

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN.
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1887.
B. F. SCHWEIER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Republican State Ticket.
STATE TREASURER,
Capt. William B. Hart,
of Dauphin County.
SUPREME JUDGE,
Hon. Henry W. Williams, of York County.

Republican County Ticket.
COUNTY TREASURER,
D. G. Shellenberger, of Monroe Township.
COMMISSIONERS,
J. C. Cunningham,
of Franklin.
François Bouver,
of Franklin.
PROTHONOTARY,
Theodore H. Meminger, of Spruce Hill.
AUDITORS,
John G. App,
of Spruce Hill.
W. P. Graham,
of Spruce Hill.
DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
F. M. McConnell, of Patterson.

Do not scratch or trade either the state or county ticket.

Aernatus proposes to send an expedition in search of the South.

A shower of rain with thunder and lightning accompaniment surprised people on Saturday evening.

Four thousand Confederate soldiers held a reunion at Macon, Georgia, last week. Jeff Davis was there. There was weeping and wailing over the Lost Cause, and expressions of hope for its restoration.

Vote for Hart and Williams. If the Democracy understand that the greater prosperity of the business of the State may be secured by voting for the candidates named, Hart and Williams will secure a majority of the vote of Juniata county.

The Democrat and Register was feeding for the soldier vote, last week, when it published the following:

"The Republican newspapers always take it for granted that the general public is ignorant. They are not trying to convince the country that the Democratic party is not treating the soldiers fairly, when the country knows that during Cleveland's administration the pensions of 16,000 married veterans and 70,000 widows have been increased; that an act has been approved, giving pensions to 30,000 survivors and widows of the soldiers of the Mexican war; that Cleveland has approved more pensions than Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Arthur together, and that he has placed more ex-Union soldiers in office than any of his predecessors. That's opposition to the soldier now on it."

When the Democrat and Register tries to talk to the people, who don't believe in such sweeping pension laws, it will not publish the above, but it will publish the list of pension bills that Cleveland vetoed.

The Soldiers' Reunion.

The Soldiers' Reunion last Thursday was an interesting occasion. The veterans and their participants by Post 44 of Huntingdon, by Post 176 of Mifflin county, and by the Post of this place. In addition to the Posts not mentioned, which marched as organizations under their respective commanders, there were members of other Posts in this country in line. Perry county postmen marched with the veterans, from different other offices of profit or trust are incapable of holding or exercising, at the same time, the office or appointment of judge of election, inspector, or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth."

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by an Act of General Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to Elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2nd day of July, 1886, and its supplements, it is the duty of the Sheriff of every election district to cause to be made known and given public notice to the clerks of the county of Juniata that on banners floating in the breeze, marched southward along the pike to a point this side of Union Cemetery, while the other half of the procession under the command of Captain Joseph Hughes, who had been playing a Union tune, and banners flying, marching up the bridge marched through Bridge and Washington, and Cross streets, to the Cedar Spring road, and took position in the northeast corner of the north east field, ed the North farm, and within sight of Moira's Spring. And on horseback dashed hither and thither, suggestive of "the time for action had come."

A hospital and ambulance is full sight, awakened thoughts of wounded, dying, and dead men. A body of Union Cavalry, under command of Captain G. W. Burefield took position on the left of the Union infantry, and about the same time a rebel battery under command of Capt. John Paunacker took position near the southwest corner of the field, while the battery was being planted behind a fragment of fence, the rebel infantry under Captain McMillan had come over the hill and stood facing them, with their backs to the battery.

He is waiting for his purchase yet, and will, no doubt, continue to wait for many moons to come.

Devoured by Sharks.

A despatch from Jacksonville, Fla., says: James E. Hamilton, the mail-carrier between Miami and Lake Worth, on the South Atlantic coast, was devoured by man-eaters at Hillsboro Inlet Tuesday. He was a stout, athletic young man and carried the mail between the two places, a distance of seventy-five miles, on his back, walking on the beach most of the way. The inlet is a dangerous crossing, the back waters of the Everglades meeting the tides and producing heavy and dangerous seas.

The freemen of the township of Tazewell are to hold their election at the School House in McAllisterville, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Spruce Hill are to hold their election at Spruce Hill School House, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Turbett are to hold their election at the Church Hill School House, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Bealeton are to hold their election at the School House in McAllisterville, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Tuscarora, except that portion of it lying northward of the summit of the Shadé mountain, are to hold their election at the School House near McCutcheon's Mills, in said township.

The freemen of the township of Lack, except that portion of it lying northward of the Shadé mountain, are to hold their election at the School House, in said township.

The freemen of so much of the townships of Lack and Tuscarora as lie northward of the Shadé mountain are to hold their election at Lauver's School House, in said district.

The election is to be opened at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without intermission or adjournment, and is not to be closed before 7 o'clock in the evening.

Strike out section 1 of article eight, the tenth section of the Constitution, and add the following:

If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid within two years, a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least twice, and paid at least one month before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have received the highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall be a resident and not elsewhere.

Fourth. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Seventh. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth. Every male citizen of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for thirty days, and an inhabitant of the state one year next preceding an election, shall be entitled to vote at such election.

Fifth. He shall have been a citizen of the state one year, and shall have resided in the town or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill the office.

Sixth. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Seventh. If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid within two years, a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least twice, and paid at least one month before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge in the next preceding election, shall act as inspector in his place.

Third. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have removed therefrom before the election, so as to read:

"Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the state one year (or, if having previously been a citizen of another state, one year in the state), and shall have received the second highest number of