A subject for the Pa-tors' Union to ackle (maybe they have) is the Sunlay "church notices" read from the ulpits. One of our popular clergy ead on Sunday morning a certain noice of a coming entertainment of a rastronomic sort at the church vestry, and then added: "It always mak s me hudder to read such a notice as that from a pulpit, but I suppose it is a necessary evil, and-we hope you will all come." There are some things that certainly seem too material for a church oulpit, and pork and beans and fel howder, or New England dinners, are not without power to disturb my
