

WINTER.

Fall

STYLES!

in County having just a wonderful
STOCK, of victorias, and mill (well or the CLOTHING
combining Style, Quality and No sale is expected unless complete satisfaction. My OVERALLS, WATCHES and ties, Neck wear, Collars and Shirts. Call and see.

RA YER.

REAR AND FURNISHER

PERSON.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

TIME-TABLE

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. at Millville with cars to follow.

EASTWARD.

Express leaves Altoona for Philadelphia 8:00 a.m. Tyrona 8:12 a.m., Altoona 8:24 a.m., Keokuk Union at 8:36 a.m., Newton Hamilton 8:48 a.m., Altoona 9:00 a.m., Lewistown 9:12 a.m., Harrisburg 9:24 a.m., York 9:36 a.m., Lancaster 9:48 a.m., Philadelphia 10:00 a.m.

WESTWARD.

Leaves Philadelphia daily at 7:00 a.m. Harrisburg at 8:10 a.m., York at 9:00 a.m., Lancaster at 9:12 a.m., Altoona at 9:24 a.m., Keokuk Union at 9:36 a.m., Newton Hamilton at 9:48 a.m., Altoona at 10:00 a.m., Tyrona at 10:12 a.m., Altoona at 10:24 a.m., Harrisburg at 10:36 a.m., Philadelphia at 11:00 a.m.

Express leaves Philadelphia at 1:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 2:10 p.m., York at 3:00 p.m., Lancaster at 3:12 p.m., Altoona at 3:24 p.m., Keokuk Union at 3:36 p.m., Newton Hamilton at 3:48 p.m., Altoona at 4:00 p.m., Tyrona at 4:12 p.m., Altoona at 4:24 p.m., Harrisburg at 4:36 p.m., Philadelphia at 5:00 p.m.

Express leaves Altoona at 5:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 6:10 p.m., York at 7:00 p.m., Lancaster at 7:12 p.m., Altoona at 7:24 p.m., Keokuk Union at 7:36 p.m., Newton Hamilton at 7:48 p.m., Altoona at 8:00 p.m., Tyrona at 8:12 p.m., Altoona at 8:24 p.m., Harrisburg at 8:36 p.m., Philadelphia at 9:00 p.m.

Express leaves Philadelphia at 11:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 12:10 a.m., York at 1:00 a.m., Lancaster at 1:12 a.m., Altoona at 1:24 a.m., Keokuk Union at 1:36 a.m., Newton Hamilton at 1:48 a.m., Altoona at 2:00 a.m., Tyrona at 2:12 a.m., Altoona at 2:24 a.m., Harrisburg at 2:36 a.m., Philadelphia at 3:00 a.m.

Express leaves Altoona at 3:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 4:10 p.m., York at 5:00 p.m., Lancaster at 5:12 p.m., Altoona at 5:24 p.m., Keokuk Union at 5:36 p.m., Newton Hamilton at 5:48 p.m., Altoona at 6:00 p.m., Tyrona at 6:12 p.m., Altoona at 6:24 p.m., Harrisburg at 6:36 p.m., Philadelphia at 7:00 p.m.

Express leaves Philadelphia at 7:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 8:10 p.m., York at 9:00 p.m., Lancaster at 9:12 p.m., Altoona at 9:24 p.m., Keokuk Union at 9:36 p.m., Newton Hamilton at 9:48 p.m., Altoona at 10:00 p.m., Tyrona at 10:12 p.m., Altoona at 10:24 p.m., Harrisburg at 10:36 p.m., Philadelphia at 11:00 p.m.

Express leaves Altoona at 11:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 12:10 a.m., York at 1:00 a.m., Lancaster at 1:12 a.m., Altoona at 1:24 a.m., Keokuk Union at 1:36 a.m., Newton Hamilton at 1:48 a.m., Altoona at 2:00 a.m., Tyrona at 2:12 a.m., Altoona at 2:24 a.m., Harrisburg at 2:36 a.m., Philadelphia at 3:00 a.m.

Express leaves Philadelphia at 3:00 p.m. Harrisburg at 4:10 p.m., York at 5:00 p.m., Lancaster at 5:12 p.m., Altoona at 5:24 p.m., Keokuk Union at 5:36 p.m., Newton Hamilton at 5:48 p.m., Altoona at 6:00 p.m., Tyrona at 6:12 p.m., Altoona at 6:24 p.m., Harrisburg at 6:36 p.m., Philadelphia at 7:00 p.m.

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1890.

TERMS.

Subscription, $1.00 per annum in advance; $1.50 if not paid in advance. Transient advertisements inserted at 50 cents per line for each insertion. Constant business notices in local column, 10 cents per line for each insertion. Detentions will be made for those desiring to advertise by the year, half or quarterly.

SHORT LOCALS.

Congress took a holiday recess. These months of winter ahead. Prof. Elliott spent the holidays in Tuscarora. Dr. Cant Crawford, spent the vacation at home. William Marks, is at home from the North. H. Nedy is home from trip to Westport, Ohio. Every community has an under current of gossip. Congressman Atkinson spent the holidays at home. O. C. Coats 2 yards square for $1.00 at Francis Hardware. Sheriff Noble put a new pump in the well at the Jacobs home. The winter, thus far, has not been so severe as to cause any special preparation in this county. There are only 37 men in Bellefonte who want the post office. Miss Alice Hays is at home from the University of Wooster, Ohio. James Hippel of Licking Creek Valley, died last Wednesday morning. A Westmoreland fire has been put out in default of $10,000 bail. Wm. Allison Jr., has returned his business as a journalist in New York. How your sale bills printed in the files of the Sentinel and Republican. The day after Christmas was warm enough to set blue birds warbling. Ellis Stamp exponent in Everett, Pa. spent several days in this place. Mrs. Mary Patterson gave a dance to her friends last Wednesday evening. William Webster, an aged citizen of Walker township, died last Saturday.

Wm. B. McMahon of Millford Twp., has been appointed Merchantile Agent.

Augustus Pasick, student at Dickinson college spent the vacation in this place.

Walter A. Mann to how and manage a lot of honest posts. Call at this office.

Prof. G. A. Kercher of this town was home to Kutztown, during Christmas week.

A half dozen boys from town visited Rhoads' dam on Christmas day to skate.

Exchange papers announce the appearance of a counterfeit 10 cent piece, date 1888.

Snow six to twelve inches deep. This morning it was snowed again in Western States.

George Parker and James Mathers, attending Princeton college, were at home for vacation.

Elis Banks, student at Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., spent Christmas at home.

J. S. and D. E. Hamilton, sons of James Hamilton township, were during the holidays.

J. Frank and John T. Patterson, students at Lafayette College, spent the holidays at home.

Thanks are tendered to Johnston & Co., paper dealers of Harrisburg, for a beautiful calendar.

Walter Oberholzer, student at Schuylkill college, is at home for vacation during the holidays.

Mrs. Jane Clark, wife of John Clark of Fernhurst township, died last Wednesday morning.

Miss Minnie Neely of Upper Tuscarora Valley visited friends in this place a few days last week.

A writer on edge, declares that the day's work is fish scales precipitous to reach higher water levels.

Harry P. Dorr, son of Dr. G. L. Dorr, was at home from Milliford, Conn., at the close of last week.

Thirty five deer have been killed in the vicinity of Diamond Valley, Huntingdon Co., this season.

Miss Josephine Wilson of Lewis township visited her sister, Mrs. Eddy in this place last Friday.

Children and grown people in several parts of Belle township are afflicted with the measles.

Miss Flora Schilling of Lewis township visited the family of Dr. D. M. Crawford a few days last week.

Edward and Ezra Parker, sons of E. Southard Parker, of Washington D. C., visited in town last week.

The mayor of Altoona has issued an order against conducting on the sidewalks or streets of Altoona.

A lot of suspensives made by the Milliford Suspension factory are on exhibition in Eschschade's store.

Akwah-Lemona is due, the Mrs. Miles Perry county shoe factory for a handsome calendar for 1890.

Wilberforce Schweyer, after spending the holidays at home, returned to Law School in Chicago, on Monday.

Janie Mathers, son of Orlando Mathers was at home from attending school in Washington Co., last week.

G. Frank Snyder, of Port Royal, was at home from Pennsylvania College for vacation during the holidays.

Ex-County Commissioner, James McLaughlin bought a farm of Dr. Franklin in Tuscarora Valley, for $12,000.

Samuel Herring veterinary student in New York was at his home from Fernhurst township during the holidays.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing, student attending medical college in New York City, were at home for the holidays.

"At Niagara Falls, New York a man declaring himself a second John the Baptist has appeared. He drives an old horse attached to a dilapidated wagon from which floats a banner announcing the second coming of Christ."

Repture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. E. Mayer, 531 Arch street, Phila., Pa. Ease at once. No operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail. Actives for sale by circular.

March 14, '88, ly.

Allen Scholl in the employ of the Tennis Brothers, at Thompsonstown, while hastening along the sidewalk last evening, fell on an icy place, that did not notice in the dark and broke the small bone in his right leg near the ankle joint.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 20, 1888, J. C. Crane and Miss B. Bolinger, both of Milliford, were married at the home of the brides parents in Milliford, by Rev. Mr. Alexander. We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. Crane a long happy and prosperous life.

English Savin Liniment removes all Hail, Soft, or Caloused Lemps and Blisters, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweetney, Ring Bone, Stiffes, Sprains, all Swell-

ings. Altoona, son of W. E. Annum is at home from Eggle, Ill., where he is working as a compositor.

Hover's saw mill has been sawing on the Rothrock farm not far from town. Mr. Rothrock will enlarge his barn.

Charles Frank employed by a printing business firm visited his friends in this place last week.

Charles F. Frank, compositor on the Conport Standard, was at the home of his parents in this place last week.

A new postal card was introduced on the 1st of January. It is a fold card used to secure privacy in correspondence.

People who cultivate honey bees say that Christmas day was warm enough to entice bees out of their winter quarters.

The big bees have all been killed by the winter weather during the month of December.

Representative, Joseph Martin was called from his duties in a spike factory in Pittsburgh, by the illness of Mrs. Martin, his wife.

Gov. Mr. Lewey of McAlisterville, Pa., assisted Rev. L. Y. Hays during the late revival meeting.

A defective stove pipe was the cause of the Lutheran parsonage in Pine Creek township, Clinton county, burning to the ground.

Nelle North, Maude Wilson, Della Parker, and Edna Kirk, were at home from Wilson College at Chambersburg, for Christmas.

Hove Ventilation Suits will beat double the space with same amount of fuel as any other stove. Call and see it at Francis Hardware & Co.

John Stiles, Frank McConnell and James Bowers, residents of Altoona have been arrested on the charge of passing silver coin counterfeit money.

Shall they be closed on the expiration of their term? Jan. 1st, 1890 is the question in regard to the Soldiers Orphan Schools of Pennsylvania.

Nine against ten, aggregating 19 young men are in the meshes of the law in Perry county, over a fight which occurred at a spelling night.

The grand festival of the G. A. R., held during the week beginning December 27, and closing on the evening of January 1st, was a success in every way.

Robert McMeen is preparing to build three dwelling houses along Main street on the lot made vacant by the burning of Foorman's hotel, some years ago.

The funeral of Sarah B., the four year old daughter of S. B. Crumler of Patterson took place last Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard.

A falsehood was started from Indianapolis, that a plot to assassinate General Harrison, failed, by the General driving to the farm of a friend and remaining over night.

Ich, Mange, and scratches on human or animal cured in 30 minutes by Woodfield's Sulfur Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. B. Banks & Co., Druggists, Milliford, Pa., Oct. 31.

While at home in his ill in Somerset county, Frederick W. Rhoads was dangerously wounded by one shooting a rifle bullet through the window into his body, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Henry Scholl, J. S. Graybill, David F. Lewis, Kirk McClintie, J. J. Jackson of the Register and G. W. Beck, attended a banquet given by the Masses in Lewistown, last Thursday evening.

On Wednesday evening, January 2nd, a course of special services will be opened at the Lutheran Church, and continued every night this week, commencing at 7 o'clock. Every body is made welcome.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School Christmas entertainment was varied by a magic lantern picture exhibition. The entertainments in the other churches of town were of the usual Christmas time order.

The tramps have become so numerous and outrageous, in their conduct in parts of Chester and Bucks counties that arrests by the dozen have been made, and the tramps sent to jail for the period of 30 days.

Mrs. Blackwelder, wife of Rev. Mr. Blackwelder, former Lutheran preacher in this place fell down stairs in the parsonage at St. Clairsville, Bedford county, a few days ago and sustained her collar bone and dislocated her other limbs.

William H. Banks and Edgar Strayer, students in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, U. S. Grant Park, student at Jefferson medical college, and Harry Swearing