Last week our report of the proceedings of the Republican Chicago Convention...

The Convention convened on Thursday at noon and adopted a series of resolutions...

The platform.

The first resolution turns with gratitude to the champions of Republicanism...

In the spirit of these great leaders and in devotion to human liberty...

Second: Devotion to the Union of the States is reaffirmed...

Third: The American system of protection should be maintained...

Fourth: The Republican party will support the nomination of General Harrison...

Fifth: The Republican party will support the nomination of Levi P. Morton...

Sixth: Hostility is declared to the introduction of contract labor...

Seventh: The public lands of the United States should be reserved for American citizens...

Eighth: The policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States...

Ninth: House bills should exist in the territories. Pending the preparation...

Tenth: A pledge to stamp out polygamy is given.

The Franks of Lightning. OMAHA, Neb., June 14.—A heavy electric storm prevailed throughout the state yesterday.

Sham Sickness Detected. "Colonel Revier of the Confederate army relates that his surgeon came to him one day, saying that he had 175 men on the sick list.

Reward With a Fortune. A special despatch from Cavanaugh says: W. A. Daniels, of Bath, Stenben county has just come into a fortune of $150,000 under circumstances decidedly romantic.

After the third ballot the convention adjourned to Saturday. On Saturday afternoon the convention took two ballots and then adjourned till Monday noon.

The Monday ballots stood: Blair, 23 1/2; Sherman, 22 1/2; Harrison, 22 1/2; Greaham, 22 1/2; Alger, 22 1/2; Allison, 22 1/2; McKinley, 22 1/2; Foster, 22 1/2; Grant, 22 1/2; McKimley, 22 1/2.

On June 10 in the evening the convention convened when the name of William R. Moore of Tennessee was added to the list of candidates for Vice President.

The platform of principles was first adopted without a ripple of dissatisfaction, and if the convention was somewhat protracted in its nomination, it is the clearest proof that its purpose was to give to every aspirant an opportunity to secure the prize.
