

IDEAS ARE WORTH MONEY.

for Big Prices.

other."

circulation of the World?"

"Yes, sir, twenty."

The young man did send in

The Cost of Love.

cheap lodging house.

the calm rejoinder

nishment

B. F. SCHWEIER.

SUITS for damages growing out of re-ever brought in the same connection, and will be fought on both sides with

EMPEROR WILLIAM proposes to fix upon January 18 as the date of his coronation, that being the anniversary of the day of the crowning of his grand-

IF Stanley ever returns alive he will be the most amused man to read the descriptions of how he and his expedition had been frequently murdered in

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XLII.

unusual tenacity.

father at Versailles.

the wilds of Africa.

eons.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1888.

TENNESSEE MOUNTAINEERS. | be the resources of this mountain of ( very unprepossessing young men, and sound, his voice failed to attract the would evidently have been out of place attention of the occupants of the boat, By the Fire cent railroad disasters are the heaviest When daylight darkens in the skies, iron, whitch scientific investigation and A Mountain Trip From Hagerstown tractical use have found equal to the Make Them and You Can Sell Them best magnetic ore of Sweden, the regenerating power which the industry We came through from Hagerstown. has introduced into the country can stopping en route long enough to take scarcely be calculated. Already a few nen were recently asked what chance by calling at the office and ordering a country rich in historical associations work have changed a condition of world these days, writes a New York leading backward to colonial days, and semi-barbarism to one of rational care correspondent, Mr. Jay Gould, Mr. found ourselves at Johnson City, a -taking industry with its accompany- Russell Sage, Mr. James Gordon Benprosperous and growing town on the ing moral stimulant. Not longer than five years ago twen-Dana said the outlook was never so Virginia, Tennessee and Georgia Air Line. Our point of destination being Line. Our point of destination being Cranberry, we were transferred to the Mitchell and its neighboring counties "What one narrow gauge road of North Carolina and East Tennessee, that magnificent in less than eighteen months, and in nearly all cases of disagreement pistols sess to succeed best?" was asked each. Russell Sage replied, "Caution;" Jay nearly all cases of disagreement pistols or knives settled the dispute. Illicit Gould, "Perseverance;" Dr. Green, triumph of engineering skill, built by the Cranberry Iron Company through whiskey distilleries were hidden away "Hard work;" Mr. Bennett, "Enterthe narrow gorge of the Doe river, and among the mountains, which, in their prise;" Mr. Dana, "Brains," house and grounds, and insisted on being shown over them. His tales of the suffering poor of his parish, and man had appeared with the portmantafter passing a few straggling villages, turn, fostered the lowest social degracalled into life by this modern industry. dation. Idleness was the characteristic World, summed it up in the best way: came to Elizabethton, the second of 1his modest reference to his own arduous | eau, several minutes had elapsed. condition of the community, if so diglife, elicited the sympathy of the ladies; est settlement in Tennessee, and were "Here, flobert, put the portmanteau standing face to face with two phases bers of straggling, single-roomed log time ago "what can you do?" and, in fact, the evening passed off so well that, on his rising to leave, old bittleston, impatiently. "I want you of our modern American civilization. cabins, where men, women, children Mr. Bittleston pressed him to remain a to row me to the lock as quickly as you The quaint town seated low on the and pigs were huddled together in an banks of the beautiful Watanga river atmosphere of dirt that fostered the ex- able to do one thing better than an- ing from all parts of the globe, day in the neighborhood, so as to visit the church and other objects of interest. "Let me lend a hand," said Inspector was put to sleep more than 50 years ago, and has never since been able to His face 1 cks through the dancing fire, Wild dreams dance through my brain, He comes with all the old desire And clasps me close again! "No, thank you. I'm afraid we Harduss, divesting himself of his coat Money was almost unknown. A few shake itself free from slumber, and we herbs growing wild on the mountain, write well on most any subject, am a must not linger," he said, shaking his in a very business-like manner. could not help thinking, after au ob- the native fruits produced by a problic good executive man and am fertile in host warmly by the hand; "we have The party started down stream our work cut out to row to Oxford and back to town by Saturday, sure. 1 frequently bobbing up and down in his is its essential characteristic. It has cessities of life. A few hours' work is its essential characteristic. It has Indian legends, revolutionary tradi-was paid for by an old coat or dress, "Oh," was Mr. Pulitzer's reply, "fertile in ideas." And he drew his If it could truly be, o creature on the round earth dwells That might not envy me. must think of my companions." excitement to try and catch sight of tions and later historic memories soft-"Well, at all events, come and have the boat ahead. In spite of their efand a pistol or knife would dig a gar- chair up closer to his visitor and peered tened and colored by romance, and the den or plant a patch of corn. Knowing auxiously into his face. "Then you Lac, Wis., who has not spoken above a netimes I think-but why recall breakfast with us to-morrow," said the forts, however, they found the lock traveler will find it worth while to stop this, one may imagine the result, when are just the man I want. How many whisper in twelve years, went out old gentleman, in a pleading tone. gates closed against them, and the long enough and make the easy ascent honest work came to receive its equiv-of Lynn Mountain, one of the isolated alent in generous wages and a well-We must be several stages on our parson's boat out of sight. An abrupt road before your breakfast hour," he turn in the river at a short distant of Lynn stoumant, one of this peculiar country, where he may necessities of an industrious life. said, as he saluted the ladies in turn. already hid from view the boat just of this peculiar country, where he may look down upon an ideal valley once "By the by," he added, addressing Mr. relieved from the lock. Bittleston, "there is one small favor I "What a nuisance!" exclaimed Mr. It had its effect-in creating wants, the bed of a crystal lake-now rich venture to ask of you. May I leave a Bittleston mopping his forehead, as he portmanteau here, and fetch it on our steod on the banks of the lock. "Boat fostering self-respect, arousing ambiwith deepest pastures and soft with tion for cleanliness and cultivating a wooded uplands leading off to swelling taste for the useful and ornamental with three gentlemen just gone through, way down on Friday or Saturday hills and washed by two beautiful runs next?" Smithers?" he said to the lock-keeper. arts. and fed, guarded and strengthened by "Yes, sir, but they are coming back. Ignorance followed in the wake "Certainly-certainly!" replied the a long line of bony mountain ridges. They pulled their boat round by the idleness, and native ability expended old gentleman, promptly. ideness, and native ability expended itself in sharp bargaining, political gambling, and social enmities. Within five years both secular and religious "I find we have a good many things backwater, and went on shore, after Cultivated through a hundred years, these fertile fields still yield, without we shan't need, now that the weather asking me to keep an eye on it till they being artificially fertilized and with returned," said the man. • Oh, that is all right," said Mr. Bityoung man in a boating costume, in has set in fair," he explained; "there schools have been planted, teachers selected, and often paid for by the very indifferent farming, a succession are always some cooking utensils we ... We of crops that would exhaust our thin can dispense with. It is desirable to tleston, in a tone of satisfaction. northern soil in a single season. Looklarge-hearted, far-seeing men who are new ideas here all the time, and then lighten our boat, and by leaving the will get back, inspector, to a tend to ushing this iron industry, and who. we can make a permanent arrangeing down upon this beautiful habitable portmanteau here, I shall have an extra business. Hil bring up that portmantthough in search of wealth through ment. 1 will pay you $100 a week for a land one feels there is an untamed eau, Robert. Smithers will you take charge of it and give it to the Rev. Mr. excuse for calling on our way back," their gigantic mineral enterprise, re- good idea, and you needn't come to strength yet to be conquered by the with a polite glance at the ladies. cognize that education and Christianity the office, either. Yes, I'll do more: industry of man, when the forests "We shall be delighted to see you, Avery, who is one of those three genshall be subdued and the mountains are the most potent influences to lift [1'll buy you a fine pair of horses, so lemen, with my compliments?" young man drew near, he proved to be said Mr. Bittleston, "and if you leave are made to give up their mineral men into the full daylight of modern that you may drive around town and "I think you mentioned my name, treasures and the lowlands yield their full abundance; and, could we prophesy. the portmanteau at the house to-morrow morning, it shall be taken good ' said a voice from the lock, profull abundance; and, could we prophesy, care of." ceeding from one of the occupants of a Rev. Mark then took his departure. boat which had just entered. a reward, for the people, notwithstanding their past social degradation, have ideas, carefully written out, and they for the energy and capital of the North "Not that I am aware of," said Mr. Next morning the party had left responded to the humanizing influences. were promptly returned to him as when the family came down to break - Bittleston, politely. "The gentleman united to the enterprise of some of the antive inhabitants, are pushing new and have developed capabilities and an aptitude for learning which, in indi-the park in a luxurious coach he is of a lot in Cyness Hills Cemetery has referred to was the Rev. Mark last, but the parson had entrusted the portmanteau to one of the servants. Avery.' The following day he wrote a few lines vidual instances, have been almost phenomenal. We have invariably ob-"I am the Rev. Mark Avery," elicited the admiration of those even who disagreed with him in his argu- my card," said the stranger, producing my card," said the stranger, producing my card, " sai direct communication with the great thoroughfares of the world, and lead served, in talking with the children forward to its gradual and sure develalong the roads, or in making visits to ments and conclusions. Few men of Mr. Bitleston felt somewhat mollirecommended one of the young ladies curate of St. Blaise's Church, in St.

the humble log cabins, not only the Again picking up our route of travel | beauty and intelligence of their faces, us stacks of lumber and great native wit shown in their answers to

NEWS IN BRIEF.

-Hal Clayton, a full blooded Califormia Indian, recently astomshed the A half dozen of the most successful editor of the Elko (Cal.) Independence supply of visiting cards,

NO. 49.

-Edison, the electrician, is said to be collecting the yells of his baby daughter on the phonograph, with the intention of grinding them out for her fortune when she becomes a young lady.

"What one quality should they pos--A city in Japan will open a brie-a brac show under the rule, "No article admitted that is not more than 1,000 No exhibition of that sort years old." could be held in the United States with Perhaps Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, of the American bric-a-brac.

condition of the community, if so dig-nified a name can be applied to num-cant for a position on the World some Nev., was sent to Senator Stewart. The cane is composed of 5,674 pieces "Anything," was the cheerful reply. of wood and thirty-five different vari-"Yes, but you must certainly be eties are used in its construction com-

> -Humanity is an afflicted race with "Oh, yes," was the response. "I can the errors and casualties of a material civilization. In the United States there are 33,878 deaf mutes; 48,928 blind: 50,595 prisoners; 76,895 idiots 88,665 paupers, 91,997 insane.

shopping, and while examining some good ideas have you lying around loose that I could utilize in increasing the goods was surprised to find that her voice had returned in full volume.

'Oh, I could give you twenty," was -The best paid drunamers travelling for Chicago houses are five men in the "Twenty," said Mr. Pulitzer in asgrocery trade, who receive salaries of rom $8,000 to $10,000 a year. There re perhaps a bundted traveling men "Well, now try it. Go home and a the Lake City who make $5,000 a write me out twenty good ideas or sugyear, but the average is not above 54,000.

- Claus Spreckels's new beet sugar five years both secular and religious idea I accept. My check for $2,000 will factory at Watsonville, California, is running day and night. A San Fran correspondent states that "Spreckels will prolably establish several other relinences in different parts of California,"

> -The obelisk to be erected on the summit of the Ortler in commemoraton of the 40th year of the Emperor Francis Joseph's reign is nearly ready for removal from Vienna. It will stand on the highest point of the Emperor's dominions-over 12,000 feet above the sea level.

of a lot in Cypress Hills Cemetery has burned a deceased member of his own He possessed brass, but not brains, family in it he is absolutely forbidden, by a law under which the cemetery is incorporated, to ever transfer or sell the ot outside of his family.

The blunder of a town without fire He sleeps a dreamless sleep, Dr tossing waves above his head appuratus was illustrated during a fire Their ceaseless murmur keep. in Highland Park, Ill., Saturday, by its destruction, the people only being Never an echo from his heart Has found its way to mine; Yet, as the red coals drop apart, With shifting gloom and shine, able to save part of their furniture. THE President has set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November as a day of Thanksgiving by the American people. In accordance with customs, vision sweet, that day dispels! the Governors of the several States will name the same day, which will give it the usual National effect, A thought too vain to last? he firelight flickers on the wall, THE negotiation of a new extradition treaty with Great Britain which will The footsteps have gone past. put a stop to the flight of American criminals to Canada is urgently demanded. The present state of affairs is a disgrace to our civilization and a premium to rascality. THE MAN WHO OFFERED BRODIE five hundred dollars if he would leap off a placid doze in a shady arbor near the Poughkeepsie bridge should be sent to | water's edge, when he was aroused by jall. That would put a damper on this | the splashing of oars, and behold! a kind of "sport," which is surely more cruel than that of shooting live pig-EMPEROR WILLIAM II has done a wise thing and a proper thing in rebuk- a dozen promiscuous visits of this kind ing the press of Berlin for its unkind expression concerning his father. Emperor Frederick. The general impresof the press was not displeasing to him. ....

MR. GLADSTONE continues to be one from his head. of the most wonderful of old men. His Birmingham speech seems to have said Mr. Bittleston, shortly.

THE REV. MARK AVERY. Old Mr. Bittleston had a charming house and grounds on the Thames, near Marlow, including a pretty eyot. One sultry afternoon he was enjoying the act of alighting upon the lawn. Mr. Bittleston sprang to his feet in an instant, prepared to lose his temper on small provocation. He knew the stranger's errand, for he received half in the course of the day. When the rather a mild looking youth, who wore spectacles, and seemed diffident and sion heretofore has been that the tone very much embarrassed. "Have I the pleasure of speaking to quired, politely lifting his straw hat "Yes; the island belongs to me,"

his age would be able to with-fied by the young man's polite and accept it, as he happened to come ston, feeling confused.

the propritor of this island?" he in-

Then there is no doubt whatever card. It bore the following inscription: "The Rev. Mark Avery, 14 Hayter less attention than it might otherwise ger, with a laugh in which his compan-

JONES PAYSthe FREICHT BINGELANTON. N. DEDERICK'S NAY PRESSES. HICK & CO., ALBANY, N. L. STOPPED FREE

AD SHOT Is present.

ite W. L. DOUGLAS

OI GLAS SE.25 WORKING

DOUGLAS ST SHOE FOR BOT

LORIDA Sea Shells

HE ORANGE GROVE CON FORT SI. W 10

IE ORANGE GROVE LAND AGENCE

BUY A HOME IN FLORIDA - CHEAP, All particulars in THE

DOI: GLAS $1.75 YOUTH'S School

Stories

necdotes: Historical mor; Poetry.

S. tox for the best

ppiements

51.75 n vear

ston, Mass.

Political prisoner will have even that much of consideration for his foeble health. -According to Johann Faber, the famous manafacturer of Nuremberg, the people of the United States use, in round number. the people of the United States use, in round number is the people of the United States use, in round number is the people of the United States use is the people of the United States use is

be unfit for use,"

Tamous manufacturer of Nuremberg, the people of the United States use, in round numbers, about 100,000,000 lead Vencils every year. As he spoke, he glanced at the young vencils every year. As he spoke, he glanced at the young arson's companions. The latter were arson's companions. The latter were stand the physical fatigue of standing respectful demeanor, and he took the across it in a music shop in the town. up to address an audience for two hours. It is a notable fact that in cases where disaster or death occurs at a rail-road crossing, coroner's juries investing such accidents say that the fault is not because the companies do not vigilant-by guard and watch against such occur-by guard and watch against such oc for the night with my friends."

Two hundred million dollars for de fenses on the frontier of France against make an exception in your case."

possible attacks from Germany—that is the proposed expenditure that agitates France. Such works would get rid of a surplus if France had any, but there the surplus must first be created by ad- this little trip, which I have organized, and has evidently been opened with a hold of it with sudden interest. the simples must use the simples must use the term of a tract of a part of the simple was the case with Metz in the late war.

THE gift of $1,000,000 by David to do all I can to promote their enjoy- Bittleston, in a great fluster. Hand, of New Haven, Conn., for the ment." "You will find plenty of accommo-dation at Mariow, at all events," said the inspector. "There are no signs of a forcible entrance having been effected, the lid, an excited exclamation burst education of Southern negroes is a wise and generous beneficence, bestowed Mr. Bittleston. within a field that is rich in possibilities. None will recognize its value cannot afford to pay for it," remarked been unlocked." "Then you dor the Rev. Mark, canony, any own panious have no money, and my own purse is, unfortunately, very narrow." deed, I can answer for all of them." "Hanged if I didn't think this was slave-holding States, who as they reach purse is, unfortunately, very narrow." out to an industrial future are con-"Oh, then you are paymaster?" said the old gentleman, whose kind heart ging his shoulders, "I can't express any put me off the scent by leading me to fronted by a difficult and peculiar race was touched by the parson's artlers opinion at present. Have you had any believe that the parson who dined with mfession.

"Yes; it is my treat, in fact," an-CAPTAIN THOMPSON, whose vessel the steamer Benvenue, was caught in the recent great typhoon in the China sea, your Island, we must try elsewhere. here a night or two ago-a curate of a says of the centre of the typhoon: "It But it is a convinient spot, and I hoped to prevail on you-"" "Well, well, for this once I will was filled with lightning, and a heavy roar made it impossible to distinguish the noise of the wind from that of the make an exception," interrupted Mr. about the parson, but Mr. Bitlieson re-hunder. The smell, too, of electricity, Bittleston, unable to resist any longer. the noise of the wind from that of the like the smell of burning sulphur, was so intense as to cause an almost overpowering sensation of suffocation, and the biscuits and food not washed away by the storm tasted so of sulphur as to "We will do nothing that can possie unfit for use." "We will do nothing that can possi-The Missouri Court of Appeals has ven great joy to the railway dead-ton, who grasped it in a friendly fashgiven great joy to the railway deadheads. It has affirmed the judgment of a lower court, which decided that notwithstanding the holder of a free pass agrees to assume all risks of accident, yet it is the duty of the railroad company to do all that human care, skill and ingenuity can devise in the way of safe coaches, trucks and ma-repair, and even if the passenger were Rev. Mark, heartily, "we have our officer joined him on the lawn. "It's a puzzle, and that's a fact," a free rider they were liable for damage that might follow a disregard of these precautions. WILLIT BE ANOTHER MANDEVILLE CASE?"-Germany's Chancellor does not CASE?"-Germany's Chancellor does not man; "my wife and daughters would man; "my wife and daughters would be pleased."

"You are extremely kind, but the increasing it. It is curious to note that Geffcken's offence is only that of mak-he added aloud, "I should only be too ly guard and watch against such occur-rences, but because the crossings exist, and the public are not prudent and careful enough in their use. response a detective appeared upon the the impertinence in very forcible lan-"I'm sorry to say that I've been obliged to put a stop to that," said Mr. Bit'deston; "I'm afraid that I cannot pured, and the lock had not been tam-nate an excertion in your case."

"That is Mr. Avery, sure enough,' "That is Mr. Avery, sure enough," "It was cleverly done, but there said the officer; "I've seen him before. upon a sweet, sunlighted valley sparkpicturesque log cabins of the moun-taineers, and the women and children We Mr. Bittleston was too much non-before experienced. One is a pupil teacher at our schools, and the other is assistant in the night school. They have both earned a holiday, and I wish have both earned a holiday, and I wish have both earned a holiday and in spectrum their enjoyof the portmanteau and in the twink-

After a succession of tunnels and "It's a case of burglary," answered hing of an eye had mastered the lock but some of the windows on the ground from the bystanders, for the contents "Undoubtedly; but, the fact is, we door have no shutters, and may have of the portmanteau proved to be the whole of the articles of silver and jel-"Then you don't suspect any of the eiry which had been stolen from Mr.

"Well," said the inspector, shrug- itl" ejaculated the inspector. "You town, which only five years ago was planted on a green hillside, and are at stranger in the house lately. "No," said Mr. Bittleston, adding, me you had entertained a stranger who you was an old friend. You never told the rustic station of Cranberry Inn, swered the Rev. Mark, smiling. "Of as he remembered the Rev. Mark had left his baggage, or I should not course, if you object to our landing on Avery; "by the by, a clergyman dined have wasted the last day or two." having passed over a stretch of road ness by the great Dingwall Railway of "I had no idea that-that the young Scotland. London parish. He was the only visitor the last few days." man was a swindler," murmured Mr. Bittleston.

The inspector asked no questions "I can see the game as clear as dayful, is an ideal mountain lodge, nest-"I must ask you to fix your camp in the end, and ascertained beyond a doubt pair do the job neatly in the night. He most remote corner of the island, and that the Rev. Mark was the person he knows the difficulty of getting away not to damage the underwood. When represented himself to be. He had no with the swag, and thinks he may be not only to the traveler, who may come you take your morning bath, please bear in mind that the windows of my house overlook the Island." for a night, but a retreat from summer faction of feeling upon his return that in consequence of having been to the he had not committed an indiscretion. It as barranged that when he called ball the the things with you and mean. Here one may dream, rest or work, to take the place of fingers in taking It so happened that when he called he left the things with you, and mean-ton, who grasped is in a final to you, ion; "I am exceedingly obliged to you, believe me, for your kindness." tained that the young curate had gone on a boating expedition to Oxford with hands on him and his pals too."

And he did. Silver Bowls for Fruit and Salads.

Silver fruit dishes are in the shape mountain rambles.

without being noticed in a little place like this." "Where are the things then?" in-"Where are the things then?" in-

Geffcken's offence is only that of mak-Ing public a part of the late Emperor Frederick's diary. This is one of the offences where a part is greater than the whole. Mandeville, the Irish mountaineer's character, which though often distorted and overlapped, like the primary strata of his own mountain there is trouble ahead for the employers. (The rule, "-Crooked and Straight are the If the young man should happen to rocks, is not wholly destroyed, and instances are not rare where men have risen above their surroundings and have lived honest, noble lives, in the midst of almost, noble lives, in the midst of almost universal degradation. nine cases out of ten the tender passion

No one is able to foresee what this highly favored country, now in course dry goods store. This is especially so other. Magnificent moss-covered cliffs of development, may yet become. For, in the case of the young ladies. Once lead into a deep tunnel and out again though its mineral wealth is enormous, they get in love with a young man at another counter their minds, instead of its agricultural possibilities are equally ling in beauty, bound by walls of deer- valuable, and upon them its future est green, its foreground made up of prosperity will, in a large measure, de- tinually at the young man's counter.

> recently purchased and now being cleared for cultivation, that the soil and climate are favorable to the most got to thinking more of a good-looking grow famous.

intelligent and scientific modes of farm- young man at some other counter than bridges we came to Roan Mountain ing. Mountaineers are waking up to she did of our business," Station, a neat and prettily built town, the opportunities that surround them, which is the point of departure for Cloudland Hotel, on the top of Roan The consequence is that the large Cloudland Hotel, on the top of Roan Mountain, 6300 feet above the level of North Carolina land-bolders, burdened their places. I confess I always regret naux, who has for years kept down the sea, and the highest human habita-tion east of the Rockies. The higher are surveying their old tracts, dividing mountains now recede into the far dis- and selling them off, and the sound of tance, the country grows gentler, we the failing trees in these great forests trouble reaches a certain stage there is pass Elk Park, an industrial little tells that the old order of things is no alternative. Of course we go about services."

Value of the World's Railroads.

slowly passing away. Fashions in Jewelry. A gold ball, having upon the front a not surpassed in rugged picturesque- pansy in delicate enamel, is the newest thing in earring covers. Moonstone heads of a pinkish hue, Cranberry Inn, so aptly called the set in an engraved gold dollar, have "Cottage Beautiful," and to which we would like to add the Cottage Fount:- A silver trowel, with a cut in the centre to hold the leaves, is a new ling among the wooded hills, a blessing book mark. Whistles are made of two coins placed back to back, and can be easily heat to those in search of beauty, com-fort, ideal cleanliness and all the gent-For infants' use in

For infants' use is a small silver implement in the shape of a snow plow, money of every kind, gold, silver and The stimulating quality of the air, un-like the languid heat of the valley, is a A thistle made of silk floss and security, leave one's heavy luggage and make excursions to different places of All the semi-precious stones, such as interest, these excursions being made easy by excellent saddle horses, teams of mules, tents, comfortable wagons aquamarines, yellow diamonds and at once its chief cause and its fullest of mules, tents, comfortable wagons aquamarines, yellow diamonds and at once its chief cause and its fullest mountain rambles, and all other requirements for long ployed by jewelers. These are set in ployed by jewelers. These are set in A ride of four hours brings us to the bracelets and small round brooches enis suffering from being locked up, as Mandeville did, although there is no reason to suppose that scant food and jail clothing have anything to do with increasing it. It is curious to note that

A tablet set consisting of 10 pleces of the most consisting of 10 pleces of the most consistence." Wr. Bittleston; "we shall be quite alone daughters to house, but his portmanteau is for the future to tell whether Germany's political prisoner." Mr. Bittleston; "we shall be quite alone to see guests in boating pleased before he died, but it is much of consider will have even that much of the mountains and the forests are dyed in crimson and gold.

crimson and gold. The development of the cranberry region is due to the efforts of the a pair of bon-bon boxes, and two oblong Cranberry Iron Company, made up principally of Philadelphia stockhold- tie, a couple of trays for letters, a pair of North Carolina." Whatever may and violets.

"One of the worst things we have to logs tell the prevailing industry, we questions, which would be hard to find contend with in our business, so far as writes: "Apropus of left-handedness, I our unmarried male and female em-ployees are concerned," said a dry ation of the fact that women always, goods man, "Is love. When a young iady, say in the hostery department, falls in love with a nice young man in left to right. Personally I have re-

-Crooked and Straight are the names of a pair of elergymen in charge of an English church. Lock and Key were long familiar manes over the door of a hardware store in Louisville, Ky, Scarcely less appropriate were the last named parties to their business than were the famous U. Ketchum & I. Cheatum firm of lawyers.

-Clara Morris, began her theatrical being at their own counters, are con- life in Cleveland, O., where she was employed in cleaning the theatre, addend. We are told by a gentleman who has bright young woman who was very effort she got 56 a week. She worked valuable to us become utterly worthless behind her counter simply because she Daly saw her, and then she began to

-A philanthropic Mme, Batifol established some time ago an annual "It's the same way with the young prize of 10,000 france to the most de men, too. When they get too far gone [serving and industrious young woman. to take this step, and I never do it father, mother and half a dozen unless in self-defense. But when the brothers and sisters by being a "cutter out" in a militnery shop,

-It has been discovered that a large It in a roundabout way, and never give the real cause for dispensing with their portion of Utah is underlaid with a stratum of water, which may be reached by boring wells from one aundred to two hundred feet. The wells flow so liberally that one of them The railroads of the world are to-day will water five or six acres thoroughly. worth from twenty-five to thirty thou-The desert is literally "made to blossand million dollars. This probably om as the rose," represents one-tenth of the total wealth -Many eulogies have been paid to of civilized nations, and one-quarter, if the late Judge McAllister of Chicago, "He hated the millinery of life," said not one-third, of their invested capital. It is doubtful whether the aggregate one, "His court was the court of plant used in all manufacturing indus-tries can equal it in value. The capital humanity." I once beard him say, "I have a contempt for a judge who engaged in banking is but a trifle bewrites his optnions from the shoulder. side it. The world's whole stock of He was a great lover of music, and once said that if he hadn't been a paper, would purchase only a third of Judge he would have been a fiddler."

Its railroad. Yet these facts by no means measure -William Arnow, a negro, has just tonic to wearied brains and overtaxed sprinkled over with diamonds, resting the whole importance of the railroad in finished a ride of 200 miles on the Sanerves. Here the hay fever patient forgets his discomforts and malaria handsome a hair ornament as has been "Don't mention it," said the gentle-man, walking by the parson's side across the lawn, "any little thing we can do for you, or supply you with, do not hesitate to ask for. Have you any fresh milk? I know that it is a com-modify which is generally in request," "Thank you. We won't trespas, further on your kindness," returned further on your kindness," returned fresh milk?, Mark, heartly, "we have our business methods of to-day are in one a tree. He was fishing in the river are for 1886, show that 24 541 persons were killed by wild beasts in that centration. Almost every distinctive year in British India. Of these 22, 134 were killed by snakes, 028 by tigers, 222 by wolves, 194 by leopards, by bears, 57 by exphants, 24 by hy-enas and 1,169 by other animals, including scorpions, jackals, lizards, Now and then we see a boy smoking boars, crocodiles, buffaloes, mad dogs tobacco in the street. We saw three boys between twelve and foxes. In the case both of human We saw three boys between twelve and fourteen years old doing so in the pears to be on the increase. During Bowery, New York. Two of them had the past nine years rewards were paid

Just at sun-

burging cigarettes in their mouths, and | for 179,639 wild animals, and for 2,672,against an oxidized background, and the seasons here, and so deep the ceived by the Princess Letitia on the one of them smoked a pipe. They were 467 snakes. -A writer in the Wille Anake re out showing off. "Don't learn to smoke, boys! lates being present "at the house of a It is a poor and foolish habit. Parsee merchant when their evening service took place; and, to my great It is a wasteful habit, in which good noney is spent for bad weed. surprise, it was the simple act of light-It is an unwholesome habit, harmful ing their evening lamp. to the lungs, which take in the air de- set the doors and windows are closed, and the family assemble around the It is a habit that often gives offense

We've Said the Same.

large hearth-lamp. The mother re-It is an unclean habit. ing in most l'arsee houses, min, les her So, dear boys, don't learn to smoke! breath with it by lightly blowing on it, then returns to the family room and -----A St. Paul woman, while waiting lights each one of the seven wicks of ers and which has already been called of candelabra with three branches, each in a dentist's office to have a tooth the hearth-hamp; while the family "The first wedge of civilization fairly resting on an eagle, and a basket delidriven into the northwest mountains cately chased with garlands of rises heaven to give her strength to underge on their breasts murmur their svening prayer."

