SHORT LOCALS.

The banks will be closed on Thanksgiving day. Chamberburg is to have a stocking party. It is late corn husking for a number of farmers. Two men with two bears were in town on Saturday. Wilberforce Schwoyer, is in Philadelphia on business. Merchant Schott has been in New York city the past week. The revival meeting is yet in progress in the M. E. church. Did you see the Hustler at Francis Hardware Company Store. Read the new ad of Schott's sacrifice sale in clothing in another column. Children's overcoats, sizes from 4 to 13 years, reduced to $2 at Schott's. Elmer McCaulley of Harrisburg was in town visiting parents last week. Do not fail to see the Hustler at the Francis Hardware Company Store. 120 men's and boy's cassimere coats at $2. To reduce stock at Schott's. E. A. Margritz of Fayette township died on Sabbath morning, November 17. The June flood increased the debt of Juniata county thirty one thousand dollars. Stanley, the American African explorer has been heard from. He is safe and well. The wife of Senator John J. Patterson, died last Thursday evening at Waterville, Wisconsin. 150 men's cassimere, men's and boy's vests, all sizes reduced to 65 cents at Schott's. Rev. Dillon, pastor elect of the Presbyterian church of this place, preached on Sabbath. Now is the time to subscribe for the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN and the Philadelphia Weekly Press. For bargains go to Schott's. Prices reduced. All new stock that must be sold regardless of cost. The shingles for the Newport river bridge were brought from Williamsport, North Carolina. If you wish to buy chestnut rails for post fences, and posts, call on Daniel Fisher of Milford township. Ex-County Superintendent Robinson of Turbett township was visible on our streets one day last week. The Cuba Iron Bridge and the iron bridge at the south end of Main street have been opened for travel. Jeremiah Loudenlager, of East Salem is one of the most extensive lumber operators in the Juniata Valley. Handbags, mittens, chinchilla, kersey and worsted overcoats reduced to $9.00. All must go, cost or loss at Schott's. Good overcoats for workmen. Will put together. Sizes from 34 to 44. Price $4.00. To reduce stock at Schott's. Henry Miller and John Derr fell off a flat into the river at Mexico last week when the water was high. It was a cold dip. Miss Anna Parker of Washington, D. C. and her cousin Miss Halli Parker of Lawistown, were in town a few days last week. The Callithumpian band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCaulley upon the occasion of the wedding last Thursday evening. Miss Jennie Longsdorf of McCenansburg, a school friend of Claudia Simons was present at the wedding last Thursday evening. William Valentine and Ezra Fackel while prying a wheel off the railing of the ferry flat at this place last Friday, fell into the river. There will be Union Thanksgiving service in the M. E. church at 10 o'clock. Rev. Philip Graff will preach the Thanksgiving sermon. William Murray had his right eye severely burned by the powder in flashing through the tube of his gun, caused by a heavy charge of powder. Men's fine worsted suits at $7.50. No matter what the goods are worth or what they cost. No matter what we lose go they must be reduced stock at Schott's. The Register building and the Odd Fellows Hall have been painted red. The town seems to have a decided preference for the good old red Dutch color. Rev. Mr. Willard, who years ago preached for the Lutherans in this town expects to move to Mexico, this county where his son, Dr. Willard, practices medicine. Jerome N. Thompson, Jr., left on Monday to assume the position of Cashier of the First National Bank of Middleburg, which will commence business this week. Misses Emily and Gertrude Lett of Harrisburg and Miss Nellie Lapp of Harrisburg, attended the wedding of Claudia Simons and Joseph McCaulley last Thursday. Reb, Mangle, and scratches on human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown. Nov. 6. The attention of persons who desire to purchase real estate is directed to the advertisement of the sale of real estate by Daniel Burkholder and Christian Yoder, Executors and Trustees of Christian Yoder. List of letters unclaimed for remaining in the Post Office at Mifflintown Pa. Week ending Nov. 23 1889.

Persons calling for letters in this list will please ask for advertised matter. Letters: William, Bremer, (2), David McKenna, William, McCall, Harvey Hess. JAMES MCCOY, P. M. From the Bloomfield Times: On last Friday afternoon Mr. Samuel Brown, of Centre township, was fatally kicked in the abdomen by a mule he was stabling, and he died during the night. On last Friday we received two copies of the "Richfield Light," a small, neatly paper being published six months on trial at Richfield, this county. The editor of the paper is E. S. Mills of Richfield. The river was not high last week, but there was water enough in it to cause apprehension in the minds of the management of the wagon ferry men. The flat lay at rest on this shore and teams were compelled to lie by several days. A tree about in the high water in the river last week knocked out four trees of the Millerstown bridge and carried with them a number of men, who were in the trestles at the time. The men were taken out of the river about a mile down stream. The grocery establishment and wooden warehouses of Johnny and Andrews, Nos. 119, 121, 123 Market streets Phila. was destroyed by a fire. One fireman was killed by a falling wall; another seriously hurt, and about 20 were almost stifled by the fumes of soot. The congregational meeting to elect elders for the Westminster Presbyterian church in this town on the 19th inst., did not elect because of the absence of the regularly appointed moderator. The congregation is to meet on the 3rd day of December to elect elders. Judge Thurman has aged rapidly in the estimation of the Ohio Democrats since it became known that they have carried the Legislature. He is entirely too old to succeed Payne Calvin S. Brice is the man with the barrel, and he is ready to tap it for a seat in the Senate. From the Fulton Republican: Thirty-five years ago, Henry Lewis, a slave in the South, said good-bye to his wife and led North, settled in Chambersburg, and married again. Later she heard that the old man was living in Chambersburg, and she came North to see him. She is his guest. The Newport Ledger reminds its patrons who are permitting their subscriptions to fall in arrears "that unpaid subscription is like money at interest; the longer you let it stand the larger it becomes. This should be committed to memory by every person who is a subscriber to a newspaper. Miss Tillie M. Loudon has just returned from her second trip this fall to Philadelphia, and is at home this week with a full line of New Millinery goods and notions: hats, bonnets, kid gloves, handkerchiefs, stockings and other novelties of the latest style. She invites the public to call and examine goods all new and to be sold cheap. Mary Shelly Johnson, wife of Geo. B. Johnson of Pittsburg, and grand daughter of Judge Lewis Burchfield of this county, died at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lukens in Walker township, Juniata county, November 17, 1889, aged 27 years, 10 months and 14 days. Interment in Presbyterian graveyard in this town. Horace A. Meyers of Thompsonstown has come to the front as a master workman in heavy iron. He gathered out of the June flood drift piles what remained of the Cuba Iron Bridge and hauled it to his shop in Thompsonstown and there straightened it and shaped it into a substantial bridge for Coelocum creek in Greenswood township. English Spain Limentum removes all Hard, Soft, or Caloused Lumps and Blemishes, from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-bone, Stiles, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Coughs, &c. Save $50 by the use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful blemish cure ever known. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown. Nov 6 From the Franklin Repository, Chambersburg: Rev. J. Pomeroy, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church is confined to the house with injuries received while calling upon one of his members on Friday evening. He stepped through a porch the top of which had been removed, and injured his leg so badly that he may be unable to occupy his pulpit for several weeks. The Books & Todd fast ferry boat lay off its route last week several days for fear of being caught by the impending fall of the trestles between the first and second piers of the Patterson side of the river bridge. After the trestles were washed away and pulled to shore by ropes by which the trestle work had been tied the passenger boat was run by fastening on the large rope. When you are looking around for a local paper for the home circle, remember that the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN is the largest paper published in Juniata county, and in addition to all important personal and religious and business and political news gives a well selected assortment of literary reading, almost twice as much reading as any other paper published in the county. One dollar in advance. Those who desire the Weekly Press can secure it with the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN for one dollar and fifty cents in advance. The Huntingdon Journal of last week says: On Friday last about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Peter Longacre was found dead in the sitting room of her residence in Mount Union. She had complained of a severe pain in her head for a few days prior to her death, but otherwise was apparently in good health. She was engaged in knitting when she fell to the floor dead. Neuralgia of the heart is supposed to have been the cause. She was a good wife and a kind mother, and she leaves to survive her husband and six children. Her remains were interred on Tuesday.

The sixty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Daniel Cramer, of Patterson, Juniata County, Pa., was celebrated on Wednesday last at the residence of Captain Graham in this city. There were present Daniel Cramer, aged sixty-seven; John Duncan, aged eighty-six; and Mrs. Duncan, sixty, of Indiana, Pa.; Levi Griffith, of Johnstown, aged seventy-three; and Mrs. Griffith, aged seventy-three; Mrs. Mary A. Everhart, of Johnstown, aged seventy-three; Captain Graham, aged sixty-three. The aggregate of ages was 632 years. Mrs. Everhart is the widow of John Everhart. Her maiden name was Boushoff, as was also that of Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. Griffith, and Mrs. Graham, they being sisters Mrs. Everhart is the oldest living member of the Boushoff family, and Mrs. Graham the youngest. The late J. Q. A. Boushoff was their brother. The only brother now living is David, of Millburg, Union County.—Johnstown Tribune of Nov. 5th. Some time ago Mrs. Samuel Carter had a warrant placed in the hands of officer Samuel Lapp for the arrest of her husband Samuel Carter. The officer made a trip to Steelton, Dauphin county, in search of the man, but he was not there. Last Saturday Carter was surprised to see Lapp walking on the pavement with a double-barrelled rifle on his shoulder. The officer immediately arrested him and took him before Squire Horning. Lapp went out to bring in Mrs. Carter to face her husband. While the officer was away Carter thought he would stretch himself in front of the office. The Squire was unsuspecting. The prisoner went out with his gun, and when Lapp came back he had led to the county. An effort was made to catch him, but he roamed the fields with such abandon that the officer was not rafter enough to overtake him. Lapp holds the double-barrelled gun as a memento of the chase and as security for costs. On Sunday afternoon officer Samuel Lapp was informed that Carter might be found at George Warner's house along the Pike, a short distance north of town. Warner's house was visited. After some preliminary movements Carter appeared at the door with a gun and threatened to shoot. Lapp went into the house and got a gun from Warner, meanwhile the fugitive was going up the Pike toward Cuba. Having secured a loaded gun, Lapp, Al Hackenberger, Lewis Reynolds, Tom Lowery, Homer Bender and a number of boys gave pursuit and overtook him at the Craig property along the Pike. The gun was surrendered to Lewis Reynolds. Tom Lowery discharged the rifle. Carter was brought to town by Lapp, and arranged before Squire C. B. Horning, who sent him to jail. Mifflintown Markets. Biologs at Oriental. The late rains caused Malabonago Creek to go on a rampage on Wednesday. The water rose to almost the extent of the June flood, causing considerable damage to private property by over-overflowing fields, carrying off fences and making destruction generally. It also damaged the new county bridge near widow Shoaffer's. Kepler's ran was also on a bend and some of our township bridges were destroyed. E. G. Shoaffer was attending U. S. Court at Philadelphia this week as a witness against W. Kromer the crooked mail carrier and mail bag cutter. Our sick people now are Jacob Hoffer an aged gentleman, who has been an invalid now for upwards of a year, Mrs. S. Gooding, Susan Hoffer and Joseph Marks. Most farmers are done plowing next year's corn ground. A. K. Troutman improved his dwelling house by treating it to a new roof. E. G. Shoaffer had also a new roof put on his tenant house, formerly the Frymoyer Tavern stand. John L. Weiser's team is passing by here weekly loaded down with excellent roller flour which he is selling in large lots at Richfield and Evesdale; a sure indication that those people have bread to eat. John is doing a good business. Amos, Oriental, November 22, 1889. MARRIED: LANDIS—WILT.—On the 14th inst., in McAlisterville by Rev. G. W. Leisher, Charles Landis, of Patterson, and Ella Wilt of the former place. DIED: ORELL.—On the 7th inst., in Turbett township, Mrs. Sophia Orell was found dead in bed, aged 63 years, 5 months and 20 days. JEFFERS.—On the 11th inst., in Spruce Hill township, Alva Leroy, son of McGinnis and Alva Jeffers, died at 10 o'clock. WILSON.—On the 14th inst., in Pittsburg, Winfield S. Wilson, Esq., son of Dr. David Wilson, of Port Royal, aged about 42 years. MARSH.—On the 17th inst., in Fayette township, Edward A. Marsh, aged 67 years, 3 months and 6 days. JOHNSON.—On the 17th inst., at the residence of N. A. Lukens, in Walker township, Mrs. Mary Shelly, wife of George B. Johnson of Pittsburg, and daughter of the late Samuel Y. and Emma S.
