger than when they began. Their peace principles found advocates in other parts of the world. In England John Fox organized the Quaker church which gave to the world William Penn the founder of this Commonwealth, and thus out of the past experience was evolved
THE BROTHERS or Dunker church by Alexander Mack, in 1708, in Germany. It is the youngest of the peace christian churches. It has 50,000 communicants and over 600 churches and what its mission is cannot be foretold but its present vigorous life indicates a glorious future and the meeting that is to begin on Friday is one that is convened for the welfare of the church.
A Mistake.
An Elmira woman stopped for a lady friend to accompany her to the roller skating rink. Nothing told, the lady who was cooking some saurkraut, told her visitor to wait until she put in some pig's feet and she she would go with her. She rushed off in a hurry and packed up, as she supposed, her skates, but when she reached the rink she found herself in charge of the pig's feet and on rushing home found the skates in the saurkraut.—Kingsport Freeman.

Text-Book Committee.
The committee appointed to select a uniform series of text-books for Juniata county, will meet in Mifflintown at one o'clock P. M., on Saturday, May 23, 1885.
G. H. MARTIN, Chairman.
Large And of The Best.
My store stock is large and of the best quality and of the best material that can be had. Low prices rule the hour. Call and see for yourself, near the post office on Main street.
C. F. HINKLE.
C. F. Hinkle
Announces to the public in general that he has purchased a large stock of goods of every kind. He keeps a general stock. Buyers will do well to examine his stock. You remember the place near the post office on Main street.
The Origin of Decoration Day.
On the 16th of April, 1862, just one year after the fall of Fort Sumpter, Mrs. Evans, with the wife and two daughters of Chaplain May, of the Second Regiment, Michigan Volunteers, decorated the graves of a considerable number of soldiers buried on Arlington heights, near Washington. In May of the year following they rendered the same arduous attention to the graves of soldiers buried at Fredericksburg. In 1873 congress made the 30th of May a legal holiday.
That Dirty Dandruff.
Dandruff is dirty and disagreeable in every way. It soils the clothing generally, and is accompanied by a hardly less annoying sensation of itching. The scalp is diseased, there is nothing in the world so thoroughly adapted to this trouble as Parker's Hair Balm. It cleanses and heals the scalp, stops the falling hair and restores its original softness, gloss and color. Is not only, highly perfumed, an elegant dressing. Very economical, as only a small application of jungle keeps the hair in perfect condition.
Read.
Great reduction in the price of Photographs, from the 11th day of May 1885, until

JOSEPH HESS,
Bridge St., Mifflintown, Pa.
May 6, 1885, 4t.
Communication.
VAN DYKE, Pa., May 18, 1885.
MR. EDITOR: As the annual meeting of the Brethren, or Dunkard, is near at hand, and appears to be the only topic of interest at the present time, I will endeavor to give you a short description of the programme of the meeting thus far.
The annual meeting of the Brethren this year, will assemble on the farm of M. R.
Besinger, at this place which is only a short distance from Van Dyke station, but owing to the convenience of the bridge, which spans the river at Mexico, all the excursionists will run to that place which is about one and three fourths miles from the encampment.
A more congenial and appropriate place could not have been selected for this meeting, as it is in the midst of one of the richest farming valleys in the state, which is populated by a cordial people who will do their utmost to accommodate, and supply the wants of the people. The entire community has made preparations to supply lodging places for all who may come.
On the grounds have been erected numerous buildings, by way of tabernacle, restaurant, baggage-room, hospital, kitchen and printing office, and all other necessary buildings, all under roof, and is filled with seats, which will conveniently seat five thousand persons. In this building services will be held each day, throughout the time of encampment, which will begin on Friday, the 22nd inst., and will extend over the two following Sundays, this we understand is one of the objects of the Dunkers, at all their meetings, to have them extend over Trinity and Pentecost Sundays.
Besides the tabernacle, two restaurants, which will supply the appetites of two thousand hungry persons at one time, are joined together by a small building, in which a furnace has been placed, for the purpose of cooking and preparing the victuals.
The bed of spring water has been piped to all parts of the grounds. The water will be forced up the elevation by means of a stationary engine. Last year as many as 42,000 people were on the grounds in a single day. As many and even more are expected on either of the Saturdays or Sundays.

IN UNION IS STRENGTH.
THE People Rally
TO OUR SUPPORT AND BY UNITED EFFORT A SPLENDID VICTORY IS WON.
There is a vast difference between promising to do and doing. When SCHOTT promises to sell Clothing at less than others ask for inferior goods, we have both the goods and the prices to back up our assertions.
Somebody, with more pugnacity than discretion, has seen fit recently to stir us in regard to offering people baits. It seems to us we must have had a desired effect. So to all such, we say, "Keep it up!" If it amuses you, it don't hurt us. Ever since the creation of the World, dogs have been barking at the moon, but the moon is not any the worse off. Just so with the attacks upon us. Because we were not in the Clothing Business in Mifflintown when the MAYFLOWER reached this city, is another terrible charge brought against us. We plead guilty. We have not been in the Clothing Business a quarter of a century, and all we know that goods were you will find no war goods in our store, you all know that goods were 50 per cent. higher in those days than they are now. Selling this old stock at COST! will still be a profit of 45 per cent. more than to-day you can buy new goods for. Times change, and he is a wise business man who keeps up with the times. We are full of energy and push. You will find old foggyism with those who have been in business a long time. We mean to stay at the top of enterprise, and liberality will enable us to do so.
MEN'S FINE CLOTHING, Sold at 5 per cent profit.
BOYS' and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING at 5 per cent profit.
Mens and Boys' fine furnishing Goods and Hat Gear, sold at 5 per cent profit.
No matter what kind of a Suit you want we can make it for you, and in each and every instance we guarantee a satisfactory fit. Our 5 per cent profit sales are not a permanent system in our establishment. It is an absolute fact that our sales of five days just past were more than double that of the same period last year.
ELEVEN BUSINESS POINTS:
1. All goods exchanged, or money refunded, if not satisfactory.
2. Five times as large a stock as any other store in the county.
3. Capital enough in business to buy every dollars worth cash.
4. We advertise justifiably, and do so as advertised.
5. Keeping up with the times in every improvement.
6. Turning our stock over two or three times every season.
7. Putting prices low enough so that everybody can buy.
8. Giving a legal guarantee with every dollars worth we sell.
9. Carrying the Finest Clothing and selling at the lowest prices.
10. Annoying no competitors, but keeping ahead in the race for trade.
11. Having no time to attend to other people's business, too busy attending to our own.
SCHOTT, The Clothier,
BRIDGE ST., MIFFLINTOWN, PA.
April 15, 1885-ly.
EIGHT FIRST PREMIUMS
WITHIN A MONTH.
Baugh's Raw Bone Manures and High Grade Agricultural Chemicals and other products, on exhibition at the Pennsylvania State Fair, September 8th to 20th, 1884, were awarded five first premiums.
They were also awarded three first premiums as follows: Lehigh County Fair at Allentown, Pa., September 23th to October 3d; Berks County Fair at Kutztown, Pa., October 3d to 10th; Northampton County Fair at Nash-borough, Pa., October 7th to 10th.
The above are the only exhibits made by Baugh & Sons during '84.
Baugh's Raw Bone Manures have secured a great many premiums including Centennial, Paris and other medals.

Raw Animal Bone is a most valuable enricher of the soil and producer of crops. Baugh's $25 Phosphate contains the life and essence of Animal Bones. This article is manufactured only by Baugh & Sons, Office No. 20 South Delaware Avenue, Philadelphia.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the most obstinate Scrofula.
The medical profession endorse Ayer's SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by it from all parts of the world are on file in the rooms of the Hon. Francis Pickens, ex-Governor of Massachusetts, and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."
