DELAMATER AT PORT

Senator Delamater visited Port Royal fair on Friday. It was the last day of the fair. Thousands of people had arranged to attend, but the day dawned threateningly, and soon after daylight rain began to full. The inclement weather kept people at home. The multitude could scarcely bave been driven out of their homes, and yet with all the unfavorable surroundings, there was a crowd present to greet Senator Delamster, Republican candidate for Governor. The Senator visited the fair grounds and in the main build ing delivered a speech, that pleased all who were within hearing distance. He spoke upon farming and express ed belief in agricultural fairs, and and said they are great educators of the people.

He spoke of ballot box reform and expressed himself in favor of the Australian system of voting.

He spoke of politics and said men should have political opinions, choose their party and vote their honest convictions. He made a most favorable or address A. V. H. CARPENTER, Gen- impression.
