An Alleged Cure for Cancer.

The cure of a cancer by the use of what is commonly known as sheep sorrel is recorded as having been made in Waies. The cancer was in the neck of a woman, so near to the jugular vein as to render an operation impossible. The leaves of the plant were wrapped in brown paper so tight as to make the package impervious to air. This package was then placed beneath an of the latter have ever been seen in or about open grate, covered with the hot ashes of the same. When sufficiently cooked it was removed and in as hot a state as possible and not burn, it was now applied, the leaves being in direct contact with the n'cer. which was firmly held to the part affected by a linen handkerchief. Strange to say at the expiration of one month the tumor came away, and has not since appeared.

so stimulated its growth, that I have now more hair than ever before.— J. W. Edwards, Coldwater, Miss. Ayer's Hair Vigor, hair began to turn gray. I commenced using the Vigor, and was surprised at the good effects it produced. It not only restored the color to my hair, but

Sold by all Druggists and Perfu IF YOU ARE SUFFERENCE from debility and loss of appetite; if your stomach is out of order, or your mind confused; take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine will restore physical force and elasticity to the system, more surely and speedily than any tonic yet discovered. For six months I suffered from liver and stomach troubles. My food did not nourish me, and I became weak and very much emscinted. I tooksix bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was cured. —J. M. Palmer, Springfield, Mass. 1)
