----Confession of Red Nose Mike.

A despatch from Wilkesharre un der date of the 9th inst., to the Phil- before, adelphia Times, says: Michael Ri zello, almas "Red-nose Mike," the Ital ian charged with the murder of Pay master McClure and Hugh Flanigan was given a hearing before Justice Rooney this morning. The prisoner was brought down from jail by Captain Linden and detective Thayer. I have nothing to say," said Mike "All I know about the matter bas been told already." According to confession Mike fired four shots at McClure and Flanigan. He said his accomplices were cenzo Villeila, alias "Jim," and Guiseppe Devinneo.

P. F. Quiglev, the merchant of Miner's Mills, who at the suggestion of the Pinkertons became Mike's confidential friend and went his bail when he was first arrested, visited the prisoner at the County Jail this afternoon and had a long talk with him.
