The North American remarks: "When man lies the devil laughs." If the old fellow had an exchange list of daily papers he would get a fit of hysterics.
Miss Annie Schreiber of this place, in company with Mr. and Mrs. George Heibach of Lewistown is visiting friends and relatives in Newcastle Lawrence Co., Pa.
The Chambersburg Repository of last week states that seven members of the Tunker denomination were baptised in the stream at Pleasant Hill, on Sabbath the 12th inst.
Mrs. Emily McLaughlin of Boston delivered a temperance lecture in the Court House, last Friday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of this town. She is a pleasant speaker.
Some evil disposed person entered the Old Fellow's Hall some nights ago, and unlocked desks and drawers and examined papers, but took nothing away but the Mechanic's cash book.
Miss Emma Hays, has been so prostrated by malaria that she has not been able to teach in the Academy, an efficient substitute has been obtained for the time being in the person of Mrs. Cooper.
Baldness may be prevented, and a thick growth of hair stimulated, by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation also restores the natural color to gray hair, and renders it soft, pliant, and glossy.
The Juniata Horse & Mule Protection company will meet in the Court House, on Saturday, October 2, at 2 o'clock p. m. to transact business and receive new members.
MATTHEW RODGERS, Sec'y.

"I hate that man!" exclaimed Mrs. Upson. "I'd like to make his life miserable." "Tell you what," said her husband warmly, "I'll send the villain an invitation to your musicale. We'll torture him."—Worcester Gazette.
Andrew Reed has carried the Mifflin Co. Congressional conference eleven years in succession to the district conference and asked for the nomination for Congress. Some other county carried off the nomination for Congress.
George M. Bartholomew President of the Chester Oak Life Insurance Company of Hartford Conn. stole a half million dollars of the funds of the company. When his theft was discovered last week he fled to Canada. He is 70 years of age.
Ayer's Hair Vigor promotes the growth and improves the beauty of the hair. This preparation stimulates the roots of the hair, cleanses the scalp, prevents the accumulation of dandruff, and restores to faded and gray hair its original color.
James Banks and Mr. Barr, who were finishing the painting of the Lewistown Presbyterian Church on Saturday, were thrown to the pavement by the breaking of a plank that held the scaffold. Banks was killed instantly, Barr died on Sunday.
Wm. Dunn, who had his foot mangled on the railroad last week, and who under a new law was placed under the direction of the county authority for hospital treatment, was placed under the care of David Hoffman, at Hoffman's house on Water street.
People in Indiana Pa., and other Western towns claim that the equinoctial storm visited their portion of the west on the 24th and 25th inst. In some sections houses and barns were unroofed, fences were blown down, orchards and other trees were uprooted.
The Post went to the G. A. R. encampment at Huntington on an early train on the morning of the 22nd inst and on last line on the evening of the same day, the firemen went to Altoona, to participate in the grand parade that took place on the 23d—Thursday.
"Has prohibition proved a failure in your town?" asked a gentleman of a man who had just come down from the hills. "You bet it hasn't. Why, powder, we can get more liquor now than we ever could before. No failure about that is that!"—Arkansas Traveller.
You may never feel the shock of an earthquake. You may be engaged before sunrise to-morrow. There is one thing however, that you are certain of, that winter is coming and that you can buy winter clothing fresh from the city at Stryker's in Patterson. Get and see.
"After fourteen years of extreme suffering the Akron O., correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer reports, Miss Lizzie M. Suloff, daughter of David M. Suloff, formerly of Juniata county, has been cured by faith in prayer of an affliction originating from a fall from a hay loft in a barn at Port Royal.
The house of James Stinson, about a mile northeast of East Waterford was destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock, P. M., on the 22nd inst. The two families occupying the house barely escaped with their lives. There was no insurance on the household effects. The house was insured. The building, it is believed was set on fire.
The State Board of Pardons at its regular meeting at Harrisburg, on the 21st inst, recommended that the sentence of five years imprisonment, that the Mifflin county Court pronounced on Samuel Longwell, in 1883, for manslaughter, be commuted to three years and three months, and that he be released on November 29, 1886.
The end of a platoon is thus narrated by a Chester county paper. At Rockville, Chester county, on Tuesday night September 21, a dish of ice cream containing nearly a pint in a half minute topped off with three large ginger cakes in a minute. Just as he was about to begin on the third cake he dropped to the floor dead.
The prediction of Wiggins that the 29th this Wednesday is to close amidst the horrors of a great earthquake has disturbed the mind of many people. Wiggins does not know what he is talking about; but should it come to pass as he has predicted. What of it! Man's life on this planet is as flicker at the oldest age, and as far as the leaving goes it matters little whether he takes his departure amidst the tumult of earthquake or the quietness of a private chamber in his house.
The Lewistown Gazette of last week says: As George Snook was burning off his clearing last week in Decatur twp., the fire got into the woods and destroyed five cords of paper wood, fifty ties, a lot of rails and other fallen timber for Mr. Snook and Ephraim Lepley, burned a good scythe and spread for Snook which had been left in the clearing, injured a large amount of standing timber for Snook and Lepley & Co., burned down a lot of Jacob Goss' fence and did other damage. The greatest loss in the clearing was the loss of the timber and thirty acres of their timber land and destroyed everything in its path. Small pieces

TYSON.—On the 18th inst., at the home of his parents, in Walker township, Joseph A. Tyson, aged 15 years, 10 months and 25 days.
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still'd;
A place is vacant in the home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon His love has bestowed,
And though his body moulders here,
His soul is safe in heaven.

Scrofula
Is one of the most fatal scourges which afflicts mankind. It is often inherited, but may be the result of improper vaccination, mercurial poison, uncleanliness, and various other causes. Chronic Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses, Cancerous Growths, and, in some cases, Emaciation and Consumption, result from scrofulous conditions of the blood. This disease can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
I inherited a scrofulous condition of the blood, and was afflicted with it for the whole system. After taking less than four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla I am Entirely Cured and, for the past year, have not found it necessary to use any medicine whatever. I am now in better health and stronger than ever before.—O. A. Willard, 218 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.
I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores for five years; but, after using a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the sores healed, and my health restored.—Elizabeth Warnock, 54 Appleton street, Lowell, Mass.
Some months ago I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores, and my health was so badly swollen and inflamed, and my sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy failed until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. By taking three bottles of this medicine the sores have healed, and my health restored. I am grateful for the good it has done me.—Mrs. Ann O'Brien, 118 Hill-st., New York.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF RUSSIA
From the Earliest Times to 1877. By A. RAMBAUD. Translated by L. B. LAVA. In two large 12mo volumes. Long Primer type, with numerous fine illustrations and maps. Fine cloth, gilt top. Library style. Price reduced from $18 to $11.75.
The Upper Dvina and Dniester and the Volga and the Oka the great arteries of Russia for the territory of the empire, containing a population of 108,000,000, is most admirably well indexed.—Pioneer Press, St. Paul, Minn.
RUSSIAN history is full of cruelty, oppression, tyranny, and all sorts of crimes, and very fact makes it dramatic and full of stirring incidents, and those who crave this kind of reading, or who desire to know the history of Russia for their own sake, will find M. Rambaud's volumes well suited to their needs. He has taken vast pains to make his history both full and accurate; his style is nervous and forcible, and he gives a graphic picture of the bloody centuries through which the Russian Empire rose. His book lifts to a great extent the veil of mystery that hangs over the origin and growth of Russia.—Inquirer, Philadelphia.
NO STUDENT of history and no observer of public events can afford to be ignorant of Russia—that Polar land which stretches out huge paw toward Constantinople and the other toward India—that it is to be great and most of whose future no one knows save the condition of well-kept the entire human race. No more weighty matter of debate exists among the nations than that of the White Czar, representing territorially the greatest nation on earth and one of the strongest, most ambitious, slowest, far-seeing, and persistent, in the Central Asia. What is the best history of Russia in the English language? Undoubtedly that of M. Alfred Rambaud.—Morning Star, Boston.
THE PERIOD covered is from the earliest times to 1877. It is more interesting as told by M. Rambaud than any romance. It is a history of the rise of the wonderful nation in Europe. It is a history of the power of absorption and diffusion is phenomenal. "The World," said Napoleon once, "will one day be ruled by the Slav and Tatar races." The prophecy is under fulfillment. The Slav race has expanded from small districts about the Black Sea to the shores of the Arctic Ocean, and other monarchs of iron will and broad ambition relieve the monotony of war, and the Mazepa of Byron comes in as a charming episode. The high civilization attained without the adoption of a civilized form of government, leaves no room for surprise at the strength of Nilium.—Liber-Ocean, Chicago, Ill.
THE HISTORY of Russia now published is the most satisfactory before English readers. It is a history of the power of absorption and diffusion is phenomenal.
