Love Me Little, Love Me Long.

Lov; me little, love me long. Is the burden of my song: Love that is too hot and strong Barneth soon to waste. Nor the large and a ser too bold; Love but lasteta till 'tis old. I'mieth not in liaste.

If then levest me too much, I will not prove as true as touch; Love me little, more than such, For I feel the end, I'm with little well content, And a little from thee sent is enough, with true intent. To be steadfast friend.

Say then lov'st me while thou live, to thee my love will give, or dreaming to deceive While that love endures, ay, and after death, in sooth, I to thee will keep my truth As now, in my May of youth, This my love assures.

And it will through persever; Give me that, with true endeavor I will it restore. A suit of durance let it be-For all weathers; that for me For the land or for the sen
