

LAST Thursday men in New York City, who honor the memory of Lincoln celebrated his birth day.

A BILL has passed the State senate, providing that liquor license fees shall be paid into the treasury of the city, borough, or township where the licensed place is situated.

In response to an invitation to attend an anti-free coinage of silver meeting, held in New York last week, ex-president Cleveland sent his regret and expressed himself against free coinage of silver. Good bye White House.

Tim booms in the river in Williamsport, can no longer be filled with lumber for the saw-mills. For the reason the timber has been cut and marketed, and now Williamsport languishes. She has been shorn of her business glory.

STANHOPE TOWNELL, a prominent citizen of Woodville, Miss., married a pretty maquette for which his fellow citizens tarred him, rode him on a rail to the end of the town and told him, "if you ever come back to town we'll hang you."

SILVER has been considered honest money from time out of date, and will be considered honest money by the people until the crack of doom. The present effort to down it by the gold conspirators will fail, because it has intrinsic value, a value that all the legislation of gold conspirators cannot take from it.

Tax gold men say if you get the co-operation of other nations in the recoinage of silver, we will be for free coinage of silver. There's the rub. The men who are managing the bonded indebtedness of other nations, don't want silver recoinized, they want to out law it and despite the effort to rule it out as money it holds its own and will continue to do so. The people of the United States did not wait upon the consent of European money bags to establish a new government in 1776. They did not wait upon the consent of the money bags of Europe to free the slave when rebellion reared its head and they will not wait for the consent of the money bags of Europe to establish the free coinage of silver.

SECRETARY. The Last Tour in the Series via Pennsylvania Railroad Washington, D. C.

The series of tours, arranged this winter by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company from Pittsburgh to Washington, have been remarkably successful, due in great measure to the liberal rate and high standard of service maintained. The one remaining tour to leave March 5th, will undoubtedly carry its full complement of passengers. Excursion tickets, good for ten days from date of sale, admitting of a stop-over in Baltimore in either direction within the proper limit, will be sold from Pittsburgh at $9.00, and at correspondingly low rates from other stations in Western Pennsylvania. The tickets will be good for use on any regular train of the dates above named, except limited express trains and in addition to the regular service a special train of parlor cars and day coaches will leave Pittsburgh at 8:00 A. M., and run through to Washington, stopping at principal stations. The return coupons will be valid for passage on any regular train within the return limit, except the Pennsylvania Limited. The rates are unusually low, and the limitation of the tickets ample for a most pleasurable trip.

Bloomfield Advocate, February 11.

The citizens of Saville township are in a state of excitement over the discovery of the head of an infant in the barnyard of Conrad S. Rice on Monday last week. Mr. Rice immediately notified district attorney Potter, who proceeded to the spot on Wednesday and after making inquiry decided to have an inquest held. Six good and lawful citizens in the persons of Wm. S. Fritz, Abraham Smith, Chas. Krounman, T. J. Shull, John Hartman and Conrad S. Rice were sworn as a jury by J. S. Wetzel, J. P. Witnesses were produced and testified to the fact of the discovery of the head of an infant, other things that no further information was obtainable. Dr. L. Rodgers and others capable witnesses testified that the head was that of a fully developed child, but could not determine whether it was still born or not. The general belief is that the child was buried in the barnyard sometime ago. It might have been preserved for the cold weather would have preserved it by freezing—and that the PURIFY THE BLOOD WITH Brown's Sarsaparilla. The mortality in large cities is due to the fact that food, feed and bad habits have made bad blood. The largest blood-purifier on the market, but the whole body is fed, supplied with new material, kept healthy by the food he eats. In fact it is the most important part of the system.

Consumption Surely Cured. Do You Know—Please inform your doctor that have cured by the above named medicine. By its use you thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. It will be sent you free on receipt of a box of ten pills from the Dispensary, N. Y., or your druggist.
