

The Juniata peach crop was not entirely destroyed by the late freeze. A GERMAN political speech maker called King William a dog and was sent to prison for his bad language.

A RECEPTION of General Hartman's division was held at Harrisburg on the 25th of March. About 600 of the veterans were present.

DANCING schools, theaters and religious congregations, seem to have suffered alike in the storm devastation of Louisville, last Thursday night.

The instance of the financial wreck of a nation doing business on a basis of silver, is not on record, and yet there are men who want to rule out silver.

A WILLIAMSBURG city conductor, making two dollars a day, was not content with one wife but married a second and has been keeping house with both.

The Democrats in Congress stand across the way of the admission of Wyoming and Idaho to the sisterhood of states, but they will be admitted all the same.

The New York Grand jury finds the sheriff's office, in that city a sink of all kinds of corruption and dishonesty it as a disgrace to New York City and the age we live in.

JOHN MOWERS of Antrim township, Franklin county, ate to much candy and too many peanuts and cakes. They gave him cramp of which he died. He was 60 years of age.

The signal service is urging New Orleans people to flee from a great flood that will wash the city away within the coming 10 days. The flood is to come down the river.

A CRABBOY boat owned by Peter Michael near Muncy, Pa. ran against his master, knocked him down and cut the flesh on the legs and side of the prostrate man so severely that Michael cannot live.

The jury five turned up last week in Wilkesbarre in a case of assault on a girl. Three jurors were requested to call on the defendant at his house. The court got wind of the movement and continued the case and is now investigating the movements of the jury five.

AMONG the Democratic Treasurer of Maryland used several hundred thousand dollars of the State funds for stock speculation and now he is a dishonored man. It is a good thing once in awhile as a Judge said, to ask the Lord to deliver one from temptation.

The post office contest in Downingtown has been carried on so vigorously that to settle it, another post office is to be established, which may be the cause of dividing the borough making two boroughs. That is nearly up to President Lincoln's plan of settling the question of the election of officers for a military company. He said "make every man an officer."

BETWEEN 9 and 10 o'clock last Thursday evening a storm struck Louisville, Ky., and swept a track 2 squares wide across the city, killing between one and two hundred people, and injuring many more. The gas went out, the electric light went out, the water supply was cut off. Millions of dollars of property was destroyed in less than two minutes time.

FAMERS in Montgomery county, as elsewhere, are moving for relief from the paltry of war taxes, with the attendant financial distress, which has fallen upon agriculture. They justly complain "that what they are compelled to buy costs to much in proportion to what they receive for their products, and that while the market value of their farms has decreased about 40 per cent in the last ten years there has not been a decrease in the assessed valuation."—Norristown Defender.

THERE are many citizens of Scotch Irish extraction in Juniata county, who cannot fail of feeling a deep interest in the Congress of the Scotch Irish Society of America to be held in the City of Pittsburgh from the 29th day of May, to the 1st day of June inclusive of the present year. We take pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of an invitation to the Congress, and trust Tuscarora Valley people will send a delegation. In the past Tuscarora Valley was a stronghold of that famous race of people.

The condition of affairs has a great deal to do with the forming of opinions of people for an illustration. In the West, Jay Gould is considered a great man by farmers, because he has furnished the ways and means of transportation of corn from where it sells at 15c a bushel to New York City where they get 50c a bushel for it. In the eastern states, Gould is out of favor with farmers, and he is considered anything but a great man by the farmers, because by his management a bushel of corn was shipped as cheaply from the far west as from central or western Pennsylvania.

On the 9th of April a man named Bartholomew, is to be hung at Easton for the killing of a man named Dillard. Bartholomew, and Mrs. Dillard allowed their love for each other to plan the murder of Dillard. It was planned that Bartholomew, should on a certain night disturb Dillard's chickens, which he did, Mrs. Dillard was on the watch for a commotion among the fowls, and when she heard cackle she awakened her husband, and pursued him to go out with a light to see what was the matter. Bartholomew was at a convenient place with a gun and when his victim appeared he had a fine chance for a good aim which he took, and shot Dillard dead. The murderer is a hardened wretch. Last week when a preacher called to see him he expressed a desire to see in the gallows and was taken to see it in company with the minister. To satisfy the murderer's curiosity the trap was sprung. The preacher shuddered and said to the condemned man, "Isn't that terrible." "Oh, that is nothing," replied the murderer, completely regaining control of himself, "I could stand it if it was filled with knives. It would be a fine thing to scald and clean hogs with," he added with a grim smile. You could let the hogs down through that trap in to a barrel of hot water and then draw them up to the platform again, and remove the hair."

A hole about as large as a good sized farm barn was knocked into the bottom of the City of Paris, the fastest ocean steamer, last week, when she was 150 miles from Queenstown on her way out from New York. Whether it was a broken shaft or an engine that failed a section of the bottom out, or what, is not known. The ship was built in many sections, so that when a break takes place in one part of the vessel it can only flood that section and no more, and to that system of compartment or section building, the life of the ship is owing with the lives of 650 passengers. If the hole had been broken in an apartment other than the engine rooms the ship could have steamed into Liverpool, but as it was the engine room apartment that had the hole knocked into it the vessel was helpless till a passing steamer came that way and towed her to port. Ocean travellers and ship owners and ranking generally who take an interest in learning of the affairs of the world are anxiously awaiting information as to what broke the hole into the City of Paris. Some are inclined to believe it to have been caused by a hidden rock; others conjecture that it was some monster of the deep that never shows itself upon the surface of the sea. What over it was will probably become known when she has been towed into harbor and has been examined by divers. She is looked upon as an unlucky ship having experienced one mishap after another since she first sailed only a few years since. However no lives have been lost through her mishaps.

Keep Busy.
The secret of success in life is to keep busy, to be persevering, patient, and untiring in the pursuit or calling you are following. The busy ones may now and then make mistakes, but it is better to risk these than to be idle and inactive. Keep doing, whether it be at work or seeking recreation. Motion in life and the busiest are the happiest. Cheerful, active labor is a blessing. An old philosopher says: "The lively only shines when on wing; so it is with the mind; when once we rest we darken."—Elmina.

Boy Smacked—An Explosion.
New York, March 27.—Thomas J. Mullane, of 251 West Fifty first street, a well known hay and feed vendor has a 5-year old son named Eddie who is a school boy. Eddie's father gave Eddie a nickel to buy candy, but he preferred to invest his capital in something noisy. He bought what his schoolmates call a "bomb" but what Miss Jasper, the principal, and Mrs. Knox Eddie's teacher, call a "cap" and promised to celebrate St. Patrick's day right royally at noon. Before noon there was an occasion for Miss Knox to call Eddie up to receive a smacking and almost immediately there was heard a loud explosion, followed by a cry from Eddie and a shriek from his teacher.

The other teachers rushed into the room and when the smoke cleared away the major portion of Ed. Eddie's knickerbockers was missing and his waist was found to be on fire and Miss Knox had burned and blackened end hand and the sleeve of her dress was badly singed.

Eddie had placed the bomb where most schoolboys carry their tops, in the "pistol pocket," and this bomb had exploded at the very moment that Teacher Knox began her smacking.

Height of Wave Dashes.
At the office of Major Handbury, United States Engineer, is to be seen a "demon" of brass, weighing 82 pounds, which was brought from Tallmadge Light by Mr. McClure lampist of this district.

He reports that a most fearful storm was lately experienced at the rock, and that the derrick was thrown up by the force of the waves and fell on the roof of the light-keeper's house, 110 feet above the sea level breaking a hole in the roof. The waves were so high that the water came down the chimney of the boiler house of the fog siren in torrents and poured out through the tubes of the boiler. The chimney is about 130 feet above sea level. The spray entered the cowl of the chimney over the lamp, which is 150 feet above sea level and ran in streams to the bottom.—Portland Oregonian.

The Scotch-Irish Congress.
The first Scotch-Irish Congress, held at Columbia, Tennessee, last May, resulted in the organization of the "Scotch-Irish Society of America," with Mr. Robert Bonner, of New York, as President. The Second Annual Congress of the race will be held at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 29-31 next.

The objects of the society are: First, historical; second, social. While the Scotch-Irish were the first to declare independence from Great Britain, and have since been first in all that has been most heroic and patriotic in our national life, no history of them has ever been written.

The first object of the society is to write this history, not only as an act of justice to the fathers, but for the purpose of educating the children in the great principles and achievements of the race. The data is being collected through the members, and the historical papers at the great Annual Congresses.

"The Scotch-Irish in America" has recently been issued by the society and will be published by the Secretary.

The second great object is the promotion of closer social relations among members living in all parts of the country, by correspondence and by personal association at its State and National gatherings, thereby binding us together in the strong bonds of friendship.

The organization is entirely non-partisan and non-sectarian. With a history and a membership intensely American, the society will prove a strong factor in upholding and perpetuating American institutions in their purity. It has already enrolled hundreds of the leading men of our country, and is still advancing with rapid strides.

All Scotch-Irish people are cordially invited to Pittsburgh, but as members will have special privileges it is hoped that all who attend will join the society before the Congresses. Correspondence is earnestly solicited. Communications in reference to the local arrangements should be addressed to Col. J. W. Edick, Secretary of the Local Committee, Pittsburgh, Pa. in reference to the society proper, direct to

A. C. FLOYD,
Secretary of National Society,
Columbia, Tenn.

In harmony with the foregoing, we, as representatives of our Local Committee, and in the name of the Scotch-Irish of Pittsburgh, the great work-shop of America, send greetings to our kith and kin all over the land and cordially invite your presence and promise you a royal welcome.

It will be well to look each other in the face and try to ensure the shadows of the great men of our blood who have preceded us, and in whose footsteps we are called to tread.

Let us have a grand rally of the clans, such as this Continent never before witnessed.

J. N. HAYS, Chairman,
I. M. W. EDICK, Secretary,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Spartan Housekeeping.
Fifty families in Decatur, Ill., have joined in the novel scheme of maintaining cooperative boarding houses, each lady in turn directing the affairs of the establishment. A housekeeper is paid $80 a month, and it is figured that a meal costs 11 cents, or about $2.50 per week.

Pennsylvania.
In our beautiful sisterhood of states fair Pennsylvania leads. In sturdy men and women true, and record of brave deeds.

Whenever foes have menaced the sacred rights of man,
Glad those foes her sons she marshalled,
And they always led the van.

From the hour when Penn the Quaker bowed the "Key-stone of the arch."
She has borne upon her banner that proud name, her honor springs from
And her progress has been onward as relentless, and as free,
As the rushing of her waters from the mountains to the sea.

On her soil the note was sounded, that this land no more should be ruled and ravaged by a tyrant—By a master o'er the sea,
And from out her border sallied on a stormy winter night
That immortal band of heroes who crushed that tyrant's might.

Her history has been written in letters all of fame
With deeds that glorify the right and put the wrong to shame.
She has fairly won in council sage, and on the battlefield,
Her title to the foremost rank—inscribe it on her shield.

Do you seek a source from which her fame, her honor springs?
You'll find it in the Scottish Kirk that breed a race of Kings!
The title to the crown they wore bears stamp of Heaven's decree.
And runs: Eternal hate of tyrants and love of liberty.

Who bither fled from fire and sword, and found a resting place,
From bigot's chain and despot's sway, and then "left unstained what here he found—
"Freedom to worship God."
Behold it in the unwavering faith "in the "inner light divine."
That led the followers of Fox to Freedom's holy shrine.

That faith born of love; of God inspired true love for men,
And stamped itself for aye upon the heritage of Penna.
"See Mrs. Heman's "Landing of the Pilgrims."

WHEELING, March 30.—About a week ago W. W. Hanworth, a Baltimore and Ohio track-walker at Pav. Paw, was robbed of $1,500, the accumulations of almost a lifetime of labor which he kept in a trunk in his cabin. A number of persons were suspected, but the money was never recovered. Now Mrs. Hanworth has confessed to taking the money and has turned over sixty dollars to she has left. It was her intention to sleep with a young railroad work-

The Bedford Gazette says: Some years ago John Williamson, of Bedford township, bought a young cow in Cumberland, Wallpat township. When she was two years old she gave birth to two calves. Mr. Williamson then sold her to John Henderson, who owned her for several years. She produced twins when she was three years old and again at the age of 4. When she was five she had three calves at a birth and a year later had twins for the fourth time. Charles Burkes of Bedford township, then became the owner of the animal, and last Friday night she presented him with triplets. This wonderful cow has had fourteen calves and will not be 8 years old until next summer.

From the Fulton Republican: Jacob Cook, Esq., of this place showed Colonel Deming, last week, a piece of ore, which he procured about a mile from Cumberland, that gentleman pronounced rich lead ore. He was also shown a specimen of the blossom from the farm of John R. Fox, of Tod township, and gave as his opinion that it was genuine coal.

A new poet expresses the feeling of the average man and woman thus: "There is a happy land Far, far away." Yet this world would content us all if we could only stay.

The New York Herald says: There are in New York 2,500 anarchists drilling regularly with muskets but it didn't say anything about the 10,000 men who are not anarchists and who have been drilling regularly for several years.

A housewife writes that a flat iron will not adhere to the shirt bosom and leave its imprint there if a teaspoonful of eucalypti has been added to the starch.

His horse being sick a Springfield (Bucks county) farmer pressed his wife and hired boy into doing tread-mill duty, and thrashed a lot of wheat.

A little fire at Lancaster was extinguished with a tub of oysters.

Silas Moyer is out of the race for the office of Superintendent of Common Schools. He has determined to move to Altoona.

Four Babies.
At Charlestown, Portage county, O., on Sunday morning, March 22, Mrs. Lowrie gave birth to quadruplets, two boys and two girls. Mrs. Lowrie has already her credit triplets and twins. The babies are all alive, well developed and apparently healthy. Mrs. Lowrie is a farmer's wife of Irish descent, aged about 40 years.
