SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17, 1890.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

MEN acquainted with the science of antiquities, say the ancient Egyptians were acquainted with the use of the Diamond drill. In a number of places which they mention, they have found drill holes in the granite temple at Gizeh, there is found in one of the lintels of a door a drill hole with the core sticking in it.

The Alliance Platform.

The following is the platform adopted by the Farmers' Alliance convention in Florida last week:

(1) We demand the abolition of national banks. We demand that the Government shall establish subtreasuries or depositories in the several States which shall loan money direct to the people at a low rate of interest, not to exceed two per cent. per annum, on non-perishable farm products, and also upon real estate with proper limitations upon the quantity of land and amount of money. We demand that the amount of the circulating medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per captia.

(2) We demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures on all agricultural and mechanical products; preserving a stringent system of procedure in trials such as shall secure the prompt conviction and the imposition of such penalties as shal secure the most perfect compliance with the law.

(3) We condemn the Silver bill recently passed by Congress, and demand in lieu thereof the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

(4) We demand the passage of laws prohibiting alien ownership of land, and that Congress take prompt action to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by aliens and foreign syndicates, and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them be reclimed the Government and held for actual settlers only.

(5) Believeing in the doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none we demand that our national legislation shall be so framin the future as not to build up one industry at the expense of another; and we furtuer demand a removal of the existing heavy tarriff tax from the necessaries of life that the poor of our land must have. We forther demand a just and equitable system of graduated tax on incomes. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all national and State revenues shall be limited to the to the necessary expenses of the Government economicali aed honestly administered.

(6) We demand the most rigid, honest and just State and national governmental control and supervision of the means of public communication and transportation, and if this control and supervision does not remove the abuses now existing, we demand Government ownership of such means of communication and transportation.

Sad Cases of Drunkenness.

The Philadelphia Record of the 10th inst., reports the two following cases of drunkenness, which if read aright may prove a warning to people who are drifting into the habit of intemperate drink. A shocking case of destitution and cruelty to children was unearthed on Monday, by special Officer McKibben, of the Eighteenth district, Edward Jennings, of No 2510 Waterloo street, an habitual drunkard, has for some time neglected to supply his wife and five small children with even the bare necessities of life, and on Monday he drove them all out into the street. The wife and little ones were very poorly clad, and a neighbor compassionately gave them temporary shelter, at once reporting the matter to the police. When Officer McKibben went to Jenning's house he found him asleep in a room devoid of furniture with an empty whisky bottle lying by his side. Jennings had even sold the stove for drink. At the hearing yesterday, Magistrate Gilespie sentenced Jennings to twelve months in the House of Correction, and handed the children over to the care of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. * * * Leona Freeze, the wife of a farmer near Rahway, N. J., was found in Forbes' woods yesterday, stupid with drink and nearly frozen, with the body of her little five year old daughter at her side. For 3 days and nights the drunken woman had wandered about through the snow and sleet. The child was froz en to death on Friday night, and from that time until found yesterday, the woman had dragged the body about with her, not knowing in her maudlin condition that the innocent child had perished.

Mrs. Freezes husband on account of her fondness for drink, had been careful to curtail her supply of money, but he brought her to town last Friday, and left her with funds to buy the child a pair of shoes, as he was compelled to drive to Elizabeth on business. She bought the liquor and wandered off with the child, and the husband on his return searched long and diligently for her, but in vain. Yesterday he called on the police for assistance, and late in the afternoon Constable Congers found the two half burried in the snow.

The woman still moans and shivers, although under a pile of blankets. She stares wildly about and begs for a little snow. Her husband who is prostrated by the affair sits in a corner of the room with his head in his hands, while the child lies home in a coffin, ready for burial.

Snake Swallowed the Baby.

From the Cincinnati Inquire.

George Wharton, of Brown county, tells a blood-curdling snake story. Mrs. William Huxlly, living in a log cabin, was making soap in the back yard, having kissing her six-months babe to sleep in the cradle. Presently the baby screamed, and she rushed in and was horror-stricken to find a hideous blacksnake of enormous size trying to swallow the child. It had engulfed the hand and had swollowed it up to the arm pit and was writhing in its contortions and efforts to make further progress, Grasping the hideous reptile in the middle, it seemed to relax its hold and disgorge

The Gypsey Moth.

The Gypsy moth that has secured a hold in the New England States threatens to become one of the great pests of the day. A writer in the Scientific American of December 6, says: I have quite a little experience with the pest, as in the rear of my premises are three or four large apple trees which have been wholly unnored for by the owner, and the tent caterpillar and gypsey worm have held high carnival there until every vestige of green has disappeared. After devastating my neighbor's trees, they marched in myraids for my premises, fairly covering the fences, houses, outbuildings, grass land, currant bushes, and concrete drive-ways with their trooping battalions. I immediately tacked tar sheathing paper around every one of my trees, and keep the paper well coated with printer's ink, if care is taken to make frequent application of it. Experience, the best of teachers, proves it. During the past week or ten days I have personally attended to the matter, and have killed millions of gypsey worms, which have congregated below the paper on my trees. The trees nearest my neighbor's land were the first ones attacked (they will not pass a tree), and five or six times a day the trees below the paper are literally covered with thousands of worms, notwithstanding I take great care to kill every worm seen at each inspection, while not a worm can be found upon the tree above the application of printer's ink. The number of worms cultivated on three or four worthless trees on the premises adjacent to my own is astonishing; numbers fail gto convey an adequate idea. The grass land and the earth seemed to be covered with them. In fifteen minutes after killing every worm to be seen on the trunk of the tree, below the tarred papers, hundreds can be found making their way up the trunk to be stopped by the application of printer's ink."

Seeing His Best Girl.

From last Friday's Milton Record: A Union county gentleman had a little experience last Saturday night, which he will not soon forget. He was crossing the river in a boat, on his way to this city to spend the evening with his "best girl," and when about twenty feet from shore a movement on his part capsized the boat, and he received a thorough ducking right in the presence of the aforesaid "best girl," who was awaiting his coming on the shore. He scrambled to the shore, fastened his boat, and then his best girl led the way to her home, compelled him to go to bed while she dried his clothing at the kitchen stove.

Died while Preaching.

A New Brunswick dispatch of the 9th inst., says: While preaching to a large congregation at the East Millstone Reformed church on last Sunday night, the pastor Rev. Dr. J. Strong, said: "A man might fall as easy as the stars from the heavens." The next instant his face turned ashy pale, he clutched wildly at the pulpit for support, and then dropped on the floor in a fit of apoplexy. The horrified congregation was spellbound for a moment. Then the cooler ones rushed to the prostrate man and raised him from the floor. He was taken home and died Monday. His age was 64 years and 26 days. He leaves a widow and three grown daughters.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

A large and handsome school building was erected this fall on a central lot in Mohrsvill, Berks Co., and last Saturday evening a public play presentation was to have taken place. The directors refused at the eleventh hour to grant permission to the patriotic orders to raise the flag over the building or hold their public exercises within its doors. When the hour arrived for the ceremony, the directors were driven out of the place, and forcible possession of the school house obtained. The flag was raised, and there was the regulation speech-making. The citizens are with the Mechanics and Patriotic Sons in the matter, but several prosecutions will probably be the outcome.

A big corn husking match, in which all Western Iowa was interested, took place at Avoca, Iowa, on Thursday, a week Al Johnson and will McConnell, who for two years have claimed championship of Iowa, were the contestants. A field of corn averaging forty bushels to the acre was chosen, and each champion worked ten hours. A big crowd of friends watched the race and cheered their respective favorites. The result was that each contestant husked and cribbed about one hundred and forty bushels. The prize was $100 a side and was awarded to Johnson, his corn being freer of husks.

G. W. Clark, of Nippenose Valley, Clinton county, began to dig a well on one of his farms last summer, and after going about five or six feet left it until fall by covering it with boards. It appears the rabbits have taken a fancy to it, because William Laubach gets from three to five rabbits every week. They go under the boards for a hiding place, and not seeing the well fall in and cannot get out.

Rev. A. C. Stockard, a Presbyterian preacher of Waverly, Tenn., is in trouble. He has been sued for $20,000 for estranging the affections and seducing the wife of Henry Jackson, who is a member of the flock of the preacher. Jackson is about 70 years of age. His wife is about 50, and the preacher is 60 years of age.

Alderman D. C. Smith at Lebanon, dismissed the case of embezzlement of city funds brought against Mayor John W. Harbeson Major P. G. Mark. The money said to have been embezzled was claimed by both the city and the School Board, and was only retained by the Mayor until it could be properly placed.

An unusually large and fine apple found in the middle of a barrel opened by an Eastbourne fruiterer was wrapped in a piece of paper containing this message: "If any young lady who chences to eat this apple is desirous of matrimony, she will please to correspond with Hartley Marshall, Falkland Ridge, Annappolis county, Nova Scotia."

For hives in children, rub the irritated skin or the pustules with castor oil, applied with the tip of the finger. Baby will pass from fretting to slumber while the process is going on, the relief will be so great and quick. For inflamed eyes, bumped heads and sprained ankles use abundantly water as hot as can be borne.

A Pittsburg minister in a recent sermon said: "If a young man loves a woman and at the same time indulges in liquor to a great extent and feels that he cannot give up either it would be better for him to tie a mill stone about his neck and jump into, the sea than drag an innocent woman into a drunkard's home"

Many farmers in Wayne county are using their apple evaporators for evaporating pumpkins. Henry Wadsworth realized 1,300 pounds of evaporated pumpkin from one and one-fourth acres. When the pumpkin is dried and ground it will bring twenty cents per pound.

The receipts of New Orleans postoffice, since the passage of the anti-lottery law, have fallen off about one third. Upwards of $10,000 have been cut off every month, and the office has been reorganized, the force being reduced by the retirement of nine men.

Churches flourish best in times of distress and calamity. The average man and woman when highly prosperous is "uppish," in all things, and is particularly prone to forget the Lord in days of success.

A Norristown girl, attacked with toothache, left the theatre and called on a neighboring dentist, where the distressing molar was pulled. Then she returned to enjoy the remainder of the show

"Next to making a mistake, the easiest thing in the world is to criticise somebody else's mistake—which is respectfully submitted to those wiseacres who think this statement a mistake."

Two Bradford doctors have been arrested for manslaughter. It is claimed that during an operation they cut a man's artery under the impression that it was a muscle and he died.

Susan Ehlein is suing Dr. S. N. Bayton, of Buffalo, for $19,000 because, although he successfully treated her for inflammatory rheumatism, it left her with a stiff knee joint.

At Scranton a jury remained out a week because of the obstinacy of one man, and at the end of that time a mutual arrangement was made between counsel to accept the verdict of the eleven men.

A Philadelphia dealer has been convicted on a false pretense in selling two barrels of sand for sugar. There was only a thin coating in the barrels to hide the sand.

Nine hundred and ninety-two women registered in Cheyenne, Wy., for the recent elections. Several women rode twenty-six miles into Cheyenne to vote.

A skunk got under the stairway at the First National Bank, of Warren, the other day and buisness had to be suspended for a time

At Lancaster some jokers blacked the face of a sleeping man. He awoke, and, going out into the street, was arrested.

Michael Rener, living in Dublin, Bucks county, will be 105 years old on January 1 next.

A youth killed eight rabbits in West Bradford (Chester county) with a club.

Oley township, Berks county, has twenty-five residents over 80 years old.

Oakland Mills Notes.

Mr Editor :—

Joseph Pines our blacksmith is doing a very large business at present. During the past week he drove 386 shoes in 5 days. He also informs the people that he has hired an experienced hand in wagon-making, and anything in that line will be done up in excellent workmanship, and prices moderately low. Give him a call and be convinced of his work.

The Oakland Literary Society convened on last Thursday evening. The house was crowded. The question for debate was: Resolved: That the County Superintendent should be elected by a popular vote. The program for the next evening will be interesting and instructive. The question for debate will be: Resolved: That the free county bridges are advisable. The evening will also be enlivened by music. All are cordially invited. Society motto: "Knowledge is power."

A. J. Sausman is kept very busy. "Quick sales and small profits," is his motto.

Quite a number of young folks in the vicinity attended a pound party, at L. S. Kinzer's on last Friday evening. There were 13 couples present.

There will be services at Pine Grove Methodist Church on next Sabbath at 7.30 o'clock, by Rev. B. H. Hart.

A wedding is booked in the near future.

The young man who answered, I am as smart as the society members," when he was asked to attend the society, should also remember that he is not as smart as he thinks or he would keep the blinds down when he is squeezing his best girl. But I suppose he likes to show the people he has a pudding to hug. You'r a boney.

Mrs. Susan Musser, died on Sabbath evening. She will be buried in the Lost Creek Cemetery this Wednesday. Meet at the house at 10 o'clock, A. M.

A Cure for Constipation and Sick Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for the clearing up of the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50cts a package. tf

TO CONSUMPTIVES

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the perscription used, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis and all throat and lung Maledies. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address Rev. Edward A. Wilson, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

FOR Use SCROFULA, Impure Blood, DYSPEPSIA, Salt Rheum, RHEUMATISM, Liver Complaints, TUMORS, Nervous Prostration or DISEASED KIDNEYS

The heritage of which every human being is almost as certain as he is of air, sunlight and breath, is Scrofula Humor. Poor diet and insufficient food, ill ventilation, filth, and dampness, all assist the slumbering germs of Scrofula to overpower the vitality of the body and run riot in the system. The blood in its process of renewing the waste cannot expel any inherited taint of weakness or impurity. It can only be renewed by the action of some purifying medicinal agency, which assisted by nutritious food, well digested and assimilated into blood, gradually insures the possession of sound health. Such a renovating remedy has Brown's Sarsaparilla proved itself to be.

The greatest improvement in Corsets during the past twenty years is the use of Coraline in the place of horn or whalebone. It is used in all of Dr. Warner's Corsets and in no others.

The advantages of Coraline over horn or whalebone are that it does not become set like whalebone, and it is more flexible and more durable.

Dr. Warner's Coraline Corsets are made in twenty-four different styles, fitting every variety of figures—thin, medium, stout, long waists and short waists.
