afford to

ULMONIC SYRU

SEAWEED TONIC

ANDRAKE PILE

Duniata Sentinel La and Republican.

B, F. SCHWEIER.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1888.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XLII.

Pot-Pourri. The blue jars in the window, The big bowls in the hall, Hold that sweet old time perfume That we Pot-pourri call. We cannot tell who made it. Nor where the flowers did grov

Full fifty years agol Yet, when at scented evening I stand beside the bowl. And watch my roses fading As night mists upward roll, I seem to see their spirits Stand silent there below

Full fifty years ago! I watch them, youths and maidens, About the garden glide; I see them coil the flowers re growing side by side;

I hear their soft love whispers I almost seem to know The faces dead and buried Some fifty years ago! I smile to think how fleeting Are all our joys, our pain

How swiftly sunshine passes, How quickly dries the ram. For they, too, loved and suffered, And bore their own death-blow, Those pretty lade and lasses Dead fifty years ago!

Yet their dead roses whisper Of sweetness e'en in death; This lovely perfumed odor Has outlived Love's hot breath; And sweet can be our evening, And, if we wish it so, Can last e'en like Pot-pourri Made fifty years ago!

TRAPPING AN HEIRESS.

A few years ago I was very well acquainted with a lot of impecunious men their wits," just as I am at this moexist in the same way in or about the nothing of this matter has passed same locality. The mode and style through the lips of any member of my are different now, but the principle establishment, except so far as my or rather want of principle—is the same | clerk made inquiries in Manchester good education and superior families, the young lady-one an elderly gentlewho had somehow missed the right way mar, and the other a clergyman. In life. To describe the first who come to my memory briefly, I may say there | the deceased have communicated with | Royal Navy whose titled cousin had a next. rent-roll of about fifteen thousand pounds a year; a fully qualified medical firmly; "but I imagine that dozensman, who was the son of a church dignitary; an Anglo-Roman who had regularly to England;" and he handed held the rank of general in the army of | me a copy of the Kingston Gleaner, a semi-savage eastern potentate; a late | which contained an account of the old barristers and ex-Somerset House pended that his relations were a grandelerks; and in addition to those parasiles of society, a few pondescript individuals who humbly picked up the crumbs which fell from the uncertain tables of 'next-of-kin' agents have got their

One of these men, a Master of Arts of one of the great Universities, was what do you mean?" asked Mr. Handnever known to be without a pian for ley, elevating his eyebrows. "I know realizing a rapid fortune, and after a several of those firms, and believe them time he did succeed in floating a to be most honorable people."

irby Furnival.

I believe that few of these men knew possible, I shall trace her out." Kirby Furnival. my calling at the period. If they did. I suppose they thought me too good a in finding Mr. Gi'lesple, the late emfellow to "split upon them;" for they ployer of Miss Mercedes—or Miss used to discuss their plots and plans in Mercy Brampton. Mrs. Gillespie was

Furnival buttonholing a young actor wouldn't have been in her employ if who had just lost a fine engagement at there had been, but she had gone away a neighboring theatre from having without warning, with the first man taken too much to drink—and letting that came for her—at least, not the

"What do you mean?" "What I say."

Furnival, "Ye wart to be paid for cutting off yer mustache. (Furnival pie had never seen one. After a little had a peculiar brogue.) "Well, look patience, however, the nursery governhad a peculiar brogue.) "Well, look patience, however, the nursery govern-here, my man, cut the blessed thing ess was discovered to have had one off; I'll provide ye a dress for the part, thing more may hang on it you keep quiet and say nothing to nobody."

"Let's hear what it's all about," said Frank. "Is it a joke?"

"The devil a joke in it, I can tell you," cried Furnival. "Come on; no nonsensel if you're game say so. Come on and heard and Frank F—, but no one appeared to be more at leisure than I was when I to be more at leisure than I was when and have your mustache off, and here's a couple o' quid to sale the bargain. Worthies. Frank was nowhere to be my interview with Mrs. Gillesple in rather a humorous manner, and did

And away they went to arrange man, the street and arrange mand, was middle-sized, quiet, fair-retired and strange corner. I was who were highly amused at what they haired, and with that peculiar stamp of about to seat myself again, but was discover very soon after that it was no acumen and cunning were almost I could recover myself or gain my feet, joke, and never intended to be anything

During the whole of this first afternoon the partners seemed to be playing at cross purposes. Greevil wished to look after business; Furnival would accompany him. This the other did not desire, and so it went on until gence. I don't know if I could lay claim to that, but being the only one of superior rank in at the time I was sent to Linceln's Inn Fields.

During the whole of this first after there which made me see a thousand stars, and then all was silence. It was nearly one o'clock when a policeman found me in a pool of blood. It was three days before I could get out, and then I was far from well; but I was determined to get at the bottom of the mystery. I was wild with myself for losing the heiress, but most of all would not be drawn out. At last, after

Mr. Handley was a family solicitor every movement, but very accurate in every expression. At first I was inclined to be impatient with him, but I saw that it was best to wait until he "Look here, Mister Clever Greevil, don't try doubling on me, or you'll come off second best."

"Who's doubling?" of the old school, very deliberate in say: every movement, but very accurate in every expression. At first I was insaw that it was best to wait until he had delivered himself in his own way. his way, or even my way. I shall simply try to tell you in a few words what he took a great many to convey to me. He had received a communication He had received a communication from a firm of solleitors in Kingston.

Jamaica, that a client of theirs had just died, and left about thirty thousand pounds. As far as the other gentleman knew, he had but two relatialive—a grand-nephew and a grand-niece. Mr. Handley was instructed to find them out. They were natives of Manchester, and to the last known address in that city he of course ap-to the effect that the grand-nephew was believed to have been drowned in a and he signalled a passing hansom. collision on the Thames. The niece He had hardly taken his seat, when was supposed to be a governess in the vicinity of Stockport. Her address at Heaton Chapel was sent on immediately after, and then Mr. Handley sent came up, shivering and whispered down his managing clerk, who came something to Greevil, whose only reply back with the mysterious news that she was: had left her engagement a few days before, forfeiting a months' salary in lieu of notice.

other morning papers for the young lady," proceeded Mr. Handley, "on Friday and Saturday, and this morning, but these organs evidently have come under the eye of Miss Mercedes Brampton. The lateness of her disappearance makes it suspicious, and the water. so I have sent to you to discover her if "You think the young lady has fallen

"Excuse me," I proceeded, "but and said: that would imply that some one in your service had divulged bustness secrets; for how else would anyone but you know that this lady was entitled to thirty thousand pounds?" "Ab, quite accurately reasoned." about the Strand, who "lived upon the lawyer went on, with a smile, "and that gives me confidence in you, sir. ment acquainted with similar men who I feel that I may freely assure you that Stockport and Heaton Chapel. He They were a strange and merry lot found that at least two strangers had of "ne'er-do-wells," mostly men of called upon and had interviews with "Do you think that the solicitors of

was a "retired" lieutenant from the any other person in England?" I asked "No," returned Mr. Handley, chaplain in the army; a few briefless gentleman's death, with the fact apnephew and grandniece in Lancashire. "Ah, that accounts for the whole thing!" I cried. "Some unscrupulous > clutches on the poor girl." "Next-of-kin agents! Unscrupulous!

scheme, with branches in all the great provincial towns, which not only proved profitable and for a time popular, but "but that does not affect the character" succeeded in raising hopes in the of the profession generally. There are, breasts of thousands of human beings of course, decent as well as rascally of all ranks of society which were next-of-kin agents, and the reason lestined never to be fulfilled, and say she has got into the clutches of brought with them nothing but ruin, these unscrupulous people, is because unhappiness and unutterable misery.

This man was called Greevil, and his first partner was the unscrupulous individual who had been—on his own Handley. "What do you propose doing, authority—a general in the vicinity of authority—a general in the vicinity of "I shall go to Mauchester by the my presence with delightful ease and not a very sympathetic woman, and freedom. One day I "dropped in" for luncheon of her late governess. Oh, there was at one of their resorts, where I found nothing against her character! She e public see it.

"Say, Frank," said Furnival, "can although one night he certainly was a you 'make-up' off the stage as well as 'little tipsy,' and spoke much more like a play-actor than a clergyman." "A clergyman-a little tipsy-and spoke much more like a play-actor than "Do you mean powder my face and a clergyman!" was it strange that these put carmine on my cheeks to produce words should bring back to my mind the interview between Furnival and theer!" "No, no, my lad!" cried Furnival, Frank F-, the actor? Not at all. I never was so near whistling in who was herculean in build, although not very tall. "What I mean is this, could you 'make-up'—well, I mean out a faw weeks before that he and dress and act as, say, a young parson, for a few days, if I made it worth your kin agency, with branches all over the secretly to Lancashire; the proposal of

to think. "Oh, I know what you mean," cried | First, I tried to procure a photograph taken at the "Wakes" with Miss off; I'll provide ye a dress for the part, and if you follow our instructions—Greevil is in the swim with me—we'll stand you a tenner down, and something more may hang on if you keep quiet and say nothing to nobody."

Taken at the wakes with also she utlered a cry of amazement, and asking me where I had found it. I told her the truth, and added that my wife was a Lancashire woman, and that I would take her home with me, if she had no objections. She had no ne, and the land no objections. The lancation is the had no objection in the lancation i "Am I on, is it? By Jove! I'd be It was soon apparent to me that unusual about the movements of the on' to anything for a brace of 'thick Furnival and Greevil were not on the cab. Had I done so, I would have best of terms together. I have hinted realized that some one was riding on "All right, then," said Furnival. to you before that Furnival was like a the step beside the driver. As soon as "Come on, and I'll tache ye yer part." kind of deformed Hercules—perfectly and away they went to arrange matural and a sound and a sound a sou

'You lie. You were." "Who says so?"

"What was he doing there?" "That's my business."
"Oh, hol" cried Mr. Greevil.

You've had Frank down there, have you? I think I am the person should complain of doubling. But In three days an answer came back never mind; we won't talk any more to-night on the subject. Here, cabby,"

"It's no use, I can', I tell you." "I tell you," said Le Vaine, in a eu of notice.

voice husky from long accumulated colds, "that I haven't been in bed for four nights. Come, for auld lang syne, lend me a bob." "I won't."

"You won't," moaned the other "Then-Heaven forgive me!-there's nothing for it but to make a whole in A few of the miserable fellow's old panions laughed at this "old joke," but began to press their hands far into the hands of people who will sacrifice her interests for their own?" I said.

"What else can I tkink?" asked Mr.
"What else can I tkink?" asked Mr. time, for Greevil changed his mind, "Look here, Le Vaine; here's half a crown for you. Meet me here tomorrow, and perhaps I may find something for you to do." I determined to watch Furnival that night. He went to the Haymarket Theatre, and after a time I saw him ner next to the stage-boxes, and was ed murder. occupied by an old military-looking double eye-glasses. The young lady with him was rather sister was touching. stout, and somehow or other her face seemed rather familiar to me. Strange Furnival's persistent watching might another phase of the same matter altogether nival waddle along, and his "rough" of Suffelk street. The Haymarket was ple were about.

Suddenly I saw the gray-haired gentleman, and the lady, closely veiled, coming in my direction. Just as they were about to step off the pavement there was a scuffle, words spoken in anger and while struggling, and, above all, two shrill screams in a woman's voice. As I rushed across I saw half a dozen men, as it seemed, push the lady about. I rushed among them. never inquiring who my assailants were and scattering them aside with blows, the more vigorous because the outrage was so unexpected. Then I cancht the lady in my arms, and when l looked around again the men were disappearing in all directions, and-of course I supposed the lady's companion would be pursuing the ringleaders.

Half a dozen persons soon gathered around, but not before I picked up a pair of gold-rimmed eye-glasses, a mag-nificent, full, gray dress wig of the finest human hair, and a silk hat of the most fashionable manufacture. The oliceman on the beat having appeared, I gave him the hat; but the wig I quietly put in my pocket, and then offered my arm to the now thoroughly recovered woman, saying:

"You may rely upon me seeing you to your residence; but first let me know all you can of this strange affair." "Oh, sir," she returned, trembling, "I know nothing-nothing at all." the Lancashire dialect. If this should be-- Bah! That's impossible!

"The police station is close by. If "Oh, sir, don't-dunnot take me what might be termed a rude way, in all my life. Then all at once I rememkingdom, or perhaps the world. I the former to Frank to impersonate a "Depends," murmured Frank, ca-ressing a heavy mustache, the darkness of which could not be traced to na-of which could not be traced to naheiress. Taken altogether, I concluded respectfully drew close to a lamp-post, and, taking the humble glass portrait from my waistcoat pocket, said, "Is not that your portrait?" She uttered a cry of amazement, and not observe the time, nor anything I received a blow from a knuckle-dus-During the whole of this first after- ter which made me see a thousand out like this, and paid my expenses to Paris and back.

"What for?" "Nothing. Only this, I had telegraph to Messrs. Greevil and Furnival, 27 P—— street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London—'The lady has been traced, and is now at the hotel waiting nstructions or your arrival.""

"And you sent this?" "Yes; and the fun of it was that it was a 'place' for Furnival. He was in portant bearing up:n our physical the office alone when it came, and so he rushed off to Paris at once. I ar-special license. "The scoundrel has won, after all!" cried. "Poor Miss Brampton." "Brampton!" echoed Le Vaine, "Is the lady's name Brampton?" "Yes.

"Strangel" "How's that?" "Because that's my name." "How about Le Vaine?" "Oh, that's only a nom de plume. was cracked up, ruined, done for; so when I found my name among the

"And you belong to Lancashire?" "Manchester." "Had you a sister?"

drowned on the "Princess Alice," I

'Yes. "Her name?" "Mercy-short for--" "Hang it all!" I cried. "You've mates is too important to permit being can die willingly, but I fear the guil uined her-your own sister. That scoundrel Greevil has trapped her in o a marriage because she is an heiress. Never mind; we can stop that by telegaze intently upon a certain point of graph. I'll obtain a warrant at once more than one bed. There cannot be a the Spaniard. for abduction, conspiracy and attempt-

I procured this, telegraphed the fact lies of having their children sleep in must still be in your memory; for he other apartment in the whole house. have suggested something like the resuscitated what was called "The The practice of sleeping in a room truth. No; my mind was fixed on Next-of-Kin Swindles." I hurried out of the theatre ahead of Alfred, her brother, a useful and hon- not, under such circumstances, be pre-Furnival, and got down into the vicin- orable man. They are still very friendly served, especially during cold weather; ity of Suffolk street. Crossing over with me and I am pleased if not bence the atmosphere becomes con-

----ARM EXERCISE.

pretty full, but at this corner few peo- Walking Not Sufficient for the Preservation of Health. only variety of physical exercise which most business and professional men cold weather, and even then the temmost business and professional men get in town, is well known to be a poor substitute for arm exertion. The reason is partially plain, since walking which a heavy are has been kept for Now twist the lower limbs, first on one tion as we would turn an hour glass, and requires little attention, much less danger is very liable to occur, since by and requires little attention, much less danger is very liable to occur, since by volition and separate discharges of force from the brain surface with each as has been referred to the system bemuscular contraction, as is the case comes greatly enervated, creating an time throwing the arms back. Now in land. The emancipation of English ments. nearly associated with mental action than leg movements. A man's lower limbs merely carry his higher centres to his food or work. The latter must be executed with his arms and hands.

A third way in which arm-exercise benefits the organism is through the nervous system. Whether this is due to an increased supply of richer, purer to an increased supply of richer, purer blocd, or whether the continual disdo not know. One thing is certain, sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetithe victim of neurasthenia is very sellification that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment, as expetite that the defendance of the sleeps in a heated apartment apartment approximately the sleeps in a heated apartment approximately the sleep in a heated apartment ap reached. Time for Recreation.

What little reputation I have as at author was fairly won while I was a hard working and successful lawyer. On the other hand, my literary work never interfered in the least with my method of working as the chief secret profitable if held within the bounds prescribed by good judgment.

According to a table prepared by Dr. J S. Billings, showing the number of years in which human life on the I have frequently lost "business" in average is preserved in different Amerimy profession by being absent from my can cities, it appears that for infants office when a client called, but it has not made me poor or wretched. On the over 70 the chances of living are sometimes. over 70 the chances of living are some-contrary, I have gone right on getting together a comfortable little fortune, despite the clients I have lost, and I am glad whenever I think about the pleasure I had at my outdoor recreation Brooklyn 22 33, in Boston 23.53, and while some needler or more money loving in Baltimore 24.20. It is contended lawyer was getting a few cases at my expense. To some people it may sound like romance when I say that for nine years past I have spent on an average three months of each year in outdoor the many swamps in its environs the recreation, at the same time successfully practicing law and pursuing lit-proved. The experience of Memphis erary work with sufficient returns to make a very comfortable bank account. rousing the people to build sewers should Meanwhile I have been cheerful, in encourage New Orleans to make the who were highly amused at what they believed to be the beginning of a very fine joke. It was fated that I should less. We soon had to learn that his by a soft hat, pulled me out, and before believed to be the secret? Steady the malign influence of its malarious habits, promptness in meeting every surroundings.

conscientious reliance upon the value of painstaking labor.

for the season.

Lack of Facial Symmetry. Furnival got too much to drink, when he began to quarrel openly, but Greevil kept his temper excellently, and would not be drawn out. At last, after would not be drawn out. A The two sides of the face are not object of which is to save the very long that would improve mind as well as the save a German pro- journey around Cape Leuca. This body. turning out time, I heard Furnival say:

"Look here, Mister Clever Greevil, don't try doubling on me, or you'll compel some skind of confession out of "Who's doubling?"

"You're tipsy, or you would not say out turning out time, I heard Furnival kent form the usual receptacle in the cab. Alther right half; the nose leans a little to the left. The region of the right or to the left. The region of the right or to the left. The region of the right of the left eye, while the left eye, while the left eye, while the left eye, while the left eye is nearer the middle line of the left eye, while the left eye is nearer the middle line of the left eye is nearer th

-Kingston seems to be the faste

SLEEPING APARTMENTS. Cleanliness, Ventilation and Temperature to be Considered.

Some great writer has remarked: "It lessness in risking his life which may must not be forgotten that we spend a show itself in other places than on the considerable portion of our lives in the battle-field, and which illustrates one doned for being a little self-complacent ed-chamber, and, therefore, its health- evil effect of war in dulling the sensi- and egotistical. It is younger in its fulness cannot fail to have a very imwell-being." Everybody, indeed, who is actuated by a due regard for health in which England and Spain were its rivals, and it still lacks their advanrived this morning and have seen and real comfort, will consider an allied, George Hazlewood, an English tages in population. Yet it has acgiving attention to the size, situation, Dutch, in company with twenty-three that go to make up national greatness, temperature, and cleanliness of the Spaniards, apartment he occupies during the hours of repose as he does the parlor, draw- mand of the Dutch, ordered that eight the other races combined. It has given ing-room, or any other apartment; and of the prisoners should be put to death. a uniform language to more than 150,yet how very often do we find families | in retaliation for a like sentence passed | 000,000 of people, a language enriched crowded at night into obscure and confined chambers, of dimensions before, It was ordered that it should from Chaucer to Herbert Spencer, in scarcely more ample than those of an be decided by lot upon which of the science, philosophy, history, law, pothe majority of instances, the best display. Now it is very important that the thought I'd let my folks think I was gone. That would be better, I thought, than let them think I was a fallure in pose of sleeping, and that the same be He drew back once or twice and know Anglo-Saxon literature. It has and during all seasons of the year, strain, There are few houses, the rooms of which are so situated as to render good of this practice upon the health of in- the instrument of my own death, neglected from any slight cause. A of such a suicide, bed-chamber should be divested of all George Hazlew. unnecessary furniture, and, unless of here stepped forward. considerable size, should never contain more pernicious custom than that pursued by some, indeed, by many, fami- twelve crowns."

gentleman, with a white mustache, and to the balliff and the Procurator-Gen- small apartments, with two, and somewhite gray hair. When not using his opera glasses he wore gold-framed heir. We found Greevil in custody, same room. and the meeting of the brother and sister was touching.

It is scarcely necessary to observe the officer in command; "he does not count their wealth in comparison with deserve the life he has so providentially the combined wealth of all other countries." Greevil got off on that occasion with signification of the term, is, if possible, two years' imprisonment, but his later more necessary with reference to the I could not think who it was, although punishment was much greater, and bed-chamber than with almost any Miss Mercy Brampton soon married, is extremely unwise. Perfect cleanliis extremely unwise. Perfect cleanli and the moiety of the money made ness and sufficient free ventilation can-Pail Mall East, I stood in the shadow, proud, of having prevented a heartless stantly more vitlated, and altogether and soon saw the gigantic bulk of Fur- scoundrel from "Trapping an Heiress." unfit for respiration. While too great or clothing, the temperature of the bed Walking on an even surface, the solely for sleep, a fire is never neces- men down the left side and up the cold weather, and even then the tem-perature ought not to exceed fifty once or twice, and snap the lower later vears of our own republic there.

s almost automatic and involuntary. several hours prior to retiring, may to side, then on the other, and rock upon increased susceptibility to the influence of the cold air, and thus the way is The arm-user is a higher animal than open to the attack of some of the most like a bellows, and you will soon bedeen debris of feudal institutions, has been debris of feudal institutions, has been the leg-user. Arm motions are more serious diseases, especially of the throat nearly associated with mental action nearly associated with mental action and lungs. Happy, indeed, should be the disease of the throat come a deep breather. For more extended practice in deep breathing the tinuous, and in all Anglo-Saxon comspeedily render a person, under such sufficient for a beginner, but the charge of motor impulses in some way cirmumstances, even more com-stores up another variety of force, we fortable than he or she will be who dom an individual who daily uses his arms for muscular work; with this the limit of hurtful mental work is seldom dered more robust and strong, and far less susceptible to the influence of atmospherical vicissitudes, than that person who is not so accustomed to sleep.

Death Rates on the Gulf Coast The New Orleans Times-Democrat published on the 2d some sanitary law practice. I look upon a well set statistics which the health authorities of all American cities will do well to of success in any undertaking, provided the native ability to succeed be granted. I believe in the moral influence and vitalizing force of playing. A Orieans has been reduced from about man or a woman needs play—recrea-tion—or whatever is the opposite of work. I have always found time for outdoor sports and have been the gainer from them in every sense. It is a morbid view of life which would show that in order to succeed one must work all the year round. Play is

A Canal Across Italy. An Italian engineer, Signor Victor Brocca, has just completed the survey of the proposed canal across Italy, the

A little raw egg or lime water stirred into the food is the remedy for scours in either calves or pigs employed at the Wisconsin experiment station.

THE RECKLESS SOLDIER. The Reason Why He Took Another's

Post of Danger. A soldier sometimes acquires a reck

Prince Maurice, who was in comold-fashioned closet, while, perhaps, in prisoners the death penalty should fall. etry, romance and criticism, rivals, When the Englishman's turn came it does not surpass, the literature of all rooms in the whole house are set apart he drew a lot which told him that his the other modern nations of Conti for the sole purpose of ostentatious life was spared. He said nothing, but nental Europe, stood by to see the rest of the ordeal. Presently, two or three fatal lots properly ventilated during the day-time seemed to be under a great mental contributed nearly all the important in "Are you afraid?" asked an officer.

'No," said the Spaniard? "but ventilation impossible, and the influence | fear it is wrong to make my own hand

> "Have you any money?" "Yes," said the latter; "I have enced modern civilization favorably

"Very good," said Hazlewood, "if you will give it to me, I will stand the chance in your place." "He is a fool or a madman," said obtained. Let him take the chance in tries that are intelligent enough to the other's place."

officer asked him, "what made you risk couldn't let it go by, sir?" A New Treatment for Dyspepsia. J. N. Semple, in the Herald of more rapidly than other races, because greatly subdued. He practices an hour chamber, if possible, should never be | Health, recommends self-massage as a | it makes use of better agencies for prochamber, it possible, should never be increased, under the ordinary circum-remedy for dyspepsia. His method is moting the interests of society than its moting the interests of society than its stances of health, by artificial means.

-Telephone rates are comparatively rivals and cultivates a more stold low in Sweden. At Orebo, for instance, As this apartment is to be reserved one olely for sleep, a fire is never necesimen down the left side and up the men down the left side and up the reign of the earlier English kings down but four dellars and gets the use of a limbs like a whip lash, for exercise. has been a persistent and an almost in-

Watching the fish-hawks is a cor stant source of delight to the people at the New Jersey coast resorts. From Hook to Barnegat these birds are as familiar as robins are to inland folks. They are of the eagle family, and, though slitghtly smaller than the national bald head, are very much like him. Though birds of prey, they are spects, notably in the fact that they build their nests in the most conspicufar more tame than crows in some reous trees, often those which stand alone in pasture lands. Whatever tree they build in is certain to die. The phosphorus or some other property in the bits and bones of fish they drop kills the roots of whatever tree they inhabit. The birds are fond of the Shrewsbury, at Red Bank, and there is seldom a moment during daylight when they are not to be seen hovering over the river. They are able to see a fish In the water from a considerable height, and, seeing it, they close their wings and drop like a bullet. They strike the water with a great splash and disappear under it, but only to rise in a second or two grasping a fish in their talons. Just now travelers along the roads of Monmouth county can see the heads of the osprey's babies over the tops of the big nests in the dead trees. The Jerseymen are superstitious about killing them; indeed, no one ever

There are other disagreeable features about smoking that render it an unpleasant habit. The smell on the breath is disagreeable to many persons. big heads on ball tossers, they turned average wages of less than twenty-five and the habit, when formed, is ensiated their attention to the topic: "The Lady cents a day, contributed last year $27,breath is disagreeable to many persons. ing. A person who is accustomed to or the Tiger-Which?" There was a 000 to mission work. During the year, using tobacco is unhappy when destrong division on that as well as on 3,640 adults were baptized, making a prived of it, and cannot enjoy many the next topic, "Should Mrs. Cleveland total membership of 14,815. There are things on the account of the uncon- be r elected?' The others were: now 193 organized churches, 64 of trollable desire to gratify his perverted taste. In this respect the habit is nearly as bad as that of using strong drink. Then, last of all, it is a useless expense. Think of the money that could be saved and applied to the pur- the squirrel does the same thing, keep wheel before she was finally put to chase of books, pictures, or even a mg always on the opposite side. Can death. They are made in great numbicycle or microscope, or some valuable instrument or means of amusement

-A North Carolina man has, in the

AGAINST THE WORLD. The Auglo-Saxon Race and Its

Achievements. The Anglo-Saxon race, with its co operative Celtic branches, may be purbilities to ordinary caution and pru- career than any other European race, In one of the wars on the and during many centuries it lacked and contributed more to the achieve- at a big premium ments of modern civilization than all in the current year.

This declaration may cause an Italian, a Frenchman, a German, or a ventions that add to the comfort and convenience of modern society. Obliterate the effects of its mechanical and scientific devices from the face of -A turtle weighing 300 pounds. modern civilization, and the world would seem to fall into almost mediaval simplicity in a single day. Even the George Hazlewood, the Englishman, art of printing, a Chinese art originally, but credited to continental Europe as he asked its almost solitary great contribution to the inventive arts that have influowes its chief utility to the devices of Auglo-Saxons, AGAINST THE WORLD.

Finally, the Anglo-Saxon countries count statistically, and if the balance Hazlewood put his hand into the be not in their favor the estimate will limet, and again drew himself safe. be so nearly equal that it would be hard "After you had escaped once," the to tell to which side the preponderance quently has a house-cleaning mania. speaks of achievement save the musical and fine arts, it is the Anglo-Saxon race had a bargain. You see, I risk my life against the world, and in most prac. feather duster in hand, dusting his every day for sixpence, and here was a tical things it is the Anglo-Saxon race chance to risk it for twelve crowns, I alone, and there is no competitor. Why

> If we trace the growth of Anglolater years of our own republic, there termittent contest in favor of personal live in New York. Each one makes

New Style of Evening Parties.

A young man in Boston who is going abroad soon wished to entertain some riends before his departure. He knew | tempted in America was recently made they were surfeited with the ordinary at Bethlebem, I'enna. It was the base style of evening parties. He wanted for the steel compressor to be used in something original. He invited ten the gun steel works, and 124 tons of young ladies and nine young gentle-molten metal were used. It will be men. As each guest entered the re- some weeks before the huge casting ception room he or she received a hand- | will be cool enough to examine, somely engraved card which bore the mysterious word "Causerie," A hint have taught twenty years have their to decipher the meaning, the host vol- paid by the State. unteered an explanation. Ten subjects were presented for discussion, and he had chosen ten couples to do the in spring; the young spanges swim work. Instead of spending the even- about for some time, but finally being in dancing, each gentleman was ex- come fixed to rocks and grow. pected to fill out his card with the sponges we use are obtained princinames of the young ladies with whom pally in the Mediterranean Sea and he desired to talk. In that respect it differed slightly from the selection of partners for the dance. There could be no wall flowers. The conversation must be general, Astor. It is the Sforza Missal, for Five minutes were devoted to each topic, and at a signal from the host there was a general swapping of partners and a complete change in the style of conversation. For instance, the company opened the ball by telling German Life Insurance Company, the what they knew about "Boston Busy B s, Baked Beans, Brown Bread, Base Ball, Big Brains, Blooming Beauties, Buthsome Bachelors." young ladies had practically floored the tious diseases. There was only one gentlemen in regard to the relative case of post mortem poisoning out of merits of baked beans and brown 1052 deaths. read as the best method of producing foot. The man moves around the tree, who suffered excruciating tortures on a he man go around the squirrel?" bers of sizes, the smallest being called "Will the opposition to the Andover pin wheels because they can be fastened theology warrant the heathen in adopting a protective tariff, excluding our missionaries?" "Does an incubated color so that it changes as it hen have any material instinct?" and compared to milk. It contains a large quantity of fat and other nutritive pro-exertion. space of fourteen years, raised a herd mildew in California vineyards with wood was considerably curled in the of fourteen cattle from a single cow.

NO. 35.

-It is estimated that the total number of books in all the American pub-He libraries is 21,000,000. -About 100,000,000 lead pencils are manufactured in the United States annually, one-fourth of which are exported. -A comparison of the work of English, French and American detectives show the latter to be 12 per cent. ahead all around. -The coins struck at the Berlin mint during the reign of the late Emperor Frederick are already scarce and -One hundred and six million feet of lumber, valued at $1,890,000, has been shipped from Fernandina, Fla.,

NEWS IN BRIEF.

-Thirty bushels per acre the county harvested and threshed in Carroll county, Maryland, -More than 1,000,000 working peoole in the United States are now In New York city alone 67,000 men and 50,000 women are out of work. -Sir Isaac Newton's autograph, in the shape of a letter, brought $315 at recent sale in England. It was ought for Trinity college, Cambridge. -A Cincinnati druggist has killed a patient by making a mistake in putting up a prescription, the first mistake in eight years and in 200,000 prescriptions.

containing 500 eggs and measuring nearly five feet by three feet, was caught on the beach at New Smyrna, Fig., recently, -The prize of 10,000 francs offered by the city of Paris for the best musi-reason that none of the compositions was considered worthy of it, -The richest peer in England is the Duke of Westminster, who owns vast estates in Cheshire and in Wales, His income is said to equal thirty shilling a minute. -The cord and tassel is a favorite mode for trimming the spring cos-tumes of wool, and draped gracefully tike a girdle they make a simple yet graceful trimming. -Dumas, the French author, fre-

He is very orderly, and is often seen, study and changing pieces of furni--Josef Hofmann, the prodigy pianist, is under treatment at Eisen Saxon civilization we find the answer by a celebrated specialist in nervous > telephone system extending 100 miles -Of the ten thousand piano-makers in this country, about five thousand independence and the right to maugu- about $18 a week and belongs to an organization which takes care members when sick or out of work, -A petrified pignut has been found in a coal name near Wellston, O. Ir was taken from the slate which covered a coal seam. A mass of rock sixty feet in thickness rested upon the slate > rifaction was complete. ... The first volume of the corresp ace of Peter the Great, edit-st by There will be ten very large volumes. containing upward of 20,000 letters which have been gathered from arch ves ail over Eurpoe.

-There are three American ladies who are not obliged to skip over to the postolice for stamps every time they write a latter. Mrs. Polk. Mrs. Gardeld and Mrs. Grant are the fortunate three, the government having given them the franking privilege, -The largest from casting ever at-

-In Austria school-teachers who among the Bahama Islands. -The most valuable manuscript in this country, judging from the price paid, is in the possession of John Jacob

-Sponges are marine animals, not

Fifteenth century and comprises 484 pages of vellum bound in red morocco -Among the policy holders of a death rate of medical men in 1887 was This was due to diseases of the respira-When the tory organs, consumption, and infec-

-Native converts in Japan, with up with a pin. Some are made in color, so that it changes as it turns, the ladies were familiar with the last topic for the evening, "Leap Year,"

Leap Year, "

Leap Year,"

Leap Year,"

Leap Year, "

Leap Year, "

Leap Year,"

Leap Year, "

Leap Year, "

Leap Year,"

Leap Year, "

Leap Year the marking to a figure of a bird was As an article of diet cocoa has been recently exhibited in Philadelphia, ompared to milk. It contains a large Penna, The section had been sawed from a black walnut log, and measured perties, which render it very nourish- about six by ten inches. For several ing, and therefore useful in debilitated | inches about the figure the wood was states of the system, and for healthy unusually light in color. In the centre men while undergoing great muscular of the slab, in the usual dark color of the walnut, was a nearly perfect sil-Sulphur is the remedy used for the houette of a bird. The grain of the

Min. and and