

B. F. SOHWEIER.

POMEGRANATES

Pomegranates sweet and pomegranates sour

Which was the sweet and which was the sour

Nobody knew, when they were in flower

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XLIV.

Hang in the red October sun;

Till they ripened one by one.

and their life had just begun,

The blooms were hats of cardinal hus

And trumpets of yellow flame;

And as the fruits to perfection grew

Their redsconts were just the same.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY. PENNA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1890.

It was Harry.

Lincoln, the Lawyer.

NO. 41.

NEWS IN BRIEF. The cultivation of tobacco has been forbidden in Egypt, The report for swimming under water is 113 yards one foot. It is held by J. Finley, an Englishman.

The issues of Bibles by the American Bible Society during seventy-three years amount to 52,738,075 coples.

A 1 the railroad bridges in the United States together are 3,213 miles long Ti ere sre 208,749 of them.

The baton used in concerts by con ductors is said to have been introduced into Eugand by Spor, in 1820. The king of Siam has just married

It is said that the borse firs' came from twenty new wives-and yet people talk North Africa, was used in the service of man at lea 13,600 years ago.

> It costs the British government $3, 300,000 a year to support Queen Vic toria and her immediate family.

Quizzler-"What are you doing A Scotch physician has discovered Scribbler-"I am writing Senthat p'ayiny on the bagpipe wears away the players front te th in four years.

> Candia is the same a Crete. It is an sland in the M-diterranean, 150 mile long, and has a p putation of 200,000. The stock of gold has declined during the past year about $16,000,000, while the stock of silver has increased $35, 000,000,

A Chinaman named Lee-Hi has taken to farming near Tinare, Cal. On sixty acres of land he cleared $9,000 profit last year.

The new Jeannette factory near Pittsurg will cost $20 000, and will be the largest of any single glass furnace in the world.

The Henderson Steel Company, who have made such a success of their new steel making process, are about doubling their Alabama plant,

According to the Army Register for 830, the army of the United S ates con sists of 28,792 officers an times and 753 retired officers and men.

Heligoland cousis s of two islands in one North Sea. 25 miles from the month of the Elbe. Area, thre -quarters of a quare mile; population, 2,000; religion, Lutheran.

A wild sweet orange has been dis overed growing in the n ribe n part of Flerida, The fruit hangs on the tree all the year round, often for six months after it is fully ripe.

On an average there are thirty-five more boys than girls born in New York city every week. On the average fifty more males than females die. So the female population grows more rapidly than the male.

Somerelic hunter has cut out and carried away from the Union College building, in Schenettady, N. Y., a section of window sill in which ex-President Arthur cut his name years and when a student there.

The largest black diamon i over found as recently been brought to this country from the mines of Bahia, Brazil. This diamond is about two meties in length, weighs 367 1-2 carats, and is valued at $5,000.

slidin' down de snow mountain !" "Hump, hump, he humps er long, Po' ole darkey aint much strong." chimes in the deep voice of the random aninist.

shouts an enthusiastic admirer in spasm of glee. Then the darts of the sun cleft the rinds ! "Mek Elvira jine im!" yells the banjoist. "Pull 'er out, mek 'er show and their deep red hearts burst out to view

But till they were tasted, nobody knew Where the awest and the sour came. For nonsegranate sour is a bitter cheat, outlas' de longes' l" But a baselous thing is a pomegranate In an instant Elvira is drawn inte

In youth-time's bright and rosy bower A berry of maidens play, Their fresh young life is just in flower. But which is the sweet and which is the sour Pray, who will dare to say? But there will come a day

When life's sharp darts Will cleave their hearts.

Altower?"

And taste we must in adversity's hour. Which nature is sweet and which is the sour. -Zitella Cocke.

WHITE MARIE.

A GEORGIA PLANTATION STORT.

Murie is a white, but knowing only black Signific as her "mammy," Two couples, the and Efvira, and Jake (a black brute) and Marie have been commanded to marry. The some is the night before the double wed-glow of a sputtering pine knot in the chimney. She bends over the smokedved flams, her handkerchief-covered head sunk deep in her fat and shining #12124-

She looks over her shoulder into the darkness behind her. Her own bulky form is exaggerated into a shadow giantess on the wall, and round this sidometre, weird, snake-like sprites of shale, born of the ropes of smoke from the pine, pirouetta gleefully, Transa ad deied-up tears are in the wrinkles of the dusky woman's checks. Her work-hardened fingers quivers convulsively. "O my Lawd !" she prays, in deep anguish, "show po' Suzette de right way. Now w'at kin she do in dis yer trial en tribulation? Dis is de fus time, y u kn w. I actu'ly give in. Deh aint er spark er light in de wilderness, en heard what Marse Johnson said about mus' fill my hamp orgin." me and Jake?" te ceases to pray, but does aint gwine ter hol' me. Oh, I'm et much favored as she had been. And ) Harry might be at Miss Laura's side took Marie in his arms. when he heard of it. His manly face

"He gettin' in er weavin' way. Ike do yo' bes'-cut her clean throo! Show um whar you been raised!'

up. Dey aint fitten' ter marry less'n dey kin dance tergerr. See wich kin those he once twined among her raven ] tresses.

the ring. Ike emits a defiant guffaw to greet his antagonist. "You'll find me 'ight ver on di veals the rugged river bottom. Mud-gerheads; we can distress a widplank at sun-up, Elvira," he says; one 'at aint long-winded " "Shuh!" This exclamation of she vigorously bends herself to the to the stream's clutches. She would

"She ain't gwine talk," laughs

Suzette's cabin is lighted by the red trendle on her knee, and her frame Suzette, who is lifting a live coal of ir's fill wid swamps en dark ez pitch that she can hardly speak, "have you en no way out. Oh, my Lawd! you should undergo a change. He, too, would recall some scenes which were before her mind's eye, and which brace. pained her even more than the prospect of death. He would want to be back at the plantation on the day they laid her in the grave among the other jes' 'low dat dreffle sin ter be consumdaves. If he could be at Oaklawn he mate," sighed Suzette as she stepped would lay flowers on her coffin and into her cabin and left them alone in look sadly on her face. With the the moonlight .-- Will. N. Harben. flowers might be some red roses like

Shs moved down to the eddying ase for you," said Abraham Lincoln water's edge and laved her hand in it. to a man anxieus to retain him; "we A dazzling flash from the clouds re- can -at a whole neighborhood at log-you better not try me; tek er gal, en ders lie in repose there. Absently she less children and thereby get for preme and defiant disgust is all that sink, save her long, unbound hair, which rightfully belongs, it appears to Elvira can spare the breath to say, as toutest.

ing things; they would crawl over her woman above the roar of voices and face with their tiny feet and crunching. hungry mouths, and rest in the orbit uusic. "She's er savin' 'er win'; 1 of her eyes as they might in the cresico boun' you see Ike laid out lak er tree of a stone.

fell on 'im. I done see too many She shuddered, but she knew she women shuffle. Ike's er fool; she kin should not know it. She herself advise you to try your hand at making do it en not half try. See 'er hol' 'er would not be there, for she would be dress lak she is drivin' er brood er at rest-rest, sweet rest. But she chickens; she ain't even wuk 'er would not want them to have trouble han's." in finding her on the morrow. She The dance continued till Ike began, had read how people were traced to indeed, to show signs of flagging. their watery graves by some part of Under the applau-e and enthusiastic their attire being left on the shore. praise of the audience, Elvira kept She must leave something. The ribup brightly, and Ike slunk with hang-bon in her hair will suffice. She unties ing head and quivering knees from the it from her warm mass of hair and ring. For some moments Elvira remakes a bow of it on the bush. She fused to quit the circle, but at last she remembers now that she essayed to allowed two other aspirants for eclat teach Harry to tie a bow once; as this to take her place, and she swaggered thought warms her mind, she lingers proudly from the ring.

Marie turns gloomily away from the in and out to make its parts smooth. loor, and closes her cars to the sound Then she unlaces her shoes and tosses a contract. of this merriment. them on the shore behind her. "Mammy," she says, standing behind Her features are now passive.

wonders it the plunge into blackness fire from the hearth to her pipe. The will give her pain. Something touches woman has accompliabed the trick inher on the shoulder. numerable times before with infallible

It is Suzette, with gleaming eyes and dexterity, but now her trembling fingheaving bosom. ers fail in adroitness, and the angry "No, no, honey," she pants, after coal inflicts a bu n on her hard palm. "Mammy," Marie goes on, panting so her hard running. "No, 'at aint right You tek yo' lill shoes, my precious baby, my onlies' lill girl. Yer le'me put um on fur you. No, my chile aint cause he advocated. In trying a case, gwine to forgit w'at de Good Book where most lawyers would object he on the meritorious citizens among the

A form stepped out of the dusk an-HOUSES OF THE ROMANS. Augustus Found a Capital of Brick and Left one of Marble. The poor girl shrieked with joy and then lay limp in his passionate em In the early ages of Rome, the hoases vere merely thatched cottages. After Her overwrought nerves had given the city was burned by the Gauls, they way. "I done think de good lawd wouldn'i were built in a more spacious and convenient style, and of more substantial naterials; but so great was the haste to have them erected, that no attention was paid to the regularity of the streets. Every one set down his habitation ac cording to his own taste or fancy.

The success of the Roman arms Greece served to introduce an immense "Yes, we can doubtless gain your improvement in the Roman architect ure, and toward the Angustan e a Rome might well boast of the magnifireign of Augustus, the improvements clogged logs and monster slimy boul- owed mother and her six fatherseem to have been conducted on a very extensive scale, and to have justified tosses a stone into the whispering, for you six hundred dollars to which the Emperor in exclaiming, that he had found Rome of brick and had left it of bubble-strewn liquid-thus would she you seem to have a legal claim, but marble. Still, however, the streets continued narrow and crooked, and which would throw out its many arms me, to the woman and her children. the houses were for the most part of wood, generally of three stories, and "You must remember," continued lis there among those finny and creep- Mr. Lincoln, "that some things legally very inconvenient. A dreadful conflagation in the reign of Nero reduced the right are not morally right. We shall greater part of Rome to ashes, but it not take your case, but will give you a was soon after rebuilt with increased little advice for which we will charge aplendor. The streets were made of you nothing. You seem to be a greater width, and laid out with more sprightly, energetic man; we would egularity, and the height of the houses was restricted to a certain standard. six hundred dollars in some other Every house was ordered to be isolated.

and to be built of stone, so as to be less Mr. Herndon, for twenty years Mr. subject to destruction by fire. This Lincoln's law partner, and now his also contributed to the health and magbiographer, says that he once wrote to nificence of Rome, though there were one of their clients, "I do not think many at the time who centured the improvements, and pretended that the there is the least use of doing anything narrow streets and lofty houses promore with your lawsuit. I not only duced an agreeable shade in the heat of do not think you are sure to gain it, summer, and rendered the city both but I do think you are sure to lose it. pleasant and salubrious.

Therefore the sooner it ends the bet-The vestibule of the golden palace of Nero was so extensive that it had three "I see that you've seen suing some porticoes, each a mile in length, and of my clients, and I've come down to inclosing a large basin of water, surtalk with you about it," he said one day rounded by so many buildings that and draws the bow's flying streamers day to a lawyer, who had brought suit they presented the appearance of a to enforce the specific performance of town.

The door was made in general of different kinds of wood, auch as cedar, Upon seeing the evidence to be preented, Mr. Lincoln said, "Your client | cypress, elm and oak, but sometimes of is justly entitled to a decree, and J iron or brass. The doors of the temples shall so represent it to the court; for i. were often inlaid with for y had above They were, in general, elevated above would have contested the case until the in all probability, also, in the houses of value of the farm was consumed by the Rome, though the doors of the houses of Pompeii are found on a level with Mr. Lincoln was a great lawyer the footpaths. The door opened inward, when convinced of the justice of the like those used by us; but among the Greeks, and in order to confer honor

ELECTRIC WONDERS. SOME REMARKABLE THINGS BE ING ACCOMPLISHED. What the Powerful Agent is Doing for Science.

Very remarkable results have attended the treatment of cancer cases n't have to.' by electricity in England. The patient A young man whose girl went back is anæsthetized; the current is then on him says that he sufferes from heart failure. passed through the tumor and all the tissues for some inches around it by means of fine insulated needles, so as about Siam ease. not to injure the skin. The effects Patti has one thing in common with sence of her buildings. During the produced by the action of electricity consist in a cessation of growth, gradual disappearance of pain, some shrink- now?" ing and hardening of the tumor, and enlarged glands, followed by improved The growth as a whole does not disappear, but remains as an inert mass. composed, in all probability, of fibrous tissue alone. Dr. Harsons of the Chelsea Hospital, who has effected many cures by the adoption of this treatment, says that a repetition of the application is seldom necessary, and that in nearly every case one operation will cause strophy of the growth. The majority of his cases have been those in which the knife had failed, or in før for the knife. The big guns turned out by the English arsenals are now fitted with a device to facilitate firing at night. The ordinary sights are illuminated by a small ircandescent lamp, the rays from which, passing through a lens, are con- bills. verged, so that only a minute point or line of sight, just sufficient to distin- the ball)-"Do you know I have decided never to get married?" guish the sight, is obtained. By means of an adjustable resistance the light servatory." can be modulated to suit the degree of

"You hardly look on your marriage as a serious thing." Mrs. Jack Diamond -"Why, how could it be serious on darkness of the night or the eye of the bserver. $1,500 a year?" The opening of the first submarine elephone cable has just taken place. The cable runs between Montevideo pocket isn't,"was Mr. B.'s reply. miles long, the total length with the is against my principles to contest a the street by a flight of steps; at least, overhead line being 180 miles. On this clear matter of right." Some lawyers the street by a hight of steps; at least, overhead line being 180 miles. On this another companion for better or for this was the case in the temples, and, line there are five intermediate stations, worse, eh?" Mrs. Secondtrip - "Only" all of which can telephone and telebe worse than the other one was. graph simultaneously with all the Fame may be ornamontal, but it the train stops.

An electric brake, designed by Prof. hustle seventeen hours out of the twenty-four for his daily bread, with pig Forbes, has been tested with great never any nearer than the horizon. success on an entire train of carriages Some fashionable young mea wea cott (of Boston)-"Mamma, when you nutrition and a better state of health. get to heaven won't you be an Ender cott again?" "She's as sweet as sucar " "Adult, "No. Why?" rated sugar?" TriOit. supposed it must be, she has a sandy omplexion. "Golly!" gasped little Johnny as he self over a large aria.

ator Boodle's autobiography."

grip.

Epoch.

finished the second crock of stolen preserves. "I feel as if I had been moking pa's pipe.' "You say that both duellists fell "Yes." "Great heavens dead " What were the weapons used?" "The American toy pistol. He got the quarter .- "If I give you a cent, Bobbie, what would you do with it?" "I'd buy a postal card and "I'd buy a postal card and which the disease had progressed too write to you for a quarter."

When you see a man who kisses his children in public, you may be pretty sure that he keeps the scats of their pantaloons well dusted at home. It is said that the grippe microba lings tenaciously to paper money.

TALK OF THE DAY.

When a woman wants the earth, ft

s with a view of giving it to some

These days one does not need to join secret society in order to get the

A man who itches for fame must scratch around lively to secure it --

Miss Chestnut-"Did you sit under the mistletoe?" Miss Walnut-"I din-

the Chicago girl-she can spread her-

Family Pride.-Little Elsie Ender

People should, therefore, handle it with the greatest caution, particularly $1,000 She Knew It Was Coming. -- He (at Sha (hastily) -"Let us go into the con-Just Playing .- Mr Jack Diamondin't much use to the man who has to Ignorance Gained by Experience.-"What does a man know about a woman's dress, anyway?" scornfully askand Buenos Avres, and is thirty-two ed Mrs. B. "He knows where the Mrs. Winks-"So you have taken for better, my dear. He can't possibl other stations.

ap when a slow, light step nears the door on the dew-covered grass. Marie stands on the threshold, a picture of youth in the clutches of dark despair, drawn on the vast space-canves which is stretched from earth to the stars.

Since Marie can remember, Suzette has not failed to meet her with a smile smile is not forthcoming tonight. As the girl languidly places her hat on the bet, she eves the dejectad old form in a way that shows that she fully comprehends the woman's feelings. Sie sighs and turns to the door. She peers out into the faran andling blackness as one in a dream wessirange, threatening aspects and feels numble to flee from them. Sometimes, when the rapidly scur ring clouds are thinnest in front of the moon; the majestic convexity of the bearest mountain shows, clear cut, against the sky.

Sounds of unafloyed merriment from Elvira's domicile subordinate the singing of the breeze-touched trees near by. They are the harmonious thump of a banic and the resonant, drum-like beating of bare feet on a puncheon floor. Now and then snatches of happy, plantation songs are sung amid bursts of hearty laughter.

This merrymaking is intended to do tomor to the dawning wedding-day of Ike and Elvica. Neither had sought marriage, perhaps for the reason that they had not been taught to think and decide for themselves in matters where their own welfare was concerned; but now that their hanns had been cried by their master's relentless agent, they could raise no word of objection. In deed, after the first faintly queer sensation was over, they began to feel quite happy in being the cause of the revallers' turbulent fun-making.

The "banis player" and "my crowd" as he terms the stentorian-lunged hungers who join in the chorus to the thymeless stanzas he invents, are seatal, some in the door of the cabin, others on the floor, with willowy bending bodies and clapping hands. Cries

"Dance, Ike; shuffle yo'se'f!"

"Shake dat long foot, you fool darky 1" shrilly pipes a pickaninny who is wrighting and gyrating in a corner and kicking and slapping the wall with his feet and hands as if bewitched with the music.

"Mek um bofe kick de high weddin Hing 1" sings out another. Then from the month of the leader:

"De holler er his foot mek er hole in de taroun%; Hole in de groun', hole in de groun', Who's leen yer sence I been gone? Er hang, slimslarky wid er white shut on."

Willing lke rises from the floor with a month-stretching grin, and plants himself in the centre of the ring of faces, and begins his performance by simply swaving his body to and fro and now and then slapping his brogan sole against the door.

"Git out, I'm wid you! Dis floo'

The momentary sufferer of hodily say. pain applies the smarting spot to her tongue, and then rubs it on her gown over her round knee with a greater show of pain than the incident calls for, and obviously to excuse hersel from making a reply to the girl's earnest query. "Maminy," continues Marie, her words almost inaudible, and touching he, bowed companion with a ges up of despair, "I can't bear it. O God want to die!" "Honey,"-but no effort of Suzette's can induce the words to come forth which tremble in her brain. She low ars her turbaned head almost into her wav.

Marie turns from her to the door with a deep sigh and a face void of blood

"Whar you 'gwine?" asks Suzette quickly. "Let me alone a little while, mammy I'll be back soon. I feel I'm burning ergin en got new strength; but, Good up, soul and body. Let me go out in the night air." She goes out into the fields. The douds are swirling dark overhead. and dazzling electric hieroglyphics Lawd, I gwine hush up now, but I'm split their density. On, on she strides. the turbulence of her mad thoughts wrong, but you know bes', en me en giving springs to her feet. A fine hurden if she will allow it.

He'p us ter keep we-all's feet in de mist is blown into her fevered face. A low, threatening rumbling comes narrow road. I done feel submissive. from the clouds, and the mighty trees Lawd, but show de po' lill chile, too on the mountain are tortured to grean- lak you done show me. Amen.' ing in an upper current of air. The The humble supplicator dropped he music in Elvira's cabin dies away into trembling lips upon the white neck, in a faint hum. At last she finds herself her lap, and both were still for a moon the river bank, and experiences a ment. Then Suzette whispered faint sensation of surprise to see that earnestly:

"Pray-pray ter 'Im honey." she has walked so far. In fact, she Suzette could feel the girl's dumi an't remember when she crossed the ons moving in her apron. Then sibranch, about half-way between the river and her cabin. She does not lence fell upon the pair, save th wonder over it long, however. The murmuring of the lapping water and water lashing the sandy beach is deep the voice of the wind in the trees on and dark, and seems to have a voice of the mountain.

"Mammy"-the girl's beautiful face its own, a solacing kind of murmur which seems to promise to relieve her rose from Suzette's lap damp with of her great, weighty, heart-breaking tears.

"What, honey?"

"Mammy," presently.

"Ez Gawd is my helper."

"Will you always stay by me?"

"Yes, my chile."

I know I was wrong. and you are The stream may be the great, lim right. God shows me now." The pid, restful arm of God extended to embrace her. They should find her wide sleeves fell from the white soft arms that stole round the woman's floating somewhere, on the morrow, and should know then that they had yellow neck, and the young face was pressed close against the old. "It made a mistake in trying to dispose of her as they had. Perhaps the sun seemed like I just could not stand it."

would be shining then over the place the young voice continued. "Let's go she loved so well, for the hurrying home now. God put me by birth in clouds, with their vivid gleams of Jake's race, but I proudly rebelled. ightning, seemed only to boast of and had my vain soul placed on their power to storm. The good, kind higher worldly life, and so locked my old colonel, who had not, she was sure, Creator out of my being. I will do as given the order for her sacrifice, they say." would be back at Oaklawn ere her She shuddered as they walked arn n arm homeward.

burial, and would look on her pale face with sadness. She knew he would, and that the water of sorrow would rise into his kind eyes, for he had a good heart and loved her in his way, and had spoken kindly to her many times. Mrs. Bickerstaff, away down in not quit my side."

Charleston, should read the news and cry, for the kind-hearted lady had wept ever the death of slaves not so All was quiet on the plantation.

You mus' put yo' trus' in Him would say he "reckoned" it would be en never shrink back. He mus' try His sheep, but it all in his name. I know what you is got in yo' mind; had heard his objection answered, he who were passing by to get out of th but, honey, dat aint de bes' way. You would say, "Well, I reckon I must be mus' bear up. De Lawd got His eye wrong."

costs of litigation.

WAV.

on you, 'hind 'at black cloud up deh, But when the case ended, says one same ez de moon kivered over. Now of Mr. Lincoln's colleagues at the bar, honey, lay yo' haid in my lap des lak the adversary would see that what Mr on usster," she went on persuasively, Lincoln had been so blandly giving pulling the stunned girl down upon the away was simply what he could not sand. "I done been prayin', en now Gawd sen me light. 'At's right, cryin' by adhering to the seventh, on which gwine do you good. Now lay still; 1 the whole case rested, he retained nus' talk ter de Lawd ergin, kase I kin see you is gittin' in de reconcile

Good Rules for Winter. "Lawd, my Gre't Master," then The following rules are worth heedprayed Suzette, with uplifted eyes and ing by those who believe that an ounce her hand on Marie's tresses, as the girl prevention is worth a pound of sobbed in her lap. "Lawd, you know cure: all 'bout me en dis yer lill chile. I Never lean with the back upon anydone been comin' ter you time en thing that is cold.

Never begin a journey until the Lawd, dis yer is de wuss yit-wuss'n break fast has been eaten. all put togerr. She need some he'p Never take warm drinks and then fum high up, for she is sore 'plexed mmediately go out into the cold. wid de cup at won't pass 'er now

Keep the back, especially between he shoulder-blades, well covered; also still waltin'. Dis do seem lak it the chest well protected. In sleeping in a cold room establish the habit of her is willin' ter bide by yo' will. breathing through the nose, and never with the mouth open. .

Never go to bed with cold or damp feet.

Never omit regular bathing, for unless the skin is in active condition the with substantial entertainment before cold will close the pores, and favor congestion and other diseases.

After exercise of any kind, neve ride in an open carriage or near the window of a car for a moment: it is dangerous to health and even to life. When hoarse, speak as little as possible until the hoarseness is recovered from, else the voice may be permanently lost, or difficulties of the throe be produced.

Merely warm the back by a fire and never continue keeping the back exposed to heat after it has become uncomfortably warm. To so expose the back is debilitating.

When going from a warm atmos phere into a cooler one keep the mouth closed, so that the air may be warmed by its passage through the nose ere it reaches the lungs.

Never stand still in cold weather, especially after having taken a slight degree of exercise; and always avoid standing on ice or snow, or where the person is exposed to a cold wind.

The reason why fire crackers are ways covered with red paper is that red is the festive color in China, and that firecrackers are use chiefly on festive occasions.

The oldest man in Great Britian is Hugh MacLeod, a Scotch crofter, who was born on the 24th of November, 1783 He lives in country Ross, and is still "But, mammy, you just keep or healthy and vigorous.

praving. I will need it. God mnst The boundary line between the United States and Canada is distinctly marked The clouds were thinning; waves of from Lake Michigan to the Pacific by cairns, pillars of iron, earth mounds and moonlight fell over the rolling lands. timber clearings.

Romans it was made to open Hence arose the custom, when a person fair to admit the truth to be so-and-so. intended going out of a house, of When he did object to the court, and knocking on the door, to warn those way-a circumstance which serves to explain some passages of the dramatic authors of that period.

When the door was shut it was secur ed by bolts and locks: sometimes two bolts were used, one above and the other below. The lock seems to have been movable, like our padlock. Knockers keep. He might yield six points, but or bells appear to have been generally used.

The gate served as an entrance to the everything that would help win the hall, three sides of which were supported on pillars. The side opposite to the > entrance was fitted up as a library, where the family archives were kept. The hall was the principal bed-chamber, and the spot where domestic manufac tures were carried on. In ancient times it served as the kitcken and place where the family supped. It was also the room where the noble famillies kent statues of their ancesters and received company. It was ornamented with paintings, statues and valuable furniture, and was divided by curtains. Regimental Women.

No baggage train is allowed to a Persian regiment-theirs, in appearance, is quite unlike any other onward military movement-neither are commistents have they. These Eastern regimate travel quite comfortably their thirty miles a day. They are provided the early morning start, and before set of sun will reach their next appointment, where all will be accomodated for the night.

The colonel's lady makes the trip in style; a light horse litter, over which is thrown a scarlet cloth is at her service, and she reclines, unseen by any gaping crowd, content with her own thoughts and happy dreams. Following "the lady of the regiment" are women whose husbands are of lesser note, closely veiled, one upon either side of a plodding mule, while a donkey trots stolidly on, bearing all essentiat equipments and comforts for the day. Once well on the way, these army parties fall apart in groups, as official position and comradeship warrant; the officers with stately dignity keeping by thems : ves, having within call an attendant to repelntish their pipes.

Useful Birds.

There is a well authenticated a count of an English barber who trained a starling to say, "Gentleman wants to be shaved," and hung the bird out in his outer room to warn him of the comng of customers.

The same bird, the story roes on. soon learned to call out, "Gentlemen, pay your money!" when the barber's work was done, and never got the two speeches mixed.

A millioer of Paris has, according to a French journal put a parrot to a much better use even than this English har- often more injurious than an unprober made of his starling. She has tected exposure to the elements would positor mistaking the exclamation trained the hird to call out whenever a "Gh isn't she pretty!" It is asserted that the milliner's busi-

two pius in the necktie. on a line in Russia. The chief gain is hoped the pretty girls will not adopt in point of rapidity of action. A train belt. One often causes trouble enough. of average length will feel the brake The funniect thing in the career of power throughout its length almost in- the carousing cat is when he sits on a take two more hot summers to mell back fence placidly watching a wostantaneously as against three or four man trying to come within several seconds required by the vacuum brake. miles of him with a job lot of bric-a-

An electric indicator of the names brac. A Temporary Gap in Society -- First of railway stations is coming into use Newsboy-"Are yer goin' to de ball dis eve?" Second Newsboy-"Naw. in England. A magnetic apparatus turning a roller on which are printed Me tailor forgot ter put a handkerchief the names of stations in good visible pocket in me dresscoat and I had tor send it back." letters is fitted over the window of Incongruous Hopes.-Mr. Bascom every carriage with an electric bell to "Do you know what Silas Slick excall the attention of passengers to the pects to be after he graduates from ollega?" Mrs Backlot-"Wal, Un change. The instruments are connectheern that he has sanguinary hopes of ed in series. and are under the control bein' a missionary of the guard, who changes the names A boy with a future. "Tommy"

by a simple touch of a button before said a Chicago youngster's mother. "there is a great big blot on your copybook. "No, mamma, you're

A novel application of electricity is taken. That's only a period. Our triturator for grinding drugs, which teacher is awfully near-sighted." She (Boston) - "Have you ever a is ingeniously fitted up to work by electric motor, to save labor in chem- immiscibility of the pneumatological tempted dephlogisticate the contratic ists' shops, or for drug grinders. The andydrousness involved in the mortar or mortars to the number re- myrioramic protoplasm?" Ho-"Well, not exactly. But I've eaten scrapple. quired are made to revolve by the elec-Needed Regulation .-- Mr. Soaker-"1 tric motor, and a very heavy porcelain see that the postmaster-general hopes pettle hangs inside, the necessary to regulate the mails." Mrs. S. (who was awake when he came home at 3 grinding being assured by the revolv--"Well, he may well expend a. m.). ing of the heavy pestle by friction some of his efforts about this locality against the side of the mortar. Rescuer (to beautiful rescued) - "I see you are fair and bewitching, but A vigorous crusade has been begun sary stores taken along with them. No in England to put a stop to the system Rescued - "But, George, it is I, your of foisting sham electrical appliances own wife." George - "Pshaw! upon an ignorant public. A vendor of never did have a real romance in my electropathic belts," which were said

Question of Woman's Sphere. - Doto cure sciatica and innumerable other mestic man-"I pity Patti. She ailments, has been brought into court would be much happier at home with little children about her." and nunished for obtaining money unfriend-"But think of her singing a der false pretences. baby to sleep with a $3,000 a night An improved search light consists of voice.

Physician (to Mrs. Col. Blood, of a powerful are light, usually of about Kentucky) - How did your husband 5,000-candle power contained in a metal cylinder about thirty inches Blood-"He seemed quite comfortable, high by twenty-four to thirty inches in diameter, one end of which is closed times." Physician (with a grave look) -"H'm-still flighty."

by a silvered conclave reflecting lens. Mrs. Smitem-"Bobby, yop had bo The apparatus is on a pivot, so that it have you been fighting with Tomm may be revolved around the centre and Slimson again? Dear, dear! Hinds, I. elevated and depressed at will. As or- have to get you a new sure ought to skill. dinarily used the beam of light pro- see Tommy Slimson. His ma may ected from the cyclinder is so con- have to get her a new boy."

centrated that at a distance of 1,000 yards from the ship it illuminates a - Belle? O, she has two ages. One path only about fifteen yards in width. In the Bible; that's 24; the other is the When necessary this path can be one she tells people-20." Belle (sudwidened. A search light of 20,000 sis) ---- Johnnie, mother wants to speak candles is supposed to reveal objects at to you."

a distance of two and a half miles.

Rubbers.

Minale-"Mr. Binx actually pr Much of the discomfort of rubber posed to me last night. I never way hoes would be avoided if the wearers so carprised in all my life." of them were a little more discriminat-"You needn't have been. His sole ng. Rubbers are of inestimable value ambition is to be thought eccentric." in wet weather, but they should be in- Terre Haute Express.

Bisterly Sweetness,

ding is under one in a thousand.

become dry. Being water-proof, they With the present rate of increase as a prevent the escape of the natural exhalations of the skin. Wet feet rethis country will have a population of 004 991 686 salting from confined perspiration are Napoleon III. got his title, the third, for the second never reigned, by a com-points-"! I !" for the Roman numera's be. Rubbers, like umbrellas, should TIT. be used only transiently .- Shoe and The proportion of married couple Leather Reporter. who live to celebrate their colden wed-

Smoty Monutates of Linho that are the fashion of wearing two pins in the lifty feet deep. These drifts are remnants of the heavy snowfall of last winter, and it is co jectured that it will The heart that lies in Napoleon Bon aparte's body under the dome of Les Inval des, in Paris, is an it to be that of young lamb, the Emperor's heart aving been eaten by ra safter the post mortem examina ion of his remains made in 1821.

Mme, de Mendonca, wife of the Bra zilian member of the Pan-American delegation, talks politics, as well as weather, in the best of English. She is "in perfect ronounced by strangers pe of Spanish beauty." anty and her English are indigenous Lowever as she was born in Maine of generations of Yankee ancestors.

Layender is a native of the nouth of Surope bordsring on the Mediterranean t is cultivated quite extensively in Engand for distilling the oil, but we do not cnow of any lavender farm in this country, although the plants are common in gardens,

A tramp whose intellectual caliber was far above his profession was recently found at Bangor, Me. Hisoniy bagginge asasmali inde ole collection of be including "The Confessions of Jean facau s Rousseau, "the works of Balz, c. Domas, a copy of S adospeare, and Houser's Lind.

The Hindoos new reat m at, a d the aght of blood drives them chazy. All a Mol-amuedan has to do in order to start war is to dip him ha d in any kind of blood and tap it on one of the Hindoo temp es. It is avoudo charm that stirs up the effect in ternature of U e H indon and gives them the courage of families. The ex-Empress Eugenie has ordered the ranks of royal authors. One of her effor s has, it is said, met with a cold reception. It was entitled "The Reorn of the Wanderer," and was a welsome to Prince Battenberg to Balmora after his last escape from his family and subsequent little jauni on the Co tipent.

Tamagno, the great tenor, was a haggage porter before his remarkable powers of voice were revealed. He to s not favor his former craft, how ever, when he is on his travels. If a por er demands what he regards as too much for carrying his trunk he calmly should ers it himself with all his old-time

Recent discoveries among ancient tombs in Etruric, Italy, unmist kably show that dentistry was practiced as for back assix centuries before the Christian era. Several of the skipls examined had ise teeth, carved f on those of some large animal; while many o, the natural teeth had g 1d filling.

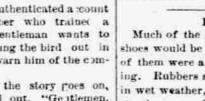

Mr. Pyne, the noted Home-Ruler,always deci nes to say what discontented t nants, who come to him complaining of their landlords, should do, becaus, as he exp ains, "Mr. Ba four says that it would be lifegal, but I can bell you the time of day," Then he puis out his watch and shows it to the teaant. On the dial face is the bold legend: "; ay no rentl"?

Prince Herbert Bismarck cherishes corefully the wreck of a watch which be carried during the Franco-Prussian war and which stopped a bullet that basis, it is estimated that a century hence otherwise might have ended ais life,

The tone of some visiblatorie stants ave been unearthed near Anniston. Ala, O.e of the thigh bones was sixty two inches long and the skulls averaged thirty-four inches in circumference.

The great exhibition beld in Lordon ngland, in 1551, was attended by 6, 039 195 persons and left a profit of $1,-066,525. It remained open from the lst of May to the 11 th of October, ness was very soon doubled, stantly removed when the pavements customer enters her shop: