uel Mack, Van Wert.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

EMERSON SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.—In announcing the name of Joseph S. Martin as the nominee for the office of Assembly, I wish to state that I have no objection to the name of a large circle of Republicans who feel confident that he can carry the Legislative banner successfully through the campaign in November, and therefore earnestly suggest his availability to the Republican voters for primary nomination.
Mr. Martin was a boy soldier against rebellion, and a man of high character and integrity, and understands the duties and responsibilities of citizenship and will make a faithful Assemblyman.

W. B. McCAHAN,
Mifflintown, August 2nd, 1886.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

EMERSON SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.— At the instance of a number of Republicans, I would announce John McLaughlin, of Turbett township, as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge for Juniata county, subject to the primary nominating rules. Mr. McLaughlin is well known in Juniata county as a man well qualified for the position, and a man of high character and integrity, and will make a faithful Judge.

W. B. McCAHAN,
Mifflintown, August 2nd, 1886.

TURBETT.

As the time is approaching when the voters of the county will by ballot choose several important officers, among which is that of Associate Judge, it behooves the Republican party to place in nomination not only such men as will poll the whole vote of their own party, but also such men as will poll the vote of many of the opposing party. The wishes of all sections of the Republican party to place in nomination only such men as will poll the whole vote of their own party, and also such men as will poll the vote of many of the opposition party, is a matter of course, and should be the aim of every Republican candidate.

FAYETTE.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

EMERSON SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN.—I would announce Col. J. K. Robinson as a Republican candidate for the office of Chairman of the Republican County Committee, in so important a campaign as the one soon to be engaged in, and I have him as a candidate for that position as one of the best men in the county.

W. B. McCAHAN,
Mifflintown, August 2nd, 1886.

Harry Wingert was burned to death at midnight, on Saturday, in a warehouse at Chambersburg. He had gone into the burning building to get something. Firemen not knowing that he had entered the house closed and fastened the doors to prevent the fire from spreading.

Antoine Becker, of Norris town, was arrested for crossing a bridge with a lighted cigar, which so enraged him that he fired a volley of oaths at the officer who arrested him. He was fined sixty cents and a half cent per oath, making the bill $1.47, and was sent to jail for want of the cash.

"Well, good bye," said the Boston lady to Mrs. Parveen, at the seaside hotel. "I've just time to give the head waiter his perquisites before I go." "I don't know," said Mrs. Parveen, musingly, "why she gives him a perquisite." "Laura," she said, turning to her daughter, "what's a perquisite, any way."

On Sunday 15,000 spectators were witnesses to the passage of the five mile stretch of rapids below Niagara falls, by William Potts, and George Hazlett, in a barrel of conical form. They are coopers, and built the barrel themselves for that special voyage. This new kind of a boat is supplied with a keel, rudder, screw wheel, and turret with glass covered peep holes. At one place in the passage, both men put their heads out of the top of the barrel. The five miles was traveled in fifty-five minutes.

As Pacific, westward bound, was passing through the narrows, between this place and Lewistown, last Thursday morning, Anne Myers, of Altoona, who was returning from Philadelphia where she had gone for medical treatment, escaped from the car by a train car passing along and found her helpless on the track. She was taken to Lewistown and Drs. Crawford and Banks, of this place were sent for. She was severely hurt. Her left arm was broken near the shoulder, her right arm was dislocated, her jaw and nose sustained severe injury and she was bruised over parts of her body. Her case was attended to and she was sent by Way Passenger to Altoona.

A horse in a wagon in which were Sam Lapp and William Murray the latter driving struck and fell on the road at the corner of Main and Bridge streets. The horse lay in the road and had to be un hitched before he would get up. He was not hurt, but hitched up and driven off as if no accident had happened.

Public opinion seems to be changing in favor of the hawk and owl. It is argued that they should not be shot because they are such skillful rat and mouse and insect exterminators, and that if they once in a while catch a chicken, they destroy many more rats and mice than will make up for the loss of a few now and then.

The Democratic members of the Ways and Means committee, that reported the tariff reduction bill in Congress are from districts that represent less than one-third of one per cent of the men employed in the manufacturing industries of the country, and less than one-third of one per cent of the capital employed in the works.

"Young man," said a revivalist, solemnly "do you feel that you are prepared to answer the summons at any moment? Do you realize that when you go to bed at night you

Secretary Bayard has made a valorous demand of Mexico, to surrender the pan-gent pen driving editor Outing, but he has been slow about calling Johnnie Bull to a halt in his capers with American fishermen.
Now that he has his hand in, perhaps it may be well enough not to get to samy with England, for Johnnie Bull and the Astrot together, might prove a powerful combination.

"Don't you see a mousethief?" he asked as he sat beside her gazing on the rising moon; "I ask because there are young ladies who say they are horrid." "I don't know," she replied innocently, "whether I like one or not. I never had one on my lips." "Oh!" he exclaimed, "with a long-drawn breath; then he drew her closer, and there was a sound as if a bird had chirped."

The fact that three of the Democratic candidates for the office of Associate Judge are jurors for the September term of court, will bring all the other candidates for the same office to town on court week. Republican candidates should not be backward about coming forward even if the aspirants or office among the Democracy do not number them three to one. They can all have a good time during court week.

The Forty-ninth Congress has adjourned.
In it the Democrats had forty of a majority, with a Democratic President to help them.
What have they done? The business of the country is well nigh wrecked. The Democratic administration has proved its incompetency to manage the affairs of the country.
Have the people still their eyes closed, will they continue to trust the erring brethren in the mismanagement of affairs?

The Lutheran congregation in this place has an able choir of many voices led by conductor music. The congregational service is fortunate in having fine music, handsome floral pulpit decorations, and able preaching, and a substantial, good looking church building. With peace among the brethren, what's to keep them from enjoying the "Christ Life," the theme of the sermon that their pastor, Mr. Graff, preached last Sabbath evening.

S. E. Kinzer's wood wagon, drawn by two horses, driven by Charles Quay, was struck in the hind wheels by Fast Line, going west, a few evenings ago, at the Helkes crossing, in Millport township. Wagon, team and driver were tumbled down the railroad embankment against a fence. No serious injury was done, excepting one wheel that was broken. The train was stopped and Quay's name was taken and the accident reported to railroad authority.

"My dear," said a young wife to her husband, who had already fallen into the habit of going to the lodge in the evenings and was just preparing to go out, "I'm going up the street to see the Superintendent of Mines at the post office." "Ah! What business may I inquire?" "Well, I want to see if he can give me any advice about getting in an habitually late make on time." The husband laughed, looked foolish, and said he guessed he wouldn't go to the lodge.—Boston Courier.

Some one writing from Decatur township, Mifflin county, to the Lewistown Sentinel says: "We are informed that James Way discovered some good specimens of coal while digging a well in his yard. As he tested it he found that it burned with the same satisfaction as the best of coal. There is also a shaly material mixed among the coal which has the appearance of silver and gold. If this is the indication of a large bed of coal, then Decatur will be a lively place both in business and other transactions."

Minks—"See here, Minks, you must be getting crazy. I hear you backed your old nag against Lightning last night."

Minks—"I did."

You might have known you'd lose.
Lightning is the fastest horse in seven counties and yours can't go a mile in four minutes."

"That is all right, but I know Lightning's driver, and my old nag would have won if it hadn't been for an accident."

"What sort of an accident?"

"Lightning's reins broke."—Omaha

The Bloomfield Advocate of August 4th, says: "Mr. Jacob Bretz, of Howe township, has for some time been suffering with terrible pains in his bowels, and for relief he was accustomed to take morphine to allay the pain, but with little beneficial result.
He was unable to remain quiet for any length of time. As a result his mind became affected and he required close watching. Last Thursday morning when his watchers had relaxed their vigilance and had gone to hitch up a team to take him to his home, he having been at his brother's farm (the late Geo. Bretz's) in Howe township, and while they were engaged in hitching they heard a noise in the barn door where he had wandered in his delirious state. Hurrying around they discovered he had run through the cornfield to the mountain. Up to this (Monday) evening all efforts to discover his whereabouts have been to no avail. He took nothing with him that he could be able to cause any injury to himself, except that the rope of a swing, it is noticed, is missing.

Several nights ago, about 2 o'clock, a heavy set man in dark clothes made an effort to pry open a back window in the house of Congressman Atkinson, his movements were discovered. He changed his base, and was next seen in front of the house, tending to and she was sent by Way Passenger to Altoona.

man returned the salute by firing a pistol shot, but it did not hit the scamp, and he walked, seemingly unconcerned toward the south end of Main street. It is believed he had a confederate. A couple of strange men were seen on Sunday in the fields near town, at one place they were seated, playing cards.

"Wrong! I should say there was. You see I live at Snag Forks, and Bill Wilkins, he's been estimated for right on to six year.
At first he done the square thing. When the letters come that was dumped in a candle box on the bar-room floor, and the boys had no trouble a fiddin' their mail, but Bill said the man he used to be. He's got as uncommodat'na as a Texas steer. First he moved the box to the counter, and we had to nearly break our arms a divin' for the letters. Then if the darned covey didn't get a new painted concern with glass in front so we couldn't get at the mail at all, and, as if that weren't insult enough to honest men, he went to work, rigged up a lot of boxes, and hang me if he didn't put locks onto 'em an' go to chargin' storage. I just tell you. I'll bet that Bill Wilkins out of that place or
