Judge Lyons on the Bench. Judge Lyons first regular court was convened in Bloomfield his native county Jan. 18th 1892. The New Port Venus in speaking of Judge Lyons says: The reader is doubtless anxious to know what the new judge does. Well, he did splendidly, was the unanimous verdict. The court room was crowded with spectators and people on business bent, and all eyes were focused upon the bench.

A Large Wedding. Miss Janet Gemmill Allison daughter of Editor Wm. M. Allison and Mr. A. Jackson Merick, of Athens, Georgia, were married at the home of the bride's parents in this town at 7 o'clock P. M. on the 28th inst. by Rev. J. R. Henderson. Miss Agnes Isabella Allison of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride was bridesmaid. Mr. G. Jarvis Merick of New York, brother of the groom was groomsmen, and Miss Emily Cornell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was maid of honor. Miss Lizzie Ewing of McVeytown, officiated at the organ, and there was a house full of guests all of whom partook of supper that was served at a table laden with the choice things of the season. The presents were numerous and costly.

A Terrible Accident. A very serious and in all probability fatal accident occurred in the yard near Seventeenth street yesterday morning shortly after 9 o'clock. A gang of laborers were engaged in repairing the tracks near the bridge and at the same time cars were being dropped down the yard. All the men were keeping a sharp look out but J. W. Stong, one of the workmen failed to notice an approaching car in time to get off the leg. He was struck by the forward part of the car and knocked over on the track in front of it and in less time than it takes to write it he was run over and terribly injured. He was picked up by some employes and carried into the switch house where he was made as comfortable as possible until the ambulance which had been summoned arrived, when the injured man was taken to the hospital. An examination of his injuries showed that the left leg was completely crushed below the knee and would have to be amputated. The right leg was crushed below the knee and it was thought it would not require amputation. When Stong was told that he would have to lose his legs or his life, he stoutly refused to have the operation performed and all that was said to him could not induce him to submit to the operation. The only thing that can be done if he persists in that line is that he will die of blood poisoning. He may decide to have the member taken off this morning and his life may yet be saved.

Stong came to this city some time since from McCoyville, Juniata Co., and was employed as a laborer by the company. He is 20 years of age and boards at 1005 Fourth avenue. His parents and other near relatives living in Juniata county were informed of the accident and some of them are expected to arrive in this city this morning.—Altoona Tribune January 21st. The funeral of Stong took place last Sunday, January 24, interment in Lutheran grave yard, near McCoyville.

SHORT LOCALS.

Squire C. B. Horning is quite ill. Edward Ellis is suffering with the grip. Huntingdon reformatory has 500 prisoners. Venus and Jupiter now are the evening stars.

The Huntingdon Journal is 57 years old this month. Blaine will be 62 years old next Sunday January 31st. Boys had a day or two of skating on the pavements last week.

Lewistown has been made a flag station for Keystone express. Mount Pleasant, Walker township, has a flourishing literary society. Dr. Dowd Crawford spent a couple of days last week in Philadelphia.

J. N. Thompson of Middleburg, was in town on Saturday evening. Miss Harriett Parker of Lewistown visited friends in town on Monday. Within the past 12 months 15 young ladies have been married in the two towns.

Mrs. Nankville of Licking Creek Valley aged 71 years, died on the 17th of present month. Rufus Elder and Horace Culbertson of Lewistown were on professional business in town on Saturday. Among those who were present at the Merick Allison wedding was Editor Morrison and wife of Newton-Hamilton.

George B. Orfady and Thomas S. Johnston are talked about as probable candidates for Congress in Huntingdon Co. Mrs. Joseph Butt, of Patterson, fell on the ice, in the yard, in the rear of her house, one day last week, and broke an arm.

As we go to press there is no report of the Lewistown conference at hand. The next coming report will not spoil for want of immediate publication. Last Friday afternoon Happy Holger's school came to town and engaged in a spelling match with pupils of the town free schools in the public school house.

The Lewistown Academy has again changed hands. It seems to be as changeable as the seasons. The truth is, the state normal schools have uprooted the academies. Beaver Snyder County Herald.—Mr. Philip Harley, of East Salem, Juniata Co., has been spending several days with the family of his son, W. E. Harley, at this place.

Farm lands in the Eastern counties are advancing in price and the boom will soon reach us. Call at B. F. Barefield's Real Estate office and buy now while you can buy cheap. Col. John J. Patterson was again taken severely ill at Wilkesbarre last week, and on Saturday despatched for his sons John and Silas, his daughter Mary has been with him ever since his first illness.

At a recent meeting of the Juniata county Horse Insurance Company, located at Thompsontown, Jonathan Keiser was elected president; Dr. I. N. Grubb, secretary; R. W. Humphrey, assistant secretary, and Uriah Shuman, treasurer. A festival will be held by the Epworth League of the Methodist Church, on the 4th, 5th and 6th of February, in the Odd Fellows' building. Oysters, ice cream, cake and other delicacies will be served. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Jeremiah Keller slipped on the floor in her house in Patterson last Wednesday evening, and in falling, threw her hand upon a hot stove, burning it quite severely. Dr. Crawford rendered the necessary surgical assistance. J. M. Wright has been made chairman of the Democratic State Committee. If Wright is as successful at sending false statements as his predecessor Kerr was, Democratic newspapers in the state may prepare themselves for a plentiful crop of libel suits.

At a meeting of the Juniata Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company held at McAlisterville, the following directors were elected for the current year: Joseph Rothrock, Luke Davis, George Martin, Jonathan Keiser, J. T. Smith, R. W. Humphrey, J. Banks Willson, W. H. Knoese, Joseph Seiber. The holy communion will be administered in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. S. Milton Frost D.D., will preach in the morning on "The Certainties of Heaven." Rev. J. M. Lantz, the Presiding Elder of Juniata District, will preach in the evening. All are cordially invited.

Mr. Elinh Benner of Thompsontown, died on the 22nd inst., aged about 76 years. He had that day enjoyed reasonably fair health, and attended to his business affairs satisfactorily. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when he and his wife were in their room that he suddenly sank to the floor, and before Mrs. Benner could call in friends his spirit had left its earthly tenement and passed into the great unknown future. Mr. Benner was a native of Chester county, Pa., and came to Juniata about thirty years ago. He was a valuable accession, for, as a citizen his influence was always in the direction of right. He was dignified, courteous and kind and he possessed business qualifications of a high order which enabled him to succeed in the pursuits in which he engaged. The community at large recognizes his worth, and feel that one of the best has been taken from among them, and his immediate friends and relatives keenly realize the loss they have sustained in his demise.

A corn supper will be held in the United Presbyterian church in Mexico on Saturday evening, January 30, 1892. All are cordially invited to attend.

An Inventive Postmaster.

Post master McCauley has invented a new clasp for closing United States mail pouches. His invention promises to be an improvement over the present method of closing the pouch in this, that the pouch may be opened or shut in a great deal less time than by the pouch fastenings that are now in use.

Fingers Sawed Off.

Eli Dunn, met with an accident on the morning of the 20th inst., at his mill two miles north of town. Mr. Dunn and sons to accommodate the peach box trade, had a saw-mill attached to the machinery of Cuba flouring mill, and it was while sawing peach box slats on the morning before he realized it the circular saw caught the glove on his left hand and before he realized it the hand was drawn under the teeth. The two outside fingers were cut off close up to the knuckles of the hand, the two fingers next the thumb were deeply cut and about a half inch of the thumb was sawn off. It is a painful injury but not near a vital part. Mr. Dunn and his sons were getting along nicely with Cuba mill and the community sympathizes with them in this misfortune that has overtaken the father. Dr. Lucien and Dr. William Banks have the case in charge, and Mr. Dunn is getting along as well as can be expected.

For a Time.

I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen. This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Ceramic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and have no hesitations in saying that taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully, JOSEPH HESS, Mifflintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1892.

A Golden Nugget.

A strange novelty is this golden table corn, with its beautiful rich cream color. It is claimed by those who know it that it is very sweet, early and tender, and a superior corn. We notice Vick recommends it very highly. The Floral Guide, which comes to us bringing a bouquet of Carnations on the front cover with a splendid bunch of Brilliant Poppies on the back, gives full description of this new corn, which is only 15 cents a packet. Vick's Floral is worthy a place in the home of anyone who expects to make a garden the coming spring. By all means send ten cents to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for the Guide, and you can deduct this amount from your first order. It will pay you well.

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We knew it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1 at all drug-gists.

Bloomfield Times Jan. 19.—The population of this town is growing rapidly. No less than four boys being the additions within a short time. * * * On Monday last while Mr. Joseph was butchering at William Roberts in Center township, he took a little exercise at wrestling which resulted in his having two of his ribs fractured. He has a pretty sore time of it but he hopes soon to be able to try it again. * * * Mr. John Pennico accompanied by his wife and little child, had a narrow escape from drowning, on Monday evening. They were on their way home from town where they had been to market and occupied one seat in a carriage drawn by one horse. The road runs close to Shermans creek, which is now six feet above low water mark. The horse became unmanageable and backed the carriage into the stream. The strong current carried them down until a snag along the bank caught in the clothing of Mrs. Pennico, and she with the child in her arms was saved. Mr. Pennico succeeded in getting to shore also, but the horse was drowned and with the carriage was carried away by the mad turbulent water.
