Great Fall & Winter Opening of Fine Clothing

For Men, Youths, Boys and Children Commences to Day,

Bargains in the same that are hummers on every floor, in every aisle, on every counter. Grim, cruel and cold with his airs, Biting Frosts and howling blast will soon be here. Those who have the good fortune to reside in handsome mansions—who can sit by the cosy fireside, while without the chilling tempests and brinding snow.storms rage—who, when they venture out are wrapped in costly turs and comfortable fitery—those, we admit, may read this announcement with indifference, but what of the poor? What of the countless thousands for whom cruel, cold winter bears in his train autold misery and privation, suffering and wretchedness? Oh, what of the poor! Have they the necessary "wherewithal," to keep the wolf from the door! Above all they must have WARM CLOTHING, and here

MEYERS' STEPS IN TO LEND A HELPING HAND

If purses can't meet the prices of good Overcoats, Underwear, Gloves, &c., then the prices must meet the purses. Right now at the very outset of the cold season, we propose to give every man a chance to buy these goods at figures he can well afford to HEAVY, WELLAND DURABLY MADE OVERCOATS FROM $3
TO $10. The materials are Chinchillas, Beavers, Meltons, Kerseys, Cassimeres, Cheviols, &c. Every cost is well worth and could easily be sold for 50 per cent, more money, but THAT ISN'T THE THING. We want to sell these overcoats not for what they will bring or what we intended to get for them but at prices within the reach of the "Dollar-a-Day" laborer. This we think has been accomplished by offering these ever-coats at $3, $4, $5, $9 up to $10. $12 will do the usual work of a $20 bill in
