Bargains in the same that are hummers on every floor, in every aisle, on every counter. Grim, cruel and cold with his airs, Biting Frosts and howling blast will soon be here. Those who have the good fortune to reside in handsome manaions— who can sit by the cosy fireside, while without the chilling tempests and blinding snow-storms rage—who, when they venture out are wrapped in costly furs and comfortable finery— those, we admit, may read this anneuncement with indifference, but what of the poor? What of the countless thousands for whom cruel, cold winter bears in his train antold misery and privation, suffering and wretchedness? Oh, what of the poor? Have they the necessary "wherewithal," to keep the wolf from the door? Above all they must have WARM CLOTHING, and here

MEYERS' STEPS IN TO LEND A HELPING HAND.

If purses can't meet the prices of good Overcoats, Underwear, Gloves, &c., then he prices must meet the purses. Right now at the very outset of the co'd season, we propose to give every man a chance to buy these goods at figures he can well afford te pay. With this object in view we have just placed on sale and will offer 609 HEAVY, WELLAND DURABLY MADE OVERCOATS FROM $3 TO $10. The materials are Chinchillas, Beavors, Meitons, Kerseys, Cassimeres, Cheviois, &c. Every coat is well worth and could easily be sold for 50 per cent, more mon-ey, but THAT ISN'T THE THING. We want to sell these overcoats not for what they will being or what we interested of the self these overcoats not for what they will bring or what we intended to get for themibut at prices within the reach of the "Dotlar-a-Day" laborer. This we think has been accomplished by offering these 'over-coats at $3, $4, $5, $9 up to $10. $12 will do the usual work of a $20 bill in
