meet him here again, is it not?"

ordinary acquaintance, had parted from of astonishment and admiration; astonishment that the timid, half-developed damsel of five years ago should have grown into this beautiful, queenly girl; admiration not only of her person but of her manner, her self-possession, the easy grace with which she conducted herself under circumstances which most

His prevailing sentiments were those

VOL. XLIII.

LADY GREEL BAILLIE, of Dryburg Abbey, who is said to be the first woman that ever applied for such admission in the Church of Scotland, has been admitted to the office of deaconess by the Presbytery of Sel-

Or the little town of Brookline, Mass., the Manchester (N. H.) Mirror says: It is valued for purposes of taxation at $407,454,028, which is more than one and a half times as much as New Hampshire. It is the wealthlest town of its size in America, and, mainly, because it has the reputation of being a taxpayer's paradise.

CHES AND PAINS.

A CONSUMPTION

WANTED:

GENT FOR THIS COUNTY,

SIZE GRAYON PICTURES.

OW PAIGE RAILROAD LANDS &

R'S PASTILLES. ASTA

Covernment LANDS.

ashing & Printing Co.

PHILA PARTY

ARRH

EAM BALM

A NOVA SCOTIA paper gives an account of Malcolm McMillan, of Catolone, C. B., who is said to be 101 years of age. All his senses are good, and a few months ago he cut and sewed a pair of mill-cloth trousers for himself. last autumn he mowed hay on the same field with his son, his grandson and his great-grandson, and his day's work, it was said, was equal to any of them. He has never lost a tooth and does not know what a headache or a othacha tu result in some injury to Northern tobacco growers within a few years. At present the product is not sufficient in quantity to severely affect the market, either as to quantity or prices, but the success of the initial enterprise in raising tobacco in Florida on a large scale warrant the belief that some disturbance may be unticipated from the Florida crop in the near future."

SAYS a Washington despatch of recent date: The United State Fish Commission is engaged in the greatest speculation on record. From an investment of $1.13 in four years it produces the equivalent of $4000. This is how it is done: Thus far this season. for example, 876 jars of whitefish eggs a loss of 80 per cent., which would be be used a number of years.

pounds of fish, worth at a low estimate five cents per pound, or $4000.

SPEAKING of Boston's last election day and the "lady-vote," a contemporary says: "Hundreds of them came to the polls in elegant carriages, and the feel and the polls in elegant carriages, and each of style to the polls in elegant carriages, and the polls in elegant carriages, and each of style to the polls in elegant carriages, and polls in elegant carriages, and polls in elegant carriages. The great mass of them, picturesque. The great mass of them, picturesque. The great mass of them, and polls in the polls in picturesque. The great mass of them, however, walked to the polling places through the driving storm, many with them. It was observed throughout the city that the women voted early. In many precincts almost the entire number of registered women had cast their ballots before noon. This shows that the average woman is disposed to apply sound housekeeping principles to the business of voting, and do her work as a citizen bright and early, so as to have it all out of the way before din-

A SINGULAR LOSS OF MEMORY IS reported in the Jamestown (N. Y.) months ago has so far recovered as to of dollars' worth of advertising. be able to go anywhere about the city miliar with before his sickness and re- realized to pay a single band. Have although he knows perfectly well with whom he is conversing. He understands and appreciates what his friends read to him and can converse readily about the subjects read, but he cannot read a word himself nor tell one letter of the alphabet from another.

WE regret to see that the Belgian cannot be admitted to the bar. The Judges took the old stereotyped ground, namely, that woman has other social duties to perform, and that the did not allow a woman to exercie the profession of a barrister. The right of "the law and the customs of the country" to decide what are the social duties of any particular class of the and awarded with the greatest care. community is an act of usurpation which is indefensible. The career open to all talents is a formula which should not be limited by the sex of those who possess the talents. "The tools to him who can use them"-or to her-and if women can plead effectually at the bar why, in the name of the efforts that are being made to make goodness, should they not do so?

fogs can be hal from the following, umn in a late issue of the Pall Mall | That a committee of well-informed Gazette: Yesterday's fog was simply horrible in patches. At Queen's road, Bayswater, at half-past six, I had to harsom which was buried in fog in the 19. That for a chrysanthemum bansom which was buried in fog in the middle of a roadway. My cabby had to walk, leading his horse with his lamp in his hand, close to the curbstone almost as far as the Marble Arch. Even then he often got on the pavement. The sound of the voices of those lost ta the fog, the ghostly glare of the hansom lamps, which seemed strangely far apart, and the far-away shimmer of thegas lamps, made the frosty fog

A good name when deserved gives a A good name when deserved gives a stoke, promising a strength and mild courage, quiet bold-uess and modest assurance which are church had offered the pulpit.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1889.

cultural Exhibit. Mr. H. H. Battles, of Philadelphia, writes to Garden and Forest as folhibitions in different cities, the question properly? Do we use the material to the best advantage, not only from an I can pray as much as I wish—no man Prithee tell me what your will is, educational, but a financial point of view? I have before me a number of ing to the lists of standing committees, the valuation of the whole State of I find the names of men who have made national reputations for themselves in the learned professions, in art. business. Turning to the list of exhibitors, I find many names equally chest, and that he would be most famous. In both cases they are men grataful if Mr. Marsh would undertake Flashes through your baby-brain of refined and cultivated tastes: men who his duty. have proved their ability by their success. Again, I turn to the treasurer's report,

> What are the causes of this failure, and what are the remedles? There are afternoon service. Between the serv- To the ceiling when you raise plenty of standing committees, Possibly ices the news spread about the town they have been standing too long. There business. Why are they not successful

Is it because they are held back by some of the older members who cling lieves that 'the establishment of the to 'the good old methods? If it is alack tobacco raising industry in Florida, on of money, this, I believe, could be overquite an extensive scale, promises to come by personal subscription, if the members could show the public any advanced ideas that would be beneficial The wealthy gentlemen always seem very glad to do their part in contributing their specimen plants.

from the entrance to the dome. In most cases I believe enough enthusiasm could be aroused among the members o contribute to this in the shape of labor, material or money, 3. That the tables, benches and staging, in every instance, be covered either with paint, moss or evergreens, instead of with bare, broken, rough and age-stained boards. 4. That in front of these tables, in-markable specimens be admitted.

8. That if enough social influence could be brought to bear, the first bedrevoted to "Society," with lady patronesses and a banquet and solve the pulpit. The prayer was answered.

*Russian or French, they are all the apart from the talkative circle, when he was sitting beside her, a little day over the was determined. She would apart from the talkative circle, when he was sitting beside her, a little day over the whole seens in ber mind from the very beginning, and then she had and looked fixedly a band was playing an air which had been a favorite of the Paritoffs in that did not thoroughly sicken her.

*Russian or French, they are all the apart from the talkative circle, when he was sitting beside her, a little day over the whole seens in ber mind from the very beginning, and then she had and looked fixedly a band was playing an air which had been a favorite of the Paritoffs in that did not thoroughly sicken her.

*Russian or French, they are all the apart from the talkative circle, when he was sitting beside her, a little day over the whole same, preprosterous—same, from the twelve beginning, and then she was determined. She was dete through the driving storm, many with lady patronesses and a banquet and the pulpit. The prayer was answered, suits. With the English, however, it male escorts, and many again without bouquets for the patronesses only. I have no doubt but that the tickets or invitations could be disposed of at five doltions could be disposed of at five dollars aplece. The day following should be opened to accomodate the crowd.

ladies' committee.

Journal. A citizen of that place who Make the exhibitions worth illustra- conversion. had several strokes of paralysis a few ting, and they will give you hundreds 11. That two orchestras be engaged to give promenade concerts at fixed and Foreign Bible Society at which he members all his old friends, but has not regained the faculty of recalling the names of his most intimate friends, although he knows perfectly well with Holy Ghost or Dove Plant; Nepenthes, rejoicing in his Saviour. the Pitcher Plant: Platycerium Hilli, the Stag-horn Fern. A little discription of these flowers would attract a great deal of attention. A child can see the resemblance, and it would interest all, while heretofore they have been passed by almost unnoticed. should be required to have them re-Court has decided that Mdlle. Popelin newed or freshened up from time to time, and that all watering of plants should be given out. 15. That all exhibits, and especially law and the customs of the country | those of cut flowers and designs, should be judged by "points." If one plant could be adopted all over the country. judges from other States would be

16. That premiums should be liberal, exhibition the attendance is not too large, complimentary tickets be sent to different schools interested in botany, which would prove valuable from an

18. That the managing editors of the city papers should be notified of this the grandest display of plants and flowers ever offered by this society; that the "society" people of the city are taking a more active part than formerly, and that it is expected to be men be appointed to receive all reporters, not only to repay them in a slight way for their kindness, but to aid them in their work, that a technically correct show the decoration should be most elaborate: Japanese vases, rugs, screens and lanterns wouldbe very appropriate.

Swearing Tom of Basingstoke.

at his mother's residence in Basingstoke, promising him the opportunity

How To Conduct a Successful Hortinon-resident, but returned unexpectedly that week. On hearing of the arrangement that had been made, he Baby Phillis, lady fair his curate, "That evangelical

When this news was announced to Whenever I attend horticultural exhim on his arrival, he received it with his usual serenity of temper, merely replying, "Then I am to be a listener instead of a preacher to-morrow. But forbidding me!"

The Master in whom he implicitly reports of horticultural societie. Turn- trusted had otherwise planned that Sunday's work for him. Early in the morning a messenger came from a clergyman, who had a Guess it, can I, what your will is, small church in the suburbs of the Saucy Phillist small church in the suburbs of the town, to say that he had been seized with an attack of inflammation in the Gladly accepting this opportunity. he went forth to preach the Gospel of and, without going into details, it Christ, from these words, "Behold the appears, as ever one knows, that the Lamb of God, which taketh away the Studying the Atomic Plan exhibitions rarely prove financially sin of the world." At the conclusion of the sermon be that the young clergyman, who had are plenty of good, pushing men on been refused the pulpit of the large them who are successful in their own church, was to preach again in the small one. With the generous impulse of Englishmen to take the side of any one whom they fancy to be injured, the numbers who pressed to hear him were so great that the congregation overflowed until the churchyard was crowded. Even the choir deserted clergyman who had fallen under the

Amongst the crowd in the centre exhibition is to be held be treated to a thorough cleaning.

2. That it be profusely decorated with laurel wreaths, laurel branches, a leader in sin and protainly, and for seventeen years be had never entered as her absolute ignorance of the matter. evergreen trees and other greenery.

"Praying Tom," by which he was be open to all at fifty cents aplece. known until the day of his death. He ess, enthusiastically, 'dom-mes-teecated Every part of the house would have to placed his leisure time at the disposal of his clergyman for visits to the sick probable, as there are so many fashiona-ble people connected with horticultural societies), a number of influential ladies preached again in that church, after a be induced to interest themselves as a lapse of thirty years, that he became aware of the blessed result of his first 10. That a little money be expended Sunday's sermon, when Tom himself upon the local papers, which are always asked leave to speak to him in the very kind, even to inferior shows. vestry, and told him the story of his telligently on any subject he was faSometimes barely enough money is him and asked if he was not Dr. Marsh; on receiving the reply, he said, "Ah!

Many years later, as Dr. Marsh was going up the stairs of Exeter Hall for at his pleasure. He can converse in-bours and music at frequent intervals.

-----An Old Bell.

Among the hundreds of relics in the Washington Headquarters at New-13. That exhibitors of cut flowers burg, N. Y., is a historical bell that for many years called the old Knickerbockers to worship in the Lutheran Church in the city. The bell, which is should be done early.

14. That few complimentary tickets pounds, is exceedingly sweet tonad. It was cast at Amsterdam in 1716. Three years later it was presented by Queen Anne to the settlers of Newburg. As they had no church edifice then, it was lent to the Lutheran Church en Man hatten Island, where it hung to 1733, when the Newburg ploneers built a church and removed the bell to it. It was the first one hung in that region. 17. That if at any time during the Its later career was one of vicissitude.

the more fertile valley of the Genesee English people supplied their places, and the bell then came into the possession of the Church of England, which succeeded the Lutherau as the State Church of the former Dutch Colony. But in 1776 the Church of England had falles into bad odor in the Colonies, and about that time the bell was taken from its tower and hidden in a swamp, it is said, to prevent its falling into the hands of the Whigs. After the peace of 1783 it resumed duty in the church. In 1798 it was hung in the Academy and rang the village children to school, and also did duty as a court bell. From 1834 to 1874 it was used as a signal bell for the stables of one of the city hotels, and in 1884 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in lady residing in Newburg, who in 1894 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1894 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1894 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1894 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1894 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1895 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1895 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in 1895 became the property of a lady residence, she added, be passed in the endeavor to atone for it. I know you distrust me now, I have deserved it, but upon my soul, if you give me another chance, you will find me a very different person."

'You remind me,' said Anna, play-for the youth who wrote to the object of his affections that the feelings of a man of 20 were very different person."

'What are you doing here?' she shed to work at instance in the endeavor to atone for it. I know you distrust me now, I have deserved it, but upon my soul, if you give me another chance, you will find me a very different person."

'You remind me,' said Anna, play-for the youth who wrote to the object of his affections that the feelings of a man of 20 were very different person." it resumed duty in the church. In and in 1884 became the property of a lady residing in Newburg, who in Washington Headquarters, to be pre-served with the other treasures of that historic building.

1882 gave it to the trustees of the (Consider every day as possibly your last, and be ever prepared through penitence.) of the gas lamps, made the frosty fog of last night a thing to dream of, not to tell.

Christian friend, Dr. Ring, invited the top of the ladder in this world; if we reach the topmost round then we

To Phillis-Ten Months Old.

Fat and small of size, With the sun's gold in your hair, And the sea's blue in your eyes-

When you point with tiny hand

At your tiny toe. How am I to understand Dainty Phillis! When you, wide-mouthed, on the floor

Like a birdling sit— Twenty different notes try o'er In a pretty talking fit-When you suddenly, untaught, Flashes through your baby-brain? Come, unriddle what your will is, Merry Phillis! When you gravely fingering scan offered to give the congregation an Half I fancy what your will is Happy Phillis!

Quaintest Phillis?

LOVE'S RETALIATION.

'Yes, my dear, I have given her an English education; I have spared no from the parish church, in order to pains in bringing her up altogether testify their sympathy with the young l'Anglaise, and this is the result!' And pretty little Madame Paritoff And pretty little Madame Paritoff people would have found embarrassing. sighed heavily and turned up her fine Madame Paritoff, however, could not eyes with a look of unutterable pathos. Allow me to suggest:

Allow me to suggest: more shall your Heavenly off in the recital of her wees to ac renewal of acquaintanceship under agony of self-reproach which had all never love anyone any more,

In a good season 9) per cent. of this some kind of cloth, with eyelet holes could be hatched out, but, allowing for a loss of 8) per cent. which would be used a number of years.

In a good season 9) per cent. of this some kind of cloth, with eyelet holes the most of men and this most blessed gift from Heaven, but to ask for it." He then added, "If the charming, affable and amusing, but as to be almost invisible to the passers
'I was saying then how inconceivably now excited in him. They met frequently and he invariably found her placed at a sudden turn in the path so ask for it." He then added, "If the charming, affable and amusing, but as to be almost invisible to the passers
'I do,' asseverated Basil; 'no woman

'C'est, cela,' repeated the Viscount--that is the word,'

'Well, my hopes appeared about to 9. That if "society" could not be induced to participate (which is hardly probable, as there are so many fashional probable, as the probable, as the probable are fashional probable, as the probable are fashional probable, as the probable are fashional probable are fashional probable, as the probable are fashional probable are f self to a young Mr. Twickenham. His fortune and position were good, and he imself charming. There was but one drawback; his father, un John Bull pur table of the winds, and almost before sang objected to his marrying a fortune and position were good, and he time in those by-gone days, and sometime in those by-gone da on her favorite topic.

all men are alike, she says, and she will have nothing more to do with them.'

'Do you think then she is still at
'Do you think then she is still at
'Do you think then she is still at-'Do you think then she is still attached to her Englishman?' love between us-now,' pursued Anna, 'Her Englishman? Oh, de grace, madame, do not speak of him thus. voice, and the corners of her mouth had done of old, her arms outstretched, Anna cannot bear him, will not even still dimpling with suppressed laughter. the tears running down her face, her permit him to hint at this episode in her life. Judge then of my dismay and 'It is too ridiculous, you know!' breast heaving with sobs—ran forward as far as the turn of the path—to come grief on bearing this morning that he is here, actually here, and that we may meet him at any time. You know I am in the very middle of my cure; it fashing for a moment; then, quick to her first impulse was to fly past him the first impulse was to fly past him would not be possible to leave now resume her former languid amusement, before he had time to notice ber, but without grave injury to my health?' I did many things once I should not Basil, looking up quickly and divining 'Actually here—Bonte Divine!' elaculated Madame de Revers. 'What a and played with a doll, and trundled a narrow pathway in such a manner as complication! What then will you do, chere amie? What does Anna herself say?' hoop—I have outgrown all these enfantillages, you see!' how dare you!' she cried, shaking with sobs and her eyes flashing through rien!"

'Annal' (In a little scream.) I took not touch you, at least I have a right her tears, 'Have you come to-to ingood care not to tell her. It would quite spoil her pleasure for the rest of our sojourn here; and here, as I told you, it is absolutely necessary for me you, it is absolutely necessary for me of old—was but child's play, at least to the heard at present,' said Basil, in a sult me?'

Basil was silent, his face a study of wonder and admiration, through which there appeared to struggle a certain wrong somewhere. I am a-goin' to be heard at present,' said Basil, in a sult me?'

Basil was silent, his face a study of wonder and admiration, through which there appeared to struggle a certain wrong somewhere. I am a-goin' to be heard at present,' said Basil, in a sult me?'

Basil was alongside.

"Jack,' says Burns all at once, 'this is more'n I kin stand. If our every wonder and admiration, through which there appeared to struggle a certain wrong somewhere. I am a-goin' to our sojourn here, and here, and belte, as the possible that this you must believe me when I say that, to remain. It is possible that this young man may, on discovering our vicinity, have the good taste to retire. The possible of the passionate affection I feel for you now.'

The possible that this you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, on my honor, I did not believe myself capable of the passionate affection I feel for you now.'

The means there appeared to somewhere, stop her, stop her, stop her, stop her, stop here, some stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope, stop here.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play, at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was but child's play at least you must believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The whole was believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The was believe me when I say that, dawning hope.

The was believe me when I say that the was believe me I can hardly imagine he would be forward enough to wish to intrude himself on our notice. It is again possible found humility, 'that my behavior to 'You must wait a little—you can not self on our notice. It is again possible that, surrounded as Asna invariably is, she may not be aware of his being here; she may not be aware his being here; she may not be aware of his being here; she may they tell me he does not go much into society. In any case, I shall leave it to chance—and Providence, she added. be passed in the endeavor to atone for her self-control. But this was at first

Little did she know that at the very

She might have been touched by his cried, vehemently. 'How can you bear to stop and see me like this? Go—if faith in the man who had forsaken her, little?' her girlish dreams; and then the rude awakening, the shame, the bitter indignation. She had lived it all down at last; she had hoped that the very memory of it would in time fade out of her so might have been couched by his humble, honest pleading, the intense love about which, this time at least, there could be no mistake, but she was not. He was under her heel, and she

But Basil did nothing of the sort, on her mother, should guess at the emo-tion she felt; as for Basil, she would Let me see—can 1? No, I don't think moment, one hand at her throat, in the prove by her airy and serene demeanor how easily she had gotten over the past.

The next morning, when Madame concerned, the most absolute indiffer-Paritoff was quaffing her matutinal ence. Now, shall we change the subglass of water, with the aid of Sirop de | ject?' lles and sundry grimaces at the sughter bestow a gracious bow on a you no longer, he said; 'I did not think young man who was approaching, and who, unlike the generality of their sequaintances, had not first uncovered.

Down went Madame Paritoff's glass, shall leave this—this hateful place at thing! Listen, do you know why I and up went her gold pincenez, just in once.'

time to see Basil Twickenham color up to the roots of his brown hair, and re- her most winning smile, and extended might despise you more, loathe and turn the salute with grave dignity.

'Do you see, mamma? It is Mr. too angry to take, her hand, which Basil, however, was detest you even more than I did al-his retreating figure, and then, joining

Madame Paritoff gasped and clutched her mother's circle, entered with feverher daughter's arm for support, while | ish eagerness into the conversation. Never had she been so charming, so animated, as this afternoon; Madame speak, to express her scorn and indig-nation more fully, but conflicting emoproaching figure: that blush was balm to her teelings, the sight of her evi- Paritoff was quite amazed to find her dentiv made him uncomfortable-so so lively. But the time came all too much the better; she would try and soon for her to be alone, and that night sleep became impossible to her. The momentary confusion had, how- Basil's voice still rang in her ears; situation, 'Good-by; you will never be troubled ever, died away as completely as the blush when Basil stood by her side, by me again. I did not think any greeting her as calmly as though he, an woman could have shown herself so utterly heartless.' And, gloat as she would over her triumphant retaliation, she could not feel that her day's work terday I should all my life have remember to the altar rather she could not feel that her day's work was altogether a subject for rejoicing. She was up and dressed by 6 o'clock on the following morning, having tossed about until she could endure head in the endeavor to regain her old a machine for making wire rope, the the feverish unrest no longer, Spa-the Spa she acknowledged—was still wrapped in slumber, but the birds were singing in the tress, the sun was high once. Anna-you can never do so was from a device she used to twist in the heavens, and the milk-carts, with again,' their white-capped drivers and teams dissemble so well, and was almost of dogs, were jingling in the promenade offensively rude; after a few moments below.

—A number of leading nephroneans of East Tennessee have purchased and unmanly enough to take advantage of shipped to Washington a beautiful old times, and to which a friend of nothing else would.

"On dit, mon ange, je le sais bien Que l'amour change—Oh n'en crois at that farewell meeting. Coming down the very heart the existence of which the path in haste she had seen him had been so stoutly denied. It backed of them, it may tend to suppress this So it began, finishing with the assersang, objected to his marrying a foreigner. At first he refused his consent altogether, declaring his son was too

altogether, declaring his son was too
Anna just turned her eyes toward him, father, and how unnecessary and cruel once been—that was stin—so strong within her, all her stern resolves bour. He guarantees the absolute melted away.

'If I cannot love you, Basil,' she for an experimental passenger, willing young to know his own mind; but fin-ally agreed to withdraw his opposition or the expression of her face—at first, he had begged her to love and trust if after six months-during which time that is to say. As Basil, however, him during the allotted period and the young couple were neither to meet losing his head more and more in his always to remain true to him. Anna nor to correspond—they were still firm excitement, proceeded to aver that his blushed hotly at the thought of how in their resolution. Well you will love though it had slumbered for a hardly believe it, before three months had passed my prospective son-in-law and true, and had been reawakened at ness, she had sworn to love him, and wrote to break off his engagement; his love had cooled, I suppose, for he discovered that he and my daughter were unsuited to each other! She will never get over it; I cannot persuade her to think of marriage, though several suitable extinct by a suppose, the suppose of the discovered that he and my daughter were get over it; I cannot persuade her to think of marriage, though several suitable extinct by a suppose of the discovered that he are gravity; I really can not help it—It is such a comedy!

But true, and nad been reaswacened at the very sight of her, a smile rippled him only, all the days of her life. As the time drew near for separating, they had arranged to part there where no one could see them, and no unfeeling comments could be made. And so, after a last farewell, he had left her, but not suppose, for he discovered that he are gravity; I really can not help it—It is such a comedy! able parties have presented themselves; Basil looked at her reproachfully, his but pausing a moment at the turn of

Unconsciously rising to her feet, with an irrepressible quaver in her Anna ran forward a little way, as she breast heaving with sobs-ran forward

Her first impulse was to fly past him of a man of 20 were very different to sobbed. 'How dare you be here? You said you were leaving yesterday. same moment Anna was walking up 'Anna, do not tride with me any 'I meant to,' he said, 'and then I and down their drawing-room in a more,' said Basil, his agitation increas thought I would wait and say a quiet 'I meant to,' he said, 'and then I frenzy of excitement, on discovering the name of Basil Twickenham in the list of visitors to Spa. Once again she reviewed her brief love tale, her blind woman? Can you, will you love me a "Why don't you go now then?" she this mother's residence in Basingtoke, promising him the opportunity for preaching, as the curate of the parish hurch had offered the pulpit.

The rector had been for some time

The rector had been for some time to the edition of the soit of the contrary, he deliberately drew near time to crush him.

The total production of the silk beauting to crush him.

The total production of the soit was ove

'Do you think,' she said, bitterly, 'that I am crying for you, that I regret Basil rose, white to the lips, but | what I said to you yesterday-do you Poubon, she was surprised to see her with a certain dignity. 'I will detain dare to think so? Oh! surely nothing is wanting to complete my humiliation! again. I ter than to lead you to suppose such a miles of it only weigh about two and a 'Bon voyage!' returned Anna, with | bering your baseness and treachery, I

Twickenham,' said Anna, in her most 'So the old score is wiped out at She broke off suddenly, for, quiver-matter-of-fact tones. 'How funny to last!' she said to herself as she watched ing under Basil's mustache, she caught sight of a tender, triumphant, but distinctly amused smile.

> tions choked her utterance. Basil waited quietly; he could afford to wait now, for, after what he had > seen, he felt himself master of the At last she grew calmer, and then he spoke.

'Anna,' he said, 'I thank heaven terday I should all my life have remembered you as a sort of iceberg-and than to fall back upon boyish acquaint-stateliness. 'Now I have found you-a very Francisco firm for $25,090 cash and a womanly woman; you deceived me royalty. The way she came to this

'It is like you to twit me so," she putting an end to the conversation by drawing her daughter's arm through hers and walking away.

"I shall go out,' said Anna, her English education enabling her to undertake without qualms what another girl am breaking my heart because I love you—you? No; I am crying because I in the campaign. after a few days Basil again found him- dreadful breach of proprieties. Out have no heart to break-1 am crying a church. It was only curiosity which In question would allow of. The couple brought him now. self on intimate terms with the Parishe set accordingly, a fluffy mufiler for myself, for my youth which you brought him now. wrapped round her as a preservative spoilt, for that power of loving which The text was taken from Ezekiel: at Spa, near enough to the bands for "understand the advisability of proving against the morning air, and a shady its strains to be distinctly audible, but that they were in no wise heart-broken not so near as to prevent them conversion or even piqued by his behavior in the lore unmistakable signs of tears and which is now gone hat tilted well over her eyes, which not so near as to prevent them conversion or even piqued by his behavior in the preacher quoted the words, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give then, being evil, know how to give then, being evil, know how to give the latter's surprise, that it amused to the latter's surprise, t good gifts unto your children, how | Parltoff was frequently obliged to break | her to see him again. To Basil the | more unendurable than either, was the | But it is all gone—gone! and I shall Father give the Holy Spirit to them knowledge, with a stately inclination such altered circumstances was not at once taken possession of her. But Again her voice quivered and tears of $100, were recently sold at from that ask Him?"-remarking that, con- or smi lng nod, her numerous acquaint- altogether delightful; he was more hurt this she was determined to subdue, and stood on the long dark lashes, and then $3,800 to $3,805 each. have been taken on Lake Eric. The average cost to the Government is $1.13 per jar. Each jar holds 160,000 eggs.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. That in front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of these tables, instance and friends.

4. The tim front of the conclusion which might and annoyed at Anna's alry concern than the would have cared to own, and than the following tables.

4. The tim front of the conclusion which might annoyed at Anna's alry concern than the would have cared to own, and the following tables.

4. The tim front of the conclusion which might ann a loss of 80 per cent., which would be observed as a number of years.

5. That proper wasse be obtained in phenomenal, the remaining 20 per cent. which to show cut flowers, and that phenomenal, the remaining 20 per cent. which to show cut flowers, and that phenomenal phenome othing else would.

An unexpected ally came to Basil's arrested and indicted. If Governor He had reached the rendezyous first assistance; neither more nor less than Gray can secure their conviction, as he standing by the beach eagerly on the lookout for her. He had run down to her, and, after the customary lover's blandishments (null) than had slowly standishments (null) than had slowly standishmen came to pass that when, suddenly -The Paris Figure has discovered-

The Dog Saved the Train

with Tommy Burns and our run was wrapped in so much that is poetical between Jersey City and Philadelphia is surely just as brave. The 4 000 fire We left Jersey City at 9 o'clock one departments of this country constitute Saturday evening. The cars were all a mighty standing army for the pres-full and we had the right of way, makfull and we had the right of way, making no stops except at Newark and Trenton. We had struck the plain at ties of women in this country the Woman's Christian Temperanes Union, when Burns, window, Woman's Christian Temperanes Union, a membership of 210,000, is the Princeton Junction, when Burns, who was looking out of the cab window, says to me: "Look-a-here, Jack! there is a white dog running alongside what's the peace the suffrage organizations." been followin' us for five minutes, and blamed if he ain't keepin' up to the injine. Look at him." In the glare from the window the dog could be plainly seen, then he would get out in the line of the darkness and we would lose sight of him. But he would be sure to show up again in a few minutes. Ditches, cuts and sharp bends, | -Some physicians have warmly in-It was all the same, that white dog |dorsed the suggestion that "massage," stuck beside the cab as steady as its as an employment is peculiarly suited shadow. First we thought our eye-to the capabilities of the blind, in sight was deceiving us, for the awful whom the tactile sense is so strongly heat from the furnace, the sharp wind developed. Indeed, in Japan massage or something else, or all of these things has, for a long period of time, been put together, is terribly trying on one's practiced by blind men, who go about eyes who has to use them in an engine the streets with a flageolet, drawing cab. Mile after mile that white dog attention to themselves and their was alongside.

what in the blue blazes was the matter. Leginning with a grand reception to We told him about the white dog run-personal and official friends. Mrs. ning alongside the engine, and we Cleveland was in Philadelphia for sevlooked about to show him the blamed animal. But there was no dog to be seen, and hunt high and low, we could not find him. The conductor laughed at us, and Burns and I got aboard at us, and Burns and I got aboard Mrs. Cleveland by Mr. and Again, thinking that after all our even again, thinking that after all our eyes take place just before the families of might have fooled us. Fifty yards the present Cabinet officers separate, from it, before the wheels had fairly. It is stated that the Whitneys will be began to revolve goed, the headlight with the Clevelands if a European trip flashing on the track before us showed is taken this year. is taken this year, us a rock that must have weighed two tons on the track. We stopped the engine with the cow-catcher not twelve inched from the stone, which loosened by rains, had rolled down from the top hank. Had we not stopped on the had been unwell for some time before his departure and had been taking the hank. Had we not stopped on the had been taking the hank. the bank, Had we not stopped on account of the white dog, we would have struck it on full headway, and the struck it on full have meant."

with 10,000 lives in about half a minute. of bis secretaries hurried back to the But Basil did nothing of the sort, on Lisbon was overthrown in five or six Legation to obtain the medicine, but the contrary, he deliberately drew near minutes. There is thus a great variative train which Pak was to take had

NEWS IN BRIEF.

NO. 4.

-The largest organ in the world is now being built in London for Sydney.

It will cost about $75,000. -General Law Wallace is accredited with having received $60,000 in royalties from his "Ben Hur." -Thread, from the fibre of the nettle, is now spun so fine that 60

-According to Indian linguists, schemlendamourtchwager" is nobie red man's word for love, Hiawatha then was in "schemlendamourtchwager" with Minnehalia.

-A pine tree recently cut on the road, in New Hampshire, was four Furious at the sight she tried to feet four inches in diameter, and its -Mrs. Amelia E Barr, the authoress. has a novel scheme to protect her rights. When about to bring out a new there for the time necessary for securing an English copyright. -A New York wedding custom of the season is that of inviting men to her worsted.

-A number of leading Republicans in the campaign.

-There is one town in which has not a negro within its bor-ders. It is the town of Cullman,

-Thirty-one shares of the Chemical Bank, of New York, of the par value These shares $109, sold for $460.

Europe to equal the extent and beauty

-Nine Indiana White Caps, some of them "prominent cluzens," have been arrested and indicted. If Governor said, at least-I can love nobody else.' to be whiked from Paris to Marseilles in two hours.

-The life of a soldier is thought to be the consummation of valor and bravery. There is poetry in the tramp "It was about six years ago this of an army, the boom of artillery, and month," said the major to a reporter of the mortal hand-to-hand combat. The the New York Sun, I was in the cab life of a fireman, though not entirely and philanthropic and educational so-cieties, numbering in all rearly three bundred thousand members. of these organizations have joined with the National Council, an association you can see what that would have covered that he had left his quinine pellets behind him. He lost control of nimself and nearly went into a state of The city of Caracas was destroyed collapse on making the discovery. One