

B. F. SCHWEIER,

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE EXPORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XLI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1887.

NO. 19

Grandpas ret.

And earth awakes, Sweet as the lark my little grandchild's

The silence breaks.

Bis gladsome face reflects the rosy tint

Of summer skies, And ever from his prattling lips there com Some sweet surprise

As flowers unfold their netals to the air And scent the earth, So buds and blossoms forth his baby life

In fragrant mirth. He drains the nectar from life's chalice sweet

Of childhood's years. And recks not of the vexing cares unborn, Of griefs and tears.

Thus day by day he brightens all the ho And romps and plays-A petted idol thrones in loving hearts By winning ways.

With laughing eyes he shakes his golden curis

So charming cute You fain condone the mischief that he does By keeping mute.

And though the past with all its garnered years

Scarce counts him there, In woven with my woof of life he grows More dear to me.

God grant through all the heritage of time To him ordained, The sweet fruition of a life well spent

And honors gained.

JUST LIKE ARGENTINA.

"Heroines are always gliding and hiding," Nelly Fairfield thought, lay-ing down the three volumes of "A rather have a real live girl than a the will. To avoid horrors, I should dream, though that is a very true char- get rid of the old man into a lunatic ing down the three volumes of "A Dead Mystery." She had read "Lady Dampstick's Doom," and "Lurrid met. Have you read 'Brightley Court,' asylum, I am not sanguine, but I wist you luck, my had; and plots of this kinchave succeeded before now, though I Lightnings," and "Green-Grey Eyes," mantic. and "The One-Legged Witch," three volumes each, of the most blood-curd-ling description that the village library and Sir Harry Clive. both the men in duct—Mary's father and Sir Harry Clive. Then that horrible monster Gob could supply.

Nelly's taste in romance was not of Gobblecock. the highest. She liked to have her blood curdled. And as the four weeks Mr. Gobblecock with a grunt, returnof her country visit had been incessantly ed to his papers. "A lady, I should think," said the wet she had trotted her young friend and hostess, Mary Marsh, in the ponyyoung baronet. trap every second day to the village library in search of the weird and mys- have told us about Ruth's dresses and it, and she had rejected it as too unro take. Some go in the wrong direction, terious. At the end of her month's the color of her hair? Yet there's an By this time the poor heroine, who and lag further and further behind.

SEE

HA O

- 2

-

YF,

and curly little head was bewildered by | in that book, and of barrack life," said human heart-that Argentina had not meet them at the crowning moment. three puzzling discoveries-that Hubert Mr. Marsh, "and Hyacinth Grey had Mary's obliging brother, and one novel about London city life, and on this grand old place, was another about yachting." the heir of this grand old place, was another about yachting." The voice of Gobblecock interrupted.

desperately in love with her insignificant little self; that the country was a compound of gray sky, rain, and mud, a Greek boy, but these ladies that write bad ruined him—of course, it was Gobblecock that had ruined him—of course, it was Gob whatever the poets said to the contrary; novels don't trouble their heads about and that heromes-especially Argentina, classical accuracy."

Soon he wrote a long letter, sent it to ster. Nelly screamed out loud-a shrill within sight of him his strength is the last heroine-could cry without spoiling her violet eyes and their pretty the post, folded his newspapers into the piercing scream, that rang through almost exhausted. And it is only where that they had a habit of black bag, and came with a thousand every lamp and glass, and echoed as it the track is fresh that the hounds go at gliding and hiding. Argentina often more apologies, and made up for his the ground itself had shrieked, till walk great speed. did; and Nelly was beginning to feel absence by talking with the volubility and ceilings thrilled with it. just like Argentina since the heir of of a dozen. His stories made everybody Nelly came to her senses lying on a Darkleigh Court had begun to do her lau, h; his gentleness with the girls couch in the drawing-room, surrounded pedestrians as vigorous exercise as any strange knives. In the Tunis bazaar chivalrous service from morning till made up for his good looks; his talk of by the whole household. She was afraid but cavalry desire. Yet it is invigora- are the Moors, who are neither black.

all out of his black leather bag-he set

"I would do it in another room if you stalk like the famous Jack; and even now, if I will read a story I like to be-like a violet in a wood, and the air is fellow I ever met fit to put his hand saddle. I beg your pardon, Harry, but

"Ah! you should read that!" cried

"Who is it by?" said the voice of M-"Ah! I'm sure of it, Who else could

"Hyacinth Grev.

shall be free and at your service in one on the floor?

was long ago. I set beans to grow a iteranean falucco.

is somewhere in the world; she is living see anything else."

Nelly there and my Mary. She marries entanglement of crime and mystery

"I shall make him a lunatic at large,

"Very well; then stop at that, Over

There was a pause of smoking and o

blecock said, "And the girl-is it to be Nelly?" She could hear the laugh in his voice, as if he had made a shrewd guess

Nelly had not; Mary had suggested tell you it is not to my taste,

'What is to become of her?"

to know who the murderer is?"

Miss Fairfield?"

no one in the novel; why, there isn't a She knelt down wringing her hands.

that's all one knows. 'Let us love much asylum, and-"

under her foot to send her up to the said Hubert.

everyone was saying.

half hour.

ter had left it.

Nelly shudered and turned cold. Grandpas Fer. all out of his back y, firing remarks all to work studiously, firing remarks all "No, not a murder-not a murder." FOX-HUNTING. versation, and paying attention to what shrunk from that for years-always," England. said Gobblecock. Nellie could not put her fingers into would let me go," he said; "but as you will not exile me—you are too good—I loud? Should she fall down with a bans Fox-hunting has made a secure place for itself in English literature, as every reader of novels to say nothing of descriptions of out-door sports, knows, for it is a British institution. The chase "It is rather a horrid idea," said Mr. Marsh carried on the talk about Hubert, reflecting "But I shall have stories from the point where his daugh- no horrors! It shall be poisoning-on of the fox is the ideal chase. It must be enjoyed in the early morning of the drowning, if I could manage taking "Ah!" said that merry little man, the him abroad and doing some boating winter, when the love of out-door life, which is the basis of the sportsman's kindly host, "my Robin is not what I perhaps he might be lured into a Med healthful enjoyment, can be gratified under the best conditions. The larger "Very good," said the other. "That man is a monster!" thought the company the better, so that companionship adds to the pleasure. There lieve it. Once in the six months, may Nelly. "Hubert is excited, but he is

be, I get hold of one worth reading, and cold. He is goading Hubert on, and is no necessity for silence or strategy. No unfair advantage, according to the then all the men and women I have met pretending to think ill of it." in it live for evermore. What's the "I mean to put some money in my good of a story that a fellow feels is a pocket, I can tell you!" said Hubert sportsman's code is taken of the victim. The unskilful can participate in it with hoax and a yarn? Now, there's that "I want you to put me up to the lega as keen enjoyment if without an equal book that every one is talking of, formalities of arranging the will. For chance for the honors of the brush, as veterans. Ladies can ride to the 'Brightley Court;' that girl Ruth Moss gery is rather worked out, but I don't ands, and men that lack horses are "If I were you," said Gobblecock, not thereby denied participation, while better for her presence-happier-and should send the old man to a lunatie those who are mounted have need for all their skill and endurance as equestrians. because life is short; let us do much because we love much!' That girl is tina, she had tried gliding and hiding It is a sport in which all classes can and do take pride.

The ladies and gentlemen assemble at alive for me now almost as much as and had stepped into the middle of an the meet, at an early hour in the morning, mounted for the chase. The farmers come on foot. The master huntsman withholds the hounds, eager for the race, until the morning greetings are you won't mind. I don't think you are excitement-piling on the agony-i altogether a mistake. I don't like th cheerily exchanged, and expectancy and the bracing air have produced the true sporting spirit. And then the hunt "All right, sir! Shan't break my idea of murder, but I shall gladly pro begins. The hounds make excursions heart for that," said Sir Harry, "I'd vide you with all the information about in every direction, keeping, however, within hearing of one another, and and footmen follow slowly. riders When a fresh track is scented, the successful dog gives expression to his own delight, the others "open" and follow him, at first slowly, now and then losing

A little later it becomes warmer. The bounds follow it with greater ease, at a swifter pace, and in louder chorus. Then you feel "done," and inclined to Now the excitement of the race begins, What is to become of her?" The riders spur their horses to keep Hubert hesitated. "Ought she ever pace with the dogs. The footmen abandon the race behind the hounds, and take shorter routes to what each considers the course the fox is likely to visit to Darkleigh Court, Nelly's fair amazing amount of knowledge of horses was just like Argentina, felt as if the Others anticipate dogs and riders, and -were being smashed by a blow and It not infrequently happens that the loaded with guilty secrets-a villain of are following one good runner.

The fox is not a rapid runner until he blecock who had done all the mischief then he is likely soon to run himself Gobtlecock was an unmitigated mon- down, so that when the hounds come But the most exciting tobacco and grain, coffee and drugs and period of the race is likely to be long china and carved wood, scarfs and enough to give horses and riders, and handkerchiefs, firearms and swords and call the park of Versailles. Time was THE BELIEF IN MONSTERS. wanting to develop the King's plans, therefore beyond these fine fountains, How Remarkable Giants and Startthese masses of marbles and the handling Beasts Have Been Displayed. some statues that decorate the esplanade in front of the palace one hardly cares to look. To the lower terrace one de-The great lesson which Cuvier scends by a series of twenty-two steps taught the world was that many races nearly three hundred feet in length. Here are other fountains of marble, adorned with classical groups and gro-tesque figures. The gardens, alleys, From his recognition of that fact the walls and rustic paths beyond are barely sketched.

THE BAZAARS OF CAIRO.

Quaint and Dingy Shops and The Rich Treasuries.

The Cairene bazaars are as marvellous in their way as anything one sees in this "erazy quilt" city. You can go to them in a carriage but not through them. You can go through them partially on donkeys: but to see them thoroughly, you should go to them often and on foot. Narrow alleys between the low booths, where solenm gowned-andturbaned creatures sit cross-legged, smoking, drinking coffee, counting their beads, or in silent meditation. From any of which they will rouse themselves to say: "Very sheep," "How much?" "Ten piastre," "Too much" "No, very sheep." "Eight plastres?" "Ten." "Six piastres?" "Ten; very sheep." "Four piastres?" "No, no, no!" Then "Four piastres?" "No, no, no!" Then was no doubt responsible for many you turn away laughing. Sometimes you are allowed to go; but usually you are soon stopped, and the dialogue begins again, when you should stand manfully by your lowest offer. "Ten pias-tre?" "Four." "Eight piastre?" faith he had a trunk full of physician's "Four," "Six plastre?" "Four," "Oh, I ruined, ruined!" "Four," "Take, take!" with an accent of despair that seems to portend instant bankruptcy. You feel a little mean, but recover rapidly when the merchant having put away your plastres, eagerly offers you the rest of his stock at the same price, demand the return of a part of your money. There are certain expensive things, like silk, where you have to sit down and spend the morning. It is very amusing to see the Anglo-Saxons, fresh and fair and clean, and striving to be patient, sitting among the grave and shadowy Orientals, and waiting until a decent offer is made. Sometimes the alleys are shaded from the sun by mattings or boards or rugs stretched from roof to roof of the high overhanging houses, and the sunlight strikes through rifts and cracks in rays and spears of solid gold. Silk from Damascus, and soft stuffs of mixed cotton and silk; gold and siver ornaments, bracelets and its true nature. anklets and rings and collars, rough work from the Soudan and fine work from smiths here in Cairo; pottery and She Becomes a Public Benefactor by rasswork, rags and matt s. fruit and

AGED WONDER-WORKERS.

Who Profess to Practice Witchcraft.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Old Dutch Women in Pennsylvania -- In Gerard, Kausas, the druggists have refused to sell liquor. -Fresh water is sold in Hurley,

In the old Dutch villages of Penn-Wisconsin, at 25 cents a barrel. sylvania, are many old women whom -The Penobscot ice crop is estimathe people believe to possess superted at 192,000 tons this season. -People in Barber County, Kansas, will cultivate Russian sunflowers for fuel. bara lived in the Dunkard settlement. -Chicago has 11 of the 37 oleomarin a rude cabin in the mountains, six or seven miles from Reinholdsville, garine factories found by the revenue

She must be now eighty-five years old. officers. She was active and apparently physi--Seattle, Wyoming Territory, has cally strong when I saw her, but much already six volunteer fire companies bent and wrinkled, with hair as white organized. snow. Cunning and shrewdness -The prevalence of glanders out were plainly pictured on her face, and that way has lately been exciting Monher eyes were as keen as a hawk's, and tana horse owners, not much larger. She, like all of the -Henry Botel, a "phenomenal"

"wonder-working" women of the re-tenor, contemplates spending next seagion, has an ancient volume printed in the German language, containing many fantastic signs and symbols, and known a Prussian Court vocalist by the Emcurious volumes are said to be over peror of Germany.

-A bull fight, a Texas authority two hundred years old, and were -A bull fight, a Texas authority states, is now taken to include a tussle of the present wonder-workers, who with a tough steak.

were themselves adepts in witch-doc--About one hundred boys are in the toring. No alien hand is allowed to plumbing class of the New York Trade touch these sacred books, and but few School engaged in studying the art.

persons have ever seen inside thei -In an area of 106,103 square miles heavy covers. Bacbara Fisher con- in the northwest province of India lines her ministrations to her neighbors, there are said to be 44,000,000 Hindoos. and they go to her from miles around. -A pipe of beaten gold has been Husbands take their wives, fathers found in an orange grove at Apepka. their children and young men their sweethearts to Mother Fisher for treat- Florida, by the owner of the property. ment for all ills and the removal of -A Mexican has been selling to the svil spells, and to obtain charms that unwary at San Jose (Cal.), nuggets of tintoil, representing them to be of will be potent in love and business.

She will, for a fee, give an applicant silver. a charm to ward off lightning from his __ "Eyesology" is now chronicled at buildings, confound his enemies by fashion's latest fad, and it means the bewitching them, making their wells telling of character from the color of run dry, forcing their cows to give the eyes.

bloody milk, prostrating their families -Exclusive of Bostonese, there are with sickness, or bringing any dire spoken in Boston, a local authority punishment upon them that the applispoken in Boston, a local authority cant will pay for. She will undertake guages.

the job of stunting the growth of a baby, destroying a rival's beauty, entitled to vote in Burlington, Ver--Out of 356 women registerel as separating man and wife, settling lover's quarrels, laying at rest a lover's doubts as to the faithfulness of mont, only one availed herself of the

-The use of coal grows more and his sweetheart or convincing him that more common "down East," even she is false, procuring desired marriages, or doing anything equally absurd either among farmers who have ample supin the way of scattering blessings or plues of wood,

-Vito Cercelone, who died recently calling down evils, according to the desires of her customers and the size of the fee. Old Mother Roske is said fortune, amounting to $160,000, to to be ninety years old, and she looks King Humbert.

She lives alone and her most -- Wild honey, to the amount of ambitious feat in wonder-working was over 300 pounds, was found by two the seeing of a gold mine in the vicin- men in a hollow tree, near Utica, Pennity, and collecting a fee from every sylvania, recently.

farmer in the neighborhood for the --- Walt Whitman is said to have reprivilege of digging nightly for the ceived a letter from Lord Tennyson it. After pretty much lately, in which the laureate addresse the whole of the ground in the com- him as "Dear old man." munity had been turned up, and no _A new license schedule adopted gold was found, Mother Roske an- for Lawrence, Massachusetts, sets nounced that the work might as well $460 as the figure innkeepers are to proud owner of a hen of marked abil-ity. She is a hen which evidently has among the diggers had a cow with -It is believed that thousands will no taste for the beaten path. She de-clines to be a mere imitator and echo could be found and killed, and the be added this year to Alaska's populablood drawn from the horns and spilled tion, as mining and exploring are to be energetically prosecuted. her. She is a hen which prefers to do on the ground at mid-night when the her own work in her own way, unin-fluenced by the prevailing fashion. Were Dr. Emerson living he would treasure. The farmers spent much probably speak of her as having origi-nal relations to the universe. At all their stock, and, although that was a syndicate of Amsterdam events she is that sort of a hen. The several years ago, whenever a cow is bankers has purchased 900 square miles ordinary hen lays an egg with a single yelk, the exceptional hen contributes to an era of prosperity eggs with a double yolk; but the able Otisco Valley Mother Roske directed, in order that until he was almost lifeless, recently, hen conforms herself to neither of these system of egg-laying. The out-Some of the charms prescribed by suffered very little pain by the operain Jackson county, Georgia, says he

of animals were entirely extinct, and natural powers. I visited two of these that nature's chain of existence had witch women, as they are called-Barbara Fisher and Mother Roske. Barscience of palcontology may be said to date, remarks Professor W. B. Scott. But the carmivorous nature of the mas-todon was too fascinating an absurdity to be so easily killed, and it continued to appear at intervals. As late as 1835 we find a New England medical professor writing as if it were an unquestionable fact. The great theory lingered still longer, and even yet cannot be considered entirely extinct among the unlearned. The dictum that the superstitions of the age are but the science of preceding ages receives ample confirmation in the history of this subject. Not lonrawhide, fantastic wooden teeth were nightmares. As a sad commentary on the state of the medical profession in the southwest at that time, it may be added that the exhibitor was perfectly honest, in his belief, and to support his certificates that these were human In 1840 "Dr. Koch, a German charlatan, created a great sensation by an-nouncing the discovery of the leviathan of Job, which he called the Missourium, from the State where it was found. It turned out, however, to be nothing but a mastodon preposterously mounted. Koch had added an extra dozen or more joints to the backbone and ribs to the chest, turned the tusks outward into a semicircle, and converted the animal into an aquatic monster which anchored itself to trees by means of its sickle-shaped tusks and then peacefully slumbered on the bosom of the waves. Like the Siberlans, he found interesting confirmation of his views in the Book of Job, that refuge ot perplexed monster-makers. Koch took his leviathan in London, where it was purchased by the British Museum and reconverted into a mastodon by Professor Owen, who at once recognized ger ago than 1846 a mastodon skeleton was exhibited in New Orleans as that of a giant. The cranium was made of fitted in the jaws, all missing parts were restored after the human model, and the whole raised upon the hind great event in a weather-bound country

215

there the likeness ends," said demure round the drawing-room, and Nelly Miss Mary, with a smile. "We don't looked her prettiest, and Mary Marsh was-not like Lord Lockwood-thank himself and all the world; Hubert was slipped into a thrilling situation just fright.

"But I do like a man to have something mysterious-something grand-as Harry was "far enough;" Mr. Marsh quietly, "Hubert is writing a story. if he were able to-" the common.

"Oh, no," said Nelly helplessly; "but in the old times, and helped in secret been disturbed about Bluebeard. councils, and-" At Darkleigh Court the ladie always an hour to themselves, while the 'Planned the smothering of princes, and all that," laughed Mary, "Poor men finished the late evening in the me?" smoking-room or at the billiard-table. pinion you had of him, Nelly." To-night Nelly took up the book that Nelly took up the book that Nelly drew away her arm, and tried was the talk of the season, and read a Hubert! I did not know what a bad opinion you had of him, Nelly."

desperately to explain, but they had few chapters while Mary worked. Presently Mr. Marsh came in, reached the last step of the stairs, and the new guest was taking off his coat in glad you are reading that, Nelly! It is You are Ruth!-I know it-you are entrapped or shot. The country gentlebeauty and poetry from cover to cover, Ruth?" the hall.

He was a big-eyed, big-mustached, no matter what it talks about-the burly man, with a sort of cousinly like-hunting field, or the camp, or the bar-bess to a bull-dog. He was afterwards rack-vard, or anything." "Ruth will marry Hyacinth Grey." hess to a bull-dog. He was afterwards rack-yard, or anything." Mary did not look up from her work, Nelly gasped. introduced as "our friend Gobblecock, who has come from London to spend a but she said gently," Hyacinth Grey's day or two with Hubert," There was also at dinner that day, a man with a noble mind." neighbor of Darkleigh Court-a hand- Mr. Marsh paced up and down the gave it to me to-night."

some young fellow, Sir Harry Clive- room thinking; his thoughts had darted who took the world easily. His chief off to a subject nearer his heart. pastime was twirling the ends of his "I wonder what that boy of mine has even Juliet's love would have sufficed if gives greater glory than the capture of string is tied to a nail already there.

mustache, and his only troubles in life were laying foundation-stones and gracing the platform at unblic meet. gracing the platform at public meet-ings, His occupations ranged from lawn-tennis in summer to sleighing in winter, and driving a four-in-hand. He worries me to think he has some trouble have certain church bells of their city called Miss Marsh "Mary" and she and won't tell me. Find out, if you silenced as a nuisance has been parcalled him "Harry;" they had known can."

each other since he painted new com-plexions on her dolls in his Eton holi-the west tower, has not he?" Nelly war on church bells has not always been waged on such grounds. In some on a highland near one end of an island, been waged on such grounds. In some on a highland near one end of an island, As the land days, and since her baby hands stitched asked, when Mr. Marsh was gone. the calico that sailed his ship. Now, "The light is burning there till 1 every | iconoclastic temper on the part of per- was low in front it was necessary to fill when boys and girls begin as playmates, night. I have looked out and seen the sons who wished to break the force of it in with soil to the height desired for known face had not. Sir Harry Clive stood by the window that night, curling walked up and down in the room over were used to disarm Satan when he halls in the distance on that side are visible. This was intendhis mustache on his finger, and enjoy- his father's till half-past.

ing Nelly's chatter with little Robin ing Nelly's chatter with little Robin Marsh, on her theory of Bluebeard having possibly been the "wicked up. having possibly been the "wicked un- under the corner of her window-blind chivalrous service from morning thin nade up for his good looks; his tark of night to win a word or a smile. "Hubert is like Lord Lockwood in "A Dead Mystery," she told Mary would say he was most at home when how and Gobblecock, who was so glad to set for the beaten path. She de-the monster! And she shrank from Hubert, who was so glad to set for the beaten path. She de-the monster is like lord Lockwood in the most at home when how and Gobblecock who was so glad to set for the beaten path. She de-the monster is like lord Lockwood in the most at home when how and Gobblecock who was so glad to set for the beaten path. She de-the monster is like lord Lockwood in the most at home when how and Gobblecock who was so glad to set for the beaten path. She de-the monster is like lord Lockwood in the most at home when how and could be the monster is provided to the monster Marsh, as they went down arm-in-arm, he was abroad. In a word Gobblecock one conscious look in her eyes. Poor ride across fields and over fences, and ready to see a new guest at dinner-a was a pleasant man, good company,-a Hubert! She burst into tears at the through the forest, wherever the sly success. Even Hubert came back, sight of him. That villaln of the deep victim leads, and the baying of the heart-aches and all, and joined the cir- est dye! Had he not brought "our hounds acts on the sportsmen as music dear to all southern hearts, and logs "He has black hair and cyebrows, and cle. And then the candles gleamed friend from London" to be a conspira- on the soldiers making a charge. There are just falls and bruises, and other tor, a plotter of dark deeds? Miss Mary, with a sinile. "We don't looked her prettiest, and Mary Marsh was her sweetest, and Robin was his others were all sent away; and to Mary. The engaging nature of the sport—to hint of darker and more picturesque than any others were all sent away; and to Mary accidents enough to bear witness to the engaging nature of the sport—to hint of other, where the air is heavy with rich wayman, or a corsair, or whatever it noisiest. Harry Clive was pleased with she told all the escapade: how she had recklessness without causing serious

The sportsman carries off the honors only heard once (overheard by Nelly) to like Argentina in "A Dead Mystery," murmur to his sister that he wished and- Mary interrupted her by saying who is the first to seize the fox after the how the jealous brethren, wishing to hounds have captured him, and the get rid of the young "dreamer," lifted made a happy paterfamilias, and felt His friend is a writer from London. trophy is the brush. There is sure to "To slay somebody!" hinted Mary. "That would be romantic and out of Clive waiting on Nelly, and poor Hu-planning the book. Hubert's friend is gallant fashion still holds in England of Clive waiting on Nelly, and poor Hu-bert getting angry. In short it was a pleasant family circle, and Gobblecock pleasant family circle, and Gobblecock I can't explain. Hubert looks adven- had become a favorite with everybody, he has written stories. 'Brightley Court wonder that fox-hunting has from time turous. He might have been a courtier except little Robin, whose mind had is his. He put our home in that-and immemorial been one of the favorite een disturbed about Bluebeard. At Darkleigh Court the ladies had even poor little me. You need not diversions of the country gentlemen. In Northern England it is an unwritten to the ladies had been beinging their spices down into Egypt. Following the tor-"Oh, Mary! will Hubert ever forgive law that miners and farmers and all the distance, refusing bargains and beggars country folk shall spend New Year's on all sides, making your way with "Poor 'villain of the deepest dye. day on the chase, and there are always difficulty in some places because of the join them in this combination of merry-making and healthful sport. And it is a or, as it is often called, the Babel Mu-"But, Mary, did you say that—that— that big man—wrote 'Brightley Court? matter of honor that a fox shall not be that big man—wrote 'Brightley Court? man would judge any person fit for lives behind one of the doors. The two

"He imagines so. He is Hyacintl "He is build wantonly kill Reynard, and blocks of stone. The gates have to sacrifice his life nobly to the cause of healthful and merry sport for a whole of old naits, and on the nails are bits of "I do admire him from my heart, books are all delightful. He must be a said this calculating heroine; "but I community of hunters. There are as rags, of string, of leather; bunches of must show my little pearl ring. Harry many days of genuine pleasure in store hair and wool. This extraordinary Alas! let Shakespeare say what he foxes in the kingdom, and nothing but will, there is something in a name. Not the extension of the British Empire

HERRNCHIEMSEE.

Superstitions Concerning Bells, Ludwig's Bavarian Versailles,

The palace, which was intended to be elleled in other places. But the war on church bells has not always an exact imitation of Versailles, stands cases it has been the outgrowth of an looking toward Prien. As the land the religious associations which cluster the parternes and terraces. The trees they often only end as friends; new faces and new ways have some day a bright window, and wondered." The light burned in the upper window around the music of the spirits. In were all cut away to the shore of the mysterious attraction that the too well of the west tower that night till the olden times bells were supposed to have lake, giving a vista through the main- appurtenances. All the open spaces visited pious communities on earth. ed as the royal approach to the palace. "He must have some great trouble on On their holy sounds the souls of the Whatever the visitor may have heard in regard to its extent or magnificence. in 1677, we read that they tried to melt The palace consists of a facade, to sor end of the Long Walk. There is cle" mentioned in the "Babes in the Wood." "He couldn't have been their uncle," said the small boy, "because there were never any babes in reality; and it's all a story." "On the next evening Hubert had car-"On yes, there were babes—there were; its a positive fact," said Nelly, truly enough. The little boy looked bewildered, and Sir Harry burst into a laugh, and watched the prestry girl as steadily as little Robin did. Hubert Marsh disappeared from the group at the window. He was after-Ward sear to hubert had car-true of more than the prestry of the window. He was after-ward sear in the window. He was after-steadily as little Robin did. Hubert Marsh disappeared from the group at the window. He was afterward seen in the garden, kicking the gravel and smoking a cigar. Poor fel-All at once footsteps, and Hubert's low! There are big boys that sulk in this upside down world of ours. this upside down world of ours. "You darling little mite! You don't believed up a silly fear of being found, better lay the rest aside for the more stew than you can eat, you inside the door. "You darling little mite! You don't believed up a silly fear of being found, better lay the rest aside for the more stew than you can eat, you inside the door. believed up a silly fear of being found, better lay the rest aside for the more stew than you can eat, you inside the door. believed up a silly fear of being found, better lay the rest aside for the more stew than you can eat, you inside a samitary measure. believed up and returning to her fa-the trial proceeded. -Free ferries are being established surface. The two principal, which it seems, is thought if her's after that, it is prima facie evi-the trial proceeded. -Free ferries are being established surface. The two principal, which it seems, is thought if her's after that, it is prima facie evi-the trial proceeded. -Free ferries are being established surface. The two principal, which it seems is thought if her's after that, it is prima facie eviyou meet him some day!" said Mary demore and diligent, looking round for once in her life, she did just what for once in her l she should not have done, she stepped into Sweden, and I cannnot withstand at the right is occupied by an immense

Raising the Standard of Egg Laying.

Mr. French, of Otisco Valley, is the suppers of curious shapes and of all of the routine hens that have preceded sizes and colors. The wood bazaar where one can see and smell the pine, that might have come from the mesquite trees of Texas. The spice bazaar odors and perfumes, some familiar some strange, and where one goes back involuntarily to the familiar old story of up their eyes and looked, and behold a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilside shell of the egg which she place these witch women, and faithfully used tion. accommodate two eggs, and does along whold the potency of actually centain the white and yelk call ridiculous. In the potency of witch-hazel, the wonder-makers rely greatly. Young women are instructed at the port of Bilbao. The ore is much used in England. we quote from the Syracuse Journal – to carry its leaves in their bosoms as a long of the serious actually contained to be depressed by the serious delays to which steamers are subjected at the port of Bilbao. The ore is much used in England. —An odd burglary occurred at caravans come, bringing their spices Onondago County hen is not only nota- of their lovers, they must sleep with rivalry is the supposed cause. Onondago County nen is not only nota-ble in itself but is clothed with signal interest regarded as a protest against but, in all cases, the charm must be but, in all cases, the charm must be is said to have succeeded in phototer zes hens as a race. Your average hen, not only in Onondaga but in the rest of the counties of the State, hold-ing for the state, hold-ing fo the ultra-conservatism which charac- prepared by the wonder-maker, To ing fast to the maxim "It is good to woman has held an incantation. By thereby take away the chance for him to sacrifice his life nobly to the cause of healthful and merry sport for a whole the stiff of a whole of the merry sport for a whole of the merry sp Year after year from the beginning to befall these superstitious farmers is to not harm them in this particular. nail is put in as a witness, or a piece of Once having done this, the Moslem feels he has sworn by the holy saint, and will on no account break his oath. Outside the gate hang bales of wood and stone, thrown into the city during the siege of two eggs where her fellow-worker lays patch.

one-an egg within an egg. In thus

Music as a Sanitary Measure.

A correct education of the voice, in call physical education. No organs hair, however, must under no circum-will do more and better work under stances be red. Then the simple fact --It sounds funny, out the name of voices last longer in healthy conditions than any others, and the reflex of clear tones and healthy lungs on the vigor of the whole system is worthy of the same time in their lives must be se- arrived in Chicago and sold five carconsideration. Dr. Rush declares his cured and burned, and the hair held in loads of cattle, brought up a httle conviction that the German people are the smoke that arises. The smoked later in a police court, after "doing largely indebted for their exemption hair's mission is then to be buried at the town," with a balance of 75 cents from pulmonary diseases to the strength the side of the house where the from the thousands of dollars he got and volume which their lungs acquire doomed couple live, so that water from for his cattle. is well nigh universal among that peo-ple, extending from childhood to old age. When American life is so sub-incet to the ravages of the diseases of apper and burled where the shadow of the temporary absence of the Court, the plantiff whipped the defendant ject to the ravages of the diseases of something cast by the light of the moon while the attorneys kept the crowd the throat and lungs that 25,000 per-sons die annually in New England do not immediately quarrel, and the the trial proceeded.

A Oncen's Ball Dress.

Life is a duty, and one ought to de-Life is a duty, and one ought to de-upon the market is ample enough to and believed in by the credulous people ______ The Spanish iron ore trade is reaccommodate two eggs, and does among whom they operate, it is mild to ported to be depressed by the serious

"within the yelk of the outer one is a second perfect egg with a hard shell." love-charm; so long as they are there second perfect egg with a hard shell." The brilliant achievement of this bearts from them. If they would dream were ready for the press. Newspaper

-The Canadian fishermen are trying let well enough alone, never attempts dropping the toad thus prepared into to buy enough clam bait in Maine to the end of her career she goes on lay- have a cow give bloody milk. That is -Quarantine against cholera in ing the same style of egg that her regarded as the genuine work of the Chili, established on the Isthmus of mother and her grandmother laid be-forsher. She is without ambition; the syirit of progress which is the spirit of another he wreaks it to his satisfaction mails to Chili via Rio de Janeiro.

the age is not in her. But the hen of by obtaining a toad which has been fed -The committee of the British soci-Otisco Valley is no such blrd. Such on witch-hazel by a wonder-worker, eties of Boston which has in charge the is her conception of her duty to her and placing it where the enemy will proposed observance of Queen Vicday and generation and such her confi step on it. That will turn his cow's toria's inbilee has selected as the prodence in her own capacity that she lays milk into blood with neatness and dis- gramme of the day a picnic, banquet and bail.

One of the jobs that requires nice __The Mechanics' Institute of San raising the standard of egg-laying she work on the part of the wonder-worker Francisco received last year $60,580. is a public benefactor. May her tribe is the separation of a man and wife, of which $31,000 represent the profits --but not the price of eggs-increase. which seems to be another favorite of the industrial exhibition. The inway these farmers have of seeking ven- stitute holds property to the value of geance for wrong done them. The de- $596,582. signing and heartless person who would __Two prisoners at Tippesanoe, O., tear man and wife as under must first have been discharged from custody on get a hair from the head of a woman a point made by their counsel that volving as it does, the proper exercise whose bair is the opposite in color to the crime with which the commitment within the precincts, except the quad- of the organs of the throat and lungs, that of the wife of the man in whose papers charged them, "burglarizing, is a most important part of what we family the separation is desired. The was one unknown to the law of proper training and care than those of the voice, and none break down earlier under bad treatment. Trained busband or the wife. Whichever one Moore. He was named for his two

-In a trial before a justice of the dence that the operator was a little (London). The first is expected to go short of faith in the infallibility of the into operation in the spring, with two spell, and he can not hope to succeed steamers large enough for the conveyin his fell designs until he stands in ance at one time of several vehicles and horses and some hundreds of passenand prays fervently for abiding faith in gers.

-A false bottom was accidentally discovered in a case of Italian wine Envy is fixed on merit; and, like a at the Boston Custom House a few sore eye, is offended with everything days ago revealing several old pain. that is bright. ings. An examination showed that Little troubles wear the heart out. the whole consignment of fourteen It is easier to throw a bombshell a cases was similarly fixed up. The brances will grow from them. been paid, disappeared, an east wind for three successive days the power of the witchwomen.

ence of the sovereign. It is much larger than a good-sized bandana. The most

I happened to visit Windsor the other day when the Queen was holding an "investiture." Several matters struck me with surprise. For one thing the remarkable freedom accorded to the public of entry to the Castle, and its rangle itself and the private garden, seemed to be free to everybody. The Windsor children use as a play-ground the grassy slope in front of St. George's

Chapel and the region about the Wind-

Free Access to Windsor.

Mohammed Ali.

