Good For Teething. The McMeen Murder Case.

REASONS FOR ASEING FOR A NEW TRIAL-TIME EXTENDED TO FILE REASONS TILL MAY 28, 1886-COUNSEL NOTIFIED TO HE READY TO PROCEED WITH THE CASE IN ARGUMENT COURT

TO BE MILD JUNE 8, 1886.

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, May 1, 1886, the jury before which William Josinh McMeen had been arraigned for trial, for the murder of his wife, Nancy McMeon, by a dose of strychnia, at their home in Port Royal, Juniata county, on the morning of March 9, 1886, rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Counsel for the prisoner at once moved We strive to please to please our patrons in every way; su for a new trial and the Court gave them we say that if, after inspection, you become dissatisfied with twenty days to file their reasons for asking your purchase, bring it back to us ; we will cheerfully exchange it for you. On the 17th day of May, 1886, lawyers for McMeen filed eight reasons for asking for a new trial of which the following is a synop-for a new trial.

First, That it was a mistake to admit, under objection, that part of McMeen's mother-in-law, Mrs. Eliza Funk's, testimony, In which she proves that McMeen threatened to leave his family and child, and when she told him that if he did, it would break her heart, he answered that she-the mother-in-law-would have something more than that to break her heart before long. At most the threat or prophesy involved the moth-was illogical and unfair. Second, That Judge Barnett was suffering with a cold and his voice was hoarse and he was compelled to leave the Bench and stand in front of the jury and deliver In Ohio there have been three Congres- ter to keep your vest pulled down and your ing rooms. Fourth, Because, of the almost universal quiet, but unmistakable bearing of spectators against the prisoner, that he should be executed as murderer, whether there was proof of his guilt or not.

Five, Because, while the proof showed that McMeen mailed the poison to his wife, she took it herself, in his absence, and there was nothing to show that he had any understanding with her that he was to send her medicine and instead sent her poison. To convict the accused it must have been Rooting, spouting and repairing, first- found as a fact by the jury that such an unclass material used, by McClintic. Work derstanding had existed between McMeen and his wife and that he deceived her, while in fact it was proven, that the poison envelope was found in the room where the spoons, knife and poison were found. Sixth, Because, since the trial it has been discovered that Mrs. Minnichen, while searching the room where the spoons, knife and poison were (ound, gathered up scraps of paper and burned them, and that the pol-OF THE ALLEGHENY MODESTAINS," by Ju- er, John W.
