mmer.
NG
LES !
HING
YER.
D FURNISHER
N.
ANIA RAILROAD.
The Best Waterproof Coat.
DUMPING WAGON
A PERFECT DUMPER, and the SHORTEST TURNING WAGON MADE
Agents Wanted
WAGON CO.
SQUARE, PA.

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN
SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1889.

SHORT LOCALS.

Mr. Joseph Sieber is building the barn in Fermanagh this spring.

Jos. Cramer is recovering from the unfortunate use of a sprained ankle.

Last week the Commissioners rented the grass in the Court yard to-day.

Clinton Acker moved his log cabin and stock, some 20 tons, from Shade to Perry.

Rev. J. S. Weatherly preached in the Presbyterian church, of this place on the 5th inst.

J. Hollis Irwin of Newport was visiting his mother and relatives in this place last week.

The lime kiln from Bee Lake is still in the hands of Lyon & Co., with a large force of men.

Mr. James Simonton has been elected Treasurer of the Lutheran congregation of this place.

John Wagner, an employee of the Norfolk and Western Railroad visited at this place last week.

Capt. P. Painenbaker editor of the Newport Standard was in town during Sabbath the 5th inst.

John K. Howe telegraph operator at Tyrone spent several days at home last week on account of sickness.

A special despatch from Washington D. C. announcement of the capture of a 600 lbs Sun Fish of the ocean kind.

Mrs. Anna McPike, wife of editor R. A. McPike of the Altoona Times died last Friday morning of consumption.

Communion services will be administered in the Presbyterian church of this place on Sunday the 19th of May.

If the reports of the Centennial Inauguration ball in New York be true it was a disgrace to the people of this nation.

Samuel Heimy recently graduated of Philadelphia Veterinary College. He offers his services to the people of this locality.

Eugene Stroup, Patterson's artist left for the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia for vacation.

William H Banks having graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania arrived at home on Thursday night.

Itch, Mange, and scratches on human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown, Pa. Oct. 31. 1y.

For all kinds of hardware and tinware visit the hardware store of E. H. McCormick in the Odd Fellows Hall building on Bridge street. Also Charts Keeps a stock on hand for all times.

Everybody is pleased when an advertisement in the form just Saturday, nothing said, on Monday morning C. C. Spangler the new printer hails from Millerstown, Perry county.

There were 50,000 citizen militia troops in New York on the occasion of the Inaugural Centennial. Fifty to thousand people would populate almost every county of the size of Juniata as thickly as it is populated.

The L. E. Atkinson base ball club has secured ground near town, where they can play the whole season to their heart's content and most all clubs who desire to enter the baseball list of friendly match game contest.

About sixty persons took supper at the Juniata house with Landlord Fickes on the evening of Inaugural Centennial Day. The Mifflintown and Patterson bands serenaded of the inauguration. And all present declare they had a good time.

Leopold Koenig, of Lewistown has bought the Democrat and Register building from editor Buckman for the sum. Reader don't mistake, Mr. Koenig did not buy the two papers, he's bought the building in which the Democrat and Register is printed.

Rogers McCahen, the enterprising Fermanagh township lumber man who has marked the mountain peaks of Mifflin county has extended his experience to the mountain range back of Lewistown enlisted stations, and there is still a contract of cutting two thousand cords of wood.

Ann Martin was at home from West Point Preparatory school several days last week. The students of the Preparatory school were allowed the privilege of attending the Washington Inaugural Centennial at New York and Ann took this privilege of visiting home to this place.

Messrs Wm. Morris Miller, and Frederick Sandler, quarreled in a store at Lykens, Pa., about ten o'clock last Friday over a game of cards. Wm. Miller a cooliver and Fred. Sandler, of Kendler. Wm. died in short time and Sandler is not expected to live.

In the list of Spring and Summer Millinery just received Latest styles Lowest Prices. Having secured the services of a competent trimmer we are prepared to fill orders in a satisfactory manner.

Miss M. Nace,
Main St., Patterson, Pa.

A new home, nine miles from Mifflintown, well equipped and well located, suitable for a physician, is offered for sale. Apply at this office.

David M. Smith, George Waller Esq., Mrs. R. L. Rutter, Mr. Abraham Fogelsman, Wilson W. Fowler.

Gen. B. Chairman P. M.

M. W. Eby erected a prolonged sensation at No. 50 West Lemon st., Chicago, last week one day by hanging the red flag of distress out of a fourth story window. The flag was pulled down and an angry set of persons threatened to mob Eby, but he went to the police station and explained.

English Sparrow Literature: Sparrow Hash, Sparrow Pie, Sparrow Stew, Sparrow Fricassee, Sparrow Soup, Sparrow Ring bone, Sparrow Spavin, Sparrow Wind Puffs, Sparrow Hip Disease, Sparrow Tumors, Gregory, Jr., Sauce and by the use of only bottle Warrant of. Sold by L. Banks & Co. Druggists, Mifflintown, Pa. Oct. 31 '89-1y.

From the Bloomfield Times: Potatoes seem to be a drug on the market in some sections of the country. One day last week a farmer hailed a load to Newport, but could not dispose of them. Rather than haul them home he dumped them along the road. Another farmer coming along loaded the potatoes on his wagon and took them home.

List of letters remaining in the Patterson, Pa., Post Office not called for. Mrs. Mary Barry (2), Mollie Carter, Albert or Wesch Klopinki, Ella M. Kellogg, Charles Mathews (Barber), William Nelson Esq., C. S. Peck, David Showers, Henry Tager (Foreign), Agnes Uhl, F. Williams. Persons asking for letters in the above list will please say they are advertised.

Howard Kirk P. M.
Patterson, Pa., May 1st, 1889.

At an entertainment in the Methodist church at Oakland, California, on the evening of the 11th of April, 1889, Calvin B. MacDonald, a native of Tuscarora Valley, Juniata county, Pa., who left his native county about forty years ago, delivered a lecture for the benefit of the Gospel Temperance Home. The subject of the lecture: "Forty Years on the Border," was ably and elegantly presented, and was highly appreciated, as may be learned from the columns of the Oakland Inquirer of April 12, 1889.

Last Wednesday night an effort was made by thieves to open the safe of Showers and Schell in the rear of their coach shop. The door knobs were screwed off and a number of marks on the door of the safe indicated that tools had been used to a greater or less degree on the door of the safe. A lot of shop tools lay about the safe and a dozen or more burnt matches were scattered on the floor in front of the safe. It is believed that the thieves were on the premises about 2 o'clock on Thursday morning for about that hour citizens on Washington street heard certain strange noises and as it does not take much of a noise to be heard at night it is supposed that the sound proceeded from the thieves. It would be well to sigh when one hears a strange noise at night to get up.

The Daily Local News of West Chester of April 26, mentions Mr. Hertzler, of Juniata county, one of the able members of the Legislature and one of the youngest members of the House. He is exceedingly popular with the members of both political parties in the House, and is always ready and willing to help a friend with any measure he can consistently support. By this means he has secured a following the enables him to pass almost any measure in which he interests himself, and should the Republicans of Juniata county ask our advice on the subject we would advise them to continue Mr. Hertzler as their representative as long as he could be induced to remain, but we do not believe they need any advice on the subject, as their county is usually Democratic having given last year a majority of 82 for Mr. Cloverland, and having elected Mr. Hertzler by a majority of 253.

An exchange says the new scalp law reads:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That section one of the act entitled "An act for the destruction of wolves and wild cats" approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven, which reads as follows "That for the benefit of Agriculture and for the protection of game within this Commonwealth, there is hereby established the following provision for the destruction of certain noxious animals to be paid by the respective counties in which the same are slain namely.

For every wolf ten dollars and for every wild cat two dollars" shall be amended to and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted of the same. That for the benefit of agriculture and the protection of game within this commonwealth, there is hereby established the following provision for the destruction of certain noxious animals to be paid by the respective counties in which the same are slain namely.

For every wolf ten dollars, for every wild cat two dollars, for every red or gray fox one dollar, for every hawk twenty five cents.

From the Bloomfield Advocate of May 1st, 1889. Our Loysville correspondent in a week sends us the following account: On last Friday evening as Wilson Welsh son of Samuel Welsh, of Landisburg township of Elam Eisenhauer, was passing through Samuel Loy's meadow, some person fired a load of shot into him, one taking effect in his neck and it is believed penetrated the jugular vein. Mr. W. bled freely from the wound and rose. He was also shot in head and left arm. The circumstances that led to the shooting is thus: Mr. Samuel Loy has a fish basket in his meadow, some one has been committing depredations around it, such as cutting, and someone has been committing depredations around it, such as breaking it up, taking out fish, and pouring it has been set on fire by means of coal oil and badly damaged. Mr. Loy concluded to watch for the marauders, and as Mr. W. was going by the fish basket a man rose to reach the stream in order to set a net—he stopped to look at the damaged basket and as he turned to go he received the load of shot. Mr. W. walked a few yards to the house of Jacob Kistler and medical aid was summoned at once. Mr. W has the sympathy of the people as he is an industrious, enterprising young man who would do no wrong. He was quite poorly on Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Bender a warrant was served on Solomon Dunkel Attorney McAllister is the agent of Samuel Loy. Last Friday morning Rev. Bender, residing near the Middle Ridge School House in Juniata township, took down his shot gun and the young man expecting their shot. At the instant of firing, his father, Hiram Bademsberger, who was coming along and not knowing of the presence and intent of his son, stepped into range and received a part of the load of shot in his body. Dr. H. O. Orris, of Newport, was summoned and rendered the necessary medical assistance, but was unable to locate two shot which, it is feared, have passed almost through the body of the unfortunate man.

BAPTIST MEETING.

The Primitive or Old School Baptists will hold their annual Baltimore Association at the Baptist church in Milford township, Juniata county, Pa., commencing on Wednesday, May 15, 1889, and will continue for three days. Preaching, commencing each day at 10 o'clock. There will be able ministers from the various states of the union. They preach the same true and living gospel that the Apostles taught 18 hundred years ago. Come one, come all and hear what those people have to say, that is almost everywhere spoken against.

Juniata Valley Editorial Association.

The members of the Juniata Valley Editorial association held a meeting at the Tribune office yesterday afternoon, and among other business was the election of officers for the current year, viz: President, H. C. Dorr, Altoona Tribune; vice president, B. F. Morrison, Newton Hamilton Watchman; secretary and treasurer, E. Conrad, McVeytown Journal; executive committee, F. Mortimer, New Bloomfield Times; George B. Goodlander, Clearfield Republican, and Homer Vaughn, Altoona Graphic News. It was decided that Washington City be the objective point of the excursion, and the time, Tuesday, September 3 to 6 inclusive. The president was authorized to select the delegates to the National Editorial association convention which meets in Detroit, Michigan, sometime in the fall. Altoona Tribune.

SNAKES.

From the Democrat and Register of last week: A few days ago Mr. William Swartz of Beale township, was driving along the road near Tuscarora Creek, in the neighborhood of Mr. David Foos' premises known as the "cow bow," where he had saw mill last fall, when he was suddenly surprised to see a large black snake jump into his road cart and land across his legs. In his consternation he threw himself out behind, and when he regained his feet found himself surrounded by four others with heads erect and commencing to make for him. He could find not even a stick to defend himself with, and of course retreated with as bold a front as possible, stepping back over the bank and falling into the creek. He then managed to get away. He then got Jonathan Swartz and together they killed five, the least of which was over five feet in length. The place is becoming terrorizing for blacksnakes and many people are afraid to travel that way.

BROKEN PROMISES.

We take the following sorrowful complaint from an exchange and the point of it is potent to nearly every editor:

"Last week a man stepped up to us on the street and said he would pay us every cent he owed us if he lived until Saturday P. M. We presume the man died. He did not pay up on Saturday. Another said he would pay us in a day or two as sure as we were born. Query—Did the man lie or were we never born? Another said he would settle as sure as shooting. We are led to conclude that shooting is uncertain. Another said he hoped to go to the devil if he did not pay us in three days. Haven't seen him since, suppose he is gone, but we trust he has not paid