MOVING AGAIN, eh? What's the matter with your boarding place this time?

"Well, you know I told you about the torment I endured in the last place."

"Yes, well, I just got settled down in my new place in a nice room next to the parlor, when the landlady moved in a grand place, backed it up against my wall, and gave all the boarders the privilege of using it."

"Where are you going now?" "Back to the labets."

JUDGE PENNYFACER can't stand the smell of tobacco. It invariably gives him a headache.

A LESSER EVIL.—"Ah, my friend," said the affable stranger, as he greeted the farmer, "I am glad to meet you."

"Glad to hear it. By the way, Mr. Snodgrass, I see you have no lightning rods. I want to sell you a couple for your house and barn."

"Yes, sir, there's no one else in the neighborhood who has a lightning rod."

"EMMA goes to school, but dislikes it very much. A lady friend of the family questioned her on the subject."

"Do you learn to read?" "Emma shakes her head."

"Do you learn to write?" "Emma shakes her head."

"Then what do you do?" "I wait for it to be over."

YOUNG WINKS—Ah! so this is Mr. Winks, my happy to meet you; saw you at the dance yesterday and 'most died with envy."

"Young Minks—Just what I was going to say to you, but was thinking that you were so beautiful and lovely."

"She, lovely and beautiful! Why she is the most beautiful woman I ever saw."

"I am a very good friend of yours."

If You Feel Tired

Weak and weary, worn out, or run down by overwork, or by the effects of the blood or low state of the system, you should use Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I have had no more of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and must say it is one of the best medicines for giving an appetite, purifying the blood, and regulating the digestive organs."

THREE YARNS FOR A PRIZE

Whoppers told at Bizzard Times in the Vicinity of Gotham.

A physician in Yonkers, who is also something of a politician, has a comfortable place at York river, Bizzard bay, where he is organizing a party for his friends for sport or recreation.

"I can tell you a story about one of my patients, a man named John D. Parker."

"You fellows don't know how to lie," put in A. J. Prince. "It takes a lawyer, I seldom lie myself, but if I tell a lie, I tell a good one."

"Parker, lolly, 'fraid you're kidding," began the physician. "When I was a boy, I was a fisherman, and I had a very good one."

"The most curious thing, though, was to see him get so angry that when he was out of the boat, he would jump on the ground and eat another morsel with his other half mouth."

"When I came out a minute later the horses were straining to keep from pulling their traces down the hill."

"I saw my horse, and I was very much surprised to see him pull so hard."

"I saw my horse, and I was very much surprised to see him pull so hard."
