The town council says coasting, on the pavements of the town shall not be engaged in. Harry P. Derr of Millfintown, Union Co., was among visitors during the holidays.

Wilberforce Schweyer, was at home from Washington, D. C., during Christmas week. Jennie and Frances Pannabaker of this place visited in Lewistown, last Wednesday.

Landlord Zeigler of Port Royal, will take charge of the Keystone hotel in Patterson. The creek mill dams furnished last week 10 inches of water.

Miss Lulu Hartley, of Bedford, visited her friend Miss Minnie Howe during the holidays. Ex-County Commissioner, Francis Flower is taking out timber to build a barn next summer.

and appointed H. A. Stambaugh, mercantile appraiser. Noda Suloff, N. M. Loyd and Hugh Hamilton, students at State college, spent the holidays at their homes.

Edward Pannabaker, bought the farm of Miss Ruth Bance in Slim Valley, for between four and five hundred dollars. The new commissioners, elected, Charles Crawford, clerk; A. J. Patterson, Attorney, and George Stutts, Court House, janitor.

Henry Grilling has secured the contract for filling the creamery ice house at 50 cents a ton. He does not pack the ice in the house. Rev. Mr. Lesher, of McAlisterville, married his son Edgar Lesher and Miss Edna Rollman, of this town on the 30th day of December 1890.

During the late snow storm, Mrs. Polly Bastian perished in a snow drift 200 feet from the railroad station of Artesfort, Lycoming county. Ephraim Huntsberger, aged about 70 years, a veteran soldier of the late war was stricken with paralysis while walking on the pavement in Port Royal, last Friday.

David Hertzler a prominent citizen of Old Port Royal, died on the 24th day of December, aged 77 years. Interment in the Rothrock grave yard near this town on the 27th day of December. From the Lewistown Gazette: We hear orders have been issued to abandon the canal bridge near the brewery and fill up the ditch at that place, which will probably be done in the spring.

The remains of Jacob E. Mickey, who was killed at Shamokin, while in the discharge of his duty as a flagman on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, was brought to this place for interment. David Watts, of Altoona, spent the holidays among friends in town. The residence he gained in the Mountain City has not in the least abated his democracy. He is as big a democrat, as ever.

In Philadelphia over 290 girls, between the ages of 14 and 18 years are reported at police head quarters as missing. That is one phase of girl life in a great city. Whither, have the girls gone? Olin Innes colored, bought Rev. J. Hamilton's farm in Tuscarora township, for $1,705. There are over 200 acres in the farm; 130 acres clear. Large barn, good house, out-buildings, &c.

Printing office people all know how it is when the process fail to work properly, and in that way cut off the full supply of well printed papers. It is then the worst sheets are sent to exchange papers. John Wilson imprisoned in the Bellefonte jail for the murder of Harry Waterhouse, escaped from the pen cell in which he was confined by squeezing himself through a narrow window 8 inches wide.

Some days ago, Samuel Kinelo of Patterson, lost two fingers of his right hand while coupling cars in the Altoona yard. He is under the care of Dr. Dowd Crawford and is getting along satisfactorily. Harry Wilt of Newport, lost his left thumb, and had the hand injured by coupling cars in the Altoona yard some days ago. He is under the care of Dr. Dowd Crawford, and comes from Newport to have his maimed hand attended to.

The Lutheran Sabbath School elected A. H. Weidman, Superintendent; Benj. Wagner, Assistant; B. L. Shuman, Secretary; E. H. Simon, Treasurer; Westley Sherlock, Librarian; Keeper of supplies, Wallace Pasick. Salesman Kohler of Huntingdon, was struck by a freight train while he was trying to board a passenger train at Juniata bridge, The Huntingdon jury that tried the suit were taken to the bridge to view the situation and see how the accident took place.

Conductor Sam Keller of Dauphin county, has been in the service of the North Central Railroad nearly all his life, and when he was sworn in as sheriff, the company would not accept his resignation, but granted him leave of absence three years, which covers the time of the office of sheriff. The remains of Mrs. George Hoffinger of Rosel's Gap, was sent to Philadelphia for interment. Mr. Wm. Miliken of Tuscarora, performed the kind office of bringing the remains to the station on the day of the deep snow fall. Mrs. Hoffinger contracted disease last spring while gathering dandelion.

One cent will be charged for each letter advertised. Letters: Lon Coffman, Mr. Henry Holt, Jacob H. Reich, James McCauley, P. M.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania passed an act prohibition the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine. On the 24th of last December, Judge Reed of Philadelphia decided that the state has not the right to prevent the sale of article of commerce between the states if the article are sold in the original packages as they come from the manufacturer.

The Washington Department of Agriculture has issued a treatise on the English sparrow. While there are many interesting points about the bird in the main it is a pest. It is a curse of such virulence that it ought to be systematically attacked and destroyed before it becomes necessary to deplete the public treasury for the purpose, as has been done in other countries.

Mrs. A. L. Gordon met with a painful accident at Millfintown, Pa., while blacking a stove. It seems she was using a polish containing benzene, and the stove having fire in it, the composition ignited setting her clothes on fire, by which both her arms were badly burnt. Had it not been for help being had at hand and quickly rendered her, she might have lost her life.—Lewistown Gazette.

Miss Mary Wraux, of Marysville, Perry county, has been visiting the family of Mr. John Gushard, on Main street. Miss Pearl Haldeman, daughter of Mr. J. G. Haldeman of Thompson town, visited her friend Miss Kate Thomas last week.

For Sale—One cook stove and pipe, a small wood stove and pipe, a lot of garden tools. For particulars call on James K. Robison, South 3rd Street. The New Jersey Militia were out on Sunday to quell Italian railroad rioters who had taken possession of Parnock Park because the railroad contractors had not paid them their wages.

The 17th annual session of the teachers' joint institute of Juniata and Snyder counties, will be held at Richfield, this county, on Friday evening and Saturday, January 23 and 24, 1891.

The county officers elected in November, namely, Shuman, Beale, and Ballentine—County Commissioners—and Scholl—County Treasurer—and Hibbs—Prothonotary—were inaugurated on Monday. If you want to learn how to run a farm listen to a lot of town men in a store or bar room. And if you want to learn how to run a store, listen to a lot of farmers at a sale or blacksmith shop in the country.

The Philadelphia Times Almanac has held a place so long among people, who appreciate a yearly digest of facts in conjunction with a perfect calendar that it is not necessary to go into detailed accounts of its merits. W. F. Balsbach of Port Royal has become editor and proprietor of the Bellwood Bulletin. We extend congratulation to Mr. Balsbach on his purchase and hope the enterprise may prove a satisfactory one in every particular.

Letters remaining in the P. O. at Patterson, Pa., not called for: R. F. Pring, Guy Plumb, Day & Bell, Mrs. Brockman, Wm. Bell & Son, Wm. Clark, Daniel Hetlar, Domogioello Nicot, E. C. Bojarsky. Persons asking for letters in above list, please say they are advertised. W. H. McNitt, P. M.

Mervine Pannabaker of Coalport; J. S. and D. K. Hamilton of Sayre; Chas. Hove and J. Frank Stoner of Washington, D. C.; Cloyd Heck and wife of Altoona; Ed. Watts of Tyrone; Jesse Howe, Jr., of Altoona; and Dr. Crawford, salesman in Wannamaker's store, spent all or part of the holiday season among relatives in this place. W. C. Adams of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, visited at the residence of his brother, groceryman Adams, at this place, during several days of last week. C. C. Moyer and sister Mrs. Guss visited at the same place at the same time, having come from Philadelphia with Mr. Adams. Mr. Moyer is connected with a newspaper published at Canton, O.

Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Blemish Cure ever known. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Millfintown, Nov. 13, 1890, 1y.

When the deep snow fell, Windfield Heck's dogs holed a large red fox in a tree. The fox was secured and nicely cared for till on New Year's Day, when Windfield invited friends to Mexico to indulge in a grand fox chase. A number of Millfintown sports went down and enjoyed the fun. Eleven dogs were entered. The fox was holed in a tree and taken out alive and is held in reserve for a second chase.

At a shooting match in Patterson, on Christmas, by the accidental discharge of a rifle in the hands of Samuel Dunn, Jacob Courard was shot. Dunn, does not know to a certainty how the gun came to be discharged, but believes his coat caught and pulled the hammer back when he reached into a pocket, for it was then the gun went off. The unfortunate boy was struck back of the neck below the right ear, the bullet came out of the right cheek and in its course made an ugly and dangerous wound. Dr. D. M. Crawford and Dr. L. Banks, attended the youth and at this writing his case is more hopeful.

On Sunday morning about the time Eastern Express, bound east, drew a number of cars of a freight train going west were wrecked between this place and Lewistown. One of the wrecked cars was so near to the track on which Eastern Express was running, that the locomotive struck the side of it but did not knock it far enough away for the passenger train to pass clear. All the steps on that side of the coaches were torn off. The doctors in town were called to go to the wreck under the impression that a number of people had been hurt. No one was hurt. A fresh engine was sent from here and Eastern Express was soon on its way as if nothing had happened. And the wreck crew cleared the track of the wrecked freight cars.

Last Sunday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, two large frame houses on the south side of town were destroyed by fire. The houses were owned by John Cibulka, and B. W. Kauffman. The Cibulka house was not finished; the lath had not all been put on; the intention was to have 2 families live in it, when finished. Kauffman's house was built last summer and has been tenanted since August, John Cibulka and William Rupp, being the tenants. The fire was started by some fiend in the Cibulka house, which was insured for $1,400. The flames were not long in reaching Kauffman's house, which was only a few feet from the building in which the fire was started. Kauffman had an insurance of $800 on his house. Cibulka lost a considerable portion of his personal property, which was insured in the house for $400. His wife escaped with their babe and a scanty supply of clothing. The Rapp family being in the end further away from the starting place of the fire fared better, and got most of their things out of the house. Some provisions and clothing were burned. Philo Pannabaker, Sr., who was doing the carpenter work for Cibulka lost a chest of tools in the flames.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO? It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it. What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO. ENOCH MORGAN'S SONS CO., NEW YORK.

1890 1891 FALL AND WINTER SEASON MEYERS' STOCK OF CLOTHING. It is now ready for your inspection. Whether you aim to save money, dress in the latest styles, or both, you will surely find it to your advantage to look through this vast aggregation of merchandise. You can't employ a few minutes more profitably. You may not buy on your first visit, but you will surely leave our establishment impressed with the benefits to be derived from patronizing us. You will see the largest Men's Suit and Men's Overcoat Department in the county. Our gigantic store is literally lined with counters, and each counter loaded high with the newest, noblest, finest and most fashionable styles of Men's Clothing. But here's the most important point: Take any one of these garments and you will find it marked at a lower price than any other house can name. NOTE THESE SPECIAL PRICES: Among the many prices in Men's Suits, we point out the following: $10 for Men's Nobby Business Suits, Sack and Frock Suits, all-wool materials. $10 for fine Scotch Cheviot Suits, in Checks, Plaids and Silk Mixtures. $11 for Men's Imported Cassimere Business and Dress Suits in Sack and Frock Styles. $12 for Men's celebrated Black Scotch Cheviot suits and Imported worsted diagonal suits. $15 for men's extra fine custom-tailor made, imported dress suits, in Sack, Cutaway, Frock, and Prince Albert styles. You can't form an idea of the excellence of the bargains until you see them. Equally great values in Fall Overcoats. We have the very latest, choicest and noblest things—and a saving of money is guaranteed to every purchaser. If you want to leave your measure for a first class suit, a spring overcoat or a pair of trousers at a small outlay of money, call on us. Men's all-wool suits at $8. Nobby Cheviot and Cassimere Suits at $10. Hundreds of men's suits at $4, $5, $6, $7 and $7.50. BOYS AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING. Boys' Clothing—we confidently believe—is worn by three out of every five boys in the county. Experience has taught careful observers that our Boys' clothing is the best for money every time. Our Boys' suits at $3 outlast those for which you pay $4 elsewhere, and our $5 goods will look neat and tidy. Examine by the way. Our stock of children's clothing is the largest in the county and the most varied. Mothers, you want clothing for your boys, and you want value for your money; here's where you can get both. We have the biggest and best line of children's clothing in the rattling goods suits at $1.75, better at $2, and still better at $2.25 and $2.50. No house buys in such quantities that we do; no house carries such an assortment, and no house sells at such low figures. We beat them all from 10 to 20 per cent.; that is the main buying point, where you get the biggest value for the least money. Our stock of Spring Overcoats (commonly so called), rather our stock of early Fall Overcoats is large and noble and very cheap. Come and examine. OVERCOATS. Our stock this fall is superb. Constant effort succeeds. We are making improvements every season. The newest novelty this season is the box overcoat, with 3/4 inch lap seam. Every known fashionable shade is here at prices to suit all, $8, $10, and $12. These coats must be seen to be appreciated. Men's Ulsters, or Storm Coat in black, blue and fancy Shetlands, black and Chinchillas, American Irish Frozes, Fancy Cheviots and cassimeres, at $4, $5, and $6. No such values in any other store in the county. Visit our Hat department. Exclusive styles in nobby goods. No house in this county can approach our prices in Underwear! We bought in larger lots than any other concern; we paid spot cash for everything we show. Can you wonder at our ability to undersell all competition.

1865, ESTABLISHED. 1889 Special Invitation To The Public To attend the Attractive Sales of Clothing that goes on daily from THE IMMENSE STOCK OF SUITS AND OVERCOATS AT THE WONDERFULLY LOW PRICES. His prices leave all Competitors in the rear, so don't fail to give him a call in need of Clothing. D. W. HARLEY MIFFLINTOWN PA.
