Cholera is spreading rapidly in Spain, France and Italy.

CLEVELAND'S Civil Service Reform bill is still grinding out the postmasters.

ROOSEVELT has refused to become the Republican candidate for Governor of New York.

DAY has formally accepted the Democratic nomination for Governor, and Quay is preparing to know him under.

The Philadelphia Councils intend to compel the Cable Street Railway to reduce the fare from six to five cents for one continuous ride.

LITERARY friends of Walt Whitman, the poet, presented him with a horse and phaeton one day last week. Mr. Whitman is financially poor.

A PHILADELPHIA physician has been arrested on the charge of dissecting the body of a man who died on his hands without permission of the family of the dissected.

The small pox epidemic, in Canada, has not abated in the least, and the United States authorities are taking stringent precautions to prevent its being carried across the border into this country.

The Western Union Telegraph Company are soon to put their telegraph wires under ground in Philadelphia, having been ordered by the Council to do so before the first of next January.

The yachts, Puritan and the Genesee, the former a Yankee and the latter an English yacht, engaged in a thirty-eight mile race on last Tuesday, and the Yankee boat came out ahead. The Yankees are always ahead.

CHINA is advancing in civilization, she just having borrowed $40,000,000 for constructing railways. The contracts for building the roads were offered to New York contractors, but they refused, and the contracts were awarded to Londoners.

Jumbo, Barnum's big elephant met a cruel death last week, by being run over by a railroad locomotive. It makes no difference what creature of this globe, whether mouse, man or an elephant, that gets under the wheels of a moving locomotive, they all meet the same untimely death.

The Chinese government intends to demand an indemnity from this country for the massacre of Chinese in Wyoming Territory. It is but right that they should. What a "mass" it would make if the Chinese should slaughter about fifty Americans. Nothing less than war would satisfy their outraged feelings.

MISS ADA SWEET, Pension Agent at Chicago, Ill., has resigned, and now Pension Commissioner Black is happy. He asked Miss Sweet for her resignation five months ago, and she refused. She resigned recently, not because she had to but because she received a better position elsewhere.

THERE was another brutal prize fight in Boston last week. It is high time that these exhibitions of human brutality be put an end to. The people of the 19th century consider themselves further advanced in civilization than those nations who centuries ago witnessed with pleasure gladiatorial combats. The people have done away with many of the brutal customs of those cruel nations, and yet we allow prize fighting in one of our great cities.

The North American says: It is encouraging to find that the Canadians are waking up to the fact that the imperfections of the extradition treaty with the United States have the effect of burdening them with a class of refugees whose room is preferable to their company. It is noticeable, however, that this conviction only dawned upon them when these border runners fell below the grade of millionaire bank presidents. Be that as it may, there is now an evident disposition to amend the law, and this will materially simplify the question when it comes up for consideration, as it likely will during the next session of Congress.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says: Riel, who was sentenced to be hung last Friday, has been respited to await the action of the Privy Council in London. That august body moves slowly, and in this case it ought not to act for years if its ultimate decision is to be adverse to Riel. The British in Canada have cooled down and are not thirsting for his blood, and the French will be terribly angry if he is executed. The imperial government had better let this wretched man live in a prison or in a hospital, than by hanging him alienate a large part of the Canadian people.

A CELEBRATION was held in Louisville, Ky., on the sale of the one hundred thousandth hoghead of tobacco in that city. The streets were finely decorated, and the procession in honor of the occasion was four hours and a half in passing a given point. Nearly all those participating in the ceremonies were engaged in dealing in tobacco in some way or another.

The bonded debt of the United States now amounts to $1,260,000,000. The aggregate of State debts is about $500,000,000, and of county, city and town debts about $700,000,000. The total railroad debt of the country is reckoned in Poor's Manual at $3,600,000,000. In these four classes of obligations are more than $6,000,000,000 besides the enormous mass of individual debt, the extent of which it is impossible to estimate.

Since the Chinese massacre in Wyoming Territory, the roads westward from Rock Springs, the scene of the massacre are lined with fleeing Chinamen. The United States authorities have been urged to prosecute the perpetrators of the crime, by the Chinese Legation, at Washington, who contend that justice will not be served to the murderers by the local authorities. It appears that not one of the rioters are American born. This government is certainly strong enough to protect the Chinese, and since they come here under a treaty with the home government, the United States authorities are bound to protect them.

ITEMS.

A Nantucket woman claims to have had a wart taken off her nose by faith cure.

LOWE ISLAND CITY, I. I., Sept. 15.—The Common Council of this city last night passed an ordinance imposing a license fee of $100 on skating rinks. This measure will prevent the opening of two rinks here.

Pickpockets did a thriving business at the Grangers' picnic. Elder J. C. Seabrooks, of Danphin county, was relieved of $75. Mr. John Wingert, of Shippensburg, of $30, and Mr. Palmer, from Joliet, Ill., of $65.

A stage line that was established one hundred years ago is said to be still in operation between Skowhegan, Me., and Quebec, a distance of two hundred miles. The stages (six horses) leave either terminus every morning.

BEN is the name of a Georgia blacksmith who is said to be the strongest man in that State. He is six feet ten inches tall and can hold a 120 pound anvil with one hand. Sometimes for pleasure he holds out cart wheels by the spoke or snaps chains that horses cannot break. He is much respected in the community in which he lives.

Cow-Kill.

DODGE CITY, Kan., Sept. 16.—Three cowboys met the Tassara stage south of this city on Sunday and began firing at the passengers. One of the occupants of the stage returned the fire and instantly killed one of the cowboys. The two others rode away.

Jumbo Killed.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., September 16.—About 9 o'clock last night, as Barnum's $300,000 elephant, Jumbo, and the little trick elephant, Tom Thumb, were being led along the track by the keeper, on the way from the show grounds to the car to be loaded, an incoming freight train came upon them unexpectedly and caught and killed Jumbo and broke one of Tom Thumb's legs. There was a side track on the north of the main track which contained all of Barnum's empty cars, and on either side there was an embankment eight feet high. When the keeper saw the train coming he tried to get Jumbo down the south bank, but Jumbo seeing no danger, refused. He then tried to get him between the side track and main line, but only partially succeeded, the locomotive striking Jumbo just as his foreleg had left the track, striking him in the right side and crowling him against the cars on the siding. The great beast was hurried with the engine about one hundred yards. He was so tightly wedged that when he could be carried no further his body crowded the locomotive to the south side, throwing it off the track. He lived thirty minutes.

The Silver Dollar.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Superintendent Fox, of the Philadelphia Mint, brings the silver question squarely before the administration when he presents to Secretary Manning a few pertinent inquiries in regard to the question of coinage of the standard silver dollar. Finding that the regular appropriation for the mint is being rapidly reduced by the coinage of silver, he now asks if the present administration is going to do as did former ones, and pay the expense of coining the silver dollars out of the indefinite appropriation for the purchase of bullion and causing the same to be coined monthly as fast as purchased, or if the Secretary of the Treasury is going to keep specifically for coinage. If this administration intends to follow the others and use the indefinite appropriation, then there is no need of his suspending the regular appropriation, but if otherwise and the mandatory provision of the coinage act of February 28, 1878, is to be observed, he wishes to know it, for in that case the coinage of the silver dollars can last but a few months longer and then cease. The Philadelphia mint is the chief one for the coinage of this dollar, and thus the question is important. With the question before him, Secretary Manning has had some thinking to do. Now Treasurer Jordan returns from New York, and says that the question is the same that he asked when he took charge as Treasurer of the United States, but his question did not involve the immediate one of whether to coin or not to coin the dollars, it was not answered; but Superintendent Fox has to be answered, and that is why Secretary Manning has laid the question before the President. It is too big a matter to be decided by the head of a department and the prompt answering of the question will place the silver question before Congress in its early stages.

Horrible Discovery.

A horrible discovery was made in Chinatown, a part of San Francisco, on Thursday. Information was sent to the city coroner that a frightful stench was being emitted from a cellar on Pacific street. He went out, he hid his way in, and found the floor covered with human skulls and bones partially covered with flesh in the last stage of green putrefaction. Among the decayed mass worms were crawling, while the floor was wet and slimy with liquid exuding from the remains. In an inner room the coroner found a number of Chinese engaged in boiling down the remains of the other bodies, while other Chinese were engaged in wrapping the boiled bones and packing them in boxes for shipment to China. It is estimated the cellar contained over three hundred dead bodies, which have been taken secretly from various cemeteries throughout the state. As an instance of Chinese inhumanity it is said that those in charge of the operations, feasting the stench from the boiling pots would be so great as to attract attention outside, they had procured two living skunks so that the odor of the latter might overcome the former. The coroner confiscated all the remains. After all the boxes containing remains of dead Chinamen had been removed to the morgue the city coroner was interviewed by the press, and stated that those in the boxes were stored and the putrid remains which had set to be boiled were lying, he still to work with a hatchet to break open the boxes. There were some sixty boxes in all. Each of them contained a tin case in which were carefully rolled up in oiled cloths, a number of human bones. Smaller bones of a long strip of skin were wrapped up in separate parcels and placed within larger ones. On the outside of the box was a label in Chinese characters, indicating the name of the person while living, so that the remains could be claimed by relatives on arrival at China. On having opened several cases the coroner concluded to size the whole lot and remove them to the morgue. Express wagons were called, and with the cases were being placed in the wagons some of the boxes rolled off to the pavement, breaking them and leaving the bones exposed to view. A crowd had assembled, having learned the cause of the excitement, jumped on the boxes, and in their indignation trod them under foot.

The New Scalp Law.

Below we give the new law for the destruction of wolves, foxes, minks, hawks, etc. Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, etc. That for the benefit of agriculture, and for the protection of game within this Commonwealth, there is hereby established the following premiums for the destruction of certain noxious animals and birds to be paid by the respective counties in which the same are slain, namely, for every wildcat, two dollars, for every red or gray fox, one dollar for every mink, fifty cents, for every weasel, fifty cents, for every hawk, fifty cents, and for every owl, except the American screech or barred owl, which is hereby exempted from the provisions of this act, fifty cents. Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of any person having killed any animal or bird mentioned in the first section of this act and who is desirous of availing himself of the premiums therein, provided to produce such slain animal or bird before any magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace of the county in which the same was killed, and make affidavit of the time and place of killing the same. Sec. 3. That the pelts, or skins from the tip of the nose of any such animal, may be produced in lieu of the same when so preferred, and upon the receipt of any such animal or pelt or skin it shall be the duty of such magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace, in the presence of said person killing such animal or bird or one elector of the county, to cut off the ears of such animal or the head of such bird, and in the presence of said person burn the same.

Sec. 3 Upon the destruction of the ears or heads as aforesaid, the magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace shall give to the person producing such animal or bird a certificate of compliance with the provision of this act, directed to the commissioners of the county in which such animal or bird was slain, which certificate shall contain the following facts: The kind of animal or bird killed, when and where and by whom killed, and the date by whom and in the presence of what elector the ears of said animal or head of said bird was destroyed, and upon the production of such certificate, the said commissioners shall give an order upon the county treasurer for the payment of the premium or premiums provided by this act, and it shall be the further duty of the magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace taking the affidavit provided in the second section of this act to file the same forthwith, or cause the same to be filed, in the office of the commissioners of the county, and upon filing the same the said magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace shall receive from the county stock the sum of twenty cents in full compensation for all services under this act. Sec. 4. If any person shall willfully and fraudulently obtain any premium or premiums provided by this act, or shall aid or assist or abet in any official capacity or otherwise in the same, he, she, or they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction they shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or either or both at the discretion of the court.

STILL ON TOP AND WE MEAN TO STAY THERE. FAIR DEALING, IS OUR MOTTO. SUCCESS, OUR REWARD.

STRAVER will not, nor cannot be undersold. We are highly gratified at the success attending our efforts to bring down the high prices formerly charged for CLOTHING in Mifflintown, and find the community sticks to its first love.

The public have faith in our published statements, and we strive to deserve the full measure of confidence so freely placed in us. Every day brings fresh proof to us of the good will of all classes. We say without the least fear of contradiction (and have plenty money to back it) that my terribly offended opposition has two Dollars worth of unsalable, or as he calls them, WAR GOODS to his door.

NO OLD GOODS THIS SEASON. as all our summer clothing was destroyed by fire.

SOME TALK ABOUT FIVE PER CENT. FILE! Why, before I will allow any customers and friends to be deceived in that matter. I will do business this summer for pleasure, and show you the bill for every piece of goods you buy, only asking expense of transportation, and our advantages for buying are equal, if not superior, to any house in central Pennsylvania.

"I had rather be a dog and bay the moon, than such a clothier." How conceited, some people think all others are old foggies. Well, by the "you" get through with us and our low prices, they shall change their minds.

Remember, whatever you buy of us must be as represented. When we say a suit is all wool such must be fast, and when we give you a price we guarantee that such price is lower than any one else can sell the same article at.
