The wire screens placed around the pilasters of the Court House, to keep the sparrows from nesting there, are making a more secure nesting place for the little birds than if the wire had not been put on the head of the column. For the reason that the job was not properly done, the wire does not fit close enough to the pilaster. It had better not been done than to have been done in that way.

The game between the Harrisburg and Millintown baseball clubs played on Saturday was a sensational affair throughout. First there was a cracking noise on the grand stand, then a crash all to the north off in flight that ground. Second, one of the Harrisburg club was struck on the neck on Adams Apple, and knocked out for a time. The stroke caused the tobacco juice to fly out of his mouth so profusely that those nearest to him thought it was blood. After a short stretch on the ground he was all right and resumed his place in the game Third, Charlie Watt was struck on the stomach and knocked down but he too kept his place and played on to the finish. Fourth, the Harrisburg club won the game. Score 16-4.

List of letters unclaimed for remaining in the Post Office at Millintown, Pa. For the week ending June 13th, 1891. Persons calling for letters in this list will please say they are advertised. One cent will be charged for each letter advertised. Letters: Mrs. Annie Horner, Mrs. Nancy Kowick, James McCawley, P. M.
Lewisport Gazette June 12th, 1891.—Edna Anna Walters, aged 13 years, while driving a cow over the railroad crossing at Granville was struck by the Keystone Express, and thrown a distance of sixty five feet, and instantly killed, at about 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning. She has been living with her grandmother, Mrs. Downs, since the death of her lamented mother.
The Keystone express was late, and she was under to relieve her grandfather, the venerable Owen Owens, who started at first to drive the cow to pasture. There are two curves at this point, so constructed that utmost caution is necessary in essaying to go over the tracks at the crossing, in the face of the almost constantly passing trains.
Says the Lewisport Sentinel—Wm. Walker, who was sent to the penitentiary for this county for stealing sleighs, is out and is located at Bellefonte. Before going to the penitentiary Walker turned his property, worth about $400 over to Mrs. Christ Miller, of Bellefonte with whom he had stopped. After he left his converted horse, wagon, &c., into money and moved to Centre Hall. The other day Mrs. Miller was in Bellefonte and was met by Walker, who demanded the return of the property. She retreated into the Brockert's house, where he followed and the altercation got so hot that she retreated vigorously for help, frightening the landlord and guests. The intruders were ejected and Mrs. Miller left for Centre Hall, and Walker is still in Bellefonte mourning the loss of his property.
Three tramps stealing a ride were caught in a wreck of a freight train going west, on the night of the 9th inst., near Van Dyke station, this county. One of the tramps escaped without injury. The other two were so badly hurt that they had to be taken care of, and the railroad authority brought the men to this place at 2 o'clock at night and handed them over to the county authority. They were sent to jail not on a criminal charge, but for hospital treatment. The county has no hospital, and all persons falling under county care for hospital treatment are usually sent to the jail. The tramps are both foreigners. Tony Harold is an Italian, and is internally lame. Louis Gogginheim is a German, cut and bruised about face and head and broken nose. Both claim to reside in Philadelphia, but all the efforts of Commissioner's clerk C. B. Crawford to find their abiding place has thus far failed. Under the circumstances the county will have to take care of them till they are well enough to travel or to work.
Perry County Democrat, June 10.—On last Thursday evening, John Sutich, James Sutich and Charlie Weaver, of this place, went to Dugan's dam, on Sherman's creek, for the purpose of fishing with outlines. They drove across the creek to the woods and prepared for the night's sport by taking off their good clothes and leaving old ones, leaving the good garments in their wagon. When they returned several hours after to start homeward they found that a herd of cattle had visited their camp in their absence and had made a meal off their clothes. A pair of new light pants of Charlie Weaver's had the legs eaten off them up to above the knees. His vest and shoes were also chewed. The clothing and a pair of gum boots of Jim Sutich's had shared a like fate, but it was John Sutich who was the heaviest loser. He had left a gold watch, the property of his aunt, Mrs. Lewis Potter, in his vest pocket. After considerable search he found the cases of the watch, the works having been trampled to pieces. The cases were also badly battered. A dollar, which had been in a pocket, was lost, and his clothing was completely ruined. The boys returned home in a sorry plight, considerable out of pocket, and with no very kindly feelings for the bovines which had wrought such disaster to their war drobes.

Probating a Will.
Last Thursday Register and Recorder E. E. Berry, had the matter of the probate of the will of Mrs. R. C. Gallagher before him. The will, each one made by Mrs. Gallagher at a different date had been filed in the Recorder's office. In the interest of the legatees were lawyers Lyons, Atkinson and Pennell, Patterson and Neely. The entire forenoon was devoted to the question of method of procedure, there being no precedent to govern in the case of such a multiplicity of wills and as it was stated that another will or two is in existence, and had not been filed, it was deemed best by the Court to appoint another day for a further hearing, and for the purpose of issuing a citation on such as are said to have an undivided will. Probate court will again be held on July 9, 1891.

Sudden Deaths.
Peoples of this community had not ceased talking of the sudden death of Rufus Davis of Fernanagh township when they were startled by the announcement that Mrs. Kinter of Millford township, was found dead in bed by the side of her husband on the morning of the 8th inst. She was well the day before and when she retired in the evening she was in her usual state of health. She was aged about 70 years. The past week has been fruitful in sudden deaths, as is evidenced by the numerous despatches announcing unexpected deaths of people in many different parts of the county. A sudden double death is noticed as follows:
WILKESBARE, June 9.—Henry Trumbauer, of Ross Township, a few miles west of Shickshinny, a farmer 45 years old, retired at an early hour Sunday night in his usual good health and to all outward appearances never felt better in his life. The next morning his wife was horrified by the discovery of his dead body in bed. He had passed quietly away during the night without a struggle.
On the same night his brother William, living in Henlock township, about ten miles away, retired late and hearty. He, too, showed no symptoms of illness. His daughter not seeing her father come down as usual, went up stairs and found him dead on the bed. Death came to the two brothers almost at the same moment.
The coroner has created not a little excitement in the neighborhood, as the men were well known in the community. No marks of violence could be found on their bodies, and the general belief is that death was due to natural causes. Both were married, and each leaves a wife and family.

Miss Emma Kaufman of Millintown, is visiting her niece Mrs. Charles Woods of Locust Run.
Judge McMeun and his son Andrew were in Va. near Winchester last week looking after the interest of his farm.
Miss Lizzie and Miss Emma Dasher of Mexico were visiting friends near Thompsonstown, last Tuesday and Wednesday. They report as having had a pleasant time.
A birthday party was held last Monday evening for Jacob Meloy of Locust Run. About twenty five persons were there and gave him some nice presents. Ice cream, cake and candies were served and all enjoyed themselves very much.
Early last Thursday morning a wreck occurred on the railroad a short distance below Van Dyke station, throwing sixteen cars from the track. The wreck was caused by the falling down of a "bunper" which got beneath the cars. Two men who were "stealing" their way on the cars were injured. The skin was torn from the one's abdomen, exposing his bowels and can scarcely recover, the other had his nose broken and was severely cut in the face.
