SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN

MIFFLINTOWN.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1891.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

FOREIGN despatches indicate that a money pranic is brewing in Europe. That country or rather the banks of that country are over loaded with South American bonds upon which the interest cannot be paid.

THE Congressional apportionment bill, reported in the Legislature, places Juniata county in the 19th district, with Mifflin, Bedford, Huntingdon, Snyder and Union counties for company. It will be noticed that Franklin county is not in the district Since that county bolted the Republican nomination last fall there has not been talk of reform, the reformers who were reformers for the occasion don't seem to approve of making Congressional nominations by a popular vote.

There is a co-operative movement in various departments of government at Washington to pension the government clerks. It is a fact that the majority of clerks after years of service for the government leave it as poor as when they began work. It is suggested by the friends of the pension movement to get Congress to pass a bill to deduct 2 per cent of each clerk's salary every month to be deposited in the Treasury to the clerk's credit so that when he gets old or when he gets sick or when he leaves government service he will have something saved for the rainy day. The scheme is nothing short of confession that the average government clerk cannot take care of himself so as to provide for the days of old age or sickness when he needs money most. It is a confession that he needs a guardian to take care of him even in the days of his prime when he should be best able to take care of himself. It will be a good thing to have the clerks pensioned in that way for by such a system many a one will be saved from total wreck and kept off the bounty of his friends when he is shoved out of place.

PRESIDENT Harrison passed down the valley of the Juniata on the home stretch of his 10,000 miles trip last Friday. The only stops made in the valley were at Altoona and Huntingdon. He stopped at Harrisburg long enough to make a short speech. During the trip he made 140 speeches all of which commend themselves to the judgment and best santiment of right thinking people. The speeches will be the literary monument of the President. They prove to the world that he is one of the great statesman of the day, a man who understands every phase of the every day life of the people of the republic It is not the mere fact that the President has proven that he is a ready speech maker that has captivated the the mind of the country for there are speech makers who are nothing but wind bags who have not the judgement to run a wholesome thought or suggestion through their public deliverances, but it is the latter fact, namely, the wholesome thoughts and suggestions that were interwoven in all of the President's speeches, that stamp him one of the foremost thinkers, observers and statesmen of the day.

A High Jinks Cow.

General Manager Gage has an obstreperous cow, the like of which we have never seen before. In the stable the animal is just as quiet and docile as a pet lamb, but get her out on the street and drive to the pasture, and that cow is the very incarnation of the wickedest kind of devilry. We Huntingdon people, who see the daily performences of the animal, await its coming from the field in the evening with the same concern that the average small boy does in looking for the circus. It usually takes two men to drive the cow, some times three, and then they manage to get along only by the use of several big straps buckled onto the fore legs of the animal and by which they led her. On Saturday morning one of Mr. Gage's cow boys was dragged from the stable to Penn., street by the beast, bucked up against the carriage mount, and came mighty near having his brains knocked out. In the evening the cow danced waltzes all the way from the field, chased a couple of women, scared the children, and wound up its trip by coming within an ace of going through Tom Read's drug store. Had not the writer given a furious yell and hit the cow on the head with a handful of three em quads, Mr. Gage's pet "Blossie" might yet be down in Tom's store eating quinine or drinking Moxie to steady up its shattered nerves. But the cow has one great virtue—she gives twenty quarts of milk per day.—Huntingdon Globe.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 13.—Arrangements are about completed for the memorial services, which will take place on May 31, the second anniversary of the great flood. A chief marshall has been appointed and a route for the procession laid out. Three thousand men will form the line, which will be composed of about all the organizations both civic and military in this city. The Johnstown Flood Correspondent Association, which has members in almost every city in the Union, will visit Johnstown on that day and will be invited to participate.

A Wonderful City.

The city of Sebastapol as it stood before the bombardment was one of the greatest and most formidable strongholds that the world has ever known. Even its docks and quays were constructed of stone while all its many public buildings, storehouses and magazines were built of the same material. Its great forts, the strongest ever erected by man, its peculiarly constructed streets, together with the harbor and the Black Sea are shown in Pains' stupendous picture that Harrisburg will give to the public for ten nights, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, commencing June 16. As a spectacular production it has been voted without an equal.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The Fourth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance, of Juniata county, was held in the Lutheran church of Mifflintown, May 6 and 7, and despite the discouragements of the past year was full of interest. Each session was opened by devotional exercises, the keynote of all the woman's Christian work. The audience was not so large as it might have been. Mrs. Olive Pond Amies was present at all the sessions, adding much interest and giving much encouragement and instruction, having been through the preceding days of the week at different points in the county trying to organize and reorganize where the work seemed to languish. Five Unions were represented. Delegates and Superintendents reported progress in some quarters and we hope to see more White Ribbons in the future. A choir of young girls under the training and leadership of Miss Minnie McAlister, organist, furnished very good music in the day sessions, and a choir of young ladies and gentlemen from the several churches of Mifflin, conducted the music in the evening with organ, coronet, clarionet and bass viol accompaniment. A solo: "Save the Boy," was sung by Mr. Samuel Rollman, with marked affect. Papers were read by several members on subjects of interest. The Question Box called out some healthy discussion during which Mrs. Amies gave much useful instruction on various subjects among which she told what the White Ribbon ought to be to those who wear it. Several selections were well read and recited. Thursday evening was well filled. Mrs. Amies spoke ably of the work of the W. C. T. U, and we trust an impetus will be given to the work, which will be felt throughout the county. She was followed by Mrs. Landis of McCulloch's Mills with an excellent paper, subject: "Home and the W. C. T. U. The following officers were elected for this year: President, Mrs. Abbie Berry; Corresponding Secretary, Miss S. J. Irwin; Rec. Sec., Emma M. Robison; Vice President-at-large, Mrs. Daniel Kloss.

A Horse Thief Surrenders.

Jacob Long, who, with his brother Charles, broke jail at Gettysburg, December last, where they were confined for horse stealing, appeared at Gettysburg last week and gave himself up to the authorities. He says that after breaking jail they went to Baltimore thence to Indiana, where Charles was killed in a slate quarry. Jacob was induced to come back and surrender by the fear that he would be caught and handled the more roughly.—Franklin Repository.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

The next regular meeting of the Pomona Grange of Juniata county, will be held at Arch Rock in Fermanagh township on Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23, 1891. The sessions on Friday evening and Saturday forenoon will be open to the public, and all are urged to attend. As topics pertaining to Agriculture and public issues of the day, will be the theme of discussion. Prominent Patrons from abroad have been invited and are expected to be present.

W. H. KNOUSE,

Journey of a Needle.

Little Linford Laughlin, a four year-old daughter of A. H. Laughlin, 317 Mount Vernon street, Camden, was taken to the Cooper Hospital yesterday, suffering with intense pain in her right arm. The parents of the little girl took the child to the hospital, thinking she had broken her arm. Dr. Leidy made an examination but could find no broken bones and came to the conclusion that the pain was caused by a needle working itself through the flesh of the child's arm. The diagnosis was correct, for last night a sharp-pointed needle, peeped out of the skin and was quickly extracted, much to the relief of the child. The needle entered the child's body years ago, but she did not eqperience any great amount of pain until it began to manifest itself yesterday.—Philadelphia Times, May 15.

Must Stop Dancing.

Rev. J. W. Smith of Wesley Union Zion Church, Harrisburg, is reported as being determined to enforce the church law against members of his church who dance. In a sermon preached some Sabbaths since he said:

"I wish to say emphatically that while I am pastor of this church, I will get rid of these church dancers, or else you will get rid of me. If nothing happens, the Bishop will send me back another year to do business at the old stand. I have stood in this pulpit and freqnently told those dancers that the Methodist church forbids it. Some of you have defied me and now I shall exercise the law to its fullest extent." "Those who danced can either hand me their resignation as members or make a public confession before this congregation of their wrong, with a greement not to do so again or else stand church trial."

We Have Some of Them.

The people who read newspapers at the expence of others.

The man whose neighbors never have any idea that he is a Christinn.

The people who never have anything good to say about other people.

The man who keeps a dog and says he connot afford to take a newspaper.

The man who thinks he knows it all and is anxious to tell it to every body else.

The man who walks walks with his hands in his pockets and lets his wife carry in the coal.

People who get their back up at one another and stay that way, year after year.

The man who refuse to help pay the preacher because he dosen't preach to suit him.

The man who growls like a bear with a sore herd every time his wife asks him for money.

The woman who whispers it around that some other women is not any better than she ought to be.

The girls who makes a dozen trips up and down Front street each evening in search of an escort.

People who always have to go back forty-seven years to find anything worth spenking of that the Lord has done for them.

Hold it to the Light.

The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold, is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the preporation of this remarkable medicine for coughs and colds no expense is spared to combine only the best and purest ingredients. Hold a bottle of Kemp's Balsam to the light and look through it, notice the bright, clear look; then compare with other remedies. Price 50c and $1. tf.

What Horses Die Of.

"A New York horse life insurance company, insuring only sound and generally young animals worth between $100 and $400 each, reports that of 704 horses dying within the past five years, 183 died of colic, 77 of inflamation of the bowels, 84 of kidney trouble, 51 of pneumonia, 52 of sun-stroke, 30 of pinkeye, 37 of lockjaw, 23 of of broken legs, 12 of epizooty, 10 of heart desease, 4 of blind staggers, 9 were killed by run a ways, 4 were drowned, 2 were killed by lightning, 128 died of unknown disease, and only 8 were burned."

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1 at all druggists. tf.

A Favorable Verdict after Twenty Years Trial.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment that of Drs. Starkey & Phalen, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magnetized; and the compound is so condensed and made portable that it is sent to all the world.

It has been in use for more than twenty years; thousands of patients have been treated, and recommend it.—a very significant fact.

It does not act as most drugs do by creating another ailment, often requiring a second course to eradicate the evil affects of the first, but Compound Oxygen is a rovitalizer, renewing, strengthening, invigorating the whole body.

These statements are confirmed by numerous testimonials, published in our book of 200 pages, only with the express permission of the patients, their names and addresses are given and you can refer to them for further information.

The great success of our treatment has given rise to a host of imitators, unscrupulous persons; some calling their preparation Compound Oxygen, often appropriating our testimonials and the names of our patients to reccommend worthless concoctions. But any substance made elsewhere or by others, and called Compound Oxygen is injurious.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode of Action and Results," is the title of a new book of 200 pages, published by Drs. Starkey & Palen, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned to die by other physicians. Will be mailed free to any address on application.

NO MORE OF THIS!

Rubber Shoes unless worn uncomfortably tight, will often slip off the feet. To remedy this evil the offer a shoe with the inside of the heel lined with rubber. This clings to the shoe and prevents the Rubber from slipping off.

"COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Call for the "Colchester"
"ADHESIVE COUNTERS"
and you can walk, run or jump in them.
