SHORT LOCALS.
Are you registered? Register if you desire to vote.
Fall of the year is now close at hand. Onion juice is said to cure mosquito bites. There appears to be no lull in the picnic. Low rates to the wonderful caverns of Luzerne.
Another supply of neck wear at Esplanade's.
Democrats are off to the State Convention at Harrisburg.
Some of our boys have got the base ball craze pretty badly.
The man who is intoxicated on music, is said to be air tight.
Cases of snake bite are reported from all parts of the county.
Lice and honey dew have destroyed the New York hop crop.
The corn crop in Juniata county will not be a large one this year.
It is reported that an organ factory will be started in Huntingdon.
Mr. Weaver, the piano tuner from Harrisburg was in town last week.
An exchange says, hickory cut in August will not become worm eaten.
The freight over the Pennsylvania Railroad is very heavy at present.
It is said that the prayer meetings in town are not largely attended.
The potato crop is reported, by telegraph, to be below the average yield.
Port Royal people will hold a picnic at Tuscarora station on Thursday.
Millin county prohibitionists nominated a county ticket on the 17th inst.
Altoona firemen will indulge in a grand parade on September 22nd, 1886.
The barrel makers are the most famous people at Niagara falls this season.
Blasphemy and obscenity from the lips of the young have an ominous sound.
Apple trees in Fulton county "are groaning beneath their weight of fruit."
Coal oil is reported to be a good medicine to draw snake poison out of a wound.
The Democratic County Committee meeting was like a county convention last week.
Are you aware, Thursday, September 24, is the last day for the registration of voters?
The Pennsylvania State Fair will be held in Philadelphia from September 6th to the 18th.
President Cleveland expects to pass a season of vacation in the Adirondack mountains.
James M. Harley and wife and daughter, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in this county.
The State Greenback Labor convention is to be held in Harrisburg on the 6th of September.
There are more men engaged at work on the railroad from this place than for many years past.
Wm. K. Graham is running as an independent candidate for associate judge in Millin county.
A new stock of shoes for children, men and women has been received at Espenschaed's store.
Cut the Canada thistle before it blossoms. Keep it from blossoming. Cut also as it presents buds.
The McAlister band passed through this place on Friday morning on its way to Pannebaker's Island.
Jerome Kercher, of Millford township, reports corn stalks in his field measuring 14 feet 10 inches in height.
Some weather prophet has been predicting the coming of great storm between this and the 27th of this month.
Fifty ships of war are ready in case of a war with Mexico. How many are ready in case of a war with England?
The dry and dusty weather made it impossible for the ducks about town to keep a shine on their shoes last week.
A party of young men from this place and Patterson, were serenading one night recently. They make good music.
When you hear a politician say, he's out of politics, consider that, perhaps, he's after a scalp or has been scalped himself.
A Pittsburg man claims to have invented a steamboat that can cross the Atlantic in twenty-four hours. All aboard for Europe.
Col. Hartzhorn and wife, of Juniata county, were visiting this city last week, the guests of S. C. Pomeroy's family.—Tyrone Times.
The candidates, irrespective of party, are traveling about the country shaking hands and asking about the "family and children."
New telegraph poles are being put in on the Middle Division of the P. R. R., the old ones being worn out from long exposure to the weather.
Several wagon loads of people from Fayette township took the cars at this place on Sabbath morning for Camp-meeting at Newton Hamilton.
The unfortunates who have fallen into the hands of the Harrisburg authorities, have been styled by the papers of that place "soiled doves."
FOR SALE.—A valuable and desirable town property on one of the main streets of the town. For particulars, terms, etc., apply at this office.
An engine in the Patterson yard ran off the track on last Wednesday, while making a sharp curve. It was put on the track again in a short time.
The foundry engine frightened a horse of Wm. Banks, Sr., last Thursday. The beast behaved itself in such a way that the buggy was upset and broken.
Rev. B. A. Innes, of Memphis, Tennessee, who had been visiting his brethren in this county during the early part of the summer, started South last week.
Friday was pay-day on the Middle Division of the P. R. R., and it made the heart of the man glad who has been working all month to receive his pay.
Sportmen say that bass are more inclined to bite since the summer has started on the home stretch. Perhaps the fish want to fatten up for winter weather.
A wagon loaded with bark ran over the right foot of William Kesser in Licking Creek Valley on Thursday. He was compelled to stop work for several days.
"Comy," of the McVeytown Journal, has secured T. M. Moore, late editor of the Newton Hamilton Standard, to assist in the editorial management of the Journal.
The Democratic State Convention of Tennessee has recognized the American method of submitting all general questions to the people to be determined for or against, at the polls, and have adopted a resolution favoring the submission of the liquor question to a vote of the people.

Nearly all of the editors of the Juniata Valley will be off on a trip to Cleveland, Ohio, next week, for a period of four days, beginning on the 25th day of the month.
The Pennsylvania Railroad company have placed a new engine in the machine shop to be used in pumping water into the reservoir in case the old engine gives out.
About twenty horses have been stolen from the upper part of Lancaster county within the past few weeks, and only a couple of the horses have been recovered.
Frank H. Lane, of Huntingdon, is seeking the Republican nomination for Congress. There doesn't seem to be an opportunity for the nomination of the General this time.
On Sunday a week after Rev. A. A. Whitmore, "as it were, he was puffed from death into life," he fell dead. His age was 68 years.
William O'Donald had a hand severely hurt while coupling cars at Lewistown. He was brought to Patterson, where the injured hand was treated by Drs. Crawford and Banks.
Special excursions to Luray Caverns via Pennsylvania Railroad, every Thursday. Excursion tickets from this place will be sold at $5.50. Road particulars in another column.
On Monday night a week, some thief went through a car-load of Newton Hamilton camp meeting goods. The car had been left standing on a siding for the night at Lewistown.
The Greenback Labor party has postponed their State Convention until the 6th of September. It would be better for them were they to postpone it until the resurrection morn.
The camp meeting is a place where people may sing and pray and listen to preaching—a christian summer resort, where the frivolities of the summer watering place are not found.
At this writing it cannot be told who's ahead at Harrisburg for the Democratic nomination. The Wallace and Randall men have so much for flying in the air that one can scarcely see.
J. H. McAlister received some seed of Johnson grass from some New York agriculturalist. He sowed the grass and to the amazement of all he presented a stalk of it, 9 feet 6 inches long to this office.
Several days ago a son of George Stutts chewed the leaves of a stalk of Jamestown weed and thereby was poisoned. Dr. Sandoe was called and administered the antidotes necessary to save the life of the child.
A gigging party were in the river all night one night last week and succeeded in getting a good many fish. The party were Harry Derr, Andrew Banks, George Parker, Frank Patterson, Bert Hinkle and Charles Howe.
The cool weather in the early part of last week was not favorable for the sellers of ice cream, but it was a favor to the young man whose best girl had a natural propensity for demoralizing a plate of delicious cream.
The best medical authorities acknowledge the value of Ayer's Pills and prescribe them with the utmost confidence, as the most effectual remedy for diseases caused by derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.
Mrs. Elizabeth McCoy, after a lingering illness, died at the house of Absolem Wise, in Millford township, on the 10th inst., aged 77 years. Her parents lived in this town more than a half century ago. Her maiden name was Wise.
The Democratic State Convention meets this Wednesday at Harrisburg. The moon has a moody appearance, and it black becomes the nominee, distrustful of political hail, steel and drizzling rain will overtake the Democracy.
Engineers will hold a picnic at Rhododendron Park, near Loydsdale, Blair county, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, on next Saturday, August 21st. Five thousand people are expected to be present.
From the Snyder county Tribune of August 13: The appraisers appointed by the court, Messrs. J. K. Davis, Col. Philip Hillis, and Henry Meyer, on Saturday last appraised the farm of the late Peter Bolig, in Penn township, at $115 per acre.
The Democratic County Committee met in town. There was a waving of Democratic plumes on that day. There were men who talk of Mandall, Wallace, Scott, and Curtis for Governor, and then would advise the Republicans not to talk too much.
An engine drawing a train westward bound ran into the caboose of another train near Lewistown last Wednesday evening, smashing it into splinters, and badly damaging the engine. The wrecking crew from this place was called out and fixed up the wreck.
"Is your son studying the languages?" inquired the visitor of Mrs. Bently, whose son George is at college. "Oh, yes," Mrs. Bently replied; "it was only yesterday that he wrote home for money to buy a German student lamp and a French clock."—New York Sun.
The Blue Juniata was never clearer and bluer than it was last week. Everything along the banks seemed to partake of the freshness of the water, from the small plants along the shore to the large trees further up on the bank, the healthy shades of green were diffused.
Bank cashier—What do I think of this new treaty with England to return runaway bank cashiers? I think it is an insult to every man who handles money in a bank.
Bank president—I trust you won't think for a moment, John, that I had anything to do with its adoption.—Tid-Bits.
Corn in Arkansas is not doing well and whisky manufacturers are correspondingly despondent. Since the prohibitionists have got their hand in it is wonder they don't propose to stop the growth of corn and whisky and so forth because a certain percentage of the grain mentioned enters into the manufacture of whisky.
Joseph Cook, administrator of Abraham Book, deceased, late of Fermanagh township, will offer at public sale at the residence of said decedent, near Big Run, in Fermanagh township, on Saturday, September 11th, two such cows, one eight months old calf, two horse carriage and a lot of personal property not mentioned. See bills.
This is a new idea and a pretty good one at that. According to the York Dispatch, Mr. Charles H. Martin, a tailor in that city, "having a number of unpaid bills of several years standing which he has been unable to collect has made out each bill with the debtor's name written plainly thereon and the amount of his indebtedness, which are placed on a large card and exhibited in his window with the notice underneath that they will be sold cheap."

Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation, and the fine constitution may be weakened and ruined by simply neglect. There is no medicine, for regulating the bowels and restoring a natural action to the digestive organs, equal to Ayer's Pills.
"What is your husband's business?" demanded the census marshal. "He has no business," replied the woman of the house. "Well, what does he work at?" "He does not work at all; he's a labor reformer." "Sure enough; and what do you do?" "Plain sewing and washing and ironing."—Burdette.
An exchange states that an Ohio Pork raiser has made a test as to the matter of feeding corn to hogs. One bushel of corn fed from the cob made nine pounds of pork, the same quantity ground and fed raw made twelve pounds of pork. One bushel of corn boiled made thirteen pounds, and one bushel of meal cooked made sixteen and one half pounds.
The lights of parties giggering in the river can be seen almost every evening. Last week one evening a party of young men from town who were gigging stopped their sport about midnight long enough to make coffee and to eat a lunch, after which they waded about the river until daylight. It is rumored that they captured about a dozen small mullets.
The Chambersburg Repository of last week says: Charles Green, a well known colored man of this place, died suddenly in the colored Baptist church on Saturday evening from apoplexy of the brain. He was attending services when he was taken sick, and being blind was led to the door. He was again taken to the church, laid upon a bench and expired in a few minutes.
Under the Pension bill passed at this session of Congress 839 veterans who have lost one hand and 1,185 who have lost one foot will receive an increase in pension from $24 to $30 per month; 3,105 veterans who have lost an arm above the elbow and 2,641 who have lost above the knee will have an increase from $30 to $36 per month; 443 veterans who have lost an arm at the shoulder joint will receive an increase from $37.50 to $45 per month.
"Horace why don't you sit down? You've been standing there for over an hour." "Cawn't sit down, Freddie." "Going to the reception, you know?" "Well, what of that? It's early yet." "Just had my trousers covered, Freddie. Do you think I've got a softening of the brain?"—Life.
Free Traders held a conference last week in New York and determined to go into the Congressional districts to fight for Free Trade. What they want is a Congress that will dance when they fiddle. All the revenue reformers in the country are asked to contribute one dollar to the cause, which means one dollar from each Democrat who will pay it to help elect Free Trade Congressmen. The Democrats are strongly attached to their party, but the New York Free Traders will find that they are not made of green cheese.
County Commissioner Barton has a twin brother who looks just like him, and a number of people from distant parts of the county that visited Pannebaker's Island last Saturday, mistook him for the Commissioner. Their beards are alike, their complexion and size alike, and they dress alike. History repeats itself in individuals as well as in events in which many people are interested, and if Shakespeare had lived in these times or the Barton brothers had lived in Shakespeare's time, one might believe that they had been taken to represent in his Comedy of Errors, the twin brothers Antipholus of Ephesus, and Antipholus of Syracuse.
Rev. Mr. Lawson (continuing his conversation): "And as I came in, Mrs. Buggins, I became convinced that Mr. Buggins had at last experienced a change of heart, I saw him praying in the garden on his benched knees." N. B.—Buggins was digging worms for a Sunday morning fishing trip, and she knew it.—Titbits.
The Millin county Republican convention placed the following ticket in the field: Assembly, W. P. Stevenson, of McVeytown; Associate Judge, Hiram Rodgers, of Brown township; Prothonotary, Lafayette Webb, of Lewistown; Register and Recorder, M. P. Wakefield, of Lewistown; District Attorney, A. W. Porter, of Lewistown; Director of Poor, John W. Garver, of Union township; Coroner, S. Walters, of Lewistown; Representative Delegate, C. S. Garrett, of Lewistown; Chairman County Committee, T. B. Reed, of Granville township; Congressional Conference, John McDowell, A. C. Strode, John Campbell.
The important work of the adjourned Congress may be summed up in bills, such as the bill appropriating $14,473,900 for national works in river and harbor. A naval bill that provides for two new sea-going armored vessels, and for the completion of the four double-turreted monitors. The bogus butter bill that places a tax of two per cent. on oleomargarine, and the land grant forfeiture bill, that will restore several hundred thousand acres to the public domain, that had been granted to railroads that failed to fulfill the provisions of the grant. There are in Pennsylvania to-day, so-called railroad companies that obtained the right of way to run a railroad through the land. The road or roads have not been built. The leases should be forfeited.
The Huntingdon Journal of last week remarks: The manufacturers of the spring tooth harrow are creating considerable trouble and annoyance to the farmers in Lancaster county, by alleging that they are using harrows upon which they have patented, and are therefore infringing upon their rights. Already forty suits have been entered, and in nearly every instance the farmers pay the ten dollars demanded, and thus save the costs of a suit. The farmers who use the spring tooth harrow bought them in good faith, and we look upon the acts of these so-called patentees fishing money out of the honest-handed farmers as a gross outrage. The farmers should combine and test the matter in the courts.
The Bloomfield Advocate of last week says: On Wednesday, the 4th inst., a Mr. Meyer was engaged in hauling in hay for Solomon Strasser, of Sewille township, and was assisted by his Strasser daughter, Niama, who built the hay on the wagon. In passing along the side of a hill the top of the load fell off and Miss Strasser fell with it, a distance of twenty-five feet. In the fall she struck an apple tree knocking off a large limb, and was covered with about a ton and a half of hay. Mr. Meyer soon related and found the only injury she had received was a bruise on her hand. The apple tree prevented the hay from smothering the young lady while she was being released from her unpleasant situation. She went along and built the next day as if nothing had occurred. She is the kind of a girl a young granger wants for a wife all the year round.

Rev. Dr. S. D. Dorer, of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Washington, D. C., passed through our town, on Saturday, on his way from a vacation spent in Blair county. He called a moment at our office, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with the probable return of Dr. Atkinson to the next Congress. He speaks in the highest terms of the Dr., and thinks the people are honoring themselves, and serving themselves in counting this faithful and able man in Congress, quite as much as they honor him by a hearty and powerfully sustained election. Among all the members of the Keystone State, Dr. Dorer regards him as one of the most courteous, energetic and devoted. No bearer of a public trust, he affirms, is more earnestly devoted to the interests of his constituents than is the Hon. L. K. Atkinson of the 18th Congressional district.
The Newport News of last week published the following: Last Wednesday night, a little after midnight, two barns on the farm of S. H. Haines, in Perry (Wild Cat) valley were discovered to be on fire, and before help arrived both structures were burned down, with their entire contents, except horses and cattle, which were taken out. The small barn near the residence contained the live stock, and some hay and straw, and the large barn, which was some distance back, contained the entire crop of this year, consisting of some hay, wheat, rye and oats in sheaf, and agricultural implements, all of which was destroyed. While working at the barn sparks from the small barn blew on the roof of the large one, setting it on fire, and the house with a large portion of the contents, was also burned. Only a portion of the furniture was taken out. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as there had been none of the family about the large barn during the entire day, and none of them at the small barn after dark. When our informant, Harry Sheldy, who lives with Mr. Haines, left the farm the house was burning. The loss has not been estimated, but there is an insurance of $1800 in the Agricultural Insurance company of Waterbury, N. Y. G. S. Briner & Bro., agents, Newport. This is a sad blow on Mr. Haines, as he is struggling to get along in this world, and to be thus deprived of his property and the fruits of his toil, in a single night, is almost enough to shatter all his hopes for the future. By energy and hard labor he will, Phoenix like, be able to raise from the ashes and press forward to success. The light from the fire was seen in Newport.
At the Hop.
With eyes as bright
As stars at night
And cheeks like flowers in bloom,
A vision fair,
With witching air,
She whirls around the room.
Round and round she goes,
As lovely as a rose,
A presence sweet and bright,
How proud is he,
The youth whom she
Is dancing with to-night!
What charming grace!
How fair her face!
Her smiles are like the dawn,
The queen of grace,
Around she whirls
A symphony in lawn.
Round and round she goes—
As lovely as a rose,
A presence sweet and bright,
Ah! happy he,
The youth whom she
Is dancing with to-night!
—Boston Courier.
Storm in Berks County.
During the time of the quiet-fall, last Friday evening, in this—Juniata—county, a damaging storm raged in part of Berks county. A cloud burst not far from Hamburg. The streets of Hamburg presented the appearance of rivers. Hundreds of cellars were flooded with water and agricultural implements were washed from farm yards into the Schoykill and carried away.
The West Hamburg Rolling Mill and Tobacco brickyard were washed out by the stream, compelling the employees to flee for their lives. The embankment along the Reading Railroad was washed away, leaving the rods and sills hanging in the air. Corn fields were washed away, leaving not a vestige of the crops and tobacco fields were fiddled.
The fruit crops are a total loss. Three barns, valued at $12,000, were struck by lightning and destroyed, together with several animals, and the roofs of three churches in the Western section of Berks county were partially blown off.
The Perfume of the Rose.
Helen Meredith,
Who drank the perfume of the first red rose
In Eden, lifting up its regal head?
Not I, the pure one! Unto her there
Came
The odor of the lily, as it said:
"I bow in all my beauty and my grace,
Giving my sweetness gladly into man,
Who art the queen of all, the wife of man,
The mother of a world, a woman true."
Lilith, the white one, plucked a great red rose,
And, calling Adam softly to her side,
Said: "Drink the odor of a flower that lives
More full of love than lilies of your bride."
With the scent of roses came, alas!
The knowledge of the beauty of the red
snake;
Eyes after with ardor; lips all glowing red;
Bosom white as marble—marble, yet awake—
With snarers in every lurking sigh
Of the false heart hidden there,
She tempted the man—do you wonder I—
With the gleam of gold in her hair.
Adam, the man, the strong one,
Of the roses first drank the perfume;
And Lilith, the gold haired serpent,
With their aid led him on to his doom.
And so, ever since in the worship
Of women by men who know right,
Lilies belong to Eve's daughters,
Red roses to Lilith the white.
Democratic County Committee.
The Democratic County Committee met last Friday. There was more than the usual amount of wire pulling, if common report of the meeting be correct. Just what it is that is causing the kicking among the brethren is not known excepting by those that are on the ground floor, but there is such an amount of kicking that a cloud of dust obscures the political situation of the untended and renders the outcome as beyond the limit of true prophecy. William Milliken and Matthew Rodgers were elected to represent the county in the State Convention that meets this Wednesday, at Harrisburg. The 18th day of September was fixed as the time for holding the primary election.

Harvest Home at Pannebaker's Island.
As the years go round, the multitude of people that assemble at Pannebaker's Island to celebrate the harvest home grow larger. The assembly on Saturday at that place has been pronounced larger than any preceding one. A. J. Ferguson, president of the harvest home association, called the meeting to order both morning and afternoon. Rev. Mr. Decker opened the exercises by prayer. During the day short addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Work, Dr. Ritter, J. W. Speddy, Rev. Mr. Hinkle, B. F. Schaefer, The Spruce Hill Band and the McAllister Band furnished the music. All of the candidates for office that have been publicly announced, excepting Judge Smith J. S. Martin, John McKeen and Mr. Barner, were present. There is a track to drive around the island, but the multitude was so large that people were very difficult in the way and rendered the driving difficult and dangerous. W. D. Walls Post, of Waterford, was in attendance.
Cider Making.
On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of every week, until the first of September, 1886, cider will be made at the Van Wer Cider Press. The press will be run by steam. The press will not be run on other days of the week. [31.]
Read.
The undersigned is the only agent in the county for the sale of the celebrated "Munson's Copper Tubular Lightning Rod." This is the rod that was so effective on the house of C. C. Merz during a thunder storm on the 15th inst. I have samples of the copper covered rod which I can furnish for 12 cents per foot.
