Great Fall & Winter Opening of Fine Clothing

For Men, Youths, Boys and Children Commences to Day.

Bargains in the same that are hummers on every floor, in every aiale, on every counter. Grim, cruel and cold with his airs, Biting Frosts and howing blast will soon be here. Those who have the good fortune to reside in handsome mansions—who can be here. Those who have the good fortune to reside in handsome mansions— who can sit by the cosy fireside, while without the chilling tempests and blinding snow-storms rage—who, when they venture out are wrapped in costly furs and comfortable firery—those, we admit, may read this announcement with indifference, but what of the poor? What of the countless thousands for whom cruel, cold winter bears in his train sntold misery and privation, suffering and wretchedness? Oh, what of the poor? Have they the necessary "wherewithat," to keep the wolf from the door? Above all they must have WARM CLOTHING, and here

MEYER'S STEPS IN TO LEND A HELPING HAND.

If purses can't meet the prices of good Overcoats, Underwear, Gloves, &c., then the prices must meet the purses. Right sow at the very outset of the cold season, we propose to give every man a chance to buy these goods at figures he can well afford to pay. With this object in view we have just placed on sale and will offer 600 HEAVY, WELLAND DURABLY MADE OVERCOATS FROM $3 TO $10. The materials are Chinchillas, Beavers, Meltons, Kerseys, Cassimeres, Cheviols, &c. Every coat is well worth and could easily be sold for 50 per cent, more money, but THAT ISN'T THE THING. We want to sell these overcoats not for what they will bring or what we intended to get for them but at prices within the reach of the "Dollar-a-Day" laborer. This we think has been accomplished by offering these over-coats at $3, $4, $5, $9 up to $10. $12 will do the usual work of a $20 bill in
