One friends of the Democrat and Register have regular tariff caucuses.
They had one last week which showed itself in the following anti tariff paragraph which is so much like what that Journal used to get off about the Republican party and nigger during the war that we reproduce it as follows.

REPUBLICAN MISRULE and high tariff are doing up the farmer. The astounding report is made by an observer that within a five mile radius in Montgomery county alone there are forty abandoned farms. Is this

THE Burr, Hamilton Duel.

Fitz Greene Washington, a great-great-grand nephew of George Washington has recently described the Hamilton Burr duel as it was seen by his grandfather, Captain Fitz Hughes, in the following words:

From the Carlisle Sentinel: On last Saturday evening Rev. Bennie G.
Huber and Rev. Jacob A. Burkholder, ministers of the succeeding branch of the United Brethren Church, put in their appearance at the United Brethren Church of this place according to a previous appointment of the Rev. Huber to preach. But upon arrival they found the church door locked. The trustees they said had put a new lock on the door.

They then lit a few torches, when Rev. Huber took the most elevated position he could find on the decays of the church, where he sang, prayed and preached to the mixed crowd of people. As the news spread over the town that there was a sight to see, a good many gathered to witness the novelty of it.

A PENNSYLVANIA ROMANCE.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., April 15.—

J. W. Middleton, of Davis, Ohio,

To Color Canaries.

The following is from the proceedings on the Berlin Ethnological Society. Starting with the observing that canaries fed with cayenne pepper acquire a ruddy plumage Dr. Sauerman has based it on a scientific investigation of canaries, fowls, pigeons and other birds. From these he has obtained the following results:

From the New York Sun.
About the most foreign looking things in New York are the saloons worked by a few thousand French and German, and some others engaged in peculiar occupations. There probably has never been a time in the history of New York since the Dutch settlement when wooden shoes were not worn by a considerable percent-of the East Side tenements region.

The shoes are made in half a dozen different forms, some entirely of wood and scooped out to look like small canoes; others chiefly of wood but with a rough leather upper, and others again chiefly of leather, with a stout, mishappen sole of wood.
The leather is of the heaviest and coarsest kind, except that which is put into the shoes of stage dancers.

A Smuggler in a Tiger Trap.

The other day in East Java, says the North China News a band of contraband opium dealers passing through the jungle saw two tigers following them. They let not a moment in hastening their steps but the last of them found the beasts of prey at his heels, when he sped a tiger trap. He crept into it with the forbidden freight on his back. The trap shut the closer for the heavy weight, and when danger no longer threatened the dealer he attempted to lift up the door of the trap, but his efforts proved unavailing.

Wolves in Pennsylvania.

The law authorizes the payment of $8 in Pennsylvania, for the scalp of every wolf killed in the State, but not for a good many years has a wolf scalp been offered for the bounty until several weeks ago, when the county authorities of Potter county received one from a woodman named Casey. He said he had killed the wolf at Greys Clearing on the headwaters of Pine Creek, near the desert wilderness known as Dark Forest.

Wanted to Sell.

A granger entered a cheap Main street restaurant and called for a plate of baked potatoes. The dish was brought in due time and the farmer paid as much of the two big potatoes as he had brought to have them done. Turning to another customer who sat behind him, he said: "Don't you want to buy these 'uns?" The man whom he addressed, laughed outright, but the farmer not to be outdone, sat stolidly wrapped the potatoes into his pocket, paid his bill, and launched forth with the feeling of a man who is in the habit of getting his money's worth.

Job of the Farmer's Alliance.

The object of the Farmers' Alliance of the west, northwest and south that is causing no little uneasiness in the political circles of those regions are plainly put forth in the Chicago Tribune by a commissioned organizer of the alliance.
He says that the alliance aims to teach the farmer his rights and how to get them. It proposes to put a farmer in every office in the land from President down to post-master.

The Australian Rabbit Pest.

A good deal of interest is being centered in the colossal efforts made by the Victorian government for the suppression of the rabbit pest in that colony. In upward of 100 shires in the north and western districts of the colony simultaneous action is to be taken for the destruction of the rabbits in accordance with the Rabbit Destruction Act, recently adopted by the Legislature.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the per-scription used, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh of the Bronchia, and all other lung Maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address Rev. Edward A. Wilson, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

Fire in His Pants.

From the Newport Ledger of April 15: What might have caused the loss of our excellent stationer occurred in the waiting room on Tuesday night.
A freight train coming east knocked a man off the track some place between Newport and Millerstown.
The train was stopped and the injured man brought to the station here and laid on the floor of the waiting room. Dr. J. B. Ely was sent for, who was dressing a wound on the man's chin, when all of a sudden his pantaloons caught fire as if from spontaneous combustion.
Before the fire could be extinguished the man's pants were burned nearly off, and flesh from the waist down to his knees burned into a blister-the skin peeling off when his clothes were removed. Several persons who were standing by were also burned a few inches by the flames which sprang up from the floor to the ceiling. Dr. Ely was dressing a wound on the man's chin, when all of a sudden his pantaloons caught fire
as if from spontaneous combustion.
