SHORT LOCALS.

Joe McEen has a respite till June 23. The lawless people want an opera house. The early spring has not yet put in an appearance. The Van Wert Literary Society is in a flourishing condition. Wheat, corn, and oats had an upward tendency on Monday. The snow storm of Saturday extended as far southward as North Carolina. For Rent—A dwelling house in this town. For particulars, call at this office. To relieve a cold, eat a small piece of onion, with a small piece of buttered bread. The moon is on the increase and fights and quarrels are correspondingly numerous. The Charleston earthquake is being investigated—big subject, they'll not whitewash it. The fame of the ground hog endures, indeed the creature is more talked of now than ever. The chickens have laid so well lately that they have laid the price down to thirteen cents a dozen. The largest and best assortment of baby carriages at Snyder's furniture emporium on Main Street. It is said, that for diphtheria give a tea spoonful of turpentine every eight hours, in milk or coffee. President Cleveland has signed the trade dollar redemption bill—The trade dollar is now a legal coin. If you desire to buy a mill property at the sale of the John R. Baasor mill on Saturday, March 12. A special train of fifteen cars loaded with California iron ore, left this station eastward bound on the 1st of March. One dollar and a half cash will secure you the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN and Philadelphia Weekly Press one year. The sleighing and steeple was good part of last week and farmers took advantage of it to haul produce, wood, and so forth. Rev. S. C. Alexander has accepted the charge of the Milltown, and Newport Presbyterian congregations. The men who had the harbor defense bills in hand in Congress, are not pleased, that the President failed to sign their bill. Squire C. B. Horning bought the N. A. Elder, sixty acre woodland tract in Fernagh township for five hundred dollars. A large company of ladies and gentlemen visited Colonel Samuel Showers and wife, as a surprise party last Friday evening. Isaac Monon, sheriff of Dauphin county, died on the 4th inst., from the effects of a paralytic stroke received several days before. "We will now sing the 320th hymn," said the minister at the close of a pathetic funeral sermon. "It was a favorite of the remains." A Dauphin, Illinois youth, 15 years of age, walked 18 miles the other night in his sleep. For night walking while asleep he is wonder. The wandering man, and bear have taken the road early this season, according to reports of exchange papers. They are heading this way. This is the public sales of personal property on the farms have been well attended, and the prices realized are not complained of. Mr. Elder, wife of Noah Elder, late deceased, bought the homestead property in this borough, at administrators sale, last Thursday, for $1500. One dollar and a half cash, will secure you the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN and Philadelphia Weekly Press one year. This offer will not stand long. McEen's lawyers, Lyons, Junkin and Jacobs will present the case of the condemned man to the pardon board on the 15th inst., at Harrisburg. Persons who are seeking pensions may be interested in the information, that the U. S. Surgical Board of Examiners meet in Lewistown every Wednesday. Canon Farrar complains that the English have made 100 drunkards to one Christian in India. It seems sad, but then it's no English you know—Judge. Mrs. Umman, wife of Prof. J. M. Duncan formerly of this place, died on the 25th of February, at Cumberland Md., where Mr. Duncan is teaching in an Academy. The other day Colonel Taggart, of Northumberland killed a Russian hog—Jersey Red—21 month old. The animal when cleaned and dressed weighed 650 pounds. President Cleveland, spent the whole of the last night at the 49th Congress signing bills, which has caused the Democracy to say, how accommodating our President is. The cost of keeping Juniata county criminals in the Wm. Penitentiary in 1886, $47,747, the products of their labor was $29,799, leaving the county to pay $17,948. Harry, eldest son of Dr. G. L. Derr, returned to his home from Philadelphia, where he graduated last week in dental surgery. Harry is now a full fledged dentist. Mrs. L. Y. Hays and Misses Mand and Sallie Irwin, represented the Presbyterian Ladies' Missionary Society of this place at a Missionary Meeting at Bellefonte last week. Congress adjourned without appropriating anything for harbor defense. Evidently Congress believes that the Canada fish business, will be settled without serious trouble. James Wilkinson, of Duncannon, who was seriously wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, received $1,500 cash pension recently and will get seventy-five dollars per month. Last Friday, a dead baby, that has been declared by doctors, to have come into this world alive, was found wrapped in a napkin in a coal bin, in the cellar of a house, in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county Pa. It was the incoming tenant that found the baby. The child, the doctors say, lay a number of days in the public heap where it was found.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was stricken with apoplexy, last Saturday night, while lying in bed. He preached 50 years, 40 years of which he preached for his present congregation in New York. William Beck, of Fayette, Ind., a private in company K, Seventy-fifth Indiana volunteers, who is totally blind, was granted an increase of pension on Saturday, with a back pension of $11,122. The number of emigrants that have come from Europe the past six years is almost three millions and a half. More people than peopled the colonies when independence was declared in 1776. Too bad! Too bad! The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by all classes of people for over forty years. It has proven itself the very best specific for colds, coughs, and pulmonary complaints. You can have the SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN and the Philadelphia Weekly Press sent to your address, one year, by paying cash, one dollar and fifty cents. You have never had such an offer, and it will not stand long. Davis Trigo started last week for Walden, Harvey county, Kansas, where he owns a farm. Mr. Trigo has been one of the promising young citizens of Walker township. What Walker loses by his going away, Kansas gains. Last Tuesday evening the atmosphere in Patterson seemed to be productive of fights and quarrels. No less than two fierce, rough-and-tumble fights having taken place within a few hours, and many bloodless tongue fights are reported. The family of a deceased man, sued a western editor for publishing a statement in the obituary notice of the deceased, that he had gone to a happier home. The lawyers and the jury will have a time wrestling over the question of a happy home. "About fifty horses at Cohoes, N. Y., are laid up with a malady which has yet no name. The animals are attacked with a swelling of the limbs, which break in running sores. The disease resembles scratches but puzzles the veterinarians." Edwin Gilson has been placed under bond in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to answer the charge at the April term of Court of having procured the commission of an abortion on the person of Miss Clara Mauer of Spruce Hill township. F. F. Rohm, who had the contract for filling the Pennsylvania Railroad ice house paid the men who hauled the ice $1307, last week. The ice was hauled from his Germania mill dam, and was twenty inches thick, clear and as fine as the Maine ice. Perry county enjoys the old time reputation of having a haunted house. The engineers that are locating the railroad from Duncannon to Bloomfield tried to sleep in it one night. They likened the noise in the house to that of a 20 horse team moving around. Clergymen, lawyers, public speakers, singers, and actors, all recognize the virtues of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of our most eminent public men says: "It is the best remedy that can be procured for all affections of the vocal organs, throat, and lungs." Liberty school, in Fayette township, taught by Miss Alice Van Ormer, will give an entertainment on Saturday evening, March 19, 1887, consisting of Dialogues, Tableaux, Recitations and so forth. The podaggers are beginning to sing, a few days more and our trials will be over. Cedar Grove Literary Society will hold an entertainment on Friday evening, March 18, 1887. Thursday evening was selected but has since been changed on account of the entertainment at Arch Rock. The proceeds for the benefit of the society. It will be aimed at to make it a success. Mexico Literary Society is reporting progress. They have a membership of 20, which is considered well, considering that it has been lately organized. Their officers are, Milton Burris, Pres't, Miss Bertha Kurtz, Secretary, and Miss Emma Dosher, Treasurer. Success to them in their noble work. We visited Free Spring Literary Society last Wednesday evening and found the house full, not only of young folks, but of fathers and mothers. They have the material to make a good society and we believe they are striving earnestly in that direction. The question for debate was Resolved: That our country corporated bridges should be free. It was discussed by the regular members of society and participated in by others—the writer being among the number. Davis Trigo, wife and two children, John L. Cullison, William Slaughterback, and John Kaufman of Van Wert, and Herbert Almond of Centerville left for the West on Monday evening, February 28. All went together to Kansas City where they would separate. Mr. Almond would go to Silver City, N. M., where he has been for many years before. The others will remain in Kansas. Here the new ones to the West of the law makers, the function of the court being to deal out and apply the law as it is made. Arch Rock schools will give an entertainment on Thursday evening, March 17th, at Arch Rock school house. The entertainment will consist of dialogues, declamations, recitations, music etc. Proceeds to be used in furnishing the school with curtains. A. B. FASC, C. B. AUKER, Teachers. March, Mrs. Catherine Pennington, Hamilton Smith, Postal Cards; Chancy Knapp, J. Crowover. Parties asking for the above will please say advertised. HOWARD KING, P. M. Patterson Pa., March 18th 1887. Harry Stone, son of Dr. D. D. Stone, died about 2 o'clock on the morning of the 2nd inst., at his father's residence in this town. He was in poor health last summer and gradually grew worse during the autumn, and early winter. By the time mild winter came on he was scarcely able to attend to the duties of an office in the telegraph service, which he quit a few weeks ago to quietly pass away to a better land beyond this world. Interment in Presbyterian grave yard last Friday. President Cleveland, since in office has done nothing that awakened so intense a feeling in Washington as the appointment of Trotter—a new England colored man—to the office of Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia. The appointment for Trotter is a bid for the colored vote. He is to trot the colored folk into the Democratic fold. The fun of the appointment turns on the point that the Senate, which is Republican, gravely confirmed the appointment. What else could it do? Cleveland is a fox of a politician. Sale Register. March 9—R. A. Pannebacker will sell at his place of residence, near Reed's Gap, Lack township, one mare, cow, heifer eleven year old, seven sheep, six hogs, wagon, spring wagon, oats, hay, corn fodder, rye straw, etc. March 9, M. will appreciate their new home. Rev. S. M. Mountz preached his last sermon before going to conference, on Feb. 27th. He selected for his text—Philippians 1st chapter, and 27th verse. A very beautiful and appropriate one for the occasion. The Auker families about Cedar Grove were called last week, to mourn for a relative in the person of Miss Mary Dougherty of Collierville, Lycoming county. She was about 38 years old and died of the enlargement of the liver, which weighed nine pounds, twice the natural weight. Bax Nox. List of letters remaining in the post-office at Millintown, Pa., February 28th, 1887. Persons calling for letters in this list will please ask for advertised matter. Letters: Mr. John J. EDITOR, SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—When you change the language, please include the sense. In my last paper I said there were ten converts to the Lutheran church, not any conversions as you put it. There were some others but not so much difference. While I am speaking of the church I will mention, the Presbyterians have voted to move their church building to McAlisterville. The Lutherans are agitating the question of purchasing a cemetery. The Centrists donated the Lutheran pastor on Thursday the 3rd inst. Jacob Kneely, aged 67 years, died very suddenly of rheumatism of the heart while shoveling snow on Friday, February 28th. Interment, Tuesday the 3rd of March. He was a quiet and useful citizen, highly respected. He has three sons, one a professor in Gettysburg college, one a painter in a western city, the third our soldier. We have a Grange Society in Fayette, but about this I am in the dark, save I overheard one of the members say, "we had had five accessions, lately, and the goal is quiet now." Sleighting is the order of the day, so I have very little time to write. I am a willing unbeliever in the ground hog theory. L. Sale of Horses. L. Banks Wilson will sell a pair of Iowa horses in this place on Saturday, March 12, 1887. Mexico Local Institute. One of the grand local institutes which do so much in the cause of education was held at Mexico, on February 25 and 26. The people of the quiet little town and vicinity were apparently pleased at having a teachers' institute in their midst. The mass of the people appreciated it was evident by the crowded house on Friday evening. On Saturday morning while the "mist was falling," a large audience assembled, and continued its attendance during the sessions of the afternoon and evening. At about 7:15 o'clock p. m., on Friday evening the institute convened, and was called to order by Sup't. Auman, followed by music by the Mexico orchestra. An appropriate prayer was offered by Rev. F. McBurney, after which the institute effected the following organization: President, J. T. Auman; Vice President, J. C. Dinan; Secretary, Miss Florence Wright. The following are the names of the teachers present during the evening session: Prof. J. T. Auman, J. C. Dinan, Milton Burris, Miss Florence Wright, Miss Mary Auker, W. H. Haines, R. E. McEen, Jr., Byron L. Shuman, W. F. Castles, J. W. Hibbs, and D. L. Deira. The newly elected officers assumed their duties. Music by Mexico Cornet Band. The address of welcome, which was well composed, was delivered by Miss Florence Wright. Institute was addressed by Rev. McBurney, followed by declamations by May Carvery and Anna Bell Farleman. "Friday afternoon exercises," was opened by D. L. Deira, and further discussed by Rev. McBurney and Prof. Auman. Music by orchestra. J. W. Hibbs eloquently addressed the Institute on the "Teacher's Highest Reward," followed by E. L. Shuman. Music by the band. Institute adjourned to meet on SATURDAY MORNING at 9 o'clock.
