

VOL. XLI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1887.

Our maily Bread.

"Give us our daily bread," we pray And know but half of what we say. The bread on which our bodies feed is but the molety of our need.

The soul, the heart, must nourished be, d share the daily urgency. And though it may be bitter bread On which these nobler parts are fed,

No less we crave the daily dole, O Lord, of body and of soul !

Suret loaver, the wine must all afoam, he manna and the honeycomb.

All these are good, but better still The food which checks and molds the will. The sting for pride, the smart for sin, The putging draught for self within;

The sorrows which we shuddering meetof knowing their after-taste of sweet-

All these we ask for when we pray, e us our daily bread this day.

Lard, leave us not athirst, unfed, Give us this best and hardest bread.

Until, these mortals needs all past, Fesit at Thy full feast at last,

The brend of Angels broken by Thee, The wine of joy poured constantly.

A BARRACK GHOST STORY

"Prisoner, have you any objection to turned around and raised its disengaged be tried by me as president or any hand to its white head covering, as if sist in the operation. member of this court-martial?" asked in salute, its aspect so filled me with the field-officer who had been detailed terror that being, as I mentioned befor the duty of presiding over the sfience characterized in my indictment been dreaming. The sergeant, howas "conduct in prejudice to good erder ever, performed the duty required of and military discipline." The members composing the court har to military tribunals, the president | room. aberiously writing down every word of Next day I was taken before the ridence as it was uttered. The serfew words as possible.

"Was the prisoner sober?" asked one d the officers when the sergeant had the court, I was informed that my senintshed his evidence. "Quite sober, sir," replied the man parade. With a sinking heart I heard the "assembly" sounded, then the "fall ground in front. In the valley beneath should be taken for the second relief I could see distinctly every gable and on the haunted rost; and this selectio i chimney of the houses of the town that | fell on a brawny Yorkshireman, a nestled so cosily in the hollow between Crimean and Indian veteran named the precipitious cliffs. The moon was Sykes who at once intimated it as his reflected brightly in the ocean to the intention to have a shot at the spectre; south, and by its light I could even see and being filled with a superstitious inclancholy month because its chief During the hunting season, from start the glittering bayonet of the sentry who bellef in the efficacy of a silver builst characteristics are, as a rule, fogs, cold guarded the government stores on the when fired at a visitor from the world winds, and vapors, dreariness and desopier, a mile distant. Our gallant sol-diers on duty, however, have but little up his day's pay of six prace and place in the huntsman a feeling of ennul. sistent followers of the pack. The madiers on duty, however, have but little regard for the picturesque; and like most men similarly situated; I was wearying for the termination of my he knew the operation referred to mentioning that melancholy was a kind wearying for the termination of my two hours' vigil, and little inclined to admire the surrounding scenery. At length the clock struck three; and I was at once filed with a feeling of cheery satisfaction at the immediate prospect of being relieved, and of re-turning to the warm guard-room and a cup of hot coffee before turning off to observed. "If it's a real ghost, then sleep I heard the sentry on the gate lustily service. If it is a practical joker, then hang and drown themselves, a disconso-shout "Sentry-go!" as summons for we'll make it 'hot' enough for him late lover walked out into the fields," the relief to turn out; and just as I was | without shooting him." preparing to take a last turn on my post, 1 perceived, at the extremity of of the spectre was the general theme of monath, or wind month, which, as a known huntsman-Mr. G. A. Hutton they avoided all celebration days, and that the line passing through the center post, I perceived, at the extremity of the shadow cast by the officers' quar-ters, a chostly figure in a long, white all of them, however, expressed their for the nicest possirobe bearing in its hand a drawn sword. incredulity in regard to the story. A November chill blaws loud with angry sugh, I endeavored to shout for assistance, but was so "harrowed with fear and wonder," that I was unable to articumade up their minds to keep watch listens with dismay to late a single word, but stood perfectly beside the sentry, so as to pounce on the spirit when it made its appearance, transfixed staring at the apparition It moved slowly past me; but when it and arranged to take with them a pet buildog belonging to the colonel, to as-

"Not yet, sir," replied the man.

under a shadow of the wall; while the fore, of a nervous temperament, I fell to the ground, and only recovered con-"No, sir," I answered; for it was "No, sir," I answered; for it was my most unenviable situation that wards, I was vigorously shaken by the the ghost-which I suspect is likely to the definition of Philips, who, it is related, knew my most unervisore situation that morning to be brought to the court-room for trial, having been "put back" by my commanding officer a few days to-morrow," before on a charge of having been heartily when I described the fright I seleep on my post while on sentry; an had received, and remarked that I had him by the rules of disciple in the most inexorable fashion. He deprived me "Have you seen anything as yet?" sere then sword, and the trial pro- of my arms, and belt, and confined me reeded in the cumbrous fashion pecu- in the prisoners' quarters in the guard commanding officer, a hot-headed teant who had been in charge of the Welshman, whom I shall call Colonel mare at the time of my alleged offence Morgan, charged with having been was the principal witness against me, asleep at my post. To bim I related began to describe, with gro- the particulars of the mysterious figure isquely ungrammatical volubility, how I had seen, but my statement, instead te had found me stretched on the of proving a satisfactory excuse for my ground asleep; but was at once pulled offence, as I hoped it would, threw the m short by the president, who ordered | worthy colonel into a state of great him to say what he had to say in as indignation, and he at once remitted me for trial for court-martial.

On the third day after the sitting of tence would be promulgated at forenoon of stripes. The men who composed the rehef in;" and shortly afterwards the band orated the DAVIDE played merrily, as it in mockery of my statement, I was called upon for my agitation. defence. I therefore narrated to the court that shortly before my two hours on duty square into which the regiment had had expired, I saw a white figure carrying a drawn sword pass close to my post; and that being of a nervous, ex- be imprisoned with hard labor for a stable temperament, I was so fright- period of S4 days. Appended to the and that I fell to the ground in an confirmation of the proceedings of the unconscious state, and only recovered when I was aroused by the sergeant of the guard.

which is known as the prime of life, and Ekstch of an Adventure With the York and Ainsty. it is said by knowing ones that he at one time possessed horses and traps of his own. He is now compelled to earn November has often been termed the a livelihood in the best way he can. to finish, he dons his velvet cap-formerly an old huntsman's-and with hunting season comes round again. ing manner: "In the gloomy month of I'm afraid a bullet won't be of much November, when the people of England

FOX HUNTING.

etc. One of the names our Saxon ances-That evening at mess the appearance tors had for November was wind few of the youngsters, whose curtosity and November is usually the time when gentleman has planted several coverts, was strongly excited on the subject, the huntsman as well as the traveler

> The mighty roar That rushes through the forest hoar When winds are piping loud.

As a rule in this month it is only huntsmen with the strongest of consti-

"Won't you join us sir?" asked a tutions and those who are bold and have ing officer. "I think not," he replied. "I'm tired, and shall go to bed. If you catch be one of the men-clap him in irons not a prescription better calculated to and put him in a cell. I'll tend to him disperse the cunui of November than an When Colonel Morgan left the mess- There are days, however, in November, room, he visited the haunted post be-fore retiring to his quarters, which the rustic landscapes may be seen in all were close at hand. After replying to their beauty, and when the skylark the sentry's challenge, he asked Sykes: ascends skyward, singing its sweet lulla-"I don't think that it is likely you and one of those days was that when will, either," remarked the colonel the popular pack of the broad acred with a laugh as be retared to his room. shire held a special meet at the rural. half-town, half-village of Borough-bridge, which can boast of so many his-Shortly afterward, when the clock struck two, the young officers left the torical recollections. Whatever weather mess-room and cautiously stole over lows, this is always a popular meetingthe barrack square to the place where place, for it is in the heart of a district "spirit held his wont to walk." Poor Sykes was very glad of their company. for though he was a man of undoubted the aristocratic to the democratic, and pluck, and greatly respected in the where more than one sample of the fine old Englishman is to be met with. On regiment for his pugilistic prowess, he was not at all bright at the prospect of the morning of that day old Sol broke tackling the ghost all by himself. He out over the distant hills steadily but young ensign, addressing the command-ing officer. to be always full. In Perthshire the its most striking and perfect feature, ing officer. to be always full. In Perthshire the its most striking and perfect feature, in officer.

eccentric creature is about at that age usual, were found Earths well stopped, and foxes plenty. The hounds were no sooner in the cointeresting author and a flowing bowl. vert than loud shouts from various quarters proclaimed that reynard had been aroused. Three or four foxes were observed in motion, and it was hard to say which the hounds would follow, but one was soon singled out. Off went hounds bies until lost to view. We have had a good many such days during November. and huntsmen in pursuit, the latter bracing themselves up for a long ran. bracing themselves up for a long ran. Af er a sharp run of about twenty min utes, however, reynard changed his opinion and harked back to his woodhand home, where he no doubt anticipated being-undisturbed for the rest of the day. This was not to be, however, for hounds were soon among the brushwood, and he had to seek once more thick with sportsmen of all grades, from fresh woods and pastures new. Off he out over the distant hills steadily but a dodgy old veteran, he plunged into a ery. paced about on his post, keeping a truly in good time, and soon scattered large drain on the roadside to save his ala Sweden a bride must carry bread sharp lookout, and the officers crouched in all directions the thick mist which brus . Hounds and huntsmen were, of dog took up its quarters in the sentry path. Very soon he was robed in sum-

The Cardinal Rules and Principles Good and Rad Omens which Many of Physiognomy. Believe.

But to return to the hunt. After varied procession wended its way up the certain if the ceremony was timed so as dent. They are merely the first stakes 444,706. road between Aldborough and Borough- to take place at the full moon, or when driven in the survey.

SUPERSTITIONS CONNECTED

WITH MARRIAGE.

bridge, which is one long avenue of up-ward of half a mile in length, then down The Romans were very superstition The most important point is the pro-portion of the features. If you look at the river, and on to the estate of a well- about marrying in May or February the ideal head in full face you will see sport. During the past year or two this the 14th of May fell was considered ble balance, us much height below as found at home in one of them. Hounds selects her welding day so that its even should be entirely in harmony with all were drawn blank. It was suggested flowing tide. In Scotland the last day ing. It is not enough that one portion sulphur water daily. by knowing ones that reynard must have hidden in the thick underwood in the willow garths which border on the River Ure, and this was very probable; the bride's cup of happiness is expected the entire face should correspond with

> The day of the week is also of great is as much the relation of every one to importance, Sunday being a great fav the whole that should be studied in dewould not marry on Friday, the French

Monday for wealth, Tuesday for health, Wednesday the best day of all; Thursday for crosse

Saturday no luck at all. In Yorkshire, when the bride is or the point of crossing her father's thresh hold, after returning from church, a plate, containing a few small pieces went at a merry pace, keeping his pur-suers howing along for a nice time, of the houseby a male relative. If the name. This invariably tell, oftentimes suers howling along for a nice time, until he arrived at the roadway on the plats is broken she will be happy; i common on the Wetherby road. Being not, she will not expect to escape mis in her pocket, and as many pieces a:

"As stupid as an acre of face can There is perhaps no period in a make him," was a witty woman's de-woman's life that so completely changer scr ption of a duil man. She meant her whole existence as marriage, and that the blank surface of his countehim in eking out life's span. His nights tions are fast becoming a thing of the sion.

ber have always been held as the most face, and that the face can be divided healthy. propitious months in the twelve, a into thirds-forehead, nose and chinpassing through Boroughbridge the happy result being rendered doubly mean very little to the character stu-

The Romans were very superstition portion of the features. If you look at be happy.

gentleman has planted several coverts, and it was thought reynard might be land, and in the Orkney Island a bride Next orite in some parts of Hagland and Ire termining character. The whole is in "taking stock" the country is wider land. And although an English las every part. girl thinks the last Friday in the month dured to an exact science. Lavater, chleftainship, is in San Francisco to particularly fortunate. Most of u whom Goethe called "the best, greatest, consult an eculist. He is totally blind. know the old saying concerning the wisest, sincerest of all mortal or imwedding-day;

Friday for losse

ugged exterior. The element of expression is not the Wi mot Smith, who was well up, was does she cast from her; but it is no luci another radiant can not be determined of them.

STUDY OF FACE LINES.

-Newspaper readers are the people who buy the bulk of goods.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

NO. 11.

-Speculators in stocks will find this a good time to stand from under.

-Illinois, it is stated, has no debt and $500,000 in the State Treasury.

-The New Year moves briskly along, like the general business of the country. -All the world is listening for the first gun that will tell of Europe's war.

-The value of new gold received at the Denver, Col., Mint in 1885 was $1,-

-If the Government would furnish signals of financial storms we would all

-Montana is reported to be out of debt, and has $57,000 in the State

-The debt of Pennsylvania is $17,-258,982-a reduction in four years of Next, every feature and every trait $2,966,101.

-An artesian well at St. Augustine, were soon to business, but the coverts ing may have a growing moon and a the rest, all expressing the same mean- Fla., throws up 15,000,000 gallons of -Reading R. R. Co.'s affairs are as complicated as ever; their liabilities last year increased $5,954.804.

-An Indian reservation in North of a year, can expect nothing but ends attributes in certain parts, whereas it Carolina is said to cover 73,000 acres,

-Don't keep the shutters up too long awake than usual this year of 1887.

Physiognomy has never yet been re--Lee Winnemucca, heir to the Piute

-The Mayor of Brockton, Mass., has mortal men that i know," made a good removed the whole Board of Health of beginning, and is perhaps our best that place for alleged extravagance. standard. Delsarte had a marvelous etc.

perception of how the spirit works -A ship broker in New York, it is through and upon the body, yet so com-plex is the subject it cannot yet be said vessels which the owners are anxious te to be reduced to a demonstrable sys- sell.

-Twelve million dollars put into new In connection with the outward buildings in Boston last year indicates a form there is always to be considered buildings in Boston last year indicates a tolerably vigorous growth of the old town. town.

-Toboggan slides without snow are spoiling the fairest model and quite as getting to be numerous. Snow for often ennobling and refining the most some of these is brought a long distance by rail.

-It is said there are plenty of Silver least bailing one in the human compo- Certificates, and yet lots of merchants foolishly attempted to intercept his course, brought to a standstill. Mr. she can throw away just so much trouble sition. Why one face is vapid and complain because they cannot get hold dog took up its quarters in the sentry box. A little before three they were startled by the appearance of the appa-startled by the appearance of the appabox. A little before three they were startled by the appaarance of the appa-startled by the appaarance of the appa-startled by the appaarance of the appa-startled as before, a drawn rition, which carried as before, a drawn Lodged, so it was decided to move off to some other covert. The one selected tras at Lottus hill a few miles away. It is an unhappy onen for the wed It is an unhappy onen for the wed posed buried treasures by some people where a splendid old stager was fou d ding to be put off when the day has The two most important lines in of that city. at home, and before there was time to been fixed, and it is believed much harm every face are those which represent -The word "its" is said not to occur that yellow and ru-set brown peculiar to say Jack Hobinson he was off, and soon will ensue if a br degroom stands at the cleft of the mouth and the contour at all in the King James translation of the junction of cross-roads or beside ; of the upper eyelid. They are always the Bible and but three or four times in horizontal, and horizontal lines are Shakespeare. In England it is thought to be a lac signs of stability and persistence. It -A large, full-grown seal was shot Away went hounds and huntsmen in sign if the bride fails to shed tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears or it's been asserted by taking the bride fails to she tears o that be true men have the advanta e -California last year shipped east the defective line of chin and the 15,000 tons of grapes. If freights will To look back or go back before enter moustache can hide the pinched or justify it, double that amount will reach us another year. -A "ghost bell" that rings itself is a pr sent and follower hounds all the churchyard, are all unfortunate, and rose-buds, but it is the broad, flexible, sen ation on the Thetis, lying at the time, declared they had never spent a the bride must be careful to go in at bistrionic mouth, after all, that has Brooklyn Navy Yard. Application has the most meaning in it. A certain been made for a new bell for the vessel When the bridesmaids undress the form of the upper hip called "Cupid's it is said. -A copyist in the Interior Departpins. Woe to the bridesmaids if they center of its upper line comes down to ment offices is "the very counterpart" keep one of them, for they will not be a sharp point, and the center of its of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, it is s ated. married before Whitsuntide, or unti under line comes also into a point, and has on numerous occasions been the Easter following at the so nest, if the bridal party venture off dry ball or drop that sometimes delicately -A farmer light -A farmer living near Dayton, Ohio, clasp the lower lip, frequently hangs is said not to have spoken a word to how above it and parted from it. his wife, nor she to him, during the From these two points the lines sweep past 25 years, owing to a quarrel they away on either side in two pairs of had over a child at that time. orders his regret for the trouble he had unwittingly occasioned. Several red-taped farmalities had to be gone through; and it was some days before I was astonished and delighted -"Johnny, I have discovered that you have taken more maple sugar than I gave you." "Yes, grandma; I've been making believe there was another little boy spending the day with me. If the upper head expresses the intelligence of a man, the lower one rev-als -A tunnel twelve miles long is to be In leaving the house and church she the measure of his strength. The run in Nevada county, California, for and expressed his extreme concern that the York and Ainsty is considered connection during the painting of one of must be very careful to put her right movable features, or the ones that have the purpose of draining certain mines that he had been the innocent cause of facile princips about the most punctual my having been subjected to such pack in Yorkshire. As 11 o'clock drew is drawn the get eral plan for that part eyes and brows. Mrs. Siddons and the work. To break the wedding-ring is ar John Kemble, both representing a very -An Illinois woman probably owes "No wonder that I frightened you, was one which will not be soon longot of natural and the was about to proceed on leave—with the intention a Yorkshire and English meet, a scene to proceed on leave—with the intention. that operate them were in both especi- recently, by a party of neighbors ally powerful. clothing had caught fire and they took The eyes are the tellers of secrets, this means of extinguishing the flames, -It is noticeable, says local reports, that many of the inmates in the town of Hempstead, L. I., as well as many ersons who receive relief from the town, are impoverished by the oplum habit. -The Chinese Government are stated to have ordered two captive bal-I shan't forget you," said the colonel, and I left his quarters perfectly over-loyed with my good luck, scarcely be-living that the pleasant, affable, kind-ly gentleman with whom I had con-by gentleman with whom I had con-by demanded the out of the lower the surface to tone it to all that be one day directed and troubled by it that he one day directed some of the loitering models to take some color, "any color," he said, "and scumble over the surface to tone it to all that be one day directed some of the loitering models to take some color, "any color," he said, "and scumble over the surface to tone it to all that be one day directed some of the loitering models to take some color, "any color," he said, "and scumble over the surface to tone it the ball directed the surface to tone it the versed was the hectoring, bullying the shoemaker's galloway. These down," The models dressed as Union and Confederate soldiers and officers, ged his tail. A day or two later, the high nose was like a beak and his eyes has such that village for $50,000 damregiment. The colonel faithfully kept his word to me. When he rejoined the corps, completely cured of his complaint, 1 was promoted rapidly; and eight years subsequently, through the influence of my patron, General Morgan, 1 was razetical as quartermaster of my regi--A white otter, 56 inches longprogress. Every mark tells something furrier. It is from Hudson's Bay. -A California correspondent de scribes a grape vine growing in Santa to the doctor's office and have his hurt label each with its properly certified and which produces annually from 10,-Barbara county, which is 63 years old, tag, assign it its place in face or figure, 300 to 12,000 pounds of grapes, many of "Behold my exact the bunches weighing six and seven pounds. -The laying bare of the paws of the He Looks Askance. great sphinx endorses the fact that Greek travelers were fond of inscribing minds will either feed upon their own straight at you. Its glance shifts off to their names and jokes on them. Prof.

"Prisoner," remarked the president, "in my twenty years' experience of the calculated to excite an uneasy feeling army, I have served on numerous among the men of the regiment, I concourts-martial, and have heard all kinds of ingenious defences put forward inadequate to the enormity of his ofby men in your present position in ex- fence. cuse of the offences with which they were charged; but your line of defence | cuffed, to a military prison six miles is the most remarkable that has come distant, where, after having been mediunder my observation. Who, do you cally examined and weighed I was think, will credit a story of that de- introduced to a most select assemblage scription? Assuredly not I for one. of erring brethren of the sword, who Now, prisoner," continued the major were engaged in exhilarating occupain a kindly tone, "I must advise you tion of picking oakum, alternated with that your action in submitting to the the agreeable muscular exercise of court a statement of that description "shot" drill. is extremely injudicious. You will do consistently with the duty demanded of military law, to recommend a much was released from durance vile. lighter sentence of imprisonment than would be administered to an older and morning of the day I was taken to

"I can only tell the truth, sir," I urged.

vice."

Maw?" asked the officer in a tone of cisely similar to mine. veration.

"That is my defence, sir," I replied. Company, "

My captain answered the summons, whether any man had left his room for which they meant to administer to me.

nection with the appearance of the he having been awakened by the unu "figure" alluded to. At 1 o'clock on sual commotion in the barracks. the morning of my arrest, I was posted "The ghost has appeared again, sir," on sentry in front of a wall which had replied the adjutant. been on the face of a cliff overhanging the beach. Why that particular spot "No, sir." required guarding, when any attempt on the part of a soldier to break out of all, in the guard room. I should very barracks would be equivalent to com- much like to see the gentleman," re-matter of puzzling speculation to the bed. men of all regiments which in turn about to leave the town in order to before the usual parade he delivered : consequence a permanent institution, will stick to his post, even supposing and a sentry guards the wall to this the Evil One himself should make his day.

The morning on which I was on martial any man who dares to act conguard was exceedingly cold and frosty. The moon shone brightly, throwing the dark shodene brightly, throwing the guarters half-way across the parade- gave orders that the oldest soldier

Escorted by a file of the guard, I bringing his rifle to the "charge." marched to the centre of the hollow been formed; and the adjutant read out head. my sentence, which was that I should court-martial by the general commanding the district was a note to the foliffeers and the sentry at once surlowing effect: "Considering the nature of the prisoner's defence, which was was no other than Colonel Morgan sider the punishment inflicted quite state of somnambulism!

The next day I was escorted, hantimmediately returned, and then they resence. Next morning he was apprised of the malady of which he had been an uncon-

The humiliating and degrading situayourself a positive injury by persevering tion in which I found myself, through in it, not only in regard to the probable no fault of my own made me naturally extent of your punishment, but also to enough, deeply regret my folly in havyour reputation as a soldier. It will ing joined the army, and excited within be far better for you to simply own me many unpleasant feelings on the that you were asleep. You are a young good prospects in civil life which I had man who has served but six months in thrown to the winds. Like Mickey the regiment; so, under the circum- Free's father, in Lever's "Charles O' stances, assuming that you adopt my Malley," I heartily ejaculated: "Bad suggestion, which is assuredly meant luck to the hand that held the hammer for your good, the court may think fit, that struck the shilling that listed me!" Now for the sequel of my ghost of it by the hard and fast requirements story, which was related to me when I Between 2 and 3 o'clock on the more experienced member of the ser- prison, a man came rushing into the goard room of the barracks, exhibiting symptoms of the most extreme terror, and declaring that he, too, had seen

"That, then, is your defence-that the figure while on sentry; and his deyou were frightened by the figure you scription of its appearance was pre-The sergeant of the guard at once rushed to the officers' quarters, woke "Very well," said the president, up the adjutant, and informed him of writing down my statement. "Escort, the ghost's reappearance. A hue and temove the prisoner. Stop! About cry was at once instituted; and the his character? Call the captain of his orderly sergeants having been aroused, a 'check-roll" was called to ascertain stated that my conduct had been most the purpose of playing a practical joke. exemplary, after which I received the Every nook and corner in the barracks command: "Left turn, quick march!" from the officers' quarters to the wash and was removed to the guard-room; houses were rigidly examined, but the and the members of the court-martial spectre had apparently vanished into began their deliberations on the dura- thin air, leaving all the regiment in a tion of the period of imprisonment state of unpleasant suspense.

"What's all the row?" shouted the I shall now relate the facts in con- colonel from the window of his room,

"Have you caught him?"

"If you do, put him, white sheet and mitting suicide, as the rock had a sheer marked the colonel as he closed the unbroken descent of 150 feet, was a sash of his window and returned to

That morning, at orderly hour, Colooccupied the quarters I refer to. A nel Morgan remitted the unfortunate "What keeps Mr.-from kirk, James?" tradition, however, which was related fellow who, like me, had been scared to me by an aged veteran who officiated by the mysterious visitant, for trial by as a barrack laborer, threw some light court martial, declaring that he would Methodism1" on the subject. Many years before, put an effectual check on these absurd "No!" responded the verger. the colonel of a regiment which was fancies of the sentries; and immediately omething worse." "What then. Is it Calvinism?" "Worse, your reverence, worse," "Surely, James, it is not Deism?" embark for India, placed a sentry on most characteristic warning to the spot, to prevent his men from regiment on the subject, After de-"Much worse, an' it please your revthrowing over the cliff the rubbish that scribing the condign punishment which accumulates in changing quarters; and any practical joker, whether officer or erence, than that," "Can it be Atheism which deprives he relieving regiment finding this man private, might expect if caught in the us of the best church-warden that even on duty, had supplied his place without act of playing the ghost, the commandtroubling themselves about the why ing officer furiously exclaimed; "When and when the why ing officer furiously exclaimed; that he shook a box?" "Truly," responded James; "'tis ; and wherefore; the post became in a soldier is on duty I expect that he much more serious matter, it is rheu matism." appearance; and I will try by court-

THE DIFFERENCE -Diner-"Wait dark shadow of the adjoining officers' guard mounted, the adjutant privately the menu. Is it mock turtle?"

The Ism he Had.

dor, the sky was so clear, and the air The spectre made no answer, but was so fine and dry, that had it not slowly raised its left hand to its fore- been that the fresh green leaves of sunmer were seen to have changed into The dog, with a loud growl, sprang out of the box and rushed open-mouthed the end of autumn, and came ever and at the figure; but when he approached anon tumbing down from their high it began to wag his tail, and evinced abodes, strewing the rural walks and symptoms of great satisfaction. The ways around with every pasting breeze, the huntsman might have fancied it rounded the ghost, and found, to their was the middle of summer rather than nost intense astonishment, that it the dreary month of November. The rendezvous selected was Borhimself, attired in his night dreas, in a oughbridge hall, the residence of Mr. J. C. Wilmot Smith, one of the hardest Aware of the danger of awaking him and keenest huntsmen and sportsmen while in that condition, they followed to be found in Yorkshire, fair weather him to his room, whither he almost or foul. The venerable mansion is of the Elizabethan age, and is situated not saw him sheathe his sword and returned more than a stone's throw from the to bed seemingly oblivious of their River Ure, just where that river is joined by the small tributary called the Tut, in which there is some good trout-fishthe season. The situation of the colonel was naturally very much con- mansion is low, and it is sheltered and cerned on learning the nature of the half obscured

Amid its tall ancestral trees

The dense thicket of trees and foliage cious victim. Of course his first acaround give it a somewhat secluded and tion was to write an explanation to the general, with a request for my release; hermitical appearance, which, however, and his next to publish in regimental does not interfere with the geniality and orders his regret for the trouble he had hospitality of those living within its by an intimation from the prison gov- square, was thrown open, and as the fine oil painting. This color is, of still, she will from that moment rise in responsible for the month," which ernor that I was free; and was handed over to the charge of the corporal, who warmiy and kindly greeted by Mr. and As an instance, for the panorama in placed beside the bed, and if it can the mouth is entirely expressionless had been sent to bring me to my regi- Mrs. Wilmot-Smith. The genial mas- which I was interested, the rich, yellow- stand near something higher than it and ungoverned, while the eyes reveal ment. Whenever I entered the bar- ter of the hunt-Mr. Lycett Green- ish paint, known as cadmium, cost $200, then she must step from the table to the feelings. racks, I was ordered to proceed at once with his huntsman, Gillson, his subal- and was contained in four tin cans, to the commanding officer's quarters. terns, with the hounds, were on the spot each the size of an ordinary peach can. Colonel Morgan shook hands with me, as usual in good time, for be it known An amusing incident occurre in this near the scene in the Market square of the cyclorania known as the fore-"No wonder that I frightened you. near the scene in the Market square of the cyclorania known as the fore-was one which will not be soon forgot- gr und, which is composed of natural of undergoing a course of medical which can only be witnessed in this natural objects, such as real earth-treatment to cure him of his dangerous tight little island of ours, for it is a works, mounds of sod-covered earth, he wing been appointed lance-corporal. he wing been appointed lance-corporal. i shar't forget you," said the colonel; who were unable or unwilling to follow i shar't forget you," said the colonel; who were unable or unwilling to follow i shar't forget you," said the colonel; who were unable or unwilling to follow i shar't forget you," said the colonel; i colone day the doctor examined the to animals in hum faces? It was isving that the pleasant, affable, kind-is gentleman with whom I had con-iy gentleman with whom I had con-ty gentleman with het better and the shoemaker's galloway. Those nonce; and a large number of school- when they discovered the models' misusual. These latter, as was only natural, they all talked at the same time and said a worthy minister; "I hope it is not were in a truly joyful mood, and seemed eager for the fray, and it need scarcely be related that many of them were not seen at school again during the course of the day, but indulged in a little tru ant-playing. As the sun shone out brightly upon the scene and its surroundings the most pessimistic and philosophic of those present could but and Samuel Farmer, who lives near by agree that the effect was pretty.

Conspicuous among the crowd was an city on Friday, and on Saturday morninvariable appendage to this hunt-a ing were married. The young bride man on fort, was who has borne the immediately after the marriage cere-name of Tally-Ho Jack for many a sea-mony wrote the following: "If you minds will either feed upon their own straight at you. Its glance shifts off to closed gate on his wedding morn.

Of hounds and ocho in conjunction. Away went hounds and huntsmen in sign if the bride fails to shed tears or his been asserted by careful observers glass after her toLette is completed; bu best run of the day, he escaped from the she may gratify her vanity without dan over women, because a beard can cover jaws of death, and saved .. is brush miles ger if she leaves one hand unplove t. away from where he had been aroused Although not a single kill was reing the church-door, to marry in green, sensual lips.

corded during the day, those who were or while there is an open grave in the Small mouths have been likened to more enjoyable November day's huntone door and out at the other. ing than the above. One well-known member of the hunt, who was in it all brade, they must throw away all the bow" is considered very beautful. The the day, was heard, in the evening, relating, his experience, and in describing the last run of the day he soared into Shakspearean language, and said that the Easter following at the so nest.

Every region near Seem'd all one mutual cry: I never heard So musical a discord, such sweet thunder. land, they must go up stream. The bride must, to be lucky, wear

The musical confusion

The question is frequently asked,

Something old and something new, Something gold and something blue. An Expensive Remedy.

If she should nee a strange cat or hear ogee curves. Printers are never satis that which is higher. But woe betide!

her should she fall.

Intelligent Flash

treatment to cure him of his dangerous propensity to walk in his sieep—he pre-sented me with five pounds by way of solatum; and further gratified me by solatum; and further gratified me by solatum; and further gratified me by solatum; and well educated, he good character and well educated, he works, mounds of sod-covered earth, and hog breastworks. Usually that part is the crowd in and conditions of men, women and chil-bad the days of the hant donned in solatum is and well educated, he conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is an around the square included all sorts and conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is an around the square included all sorts and conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is an around the square included all sorts and conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is around the square included in sorts are included in conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is around the square included in sorts and conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is around the square soft the hant donned in incluster in the square included in sorts are included in sorts and conditions of men, women and chil-solatum is around the square soft the hant donned in incluster in the square included in sorts and incluster in the square incluster in the square included in sorts and incluster in the square incluster had that day placed me in orders as dren. Members of the hunt donned in sionary Ridge," was left thus blank and forefoot caught under a wheel. The is a very expressive feature; there is as

and other nobility, tradesmen, farmers' worked industriously for twensy min- wound had become worse, and Flash had the alertness and clearness of the ages. The complaint sets forth that an

my patron, General Morgan, I was gazetted as quartermaster of my regi-ment. ment. in o preparation has been to develop the sunshino and to view the scene; workmen who ment. in o preparation has been to develop the sunshino and to view the scene; workmen who is the cadmium dry, and it was still soft is office one day, with a small black is office one day, with a small had thrown down their tools for the tion to Chicago. What the artists said the doctor, and back to the cur, and It is fortunate for both men and quantities. kept up this movement for some time. women that as years rob them of the children, who were allowed to leave take was not plain to me, as it was At last the doctor examined the strange beauty of color and contour they add twelve inches longer than the common their morning's lessons earlier than spoken in German, but I know that dog, and found that he had been by the delicate gravure of character, brown otter-and said to be the first wounded, and was still bleeding. H ϵ ine upon line, pencil-point upon one of the kind ever seen in this coundressed the wound, and the dog went pencil-point, the history of the soul's try, has been received by a New York away. In some way, which human beings of the inner history, and he would be would find it hard to understand, Flash great indeed who could gather man's had induced the wounded dog to come multiform passions and experiences.

and then say; science, physiognomy!"

name of Tally-Ho Jack for many a sea-son. Wherever the York and Ainsty meet, there is to be seen invariably Tally-Ho Jack, who knows every piece of country the back run over, and who has been known to follow hounds all the day through at a regular jog-trot. This

Virtue, A man that hath no virtue in himself

Schinall, of Prince George county, Va.,

attended to.

the Schinall homestead, came to this very vigorously.

An Eloping Girl's Naive Promise.

Alice Schinall, daughter of Mr.