SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

GOVERNOR,
JAMES A. BEAVER.
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM T. DAVIES.
AUDITOR GENERAL,
A. WILSON NORRIS,
SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS
THOMAS J. STEWART.
CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE,
EDWIN S. OSBORNE.

The earth quakes and groans every few days in South Carolina.

The twenty third triennial conclave of the Knights Templar of America, met at St. Louis within the past week.

Some one asked the king of Germany what he considered music, his answer was, "music is an expensive noise.

It took Black a long time to write his letter of acceptance, and when done it appears only as a piece of sophistical pleading.

Since the primary election in this country the democracy are as quiet as if the lamb and lion had lain down together with the lamb inside of the lion.

It is reported from China that there is an uncommonly strong feeling against foreigners in that country. On that question Chinamen and Americans have a mutual feeling.

Wiggins has predicted a great earth quake, to take place, this Wednesday, in the South. The cause of it, he says is produced by a shifting of the earth's center of gravity, and the displacement of the center of gravity will be brought about by a conjunction of Jupiter, Saturn, Mars and the earth's moon.

Do not be deceived by those who say the Tariff is not an issue in the coming State election. It is the great issue as long as the Democratic party is the servant of British Free Traders. They are working for a Free Trade U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, and that is what Republican defeat in November means. Are you ready to be a party to be a party to bring that about?

Henry Clay, in the course of one of his great speeches said: "Protection is the cause of the country, and it must and will prevail. It is founded on the interests and affections of the people. It is as native to this country as the granite embosomed in our mountains."

Abraham Lincoln thus tersely defined his views: "I am in favor of the internal improvement system, and a high Protective Tariff."

"Does anybody doubt that Gen'l Beaver was fairly nominated?

Does anybody doubt his ability to fill the office for which he is nominated?

Does anybody doubt his patriotism?

Does anybody doubt his fealty to the Republican party?

Does anybody doubt his moral and Christian character?

Does anybody doubt his position on that great and vital question of Protection to American Industry?

Can any Republican refuse to support him, and by so doing aid in electing one pledged to a party controlled by ex rebels and run in the interest of British Free Trade?

Can any Republican directly assist the Democrats in controlling our State and National Legislature, and pave the way to a Republican defeat this fall and also in 1888?

Fellow Republicans, ask yourselves these questions and answer them at the polls.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says: Of all the misdeeds of the Ohio Democracy the most revolting are promised full exposure before the Franklin County Grand Jury. It is reported that convicts of the Ohio Penitentiary are prepared to testify to the atrocious crime as well as the criminal mismanagement that attended Democratic direction of the prison. A convicted forger was employed to alter an election tally-sheet. He has confessed the crime to the Republican prison officials appointed by Governor Foraker, and is perfectly willing to testify. Democratic officials are charged with wholesale stealing. The most revolting of the charges declare that the skins of four dead prisoners were tanned by order of Governor Hoadly's officials and converted into canes and other articles to be preserved as curious souvenirs of the Hoadly administration. In no other part of the country has political vice been more barefaced than in Ohio under Democratic rule. And it is to the interest of honest citizens and therefore of both parties that the vile wretches should be brought to justice. The Republican party, happily, need not be prominent in conducting the prosecution, as the evidence is mainly of a non-partisan character.

Amendments.

The following amendments to the Republican Primary Election System were proposed at the meeting of the return judges, October, 1885, and are to be voted for or against at the Republican Primary election, October 2, 1886.

Substituted in place of amendment 1:

The Representative and Senatorial Delegate, or Senatorial Conferees shall be elected by the County Committee, which body shall be convened for that purpose by the chairman not less than two weeks before the day fixed for the assembling of the State Convention.

In place of amendment 3:

The Chairman of the County Committee shall be chosen by the candidates on the County Ticket, by and with the approval of the Return Judge Convention, and his accounts shall be audited and settled by a subcommittee of five members of the County Committee, appointed specially for that purpose by the Return Judge Convention which said County Committee is appointed, within thirty days after each and every election. Should there be no candidate running on the County Ticket, the chairman shall be elected by the Return Judge Convention.

On the Primary Election ticket will be printed: For Amendment; Against Amendment. If you desire that the election of the County Chairman be taken out of the hands of the people and be placed in the hands of the County Committee, you will vote for the Amendment. If you desire that the people keep control of the election of the Chairman, and Representative delegate, you will vote against the Amendment.

Rights In Public Roads.

The latest volume of Pennsylvania reports of Supreme Court decisions contains an article of more than ordinary interest to the public. A corporation chartered under the act of 1874 proposed to lay a pipe under the public roads through the lands of one Sterling in Washington county. When the company approached his land he served notice upon it not to enter roads or land without first making compensation. This the company declined to do. Sterling then applied to the court asking that the company be restrained. It is upon deciding this case that Justice Sterritt says that a company incorporated under the act of 1874 has no authority to lay its pipes under a public road; that by appropriating lands for a public highway the only servitude imposed upon it is the right of the public to construct and maintain a roadway which shall, at all times, be free and open for the public that laying and maintaining a pipe line under the road imposes an additional servitude on the land and abridges the right of the owner, and hence it is taken within the meaning of the Constitution, requiring just compensation to be made for property taken, injured or destroyed; and that a court of equity will restrain a pipe line until compensation is made. The fee in the land occupied by streets remains in the owners of the lands adjoining them, the public has the mere right of passage over them. The learned judge intimates that there are reasons why a different rule to some extent as to the streets and alleys in cities and boroughs should prevail, but declines to say how far the different conditions would modify the rule in this case.

Carried out to its logical conclusion, a strict enforcement of the law laid down in this decision will prevent the laying of water, gas, or any other pipe in the streets or alleys of cities or towns, where the streets are owned by the adjoining property owners. If the occupancy of country roads by pipe lines can be restrained because such occupancy would impose additional burdens on the land, not contemplated either by the owner or by the public authorities when the land was appropriated, then the occupancy of streets and alleys can be restrained when any of the many pipe lines which have come into existence during the last quarter of a century proposes to use them. The effect of this decision must be to discourage the organization of pipe line companies.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Sir Samuel Baker testifies that the negro has never been known to tame any wild animal. Pets are never seen in Africa.

Vienna, Sept. 22.—Three hundred houses in the town of Kalusz, in Austrian Galicia have been destroyed by fire. The sufferers are in misery and starving.

At the present moment, so says an English paper, fortune-telling is one of the most flourishing systems of imposture in that country, and there is scarcely a town or village without its resident or visiting cheat of this discription.

One of the best informers in the revenue service in Georgia is a dark-haired maiden of eighteen summers. She is fairly in love with her business of hunting up illicit whisky stills in the mountains, and for every gang of moonshiners she finds old Uncle Sam pays her $10.

Dr. Smith Buttermore, of Fayette county, the ex-Representative convicted of an attempt to defraud the State of $12,500 for a bogus hospital at Connelsville, was sentenced last Wednesday, at Harrisburg to pay a fine of $500, costs of prosecution and be imprisoned in the county jail for sixty days.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 22.—Joseph G. Miller, a farmer aged twenty-nine years, of Lazeretto, Chester county, was awakened during the night, got up, and in searching for a match knocked a revolver off the mantlepiece, discharging it and sending the ball into his abdomen. He exclaimed: "I'm shot!" and died.

A professional safe burglar told a Pittsburg reporter that when artists in his profession were working at a safe they often used a screen of canvas and stiff wire painted in close imitation of the safe they were working on. This they stood in front of the safe and worked behind it and when the watchman looked to see if the safe was safe, he saw only the screen, which in the night looked like the real thing.

On Monday a week a tramp entered the house of David Williams, of Haddam, Conn., and, finding Mrs. Williams alone seized her by the throat, demanding money. She broke away from him and picked up an ax: he picked up a chair, and a hot fight followed, but a blow from the ax stretched him senseless. Mrs. Williams revived him by throwing a bucket of water over him. He took to his heels, and then, all danger being over, like a true woman she fainted.

William Seber, of Milwaukee, Wis. was married twenty-five years ago to Mrs. Lousisa Weiss, a widow. He went through the war, and when stationed at Trenton, N. J., in 1864, met a widow whom he married. He settled down in Newark, but disappeared in 1881. A few weeks ago he learned that his Milwaukee wife was wealthy, and going to that city found that she had married her fourth husband, Rudolph Morpt. He demanded a part of his wife's wealth, but the fourth husband ordered him out of the house and showed him a certificate of divorce granted to Mrs. Seber claimed that this divorce was illegal, as the woman had married six years before it was granted, but on being threatened with arrest for his New Jersey marriage he left.

After the war James Montague, a farmer in New York State, settled with his wife and five children in Marion county, Ia. He died, and his widow being poor was compelled to see her four daughters and a son adopted into strangers' families. Three of the girls grew up, believing their mother to be dead. One of them, Mrs. McCrea, has lived in Omaha for several years. A younger sister, unmarried, is living with her, and the third is living in New York. The other daughter is dead, and the whereabout of the son is unknown. The mother, now 65 years old, has traveled all over the country in search of her children. A few days ago she went to Des Moines, where she found the clew which reunited her to her daughters.

The greatest educator is a newspaper. It does not teach reading, writing or arithmetic. These studies are text book studies and while they are the first and absolutely neccessary part of an education, they are a mere bagatell of the great fund of information of educated people. It requires no keen penetration to discover the fact that the fund of information, derived from the whole series of text books, including the languages taught in the higher schools is a limited fund of information compared to what lies outside of text book learning. A news paper presents to its readers a field of general information. Every department of life, of business, of religion, of literature of politics is passed through its columns, to a greater or less degree as circumstances and times dictate and in that way unconsciously the newspaper becomes the greatest educator. If you nave not such an educator in the house subscribed at once for your county paper. To your family it is worth many times over the price of a year's subscription. Subscribe for the Sentinel and Republican $1.00 a year in advance. One dollar and fifty cents if not paid within three months.

A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders. I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis. ††

SECOND TO NONE IN CROP VALUE.

This is not a new thing, but it is an established fact warranted by years of several field tests in competition with the highest priced goods offered in the American market. A bold assertion, isn't it? Ask them say it is true, and they know.

Coatesville, Pa., Feb. 4th, 1886.
"Replying to your inquiry in regard to Baugh's $25 Phosphate, would say: I have used it myself and sent it used alongside of higher-priced phosphates, with just as good and lasting results. I have always heard it spoken of, by parties who have tried it thoroughly, as one of the best in the market, regardless of price, and would recommend all farmers to use it. I consider it greatly superior to Acidulated Rock, as it not only gives quick returns but improves the soil."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CONGRESS.

Reports from the counties composing this Congressional District indicate that our townsmen Hon Louis E. Atkinson is the choice of the Republicans for re-election to Congress. Snyder county declared for him at her primary election without a dissenting vote and the Republican Convention of Perry county instructed the conferees of that county for him. It is understood that the conferees of Franklin favor his nomination and Major Rowland Austin, of Fulton county, who was nominated in the County Convention does not desire a nomination in the district but will support Mr. Atkinson. The county Committee of Juniata county at its meeting appointed conferees who are understood to be favorable to his nomination thus giving him the support of five counties.

It is due to Mr Atkinson to say that his nomination comes to him unsought and is given him in acknowledgement of his faithful and intelligent service to his constituents If the Congressional Conference is not held before the Republican primary election in this county he should then be endorsed by our own people at the primary election. MANY REPUBLICANS.

ASSEMBLY.

Editor Sentinel and Republican:—At the request of my Republican friends I offer myself to the Republican voters of Juniata county as a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the rules governing the Primary Election of the Republican party. In allowing my name to go before the people I am interested to a certain extent and will pledge myself to be faithful if elected.
M. R. BASHORE.
August 28, 1886.

ASSEMBLY.

Mr. Editor:—I respectively announce to the Republicans of Juniata county, that I am a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the rules governing the Republican Primary Elections. I would be pleased to receive your support for said nomination.
WILLIAM HERTZLER.
Turbett township, August 19th, 1886.

ASSEMBLY.

Editor Sentinel and Republican:—In announcing the name of Joseph S. Martin of this town for the office of Assembly, I echo the desire of a large circle of Republicans who feel confident that he can carry the Legislative banner successfully through the campaign in November, and therefore they earnestly suggest his availability to the Republican voters for primary nomination. Mr. Martin was a boy soldier against rebellion. He is both a working man and a property holder, and understands the duties and responsibilities of citizenship and will make a faithful Assemblyman.
MIFFLINTOWN.
August 9, 1886.

ASSEMBLY.

Editor of Sentinel and Republican:—Please announce to the public, that upon the solicitation of my friends in the Republican party, that I have at last agreed to let my name come before the people at the Primary Election for the office of Member to the Legislature, subject to the usages governing Primary Elections of Republican party, and solicit their votes for the nomination.
Wm. B. McCahan.
Milford township, August 2nd, 1886.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

At the request of many of my Republican friends, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge for Juniata county, subject to the rules governing the Primary Election.
J. KELLY PATTERSON.
Beale township, August 24, 1886.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

At the solicitation of my friends in different parts of the county, I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge, subject to the rules governing primary elections in the Republican party of Juniata county. JOSEPH ROTHROCK.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

Editor Juniata Sentinel and Republican:—At the instance of a number of Republicans, I would announce John McLaughlin, of Turbett township, as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge for Juniata county, subject to Republican Primary nominating rules. Mr. McLaughlin is well known in Juniata county as a man well qualified for the position, and a man of dignity and fair dealing, such as a Judge should have.
TURBETT.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

As the time is approaching when the voters of the county will by ballot choose several important officers, among which is that of Associate Judge, it behooves the Republican party to place in nomination not only such men as will poll the whole vote of their own, but find favor with many of the opposition party. The wishes of all sections irrespective of party political favors should be consulted. With this view of the situation, Fayette comes forward with the name of the present popular incumbent, Hon. Jacob Smith. No doubt many good men have and will yet announce for this public trust, yet the past is sufficient guaranty that should the nomination fall to our choice the future will be equally as satisfactory. FAYETTE.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

Editor Sentinel and Republican:—I would announce Col. J. K. Robison as a Republican peculiarly qualified to discharge the duties of Chairman of the Republican County Committee, in so important a campaign as the one soon to be engaged in and I name him as a candidate for that position to be voted for at the polls at the Republican County Primary Election.
PATTERSON.
