Westminster Church. On the 22nd inst., the trustees of Westminster Presbyterian Church in this place opened the several proposals for the building of a new church building. The proposals were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Wilber F. McCahan & Co. $13,880.00; Horning & Goshan 14,945.00; H. D. Fusk 13,985.00; Hetrick & Wilson 17,000.00; D. E. Doty & Co. 15,347.50; J. S. Sweiger 15,407.00; Jas. D. Shollar 9,265.00; 12,703.00.

The contract of the church building was given to Mr. Keefer, without excavation and stone to grade line, pews furnishing and lamps.

The church is to be of Gothic style of architecture, and will front on Lemon and Third streets. At the corner of the two streets the tower will stand 94 feet high. Mr. Warner, of Washington D. C., will place a memorial window in the Lemon street front, in honor of his deceased wife whose maiden name was Mary Parker. The auditorium will be 54x60 feet. The seats will be in Semi-circle and half of the floor bevelled or raised which will give all an opportunity to see front and be comfortably near to the pulpit. The choir and organ will be in the rear of the pulpit. Ten interlaced arches will support the roof. Ten interlaced arches will be rough white plastered. The lecture room will be at north end of the building and will be separated from the preaching room by an aisle. The room will be 24x50 feet, which may be converted into three rooms by stained glass partitions, no arches are needed, for this part of the building is one story high. The entrance to the lecture room is from Third street. The entrance to the auditorium is from both streets. The building, when completed will prove itself to be one of the most complete proportioned church buildings.
