THE following story has be chool: One day a missionary beggar of permitted to address the school recounted the usual stories about beathen children, told of the misa foreign lands, and kept the restless little for more than two t "And now, my I have told you all eathen child n that far-off land, aore can I say?" , bright eyed hitle girl, who was tion, eagerly ekly said to him: Please, mister, say amen."

was dining with the and Babby thus stoke out: what's an adjectively r explained the meaning ord, and then fooliably asked him heard pa say that the morning was a day this ; and when I asked to tell me 'lish' was, he said it was as FIRE LAST WORD, -Mr. Turtledore, surse of his daily spat-There's talking, my dear. A woman is ound to have the last word ! ctledove-No, she in't I say such provoking things t know I would deay them ledove's discreet slience truth of his statement.

TEVINO HIM -"Luin," he was a young man who had great to in himself), and he bent to enderly. Will you name the the day is already named, Mr answered the girl, blushing was so pertinacious I finally m the 3d of next month. If he out in a day or two." The LADY who was very talkative bet inte time very silly, complained she was bothered by people who they don't go why then don't talk to them?" replied a female

C Alld Hoting o Lust apring I took awa blood purifier, with a a ap of al contedy for by points

100 Doses One Dollar

diwall, Mass.

our adments so easily.

pirits, and hypochen-

torn and debligt,

Litrents in 114 L

forthings, terrible head-it you are, and if you will

TATUM. Proprietors.

of how long standing, is per-

M THE HEAD

DOUGLAS

OE CENTLEMEN.

DOUGLAS

HOE LADIES.

DOULTAS PROUNTON.

FOR

Examine his LASE WED SHOE. WELT SHOE.

๛๛ู้แร<sub>้</sub>แระรู้แระรู้แระรู้แระรู้แระรู้แร<sub>้</sub>แระรู้แระรู้แระรู้แ

A LOST GIRL

DOL SHOES.

Fitting

far it will be p

B, F. SCHWEIER,

ME, JUSTICE GRAY, of the Supreme one years of age, six feet four inches high and has a fortune. His bride-elect is Miss Eugenia, daughter of Mr.

Justice Stanley Matthews, twenty-two Justice Gray. In the rosey realm of Senator is a national as well as a State immediate share in it, it has a deep interest and the ability and high character of a member of its chief legislaadges of the character of a State by

Tug decision of the French Cabinet to prosecute General Boulanger can hardly be considered an act of wisdom.

No matter what opinion there may be as to the political machinations in which the General has been engaged, there can be no doubt that he represents the existing dissatisfaction among the people, and that any prosecution of him at this juncture would mevitably lead to serious international trouvies. Better let Boulanger alone,

THE sore spot of Samoa, which is in the kind of men that are sent to represent it in the national councils.

THE election of a United States dollar?" affair, and although the nation has no Mr. Bowser?"

ive body. And in a great measure it go by without a careas."

love extremes meet and marry.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XLIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY. PENNA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1889.

MR. AND MRS. BOWSER. circumstance. Don't you know we Court of the United States, is sixty. The Tyrant Husband Confronted had just returned from-"Never! We never returned! Noth- Examples of "Fools' Arguments" Out a Carefully Preserved Diary. The other evening Mr. Bowser looked pale and weary, and I felt it my ing of the sort ever happened! I'd duty to ask him if he was ill and to place my hand on his forehead to see if years old and about a foot shorter than he had a fever. He was reading, and

"Declare! Of course I'll declare. Butler pithtly terms them in his "Hu-"Mrs. Bowser, what particular obect have you in pawing around after did!" that fashion? Do you expect another With that he rushed up stairs, but esting. "Don't you want me to caress you, read: "I don't want you to act silly. We my finger in the door. Mr. Bowser bet, many remarkable and eccentric "And yet you once expressed the

He has a tender heart." I knew Mr. Bowser was listening over the banister, and so maliciously five miles an hour on the amount of the amount hope that we might never let an hour "I did, eh? I never expressed any "And you further said you could sit and hold my hand a whole lifetime and added.

no doubt become the champion weepist of the world." To characterize the He uttered a snort and growl, and day it will be necessary to add to the went off to bed without a word, but the next morning he put in an extra ten minutes frolicking with the baby, cember, 1731, to hop 500 yards in fifty and when ready to go he said to me: "By the way, darl, you'd better go the feat in forty-six. down and pick you out a sealskin sack to day. I was going to get it for Christmas, but you might as well have the wear of it now." ----FOOLING THE POLICE.

you! That's no evidence! I brand the "But they are facts for all that. Harvard Men Have Lots of Fus a fair way to heal up, would be Let's see. Here we start. After the With a Barber's Pole. inflamed again if the reported demand ceremony was over you said to barber's shop in this city, says the Boston Transcript, and after having been beautified and adorned tonsorially, one of the number was struck with an idea. It was communicated to his companions, and without a dissenting voice agreed to. The proposition was nothing less than to purchase the barber's pole, which was done, and a receipt taken. Then the young men sallied far, however, when they were over-

"Hello, there! what are you doing with that pole?"

nearest station, and stood up in line ber's pole."

I'm a man thet's fond o' music, of the Musty Past. deny it on my dying bed!" "You'll next declare that you didn't cry in Indianapolis when 1 hurt my tion of foolish wagers would make a finger, and that you bound it up in a voluminous work;" and so odd are handkerchief wet with your tears." With its gentle rlink, plank, plink, 'Pyears to git plumb at the bottom Of the deepes' thoughts I think. some of these "fools' arguments," as I'll swear on forty B bles that I never libras," that a selection of some of the Does me heaps o' good on Sundays most curious may prove not uninter-Jes to stand an' hyear "Old Hundred" With that he rushed up stairs, but followed him to the landing and ead: "Statement VI.—Accidently pinched ince of opinion frequently ended in a "Statement VI.—Accidently pinched ince of opinion frequently ended in a Leads us in "Sweet Your o' Pray'r. said it was his fault, and the first I wagers were made. knew he was weeping. After wiping In 1729 a poulterer of Leadenhall But ef you sh'u'd want to see me

CURIOUS WAGERS.

To the song the kittle sings suit, "to the infinite improvement of "-And, with a little practice, will his business and great edidcation of Seenis ez ef my soul gits meller In the kittle's first sweet note, To characterize the follies of the Till I tancy weddin' music Screakin' f'om the iron th'oat. Secta times, ef I squent my eyes up, I kin fably 'pyear to see Old man Abram Blackburn's darter

Smilin' thoo the steam at niel hops in St. James' park. He performed TRIALS OF SPRED. In February, 1770, a bet was laid by a noble earl that he should find a man who would ride to Edinburgh and back again to London in less time than andots in the most expeditious manner he could contrive. In September, 1789, a Colonel Ross

He performed the journ-y three hours within the time. On the 17th of May, 1817, a respect-able farmer of Kirton-Lindsey, for a wager of a few pounds, undertook to ride a pony up two pair of stairs into and such dinners! Adjectives fail me a chamber of the George inn and down when I try to describe them, so I'll again, which feat he actually performed stop right off. The bride was young, before a numerous company, whose and pretty, and sweet, but alas! she astonishment was heightened by the knew not how to cock! Was not that and not find out what she was doing, weight and his horse less than thirty are the days I have watched her stone. They were weighed after the scorching her delicate face, and rough Mrs. Grey. 'I just guess she writes a feat, to decide another wager.

find the following: "A young Irish again in one year. It is said that the too much at the start-began to give sorry for you. young gentleman has £20,000 depend. ing on the performance of the exploit." out at 'such reckless waste of flour and lard,' and it is my own private idea sighed Mrs. Grey, 'but I could wish thing, but I would make money for you that he would cause a message to be that cooking wasn't in her line, for she dispatched a certain distance quicker Stopped 'spoiling things' and left the tell you it's no child's play.' 'No, indeed, it sin'tl' said Miss Tabitha, sympathetically. 'And I tell John, know the reason why.' said Mrs, Grey. 'But come and let me show you the house.' while I felt pretty indignant at the way they talked about dear little Bessy, who my anger, however, except by striking 'I wonder what does all that old threw to John. clock? It acts so queer at times,' cried 'It's getting old, my dear,' said the latter.

continuing a conversation she had started in the other part of the house, She embroiders and writes a good deal of her time,' I believe, answered Mrs. Grey. 'Embroiders and writes. Upon my good natured-unless a small boy pokes word! A nice way to spend her time, me with a stick, or another ill-condi-truly, while you are doing the drudgery. Not a great while ago a party of half a dozen Harvard students were in a barber's shop in this city, says the Boshow?

'I'm sure I can't tell. I've often wondered myself." 'And haven't you never found out?' Miss Sims seemed so astonished at this want of curiosity that she almost tumbled out of her seat. 'I would like to see myself staying in the house with a woman this long

'Oh, it's no secret, I suppose!' said ening her white hands, in the fruitless good many letters to her fine city

'Humph! pretty extravagant for poor John! Really, there is no telling what His mother's patience-she had none she might take to next. Priscilla, I'm be a farmer's wife in the old accepted

The Earl of March, on laying a bet that Mrs. John soon took up the notion she was more suited to a farm life.' longer, and then the visitor rose to go. need, John?'

with fifteen to twenty hands to feed, I bargain? exclaimed Bessy, consumed | NEWS IN BRIEF. with some great excitement. 'Yes, little fairy god-mother,' said playfully. He never spoke -At New Heaven, recently, Thomas you what, when harvestin' comes shortly to her, no matter how much he J. Osborn wrote 105 words of memor-again, I'd have her help me, or I'd was worried. 'It is the very enormous ized matter on the type writer in half a "Lor! I'd as soon put a big wax doll sum of four hundred dollars. Do you think you could run out into the yard "The Berndert of the type writer."

NO. 17.

-The President of these forty-two to work over the cooking stove, as her, with her pink cheeks and golden hair,' and convert them into money?' -- The President of these forty-two United States was just 55 years, 7 'I can do a great deal better than months and 14 days old upon the date that, for fairy money melts away. 1 he assumed office.

They both left the kitchen, and for a am told, but mine is more substantial. -In New York city, according to a Before any one could speak she 7,000 book-keepers are looking for had brought us so much sunshine and darted out of the room, and we could work, which they would gladiy do for happiness; 1 had no way of showing hear her little feet running up the $10 a week.

stairs. Even before we expected her __The making of lamp shades is a very hard and then stopping all of a she was back again, with a small Rus- very locrative business for women in sine was back again, which she England. A manufacturer of lamps in 'Open that,' she said, with a spark-

Mrs. Grey, rushing back into the ling eyes and flushing cheeks. 'It is a kitchen, followed by Miss Sims. little present from me to you.' John obeyed in a stupefled manner, -A craze for taking flowers to school

If you had run as many years while everybody watched in breathless recently sprung up among cididren in as that old fossil, you'd act queer, too,' excitement. Putting in his hand he Athen, Ga., and eventually resulted in Now this made me angry with Miss drew out not a plum, like the prover-bins, and I never will forgive her as bial young Horner-but a round roll that an order, excluding flowers from long as I live! Old, indeed, the spiteful of green-backs, and could not have class rooms, had to be issued.

minx! Why, she can't be on the sunny been more astonished if the moon had ______The display of women's work at suddenly descended on his head, the coning International Exposition in Amazement and silence reigned su- Paris will include exhibits from over preme for a moment; then John gasped: thirty countries. Space for the display "Where did this money come from?" has been made in the educational de The young wife crept timidly and partment, with childish grace to his side. 'I earned every cent of it, John.' -Schools of pharmacy for women "You? Am I dreaming?" exclaimed are a product of must day women drugher husband. 'Yes,' she said, regaining courage as gists in the country. Now there are

she talked; 'for two years I have done stantly increasing. over 2,000 and the number is con embroidery on fine flannel for Messrs. -During the first quarter of this Felt & Draper's dry goods house in Baltimore, and have been liberally paid sear 730 applications for pensions were for it, too. I have also written short received at the Maine State Pension articles for magazines, which have Office. It is expected that the number brought me in a snug little sum. A will reach 1600 or 1800 before Decem-short time ago the proprietors of the ber 21. Last year there were 1200 apmagazine for which I have been writ. plications, ing, requested me to furnish them a -John Wanamaker's country place story with an illustration, to be the at Jenkintown, Pa., is his pride and product entirely of my own imagination. I complied, having entitled it 'The Dream 'the gist of which was a mother, in a semi-nude state, seeking a danger- and his rhotodendrons are famous in ous coast with her children, where, Pennsylvania, perched upon a high rock, she end-avors _____Italy has each year nearly 300,000 to teach them how to swim. Great cases of tyhoid fever, with 27,000 was the mother's relief, upon waking, deaths, according to Professor Ruata. to find it only a dream. This assured A third of the population reaching the In The Annual R gister for 1788 we endeavor to cook some dainty dish that them as presents? my success as a writer of this class of age of forty-live bave the fever, and given you was paid in consideration of gome localities. this article alone. John, dear, I did all this for you. I knew I could never debut as a prodigy at seven years of age, playing in a dust with his teacher sense of the word-that is, in cooking, rvackinsky. A banquel to celebrate he fiftleth anniversay of his debut was given March 14 at Cambridge, Engin another way. Isn't it nice, though, They talked on some little time longer, and then the visitor rose to go, t quite proul of his tred with particularity ances of his arrest, and to hand by relays of professional to and by relays of professional to and to hand by relays of professional to hand by relays of professional to and to hand by relays of professional to and to hand by relays of professional to hand by rel hand to hand by relays of professional dollar, but no power on earth could a make a kitchen look pretty with a bideous, flowered oll-cloth on the bideous, flowered there the men the open Bible where the men the open Bible where the men the open Bible where the flower the the flower the the flower the flower the the flower the men the open Bible where the men the open Bible where the flower th a rough wash-bench 'where the men a rough wash-bench 'where the men toks always spraced up a bit' beiore going to the table. But young Mrs. Grey soon had things ship-shape, I can tall you. She didn't go about it dictously, either, for if she had, we'd have heard from Mrs. Grey, senior. Oh, nol that wasn't the way at all, and I don't believe 1 the way at all, and I don't believe 1 the window, in the barn lot, to be sure. How else should I know?' Why, I saw them through the window, in the barn lot, to be sure. How else should I know?' It did my heart good to see this bigoted old fool I have been. I did are to be established in connection with in her pretty, sweet way; but, at any rate, before many weeks rolled over our heads the kitchen was a marvel of The table reloiced in snow. always haid upon the table for entering wagers, and in these betting books, some of which still exist, may be found bets on all conceivable subjects; on marriages, births, deaths; on the dura--Manager Thompson of the "Said canary that sang and kept us bounti-fully supplied with music; near the shining stove stood several cushioned tories of a long vanished time and age Herald for lubel and $50,000 damages for criticisms of his production. these it was said that too much of the work was boldly taken from the oper-The little daughter-in-law pressed sttas of Strauss and Sullivan for it to oave much right to style itself original, and the libre to way equally bad, and whispered that she had nothing to forgive; that she was just as happy as -Miss Mary Callender is an orphan she could wish to be in this world, of twenty-live yours, with $2,000,000 Indeed, I think they were all uproariously happy, and took turn about Miss Davis, a daughter of John W. no subject appears to have been too serious for a bet; and that nothing was considered too trivial a medium, the following lines found as weet excitation in a glass with butter and peper and rate for a bet; and that nothing was considered too trivial a medium, the following lines found as weet excitation in a glass with butter and peper and rate for a bet of the same amount. Miss that no man ever had a sweeter, dearer little help-mate before. Even I, sedate 'old fossil' that I am, feit riddulously from her grandfather, the late Marshal happy, and wish that my maker had enabled me to laugh; actually, I should have liked to tumble down off my idea, she permitted the little thing to have her way in decking the dinner table with flowers and all sorts of pretty with $2,000,000. Mus said, going to his chair and resting a of Richard T. Wilson, is just seventeen ored acquisition. They had not gone rider being upward of eleven stone a sad thing for a farmer's wife? Many no matter how big a secret it was!' "You're business, eh? "Well I'll gentleman, for a very considerable and blackened heaps of pie-crust were wager, set out on Monday, September the result of these efforts. They were marched straight to the 22, to walk to Constantinople and back

"What's the trouble, officer?" asked hauled by a policeman. "Mrs. Bowser, you are cr. zy1 Do would compete with any of the ordi-handed all the way to the depot. I the captain.

without injury. The stuffs manufactured out of kanaff can be successfully given me your only daughter. I will assault," should be acceded to. Klein did some damage in Samoa, without I will guard her as I do my life. I doubt; but to make him a bone of will never, so help me Heaven, speak national contention would only excite one unkind word to her.' "There it is, Mr. Bowser, and how have you kept that promise?" "Never said a thing of the sort-A NEW textile has been discovered of the German Government for the mother: return of the intermeddler Klein to the sacred name of mother. You have Apia, there to be tried for "murderous assault," should be acceded to. Klein anew animosities which time would otherwise speedily extinguish.

pever! I don't remember of your mother being there. You probably wrote that down this very day. in Russia, on the borders of the Cas-"We were married at 7 A. M., Mr.

he promptly growled out:

are too old for such nonsense."

such thing!"

not be weary.'

"I never did-never!"

"But I can prove it."

contents as a base forgery !'

"If you can I'll give $40!"

I went upstairs and got my note-book. Up to the date of our marriage

I preserved and filed all his letters.

On our bridal tour I kept a memorandum-book. Mother advised it, and I have found it to be a powerful lever on occasions when Mr. Bowser has been inclined to "get up." When I came down with the book he roared "Got that old book out again have plan Sea. The plant is called kanaff Bowser, and at 8,15 we took the train by the natives, and attains a height of ten feet. "From it a chemist has obtained a textile matter which is soft, you want to make out that I was a elastic and silky, gives a thread which born idiot?" is very tough and can be bleached

"Well, here is the proof: "Statement IL-'As we got into the dyed in every shade of color, and He took my hand and called me his hack Mr. Bowser had tears in his eyes, before the captain.

side of sixty herself! 'And what does lady Elizabeth do all the time you are working so hard?' said Miss Sims, resuming her seat, and THE FARMER'S WIFE. Here I have stood in the wide, roomy kitchen for the past sixty years, and, other noble earl should make a million as you may suppose, have seen many things in my day. As a rule, I am good natured-unless a small boy pokes morning sunbeams peep in merrily to keep me company.

The Song of Songs.

nary furnishing materials now in	think the driver saw him, for I heard him chuckling and saying something about you'd get over it in about a	"Stealing a bar The officer fell capture, and relat all the circumsta
The waitham watch Company is protected by a tariff duty of 25 per cent. It has declared a dividend of 50 per cent, and it will increase its capital stock $1,000,000, its cash surplus being so large that it is unwieldy. This prosperous concern is able to undersell foreign competitors in their own markets, but greedily takes advantage of its tariff protection to fleece American purchasers by mak- ing its home prices higher than its foreign prices. Its stockholders, after they get their dividend, should make a reduction in the wages of their employees in order to keep in line with contemporary corporations.	and white. This is the paw you held for two miles!" "I deny it in toto! Mrs. Bowser. I've got to sit down and have a sharp talk with you." "The other night," I continued, "you were about to put your arm about me as we stood in the hall, but on second thought you concluded not to." "I am no hand to spoon, Mrs. Bows- er-never was. Such things look silly in old married people." "But you hugged me for 280 miles."	The captain looks and was about to locked up for the students produce gested that perha- like to look at looked at it. To policeman, he may return to yoo later the studen seen filing out of tonsorial standard. They had not when they were halt by another predecessor, was they were going was informed that ness, and he in to he did by escorti
In selecting the seventy-foot wa'er fine cutter yacht as the type of vessel best adapted to win in American waters Lord Dunraven has displayed greater wisdom than his predecessors who have challenged for the American cup. Many British cutters of this class have done very well on this side, and one-the Madge-swept everything before her a few years ago. It will require a very fast sloop, indeed, to sail away from the coming contestant for international honors, but the vessel will no doubt be forthcoming at the proper time,	"Well, here's the proof: "Statement IIILeft Ditroit at 840 Mr. Bowser put his arm around me at once, and though the passengers winked and guyed us for a bridal couple, he said he didn't care a copper. Hugged me all the way to Chicago, Said he wished the ride would last a year. Said that Heaven had sent me to him. I write this in room 44 Tre mont House while Mr. Bowser is down to look after the trunks." "That-that's there is it?" gasped Mr. Bowser. "Of course it b:?" "And I had my arm around you all day, giving myself dead away?" "You did." "I will never believe it-never. I own up to being a little soft in my	he did by escorti same station w quitted, "What's the tr "These fellers i pole, and—" "Very well; yo beat!" The captain sn the students. H his unwonted gra the door opened policeman, six barber's pole. And so it we times were the st berous property different policem and had not an sent out to warn no circumstances
REPORTS come from Russia of a great plot against the life of the Czar, and numerous arrests have been made here and there in the Empire. The strength of the Nihilists has either been greatly overestimated or else the secret police deem it to be to their interest to revive these stories occa- sionally and thus leave an impression	Mrs. Bowser, and you should pause ere it is too late!" "I like to go over the old times once in a while and see how you have changed." "Changed! Changed! That's it! If a husband isn't making a fool of him- self all the time his wife argues that he	young men and more than likely bearers would ha that station as m as there were pa- trict. People who we cause of the hila proceeded from quiet station on are now fully inf of their wonderful astuteness. If the have I changed?" conspirators had even a tithe of the more. "You never call me your Birdie any machinery which it is claimed they "Ol I don't! I suppose you've got possess they would long before this proof that I used to call you Birdie, have overthrown the Russian Gov- | when your front name is Sarahl" "I have, sir! Listen while I read: "Statement IV .- Mr. Bowser bought

CONSIDERING the enormous duties feed to his Birdie, as he said, but I which the United States imposes upon never liked them. He called me Bir- ers, and in the east, where it is easily For victory, pendant on the nod of its cabinet officers, the service render#1 said it meant more to him than the is poorly paid. Canada with less than one-twelfth of our population, pays its cabinet officers $105,000 a year as jumped up, ",s my presence desired against our $64,000, while $250,000 in this house?" "Of course it is." does not suffice for the annual pay of the British cabinet at London. And besides their princely salaries, several husbands to desperation." English cabinet offices entitle their , holders to life pensions. The time is simply living over old times for a brief nothing is so rainous to the general efapproaching when it will be impossible while. I had to tease you to kiss me fect as a mingling of ill assorted colors Each cursed his fate that thus their for the government to obtain good the other night." "Yes, and I suopose you have got service unless it pays as well for it as something written down about that, private corporations do. haven't you? I'm of as loving a dis-In the Pennsylvania Senate a reso- does look to see a married couple billlution was passed, on March 22nd, ing and cooing like a couple of young idiots," "And yet you once longed to kiss me appropriating $5000 for the celebration of the Washington centennial. In the forever, House, the Senate bill providing for an "I never, never did! Don't drive me wild flowers. annual euroliment of all male persons to the wall, Mrs. Bowser!" "I won't, but I want to read a parain the State over 20 years of age, with an amendment leaving the making of graph to you. Here It is: the annual annulment optional with "Statement V .- Third day of our the annual enrollment optional with tour. I am very, very happy. Mr. the Legislature, which was made the Bowser has just kissed me on the chin special order for the next asseem- cheeks, nose, eyes and ears, and says he'd like to keep on kissing forever. bly. The resolution authorizing He says he can hardly help biting me the appointment of commission- in the chin." It was a minute before he could say ers to revise and digest the public laws was considered as the a word, and the bald spot on his head special order, the question being upon was as red as paint. He finally choked an amendment vesting the appointment down his feelings sufficiently to in the Governor rather than the shout: "I brand that as pure malice and Supreme Court, but in the absence of a forgery! Mrs. Bowser, you must take guorum and after a resort to flibus- that back and apologize to me!" tering tactics, an adjournment was S was written, and I can recall the mourning. taken without action.

ernment.

ir beat." A moment ts might have been the station with their l held proudly aloft, gone far, however, again brought to a officer, who, like his nted to know where with that pole. He t that was their busiirn assured them that his business, which ng them to the selfhich they had just puble, officer?" have stole a barber's ou may return to your ulled as he dismisse lardly had he resumed vity of aspect before and again entered a young men and a nt on. Six several udents and their bar-bought by as many en into that station, officer been specially all patrolmen under to interfere with six a barber's pole it is that that pole and its ve been brought into any times that night The Bucks had dined, and deep in trolemen in the disndered what was the the usually grave and ormed of the same.

Name Cards.

name cards for dinners and luncheons, and ingenious deulces of many kinds | Performs its current down the slipp'ry consequently figure at fashionable en-die from that to Chicago and back, obtained, birch bark is in favor. A six or eight inch square of birch bark has name Angel!" the shouted, as he caught with a pin. This impoverished The bubbles roll, like pearls from cornucopla may hold a bunch of violets, of it! I see how wives have driven advises that care be taken to use only such colors as will harmonize with the So, thus attraction, by coercive laws, > in flowers. A PRETTY DINNER CARD.

The little round straw Japanese disposition as the next man, but how it plaque may be utilized if one has not time for elaborate work. A ribbon is tied across the center, upon which in-fairy faces-pansies, or a snall posy of the man who sold it that it had only a while the name and date are plainly written on the other. The basket is covered with a white satin napkin, with a Greek border edged in blue ink. Small paletes of any finely polisiend mon which to describe a fanciful con-ceit. Birch bark cances, filled with sigar plums, to which is attached the pretty and artistic enough to be used.

The captain might a meal than any one whom Sir John dining table, curtainless windows, and the turning to the "Officer, you formed of his success—not being Tolks always spraced up a bit' before the training to the formed of his success—not being Tolks always spraced up a bit' before the training to the formed of his success—not being Tolks always spraced up a bit' before the training to the training to the formed of his success—not being Tolks always spraced up a bit' before the training to the training t present at the achievement-by the going to the table. following bulletin from the field of battle: "My lord, I have not time to state particulars, but merely to acquaint your grace that your man beat his antagonist by an apple ple,"

At White's coffee house, where, dur-gested, first one thing and then another, the window, in the barn lot How else should I know? BETTING ON DEATH.

ing the last century, gaming was car- in her pretty, sweet way; but, at any ried on to heavy amounts, a book was rate, before many weeks rolled over our the shock of an earthquake. Walpole, writing to Sir Horace whether he was dead or not; and when on the dresser, the pretty paper rack and to see how his wife was stealing into her sweet lips to the old lady's cheek, said it would affect the fairness of the that nobody's house could beat ours. bet.7 following lines, founded on fact, bear witness: working bard all day.

council sat; Their wine was brilliant, but their wit grew flat. rious laughter which Up starts his lordship-to the window flies, the night in question And lol "A race! a race!" in rapture cries. "Where?" quoth Sir John-"Why, see two drops on rain Start from the summit of the crystal pane;

Originality is a marked feature of  $\Lambda$  thousand pounds which drop, with nimblest force, course." some gum drops of the train boy to feed to his Birdie, as he said, but I bark has been utilized by skillful fing-the train boy to bark has been utilized by skillful fing-

Fate.

Now down the sash, unconscious of the Chloe's eyes. forget-me-nots or any other diminutive blossoms, Decorator and Furnisher, short;

"Then do not plan to drive me out which describes this and other cards, How oft two jostling steeds have spelled the sport!

"Sit down, Mr. Bowser. We are remainder of the table decorations, as Th' approaching drops into one bubble draws.

> project crossed; How hard their lot, who neither won nor lost!

A Parrot Story.

scribe the name and date. The ribbon will hold in place a small bunch of fairy faces—pansies, or a snall posy of wild flowers. A rather pretty itea is that of fast-ening the name card to a small wicker scribe the name and date. The ribbon will hold in place a small bunch of South Side lady upon the affidavit of with her, too, you see.'

hung up by its handle.

tion of a ministry, on the chance of an geraniums. Close by hung a golden in the warm evenings, and lighting his is my forte, and making money in a fat Walpole, writing to Sir Horace shining stove stood several cushioned Mann, September 1, 1750, says: "They have put into the papers a good story made at White's. A man dropped down dead at the door and was carried in future. What with the sanded floor, in. The club immediately made bets the glittering rows of tins and crooks must have made John awfully happy whether he was dead or not; and when on the dresser, the pretty paper rack and they were going to bleed him, the carved book shelves—these last Mrs. A year and then another rolled by. Said it would affect the fairness of the that nobody's house could beat ours. The little daughter-in-law's girlish and wouldn't eat the slices of delicious Certain it is that during this period laughter and joyous songs gushed forth bread and rich cream that his mother ioned vases on either side of me, the salt for him, he was not tempted. Now odor of which was very agreeable after if a man refuses food, and especially when offered by such hands as hers, Though the mother thought it a silly everybody knows there is something trifles pleasing to the young eyes. 1 thought things were going along mighty sick, that you have no appetite?' this hour for rejoicing. Oh, yes! I musn't for

'Well, how's things getting along 'but I'm terribly disappointed!' with you, Priscilla?' a ked Miss Sims, 'Why, what has happened, my son?' again.

changed house. Grey. 'Cooking dont't agree with me Arnold Farm, which is the richest like it used to, and warm weather's plece of land in all this country; the coming on, too. I reckon that is the house is comfortable, too, with all the pretty new home and surroundings and had it even more than the old, for it while the name and date are plainly words, its new mistress had hardly got it,' said Miss Tabitha, with an indig-written on the other. The basket is it hung up when a hady friend called, nant sniff. 'I wouldn't have any he hated auction sales.'

pretty for so little money; though such a splendid bargain just for the goodness knows I never had much want of four hundred dollars,' and the Fall. King the spring you may King, has two daughters, each posses-"I brand that as pure malice and forgeryl Mrs. Bowser, you must take that back and apologize to mel" "How can I? I can read it just as Oh, yes! I musn't forget to say that and is worth $1,000,000, smooth and pleasant till one day Miss The look on her sweet face was Miss Sims favored us with a call, not -Four gentlemen engaged in con smooth and pleasant till one day Miss Tabitha Sims stepped in and popped herself down in the most comfortable herself down in the most comfortable recker in our kitchen, and commenced wagging her meddlesome tongue, "No, I'm not sick,' said John, lean-ing his head dejectedly on his hand, "but I'm tertibly disappointed!" the silly notion. So they began to with you, Priscilla?' a ked Miss Sims, letting her small, inquisitive eyes roam over all the pretty things in the room. She had been of visiting when John, 'I know it is childish brought home his little wife, and this John, with 'the Bessy fund,' as he build a ship on Friday, fin abed her on happy and well regulated a family as _____Among the many American women Grey. 'Cooking dont't agree with me like it used to, and warm weather's coming on too. I reckon that is the base of land in all this country; the you ever heard of. I was given my the eldest of them are the following, to main reason for my feeling lad.' "Why, where is John's wife? Don't she help you with the cooking, and rage, that if I could get that place I was much better furnished, and seemed the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the seemed where the seemed where the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the seemed where the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't was much better furnished, and seemed the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't the sweetest home in the world; but the sweetest home in the world; but then I haven't seen many, I don't mixing, and butter making?' said Miss Sims, lifting her head like a terrier when he's tot a fresh scent.

"Well, the fact is, Bessy has no taste for cooking,' sighed Mrs. Grey. 'That is the one thorn in my flesh; I think every woman who is a farmer's wife ought to understand that sort of work.

would be a contented man; but I never then I haven't seen many, I don't know but what a kitchen is as good a place in which to study human nature As the years rolled swiftly by, they brought to understand that sort of work.

As the years rolled swiftly by, they brought us new joys and responsibili-ties. The table had to be made larger for the accommodation of two bright. every woman who is a farmer's wile ought to understand that sort of work, or she is a failure. John brought this young thing from a city life, and I butter grew on trees or not; and she's butter grew on trees or not; and she's Silver combs are in high favor. to make money but large enough to enjoy it. She insists upon living at draped over a foundation skirt, thereby avoiding the limp effect of unsupported word dramatic from the great beef $43. She is only twenty years old.

the cooking to do; and in harvesting', dred dollars you needed to close the and cold-chisel, was the first time she had seen our of myself, but you all know how 1 have toiled for years, my sole ambition

