

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Twenty-five thousand people lost their lives in an earthquake in Japan last week.

It would be a long distance to go to fight Chili—fourteen thousand miles.

There will be eight alliance men in the next Congress instead of twenty.

Senator Quay has been abused so long that he has become tired of it and has used a number of newspapers for libel and damage.

Ex-Governor Weaver took sick while delivering a speech in the Academy of Music, in Philadelphia one evening last week.

It is one thing to criticize and find fault, and quite another thing to go to work and do a thing, as the critic or fault finder says things should be done.

Now that Senator Quay has used a number of men who have been publishing slanderous charges against him, they find themselves in a hole with no chance to prove their falsehoods.

Aunt Casey Ketchum of Crawfordville, Ind., is 101 years old. She was born in slavery, near Baltimore, and has legal papers, signed and sealed many years ago, which fully establish her age.

Professor Luederbach, who taught 40 years in the schools of Philadelphia, committed suicide last Thursday morning in the presence of three pupils in the schoolroom, by placing a pistol in his hand and sent a bullet through his head.

That a cat has standing in a Philadelphia court is proven by the following from the Philadelphia Times of the 30th of October. On complaint of Mrs. Kate Smith, of 177 Thompson street, who charged him with wantonly and cruelly killing her pet cat, Harry Leper, Jr., agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, yesterday arrested Louis Gistner, of 1306 Palmyra street. Gistner was taken before Magistrate Kochersperger for a hearing, where Mrs. Smith, in pitiable tones, testified to the brutal manner in which the prisoner ever her cat. Magistrate Kochersperger fined Gistner $10 and costs for cruelty to animals.

A Brass Band in Church. A decided innovation in church services took place last evening when the brass band, consisting of ten pieces, discoursed sacred music during the evening services of the Eleventh Street Methodist Episcopal Church at Eleventh and Washington avenue. It has been the desire of the pastor, Rev. Gaubert Read, for some time to introduce a brass band into the church, and the effect which this will have on the congregation will be eagerly awaited.

Every seat in the church was taken long before the services began, and it was necessary to place chairs in the aisles in order to accommodate those who desired to take part. An address in reference to the introduction of the band was made by the pastor in which he declared that when the subject of the band was first spoken of many worthy members of the church raised their hands in horror against it. It was not sacrilegious to do so, he maintained, as the prodigal son had been welcomed by his brethren with a band of music.

As to the effect which this would have on the attendances at the evening services he thought it would be very beneficial, as many who would otherwise stay away no doubt would attend church when they knew that they would be furnished with good music.—Philadelphia Times, November 2nd.

Earthquake in Japan. Last Wednesday October 28th the town of Okaku, Kano and Kasanami in Japan were literally wiped out, but very few of the unfortunate inhabitants escaping. At Gifu five thousand houses were destroyed and five thousand persons were killed. Eighteen thousand houses were wrecked and two thousand persons lost their lives at Orago. Fifty miles of railway has been destroyed in the earthquake district.

So sudden was the disaster that with the first rumbling of the earth the people of the stricken towns were overwhelmed in the ruins of their falling buildings or beaten down by crumbling debris as they fled, panic-stricken, through the streets. The havoc was instantaneous and unprecedented, and an enormous area was laid desolate.

A number of European residents were engulfed. The earthquake shock passed from east to west. The waters were cast up seething, as if drawn from a cauldron, and bursting upon the lowlands flooded whole districts. Many persons were drowned before they had even a chance to attempt escape. At the present moment the lowest estimate of the killed and drowned throughout the empire places the number at 25,000.

Many vessels are reported to have been wrecked in the vicinity of Hiogo, and during the seismic disturbances the waters of the lakes in the surrounding country were violently agitated.

Traffic on the different railroads is suspended and all the telegraph lines are entirely prostrated, thus calamity cannot be learned for several days to come, and the loss of life in the interior may be very great.

A Brilliant Wedding.

The most notable wedding of the year 1891, took place in the West minister Presbyterian church on the evening of October 29, 1891. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry B. L. Kelly of Buena Vista, Virginia, formerly of Newport, Perry county, and Miss Elizabeth L. Pannabaker, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pannabaker of Millfintown. The scene in the church was one long to be remembered. In appropriate places were handsome evergreen, ribbon and flower decorations, and amidst the decorations on the center chandelier were the monogram letters of the bride and groom and the seats assigned to the special friends who had been invited to the reception at the home of the bride's parents after the marriage ceremony, were all ribboned in white. Admission to the church was by card. Fred Eapenschade, Jr., and Percy Burchfield received the cards and passed the guests into the charge of ushers who conducted them to seats. While the guests were assembling Mr. Harry B. L. Kelly of Newport played appropriate music on the grand organ. Precisely at 7 o'clock P. M. the wedding march on the organ was begun and simultaneously the groomsmen, Ed. Leiby, Merv Pannabaker, Dr. Wm. Banks and Estler Lenny came down the middle aisle followed by bridesmaids Miss Annie Kelly, Miss Anna R. Kelly, Miss Ethel L. Pannabaker, Miss Mary Bossman, two and two followed by Miss Elsie Pannabaker maid of honor. Then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father and directly opposite down the north aisle of the church came the groom with Mr. John Leiby his best man. At the chancel facing the altar the groomsmen placed themselves on the right and the bridesmaid on the left forming a semi-circle with the betrothed and her father standing in the center. The minister J. R. Henderson arose, the guests all stood up, and the betrothed's father stepped back to make way for the groom to take the place at the side of his bride. The rings were adjusted by the contracting parties; they joined right hands and were pronounced man and wife by the preacher. Then to the music of the grand organ the bride and groom followed by the attendants arm in arm, and the parents of the bride and groom, and those who had been invited to the reception passed out of the building to the residence of the bride's parents across the street from the church where they remained till the newly married couple took a mid-night train for a trip to eastern cities. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will be at home at Buena Vista, Virginia November 5, 1891.

The Republicans in Juniata are happy. Good enough for November 1891. A few more votes and Graham would have been elected.

That Horse Thief.

From the Snyder County Tribune. On last Friday Sheriff Michael of Lycoming county, came to Middleburg and took the horse thief, recently arrested in Turkey Valley, Juniata county, by Henry Harding and his companions, and took him to Williamsport where he will be tried for stealing the three horses which he had when he stopped at Jack Weller's the afternoon of the day before he was captured.

Quite a number of people had gathered in front of the jail to see him enter the "bus" to be driven to the depot. The confinement and wound on his arm had told on him and he looked considerably emaciated. He carried his wounded arm in a sling, and stepped into the bus as if he desired to escape the gaze of the curious spectators who lined the sidewalks.

All that we have been able to learn concerning his history is that he arrived at Middleburg and found her lover in the clutches of the law, it was considerable of a shock to her. She visited him in his cell in the evening upon her arrival, and also on the following morning before she left for home. It is altogether likely the wedding will be postponed for some years, if not longer.

Can This Be So.

From Philadelphia Record of October 28. The death of the 2 weeks old baby of Mrs. Mary Magee on Sunday, is surrounded by circumstances of a most peculiar character. The infant's death has been found to be directly due to the grief of the mother, who nursing over the demise of an old friend.

On Sunday last Mrs. Magee with her infant went to number 2067 Pemberton street, to attend the funeral of Miss Matilda Pattison, an old maid lady who had long been a close friend of hers. The sight of the dead face of her friend threw Mrs. Magee into a state of great excitement. While in this condition she nursed her baby and afterward laid it on a lounge to sleep.

About twenty minutes later one of the many mourners in the house happened to look at the supposed sleeping child, and was greatly startled by the distorted appearance of the little one's face and the thick stream of blood flowing from the little one's nose. Dr. J. Shoemaker, of No. 404, South Tenth second street, was immediately summoned but the child was past all medical aid. It had been dead over half an hour.

The doctor closely questioned the poor mother and learning from her and those present the great grief under which Mrs. Magee had been laboring at the time she last nursed the child, he came to the conclusion that the infant had been thrown into convulsions by its mother's milk. The nervous excitement of the mother had effected a chemical change in the milk.

Dr. Shoemaker said last night: "The case is a peculiar one and while several have from time to time been recorded, they are very rare. In all my thirty years experience I have never had a similar case."

A Cure for Constipation and Sick Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the clearing up of the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c a package.

Lake Michigan Drying Up.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Lake Michigan is drying up, and one-fourth of this city will be without a water supply in twenty four hours if it continues to fall below City datum as rapidly as it has in the past day or two. The inlet pipes are only two feet below city datum, and the surface of the lake is now fifteen inches below that mark, which is the lowest point ever reached. If the lake falls a few inches further the river into which the drainage pours will run back into the lake and contaminate the water supply of the whole city. No cause can be ascribed for the strange depression of the water.

I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it to highly." Trial bottles, 15c. Sold by L. Banks & Co. May 14-ly.

A Favorable Verdict after Twenty Years Trial.

The original and only genuine Compound Oxygen Treatment, published in our book of 200 pages, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magnetized; and the compound is so condensed and made portable that it is sent to all the world. It has been in use for more than twenty years; thousands of patients have been treated, and recommended it—a very significant fact in its favor.

It does not act as most drugs do by creating another ailment, often requiring a second course to eradicate the evil effects of the first, but Compound Oxygen is a restorative, renewing, strengthening, invigorating the whole body.

These statements are confirmed by numerous testimonials, published in our book of 200 pages, only with the express permission of the patients, their names and addresses are given and you can refer to them for further information.

The great success of our treatment has given rise to a host of imitations, unscrupulous persons calling their preparation Compound Oxygen, often representing our testimonials and the names of our patients to recommend worthless concoctions. But any substance made elsewhere or by others, and called Compound Oxygen is injurious.

"Compound Oxygen—Its Mode of Action and Results" is the title of a new book of 200 pages, published by Dr. Starkey & Pabst, which gives to all inquirers full information as to this remarkable curative agent, and a record of surprising cures in a wide range of chronic cases—many of them after being abandoned to die by other physicians. Will be mailed free on any address on application.
