The Juniata Valley Grand Army of that Republic and Veteran Association admitted Blair county to membership at the last encampment at Lewistown. The encampment will be held next year at Selinsgrove.

Thursday, September 6th, is the last day for the registration of voters. Let every Republican committeeman attend to his duty of seeing that every Republican in his district is at once assessed.

The Association of District Attorneys of Pennsylvania organized at Cresson Springs last week, elected H. M. Edwards, of Lackawana, president, and decided to hold the next meeting at Bedford spring July, 1889.

"The little child at Mauch Chunk which bit off the head of a small blacksnake the other day, and crushed the same in its mouth, did not die, as reported, but on the contrary seems to have experienced no ill effects."

Rupture Cure Guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 831 Arch street, Phil'a, Pa. Ease at once, no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Advice free. Send for circular. March 14, '88, 1y.

The County Commissioners have had the Court House insured as follows. Port Royal Agency, $10,000; A. H. Weidman, Mifflintown, $6,000; Jesse Grubb, Fayette township, $6,000; A. S. Okeson, Academia $6,000; J. B. M. Todd, Patterson, $2,000.

Some days ago, J. N. Van Ormer, of Fayette township, came across a lot of copperhead snakes. It was natural that Mr. Van Ormer should begin the work of destruction of the reptiles. After killing all within reach, he counted the dead snakes, and they numbered fifteen.

The past week has been a quiet one for the lovers of base ball, not a single game between the different clubs of the boroughs having been reported. The encampment, at Lewistown, and numerous picnics have been the cause of the sudden falling off of interest in the national game.

Sixty men employed on the P. R. R. between Newport and Granville were discharged on Saturday evening from the company's employ. The gravel train crew and one floating gang at this place and two gangs of men at Thompsontown were among those discharged. The reason for so doing is not known.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft, or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeny, Ring-bone, Stifles, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Coughs, Etc. Save $50 by the use of one bottle. Warranted. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown Pa. April 25, '88, 6mo.

Ex-Congressman Hurd must be withdrawn from the canvass and his place taken by a Janus Democrat. And why? He has told the truth. The Ohio Free trader has said "that the Democrats could not win in New York this year, and the party must look to the Northwest for electoral votes." And they will look in vain.—New York Press.

John Griffeth, editor of the Morrow County, Ohio Sentinel, has been spending a few days with his sister Mrs. C. B. Horning and other relatives in Juniata. Mr. Griffith is a native of this place, but he finds among the people of Mifflintown today only here and there a citizen who was here when he went west a generation ago.

The Mifflin county Republican convention nominated the following ticket: For Congress, H. J. Culbertson, of Lewistown; Senate, Joseph M. Woods, Lewistown; Assembly, W. P. Stevenson, McVeytown; Poor Director, John I. Smith, of Decatur; Jury Commissioner, A. W. Nale, of Brown. Rep. delegate to state convention, Chas. A. Zerby, of Lewistown Chairman county committee, Capt. T. B. Reed, Lewistown.

Last Thursday two hundred teams brought a large company to attend the Lutheran reunion in Thompson's woods near Mexico, and so enjoyable was the occasion that people lingered in the grove till twilight. Rev. Mr. Graif, Rev. Mr. Spangler, Rev. Mr. Reimensnyder, Rev. Mr. Leisher, Rev. Mr. McBurney each delivered a speech. Those who were present declare it a most delightful occasion, one long to be remembered.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER.—It should not be forgotton that Thursday, September 6th, is the last day for the registration of voters. Every person who intends to vote should see that his name is on the registry list, and the best way to attend to the matter is to attend to it personally. Young members of the party should be particular to see that they have not been missed. County Committeemen and Vigilance Committees should look-up all Republicans and see that they are registered. Do not neglect to attend to this matter promptly.

The Juniata Valley Editorial Association is now at Gettysburg on an excursion. "In addition to the trip to Gettysburg (through the courtesy of the Pennsylvania railroad, the Cumberland and the Harrisburg and Gettysburg railroads), the Western Maryland railroad have kindly offered to take the entire party to the beautiful summer resorts, Pen Mar Park, High Rock, Brinkwood, Ragged Edge and Mount Quirank also the Blue Mountain house and Glen Alten Springs. The trip to Pen Mar will be via Hanover and Emory Grove, returning by way of Hagerstown and Chambersburg."

From the Lewistown Gazette: While John Gephart, a stone mason, of this place was stooping down to put a stick of wood under a stone he was working with Thursday afternoon about three o'clock at the railroad bridge, close to where some large rocks were being unloaded from the cars, a very heavy one bounded from the leg on which it was dumped and falling on Mr. Gephart killing him instantly, his neck, jaw, ribs and legs being all broken. His remains were interred in the Episcopal cemetery Saturday afternoon, followed to the grave by the G. A. R. post of this place and many friends and citizens, and buried according to G. A. R. rites.

Soldiers, of the counties of Union, Snyder Mifflin, Huntingdon, Perry and Juniata joined in a re-union at Lewistown last Thursday and Friday. To accomodate participating veterans tents were put up in the three acre base ball lot and to pay expenses of the encampment Lewistown people contributed eight hundred dollars. It is possible the business of the town received many times over that amount from people who visited the place during Thursday and Friday for the number of visitors numbered thousands. It has been estimated that on Thursday the day on which the grand parade of a thousand took place that 8000 people were in town.

In the procession that stretched the length of 6 squares were a number of secret orders. Dr. Mahon, was Chief Marshal, and had for aids Willis Coplin, W. W. Trout, Robert W. Patton, George Heintzelman and others.

Dress parade and so forth took place in the camp. Thursday evening there was a display of fire works. The town was fluttering in its dress of bunting flags streamers and evergreen decoration and so profusely had spruce and pine been used that the town was filled with the oder of the popular evergreen from the hills near by. The sham battle of Friday was an attractive feature and drew an immense crowd to witness the battle. Beer and whiskey got the better of a number of veterans and sickened, and put in fighting trim many visitors and paralized many others, laying them up in all sorts of places. Two merry-go-rounds gave an opportunity to those who are fond of that kind of amusement to indulge in it to their heart's content. Politicians of the 18th Congressional district were present in large number, and the senatorial and representative elections, and county elections were talked over by the soldiers and politicians and almost every other one. Lewistown business people were kept close to their stores and business during the day time and in all probability are satisfied that the money they invested in the re-union has paid them well.

Taking it all in all it was one of the most pleasant re-unions that has been held in the central part of the State.

Beale Township.

August 23, 1888.

The Democratic nomination is over and some of the boys in Beale are not quite satisfied, but say it might have been done worse.

Almost everybody was complaining of dry weather; the ground being so dry the farmers could not plow, but since Tuesday last they are not complaining in that respect.

W. T. Bock had quite a serious adventure on last Tuesday and terrible suspense connected with it. It was the day set for his wedding. Rev. Spangler was to have officiated. Four o'clock afternoon was the hour for the ceremony. When the time came and the guests were all on hand, no Spangler came. After waiting until six o'clock in the evening, William could not be controlled any longer, although the most violent rain storm in years was raging, he ordered his horse and buggy, helped his intended Sadie therein, the rain falling thick and fast and started for Rev. J. S. Woodburn's at Academia, to have the knot tied. But alas! Rev. Woodburn was not at home. With courage undaunted, he pulled for Port Royal, and there found a minister—Rev. Stephens—who made them man and wife. After encountering high waters and darkness they arrived safely at the home of the bride's father, J. P. McWilliams, from where they had started in the evening in search of a preacher. It was 1 o'clock at night when they returned to Mr. McWilliams' home and there awaiting them was Rev. Spangler and guests. Mr. Spangler had arrived at 9 o'clock and had paid Mr. Runkle $4 to drive him to the bride's home. Mr. Beck and wife went to Mifflin county to visit friends, and will visit the exhibition at William's Grove on the wedding trip.

BEALS.

Protection.

The free traders are trying to create the impression among farmers that they as a class are lossers by the protection system. They live right in the face of the fact that if free trade becomes the governing principle of intercourse with foreign nations for the admission of foreign goods that American manufactories will have to close their business places and the employes will be driven to farming and that if several million more farmers be added to the already large list of farmers they would soon glut the market with all kinds of farm products. The price of farm products will be broken to profitless prices.

The following is a list of a number of products of the farm that are protected by the present tariff law.

Animals, live, 20 per centum ad valorem.
Hams and bacon, 2 cents per pound.
Cheese, 4 cents per pound.
Butter, 4 cents per pound.
Lard, 2 cents per pound.
Wheat, 20 cents per bushel.
Rye and barley, 10 cents per bushel.
Barley, pearled, patent, or hulled, one-half cent per pound.
Barley malt, 20 cents per bushel.
Indian corn or maize, 10 cents per bushel.
Oats, 10 cents per bushel.
Cornmeal, 10 cents per bushel.
Oatmeal, one-half cent per pound.
Rye flour, one-half cent per pound.
Wheat flour, 20 per centum ad valorem.
Potato or corn starch, 2 cents per pound; rice starch, 2½ cents per pound; other starch, 2½ cents per pound.
Rice, cleaned, 2½ cents per pound; uncleaned, 1½ cents per pound.
Rice flour and rice meal, 20 per centum.
Hay, $2 per ton.
Honey, 20 cents per gallon.
Hops, 8 cents per pound.
Milk, preserved or condensed, 20 per centum.
Vinegar, 7½ cents per gallon.
Raisins, 2 cents per pound.

Still Exploring.

North America is a large country; explorations have been going on in it since the days of Columbus in 1492. At the present time explorations are actively carried forward as may be learned from the following: ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 8.—From Victoria, B. C., the Pioneer Press learns that news was received to day from William Ogilvie, who left there a year ago last June with Prof. Dawson, to survey and explore the Northern country in behalf of the Dominion Government. Prof. Dawson returned, but Ogilvie proceeded North from Chilcat, Alaska, and wintered on th Yukon. On reaching Yukon overland Ogilvie explored it for about seven hundred miles. In September he camped for the winter. In March he left there for McKenzie river, which he will explore, and then, proceed across the country to Winnipeg, where he expects to arrive in November There were seventeen miners who came from the Yukon gold mines. Some who had been in two or three years came out with three thousand dollars worth of dust and others had more. Forty Mile Creek, a branch of the Yukon, is a scene of great activity. The gold, which is coarse, is taken from the banks and bars of the river. Work can only be carried on two months in the year at most.

Sale Register.

September 1st, 1888.—G. W. Sulouff will sell at his place of residence, two miles west of East Salem. Horses and cattle, twin horse colts three year old next spring, and a farm of fifty eight acres more or less Sale to commence at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

MASON & HAMLIN PIANOS.

THE improved method of fastening the strings of pianos, invented by the Mason and Hamlin Organ and Piano Company a few years since, is unquestionably one of the most important improvements ever made, making the instrument more richly musical in its tones, as well as more durable, and less liable to get out of tune.

The Homliest Man in Mifflintown and Patterson, as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to cure and relieve all Chronic and Acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Price 50 cents and $1.

PLAYING SCHOOL.

By MRS. A. GIDDINGS PARK.

Blue-eyed Maude is the teacher;
Clarence, Minnie and Belle
Are the most advanced of her pupils—
The first class studying well.]
Then there are the primary scholars—
Those dollies that sit in a row;
And Robbie's the Superintendent
Who visits the school, you know.
Pussy is studying drawing,
Her paws in the crayon tray;
While Bose sits up on a hassock
Ready his part to play.
She has on her very best ribbon,
With an extra frill of lace,
While he wears a turn-down collar
And a very solemn face!

A mouse peeps out of the corner,
From his hole just under the wall,
And puss goes scampering after,
Upsetting the dollies all!
While Maudie—the dignified teacher—
Just screams, and jumps to a chair;
And the grave little Superintendent
Laughs loud at the funny affair!

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which we will sell on a guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. At all druggists.
