"The above cut is an exact representation of the Steam Fire Engine ordered by the Friendship Hook and Ladder Company, of Patterson, from the Button Manufacturing Company, of Waterford, N. Y. The P. R. R. Company have kindly consented to give the engine free transportation over its lines. The engine will be ready for shipment in a few weeks, and upon its arrival here will be publicly tested in both boroughs. By the way, the boys will hold a cake walk in their building on next Saturday evening, to raise funds to make first payment on engine. Our citizens should give them proper encouragement in this commendable act for the preservation of property.

Register and Recorder Berry is a preacher, and by virtue of his calling has authority to marry people. Last week a man and woman applied for a marriage license, they knew that Mr. Berry had the right to tie the matrimonial cord, they requested him to marry them which he was glad to do and they left his office as man and wife.

The strongest cables in the service of the railroad company were not strong enough to pull the wrecked locomotive and cars out of Sherman's creek, at the Duncannon railroad bridge, the place of the scene of the late disaster. It was impossible to bridge over the old chasm with the wreck in the bed of the creek. The railroad company built a track across the creek some distance higher up the creek. On the evening of the 4th, the disaster took place, on the morning of the 5th inst., an order for a trestle work across the creek was sent to lumbermen in Clearfield county. The timber was on the stump, but the order was filled and the lumber was put into the trestle bridge, and trains were run over it at noon on Friday, the eighth inst. The wreck brought long trains of freight to a stand still. There was a line of freight cars a hundred miles long in the Juniata Valley. In places where it was not possible to get feed to live stock in cars, the animals suffered. In several trains live hogs fed on the ones that had died.

Received $12,000 Back Pay.

For years Alex. Gilchrist, familliarly known as "Blind Alex.," has been a resident of Indiana. Born and raised in Blairsville, he became a soldier at the outbreak of the war, enlisting in company K, Thirty-fifth Indiana volunteers. He served through the war, but was not wounded. Exposure, disease and suffering, however, wasted his body and his eyesight failed. Twelve years ago he became entirely blind. He has been trying to get a pension for a long time, but met with obstacles until recently, when the government examiners came the conclusion that the ailment which left him in total darkness had been contracted by a long march over Limestone Park, in Tennessee. On Monday Alex. received a check for back pay amounting to $12,151.80, and will receive seventy-two dollars per month hereafter. He is 55 years old and in good health. He is a relative of General Harry White, who was very active in furthering his claim. —Altoona Tribune.

An Old Game.

If you don't travel much you can become acquainted with the ways of the world by reading the newspapers, for they mention the doings of all kinds of people. The following old game as related by the Philadelphia Bulletin of January 6, 1886, should be carefully read and remembered as a knowledge of the crooked men who practice tricks on their fellow men, may enable men to run clear of human sharks that seek ones pocket book: This is the Bulletin narrative. Farmer John Johnson, of Doylestown, was swindled of eighty dollars yesterday afternoon in a manner which makes him feel rather sore. Mr. Johnson was standing in front of the railroad depot at Third and Berks streets yesterday, waiting for the two o'clock train to take him home, and as he was alone he concluded to make the acquaintance of some one, and fixed upon a dapper-looking young man, who also appeared to be waiting for a train. The two were soon engaged in a conversation. The new acquaintance gave his name as Morgan and seemed to know all about Doylestown and Bucks county he informed Johnson that "old man Armstrong, who died about three weeks ago," was his father-in-law, and he was now taking his wife and child home. He had just bought a herd of cattle, which would be shipped home later in the day. The old gentleman suggested that, as it was nearing train time, a drink would be the proper thing, and the two went across the way, and in the saloon opposite the depot they had two or three drinks each. On the way back to the depot Johnson's new friend was tapped on the shoulder by a man who carried a pen behind his ear. This man said: "Mr. Morgan, the freight on that cattle of yours has not been paid yet, and something must be paid before they can be shipped."

Morgan didn't have any money and wouldn't have any until he reached Doylestown. He had a $1,000 bonk, but the man who pretended to be a clerk said he couldn't receive it. Morgan then appealed to Farmer Johnson, and the latter very accommodatingly handed over $80—all the cash he had—and was assured that it would be returned as soon as Doylestown was reached. Morgan and the clerk then walked off, and Farmer Johnson waited about the depot looking for Morgan to reappear, but he was disappointed, and the fact gradually dawned upon him that he had been swindled. He did not tell the police of the affair and concluded to bear his loss in silence, but the matter finally leaked out, and now a search is being made for the young man named Morgan.

"What kind of fruit do you love the best?"
He questioned the maiden fair;
"The juicy apple with rosy cheeks
Or the sweet and luscious pear?"
The gentle maiden smiled and said:
"The fruit that pleases me
Better than all the fruits I know
Is the fruit of the Christmas tree."

Pomona Grange Meeting.

The second quarterly meeting of the Juniata Pomona Grange, No. 35, was held at McAlisterville on the 1st and 2nd of January, 1886. By the courtesy of the fraternity of I. O. O. F. and especially through the influence of our venerable brother ex-Sheriff D. M. Jamison who is also a senior member of the I. O. O. F., we were permitted to hold our meetings in their commodious hall. There were present at the meeting, thirty-six members of the Pomona and upward of a hundred visiting members besides. All the members who had special duties assigned them, responded promptly and showed such intellectual acquirements that gave evidence of their studious habits and devotion to the cause in which they have enlisted.

The "Greeting," by sister Anna E. Humphrey of No. 780, as also the essay on the "Patrons Mission," by sister Clara J. Milliken of No. 772, were so well received and considered of such importance that, upon motion, they were requested to furnish the Secretary with copies for publication in the Farmer's Friend and county papers. Brothers J. E. Jamison, on "Peach Culture;" Geo. Ubil, on "How to make the Grange a success," J. L. Patterson, on "Over Production of Wheat," J. W. Hostetler, on "The merchantile advantages of the order," and Stambaugh and Leonard, on "Mixed Farming." All acquitted themselves very creditably.

On New Year's evening a public meeting was held in the spacious hall of the Academy building. Every available space was occupied by respectable citizens of the village and surrounding country, when Prof. J. T. Ailman, a practical farmer and graduate of Princeton College, told them "Why he joined the Grange."

The thought, argument, lucid descriptions and eloquence of the young brother gave conclusive evidence that his time at college was not devoted to dull theories alone, but that he has amassed a large store of scientific and practical knowledge. On motion of ex-County Superintendent Wellington Smith seconded by ex-Sheriff W. H. Knouse, the Professor was requested to furnish the Secretary with a copy of his address for publication in the Farmer's Friend.

Brother Ailman's address was followed by a statistical explanation by the Secretary, in which he showed the disadvantages and injustice heaped upon the agricultural classes of the State by reason of discrimination in R. R. freights and unequal taxation. Bro D. B. McWilliams also gave a very interesting and intelligent talk on "Commercial Fertilizers," which showed that he has given the suject much thought and investigation.

The exercises throughout were interesting and edifying, the greatest harmony and fraternal feeling prevailed; old acquaintances were renewed and new ones formed. In short the social feature alone was worth more than the trouble and expense of the meeting.

A special meeting will be held by the Pomona Grange, in the hall of Fermanagh Grange, at Mifflintown, on the 22nd day of February next.

THEODORE H. MEMINGER, Prothonotary.

PROTHONOTARY'S OFFICE, Mifflintown, Pa., Dec. 19, 1885.

Notes from Turbett Township.

January 11, 1886.

Harry McClure was in Harrisburg last week.

Airy View Academy opened on last Wednesday.

Brodie Groninger has become a "devil" in the Times office.

Wm. McCathren, of Turbett township, is building a barn this winter.

Dr. Wilson returned home, on last Saturday evening from Pittsburg.

The Tuscarora Valley Cavern Association has renewed the excavations on the farm of John Koons.

This promises to be a successful business year if Congress can keep out of mischief.

Bernice Calhoun, who has been critically low with typhoid fever, is slowly improving in health.

W. T. Graham returned to Dickinson College last Monday, where he will resume his studies again.

There will be a pound party at Mrs. Rhoda Balsbach's, in Port Royal, on Tuesday evening, January 12.

H. E. Oves, of Port Royal, is going to move with his family to Lebanon, in the beginning of February.

Wm. Stuart, who has been in Mifflin county sawing for Dr. Graham, returned home last week, having finished his bill.

David Rigby, son of John Rigby, has been suffering very severely from inflamatary rheumatism for the past three weeks

Will Jacobs, who has been at home during the holidays, returned to Port Carbon, Schulkill county, where he is teaching school.

There will be a musical concert held in Arcade Hall of Port Royal on Thursday evening, January 14. It will consist of soloes, duetts, quartetts, &c.

Owing to the bridge at Duncannon being broken down there were no mails received at Port Royal, for several days, excepting the Philadelphia papers.

The heavy rain on Monday caused the waters to raise very fast and washed out about one-half of Hertzler's dam; the loss is estimated between three and four hundred dollars. The water, from the creek, was backed over the road at Hertzler's mill about a foot, and was about three feet deep in the mill and about as deep in McCulloch's mill.

Anybody who saw the crowds of men and women on the streets of Port Royal and Mifflintown, on New Years day, making desperate efforts to convince themselves that they were having a good time with nothing to do but stand and watch the fantastics march, have been convinced that if there is anything the American people understand, it is how to enjoy a holiday.

During the year just closed there were nine deaths in Turbett township, namely: Mrs. Sarah Robison, Mrs. Nancy Jane Jacobs, Mrs. Mary Bender, Mrs. Ella Mitchell, Miss Amelia Kohler, Mrs. Anna Mercy Hipplo, Mrs. Elizabeth Haines, Mrs. Elizabeth McMeen, and Hugh Laird McMeen, and there were six marriages, namely: Miss Alice Stuart to John Kerlin, Wm. Stuart to Priscilla Kerlin, Mrs. Maggie Kirk to John Glace, Miss Anna Jacobs to Frederick Gloe, Miss Mary Robison to Elmer Bell, Harry Wise to Sadie Robison.

Temperance.

CONTRIBUTED BY THE W. C. T. U.

A Lash with a Snapper.

By law you may sell to men and women, if they will buy. You have given your bond and paid your license to sell to them, and no one has a right to molest you in your legal business. No matter what families are distracted and rendered miserable; no matter what wives are treated with violence; what children starve or mourn over the degredation of a parent, your business is legalized, and no one may interfere with you in it. No matter what mother may agonize over the loss of a son, or sister blush for the shame of a brother, you have a right to disregard them all and pursue your legal calling; you are licensed. You may fit up your lawful place of business in the most enticing and captivating form; you may furnish it with the most costly and elegant equipments for your lawful trade; you may fill it with the allurements to amusement; you may use all your arts to seduce visitors; you may skillfully arrange and expose to view your choicest wines and captivating beverages; you may, then, induce thirst by all contrivances to produce a raging appetite for drink, and, and then you may supply that appetite to the full, because it is lawful; you have paid for it; you have a license.

You may allow boys, almost children to frequent your saloon; they may witness the apparent satisfaction with which their seniors quaff the sparkling glass; you may be schooling them for the period of twenty-one, when they too can participate for all this is lawful. You may hold the cup to their very lips, but you must not let them drink—that is unlawful. But while you have all these privileges for the money you pay, this poor privilege of selling to children is denied you. Here the parents have the right to say, "Leave my son to me until the law gives you the right to destroy him. Do not anticipate that terrible moment has come when I can assert for him no further right of protection; that will be soon enough for me, for his mother, for his sister, for his friends, and for the community to see him take his road to death. Give him to us in his childhood at least. Let us have a few years of his youth, in which we may enjoy his innocence, to repay us in some degree for the care and love we have lavished upon him."

This is something you, who now stand a prisoner at this bar, have not paid for; this is not embraced in your license. For this offence the court sentences you to ten days' imprisonment in the county jail, and that you pay a fine of seventy-five dollars and costs; and that you stand committed until the fine and costs of this prosecution are paid.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

Vegetable Sicilian

The great popularity of this preparation, after its test of many years, should be an assurance, even to the most skeptical, that it is really meritorious. Those who have used HALL'S HAIR RENEWER know that it does all that is claimed.

It causes new growth of hair on bald heads—provided the hair follicles are not dead, which is seldom the case; restores natural color to gray or faded hair; preserves the scalp healthful and clear of dandruff; prevents the hair falling off or changing color; keeps it soft, pliant, lustrous, and causes it to grow long and thick.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER produces its effects by the healthful influence of its vegetable ingredients, which invigorate and rejuvenate. It is not a dye, and is a delightful article for toilet use. Containing no alcohol, it does not evaporate quickly and dry up the natural oil, leaving the hair harsh and brittle, as do other preparations.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS

Colors them brown or black, as desired, and is the best dye, because it is harmless; produces a permanent natural color; and, being a single preparation, is more convenient of application than any other.
