VOL. XII.

THE CONSTITUTION—THE UNION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1887

Editor and Proprietor.

NO. 2

D. Spair. A woman's figure it is. Outlined against the cold, summer rock. Where the diamonds gleam in her hair. And the stars and the water-lips kiss.

SWEETENED BITTERNESS.

The town is ringing with the very startling news of Lady Mary Chetwode's elopement. That she, the beautiful, highly-gifted, accomplished woman, sister of the noble lord, should bring such disgrace upon the ever-stellar name of Chetwode is abhorrent to it.

shedding a tender radiance over the sinfult earth beneath. "Villain, where is my sister?" Lord Chetwode says to him passionately. "I decline to tell you."

Peacemakers Among the Warring Birds.

A resident of Memphis, Mo., erected on his lawn a large bird-house, intended as the summer home of a flock of martins. It was a three-story affair, and three varieties of birds inhabited it.

expected from you?" rough exclaims, rising and taking both her hands in his. "Expect nothing from me!" she cries, excitedly. "I am one black sheep in your flock! Oh, Hugh, forgive me! I am a poor woman!"

THE NEVA RIVER.

The Beauty, Purity and Picturesqueness of This Northern Water-Course. A mere neck of earth separates the Russian capital from the great inland sea of Ladoga, and through more than forty intervening years of forest land, green and waving with timber.

LITTLE WORKERS. Swiss Lace-makers and the Products of Their Toil. Every little tottling in Switzerland must earn its living as soon as it can slip its own name, either in some work or in taking care of one younger than itself.

AN ISM METHOD.

Their Love of Cleanliness and Their Modes of Enslavement. In spite of the multifarious duties and cares that are imposed on these tiny burghers, they still find time to clean and adorn their worthy little persons.

THE CRICKET ON THE HEARTH.

Many believe and all have heard it said that a cricket singing in the house is a harbinger of good fortune. Some people think if they are heard in the houses it presages death in the family and means are at once taken to drive them out.

of tribeman never speaks, he always shouts. "How do you like prison?" says the Prince, nodding to them with a smile. In reply, the bandits assert that they will smile blandly.

THE MEXICAN PALACE.

The Palace is one of the most interesting buildings in Mexico because of its dimensions, the curiosities it contains, its history, and the knowledge we have of the schemes of tyranny and bloodshed devised within its walls.
