

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN:

Wednesday, April 7, 1886.

TERMS.

Subscription, $1.00 per annum if paid within two months; $1.50 if not paid within 12 months.

Transient advertisements inserted at 50 cents per inch for each insertion.

Transient business notices in local column, 10 cents per line for each insertion.

Deednotions will be made to those desiring to advertise by the year, half or quarter year.

SHORT LOCALS.

It snowed on Monday.

April came in beautifully.

Sam Jones is a Georgia man.

Mrs. Turbett has returned from Ohio. The snow melted rapidly on Saturday.

The Jacobs House has a nice new bus.

Step into Harley's for a suit of clothing.

Don't talk so hard about your neighbor.

Lawful trout fishing time begins April 15.

Plant, and don't wait on the almanac sign.

Opening day at Schott's store April 10th, 1886.

Rafting on the Susquehanna was brisk last week.

Subscriptions for the creamery are coming in.

Horse buyers are about looking for horses.

Night burglary is punishable by death in Georgia.

Sheriff Fowles moved into the jail last Thursday.

Canal navigation is to be opened next Saturday.

There are nineteen prisoners in Lewis-ton jail.

Plow powdered charcoal on a burn to relieve pain.

The 1st turned out to be a first rate day for moving.

Piles of money changed hands on the 1st of April.

There was a fall of six inches of snow on Sunday morning.

Most of the farmers are behind time with their spring work.

Huntington Presbytery will meet at Os-cola on the 13th inst.

Sucker fishing in the river, was first rate a day or two last week.

Barnum's circus will show at Carlisle on the 3rd of May, 1886.

Subscribe for the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN, one dollar a year.

Samuel Spedy has arrived home, from California, in poor health.

A professional base ball player at Grand Rapids, committed suicide.

Don't forget the grand opening day at Schott's is the coming 10th.

If the newspapers would publish what people say about each other.

Dr. Atkinson was home last week attending upon the illness of his mother.

President Cleveland has grown in weight forty-two pounds since March 1885.

The post office has been moved into R. E. Parker's office on Bridge street.

Andrew Beashore carried a lot of nice fat cattle to Philadelphia last Friday.

Five inches of the beautiful, covered every tree and shrub last Saturday morning.

The heavy rains of last week caused a number of small slides along the railroad.

Stones are being handled for the foundation walls of the new Presbyterian church.

There were heavy snows in Illinois and other western states on the 31st of March.

Sheriff Shively moved to the Michael Hoffman property, near Oakland, on the 1st.

There were 5,000 people flooded out of their homes last Friday, at Chattanooga, Tenn.

President Cleveland's pension agent, Black does not give satisfaction, as a pension agent.

Perry Colburn, while handling railroad ties, one day last week, had his hand severely hurt.

One of Emery McGahan's mules was found dead in his stable last Saturday morning.

The Senate has passed a bill to appropriate $500,000 for a national monument to Abraham Lincoln.

A Washingtonian is in favor of passing a law for the appointment of a doctor for the President.

Two thirds of this month are to be clear according to the prediction of certain weather prophets.

Sheriff Fowles gave a dinner to a number of his friends on the occasion of his taking possession of the jail.

Landlord Foreman, of the Jacobs House, bought the William Cunningham farm, new Patterson for $4,200.

Mr. Hayes will assist Mr. Wilson, of Port Royal, in the administration of the Lord's Supper next Sabbath.

The winter is over, spring is at hand, and the place to buy the best of clothing is at Strayers, in Patterson.

Mrs. Diehl, at her Millinery store on Water street, has just received a full line of Spring hats and bonnets.

Drinking butter-milk as a relief for dyspepsia, however, is not too large quantities, that's what a doctor says.

Chris Shelly, of Delaware township, took a lot of horses to Lancaster county and sold them at satisfactory prices.

Ladies with remonstrance papers against the granting of license to sell liquor were numerous last week in town.

Thomas Benner died of pneumonia about 4 o'clock on Monday morning at his home near Centre, Walker township.

A Chicago church, it is said, recently put up in the vestibule this sign: "Salvation is free, but the pews are not."

Solomon Sieber, of Fermanagh township, has not been able to attend to business, the past week, on account of poor health.

Mrs. Kaufman, wife of Philip Kaufman, deceased, is lying seriously ill at the residence of William Haines, in this place.

Everything except the broom and dustpan seems to be "placed" or ornamentally hung up now in the fashionable hallway.

"The first freight train to be moved in Texas for two weeks contained 300 kegs of beer. This gives a faint idea of the suffering which the strike must have caused in Texas during that period."

James Irwin and wife took their departure for Greensburg, Westmoreland county, last Thursday morning. Their many friends gave them good-bye with many regrets and all hope they may find congenial friends. Mr. Irwin is chairman of the Republican County Committee and his departure will require the election of a new chairman.

It was a big time that J. Gould and the Knights of Labor had with each other, and both are out of pocket.

Sam Jones will preach in Boston next winter and after that, the Bostonians will be able to say culture instead of "cuckoo."

Don't forget it, Schott's day for opening his large new stock of spring and summer goods, and clothing, will be on the 10th day of April.

For SALE.—A valuable and desirable tract of land on one of the main streets of the town. For particulars, terms, etc., apply at this office.

United States Senator Jones, of Florida, is still in Detroit trying to get neat enough to make love to a lady who will have neat weeks ago.

The Philadelphia Record says: In 1885, in Philadelphia, the whole number of deaths from diphtheria was 600; scarlet fever, 375, and typhoid fever, 610; and the table shows that the greatest mortality from these three diseases was not in the wards where the worst slums exist, but in those sections of the city where there are class improvements and plenty of fresh air.

The remains of an extinct sea turtle that is seventeen feet from the tip of one flipper to the other, was found, not long since, near Fort Wallace, Kansas, buried in a bluff. It isn't hard to explain, ages ago Kansas was the bed or bottom of an ocean. In the days when men sailed on that ocean a man would have been only a common sized bait for a large turtle.

It has just been revealed that a gang of moonshiners were conducting a distillery in the town of Sharon, Mercer county, Pa., within a hundred yards of the Court House. The still was constructed in the side of the hill. The smoke was carried off by means of a pipe-stove laid along the ground for a considerable distance. The pipe and pipe were all concealed by debris, brush and vegetation.

A few days ago a colored man was hung for murder in Texas, in the presence of a crowd of 5000 people. He expressed a desire to take a collection from the crowd to raise a fund for funeral expenses. His hat was passed around and $200 were dropped into it. He thanked the people for the contribution, warned them of the result of a bad life, said good-bye and was hung. His body was given in charge of his friends who used the collection fund for funeral expenses.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says: A death in New Jersey from blood-poisoning caused by wearing red stockings under tight boots seems to present a suitable opportunity for some definite inquiry into the subject of the dyes used upon fancy-colored stockings.

Much irritation is undoubtedly produced by some of them, even where no fatal effect follows. The pores of the feet are opened by exercise and the absorption of the coloring matter is the necessary consequence. It is time to inquire a little closely into the adulteration of stockings."

Stranger (to fellow passenger)—Excuse me, but am I not right in taking you for a professional man?

Fellow-passenger—Yes, sir.

Stranger—Thanks. It's not often that I make a mistake in judging my fellow-men. Your work is head work altogether, of course!

Fellow-passenger—Oh, yes, sir; entirely so.

Stranger—Er—lawyer?

Fellow-passenger—No, sir; barber.—N. Y. Sun.

A Columbia lady keeps a penny box on her dining table, and when members of the family speak ill of any person she requires them to contribute to the box—Columbia (S.C.) Record.

The coat-of-arms of the Ohio D-mocracy.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

A Columbia lady keeps a penny box on her dining table, and when members of the family speak ill of any person she requires them to contribute to the box—Columbia (S.C.) Record.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.

A rough and tumble fight took place in Patterson on Saturday afternoon, between three or four men, but as no reporter was upon the scene, the occurrence receives but little mention.

The ground was covered by several inches of snow on Monday, and with no ground plowed the farmers are beginning to wonder when they will get a chance to sow

the ground.

Commissioner of pensions has issued instructions to pension agents to pay the increase of pensions to widows without making application or surrendering their certificates.