Letter from Kansas.

TOPICKA, Kansas, Oct 27, 1885. Mr. Editor:—It would be glad to hear from you if we had such a season, but not being a cold spring we go right along same as usual.

SHORT LOCALS.

Try a pair of Heck's $1.00 shoes. Attention! Go to the "Broom Drill." John Kirk has barrels of fine apples for sale.

A new glove, just out, has eighteen buttons. Present Brooms! Go to see the "Broom Drill." Buy the Walker Kip Boot at G. W. Heck's.

Miss Alice Todd is visiting friends in Huntington. Shoulder Brooms! Don't fail to see the "Broom Drill."

To make shoes water-proof soak them in thick soap water. Rev. Mr. Logan, of Millersburg, was in town last Thursday.

Mr. Henry Scholl has bought a piano for his daughter Marion. Mail agent Wm. Wagner put the town clock in order last week.

The Bloomfield Freeman proposes to colonize the tramp.—Where? Ground Brooms! Everybody, speaks of going to the "Broom Drill."

Mr. Aaron Letty and wife of Fayette have been married fifty-three years. Reverse Brooms! The "Broom Drill" promises to be a grand success.

Mr. Gary W. Ahl, of Cumberland county, died on the 2nd day of this month. About 60 per cent. of the Berks county voters turned out on election day.

Superintendent Auman has his program arranged for the 19th annual Teachers' Institute of Juniata county, to convene in the Court House, December 14, and to continue till the 18th of said month, 1886.

Avoid the harsh, irritating, gripping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

Washington North and family have moved into their new house in Patterson. The house is one of the most convenient and thoroughly equipped houses in the county, and it is hoped that Mr. North and family may live long to enjoy their fine home.

As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merits. Many thousands of people are yearly saved from dangerous fevers by the exercise of a little timely care in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy.

The monument erected to the memory of Major Andre, who was to receive the surrender of West Point for the British, from Benedict Arnold, during the Revolution of 1776, was blown up on the night of the election. The monument stood near Tappan, N. Y.

Now is the time to get ready for the next Legislative election, vote for no man who will not pledge himself to vote for the repeal of the iniquitous new tax law, that was passed by the late Legislature and signed by Governor Pattison. Such a pledge your vote into everybody's private affairs law, should have no existence among an enlightened people.

Last Thursday morning a fire destroyed a large two-story frame building in New Germantown, Perry county, occupied as a dwelling, general store and warehouse by J. E. Rumpel and owned by J. F. Hockenberry. The flames communicated with a dwelling owned by Samuel Kerr and occupied by Mrs. Barbara Kreamer. Rumpel's stock of goods is estimated to have been worth $5,000, on which there is an insurance of $2,700. Hockenberry's loss is estimated at $8,000, with an insurance of $1,800 on the buildings and $2,000 on the stock and fixtures. Herr's loss is $1,500, insured for $1,000. Mrs. Kreamer had an insurance on household goods, of $300. The fire was of mysterious origin.

Bryan's Day. The students of Mifflin Academy, under the Principalship of Rev. Mr. Hayes, have adopted the custom of setting apart one Friday afternoon in every month, which time they devote to the works of some one of the many noted authors. Last Friday afternoon was William Cullen Bryant's day, and was devoted to the reading of selections from the works of that noted American poet. The exercises were opened by roll call, students answering to their names by repeating suitable questions from the works of the author to whom they were devoting the day. Among the recitations to be committed were original reproductions of "Waiting for the State" and "The People of the Snow," an original biographical sketch of Bryant, and an essay on the works of the author. The next Friday afternoon that will be set apart will be devoted to the works and biography of John Milton.

Communication. [FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT] PERRY COUNTY, November 8, 1886. I visited the fair here on Saturday. Thanksgiving day will soon be here, and Mrs. John Kreamer's piano has been sold. John Kreamer has had his share of the fair, and he has had his share of the fair, and he has had his share of the fair.

TURBETT TOWNSHIP, November 9, 1885. Farmers are busking corn. Wm. Mahone is politically dead. "November's chilling blasts" are here. The happiest man in Turbett township is Cal Landis. It's a boy.

The highly esteemed Rev. J. A. Ross was in Port Royal on Saturday. Quite a number of the young ladies of Turbett township have had their fortunes told.

There will be a spelling school at Olive Branch school house, on Thursday night of this week. Mr. Holman Turbett, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the residence of Noah Horstler, in "Old Port."

The W. C. T. U. Society met in the Lutheran Church at Port Royal, on Friday evening of last week. Rev. S. H. Spangler delivered an address to the schools of Port Royal on Friday afternoon, on alcohol, its effects and results.

Dr. G. M. Graham has placed a hydraulic ram on his farm in Turbett township, for the purpose of forcing water to his barn. If John Sherman will be elected to the Senate, of which there is no doubt, he will be the third Senator who has been elected for five full terms.

Capt. Wm. Stuart has returned home from Mifflin county, where he had been engaged in axing. He expects to be at home for some time. He is a good Sawyer. The Democracy are crowing very loudly over their victory in Va., by electing Fitz Hugh Lee, Governor, who won the vote by arousing the Democracy with the fact that he rode in the "rebel General Lee's" saddle, and under the colors of the Confederate States. They are also carried away as it were by their 10,000 majority for Hill, in New York, taking no account of Treasurer elect Quay's 40,000 Republican majority in the Keystone State.

PLATO. Notes From Washington, Pa. All readers of history know that at Pittsburgh there was a fort by the name of Duquesne, near where Braddock's army was defeated by the French and Indians. About thirty miles from Pittsburgh, near the present site of Washington, before the Declaration of Independence there was a fort to which the white settlers fled during Indian hostilities. A Mr. Wright the grand-father of Mrs. Young, wife of Dr. Loyal Young, now living in this town, was one of others who came to this fort when pressed by the Indians.

There is a grain cradle manufactory a short distance below the Charliers Valley station, which is at the lower end of town. The B. & O. station and Washington & Waynesburg station are in the south part of the town. There is a reading room in the town hall building, where young people of the town that desire to read, gather in the evening. In a building alongside the college, upon the campus, there is a library and reading room where college students can gain improvement.

Professor McClintock, a member of the faculty of College addressed the late teachers institute upon the subject, "Our Dumb Animals." There are several Chinamen in this town, who together run a laundry. One colored youth is attending college. One colored youth is attending college. One colored youth is attending college.

The Broom Drill on Thanksgiving Evening.

In addition to our notice of last week, we desire to say further in relation to the "Broom Drill." This entertainment, by reason of its novelty, and by reason of the many delightful features presented in it, has acquired a wide spread popularity. Everywhere it is received with a delight and appreciation as only afforded upon entertainments of this peculiar and acceptable character. It is unique in design to say the least and when you add to the original elegance of the military drill, the natural tact and grace of the lady performers, you find a combination that cannot fail of success and that in all instances elicits commendations of favor from those who witness the performance.

The members of the Mifflintown Drill, though strictly amateurs in their efforts, are attending assiduously to the necessary prompt attendance and careful study they have already attained efficiency in the drill. They will be fully prepared on Thanksgiving evening to give an entertainment that will delight amuse and edify the large audience that will be in to see and enjoy it. Tickets will be for sale at Espenschade's store and the popular price of 20 cents for admittance will be charged and sold on the evening of the exhibition at no extra charge. All will be admitted at the same price. The principle object here first served will be rigidly adhered to in the disposal of reserved seats. All wishing to attend can receive seats that will be held before going to the Court House and by this means avoid the usual rush at the door. Don't fail to witness "The Broom Drill," a rare treat and something new.
