

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21, 1891.

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

A COLLIE dog valued at ten thousand dollars was brought from Scotland to New York last week.

The Republican Senate will investigate the Auditor General and State Treasurer and that takes the wind out of Governor Pattison's political campaign sail.

If there is anything crooked in the management of the Auditor General and State Treasurer departments, the republicans are as anxious to have it revealed as any other people.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, who has the largest annual income of any man in America has spent the summer working on his Ohio farm, just as if he was a common laborer, and doing quite as much labor as any of his hired men. He has done it in the pursuit of health.

Now boys, don't all start for Lincoln, Kan., to propose marriage when you are told that one of the most productive farms near that city is titled by Miss Hannah Baker, daughter of Congressman Baker. Miss Baker wears trousers like a man, plows, sows and reaps, and, with the aid of another woman, does all the field work on her 140 acre farm, which she owns free of debt. She is but 24 years old, and has been a farmer four years.

PREVIOUS to the opinion of the Supreme Court reversing Judge Bucher in the Millintown bridge case, a good deal of unfair electioneering had been done against Mr. Lyons. An effort was made to have it appear that it was his fault that such a large verdict was obtained against the county for the bridge. Judge Paxton's opinion however proves that such was not the case, for his opinion states that Judge Bucher was reversed because he would not admit the sworn statement of the bridge officers as to the value of the bridge stock. It was Mr. Lyons who wanted to present the statement of the officers of the bridge company as to the value of the stock as evidence to base a verdict on, but he was ruled out by Bucher. No the boot is on the other leg. If the evidence that Mr. Lyons proposed to offer and which the opinion of the Supreme Court clearly shows that he was correct in offering, had been accepted by Bucher the verdict would have been different and Bucher would not have been reversed.

McClure clubs are being organized in Snyder, Union and Mifflin counties by republicans as a means to present Judge Bucher from running away with the district the third time. Judge Bucher's fine spain theory of a non partisan campaign means that everybody that is possible to influence shall be worked in to voting for the Democratic ticket. In the judge's mind that is a good thing when it is to elect democrats to office, but it is a dreadful thing when it is to be applied to the election of republicans. The republicans of the district are in a majority and outside of the district it is a matter of general wonder that they have permitted Bucher to take them by their political nose and lead them into the democratic fold just every time it suits him to do so. But within the past ten days the republicans have changed their minds and they are now going into the contest like men of courage. Junata republicans are always courageous, but just now they may get some inspiration from the manner in which the Bucher district republicans are going into the contest. The republicans in Junata have a number one ticket and the thing to do is to battle for its election.

Huntingdon Journal: On Sunday last while a certain young lady was on her way home from church she called at her parents' residence for a few minutes. While she was there two of her brothers came in with a large bag full of wild grapes. The sister looked at them a moment and then asked if they were not ashamed to break the Sabbath in this way. The reply was in the negative, and finally she left for her own home, thinking probably that her husband would have dinner pretty well started. When she reached the house it was all closed up and no husband to be seen. She began making preparations for dinner when in the back door came her husband with a bag of chestnuts. She was perfectly outwitted, but mustered up enough courage to tell him that he had been playing heathen and that she would not eat chestnuts that had been gathered on Sunday. The husband smiled contentedly as he looked at the big bag of chestnuts which upon the refusal of his wife to eat any of them would be entirely for himself. Whether the lady has changed her mind we are unable to say.

A Faithful Dog.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 15.—Dick, a big Newfoundland dog, has just saved the life of his 92 year old mistress, "Granny" Farrell, a hermit near Sturteville, in a most peculiar manner. A widow for thirty one years, the old lady has long made a practice of locking herself in her cottage the last of September, barring the doors and shutters and remaining a recluse with no light but that from candles until spring. She did so this fall, having laid in full winter supplies. With "Granny" was the big dog Dick. On Saturday last he went to the house of the nearest neighbors the Lockays, and barked and whined so that they went home with him. They broke in the door and found "Granny" paralyzed upon her bed. Even now the doctor hardly hopes to prolong her life. But Dick with dog out through the underpinning of the house above the cellar and summoned the neighbors to her rescue.

Fire Fiends.

WASHINGTON, Ind., October 14.—This city today witnessed the most exciting scenes in its history. Detectives have been at work on the court house fire and to this hour have arrested four persons supposed to be connected with it. Samuel Harbine, a day laborer, living here, was arrested last night charged with complicity in the burning of the records. After being arrested Harbine confessed the crime and implicated several prominent people, and as a result Auditor James O. Lavelle and A. R. Harvie, a prominent citizen of Steele township were arrested this morning and placed in jail; also a man named Bull Ledgerwood. The officers are now out after Michael Lavelle, a brother of the auditor. Harbine's story is that Lavelle hired him to burn the court house for $500, only $75 of which was paid. It is reported that Ledgerwood is also anxious to turn state's evidence. He claims to have been given a house and lot for his part in the crime. Auditor Lavelle's bondsman, becoming frightened at the turn affairs were taking, required him to turn all his property over to them. Lavelle has been auditor of the county for eight years and the fact that the people had confidence in him makes his arrest and accusation of the court house fire the sensation of the hour. It is supposed that the parties to the accounts, but no one knows the amount. Experts are now at work on his books.

Harbine lives on a farm of 500 acres owned by his wife, and is in good circumstances. He is a desperate character, and was brought in this morning at the muzzle of a Winchester. The city is full of people from the country, and business is practically suspended. The four prisoners were taken before Judge Hebron this morning. They waived a preliminary bail and Lavelle's and Harvie's is about $5,000 each, and Harbine's and Ledgerwood's at $2,000 each. Ledgerwood and Harbine are forward pledged guilty in court. Sen was suspended.

The Millintown Bridge Case.

The reason of the Supreme Court for setting aside the ruling of Judge Bucher in the Millintown Bridge case is found in the fact that Judge Bucher would not allow the county to show that the Bridge Company through its officers valued the bridge at the officers of the company on their sworn statements, valued the stock of the Bridge Company at twenty-five dollars a share, there being six hundred and six shares, the aggregate value of which according to their sworn statements in the Auditor General's Office at Harrisburg, is fifteen thousand one hundred and fifty dollars. The sworn statement of the Bridge company was offered before Judge Bucher to prove the value that the company placed on the bridge, at the time they were trying to get a verdict for seventy odd thousand dollars through Bucher's court, for the bridge according to their own valuation was not worth sixteen thousand dollars, and because Bucher would not allow the evidence to be put in, he has been reversed by the Supreme Court. The case now comes back to the lower court for retrial. The County had offered to let the Bridge Company over four thousand dollars more than the officers of the company claimed it was worth on their sworn statement in the Auditor General's office. Judge Paxson rendered the opinion of the Supreme Court.
